To the Christian Reader.

BEsidēs the manifolde and continuall benefits which Almighty God bestoweth vpon vs, both corporall and spirituall, wee are especially bound (deare brethren) to giue him thanks without ceasing for his great grace and vnspeakeable mercies; in that he hath pleased him to call vs vnto this marueilous light of his Gospel, and mercifully to regarde vs after so horrible backsliding and falling away from Christ to Antichrist, from light to darkenesse, from the liuing God to dumme and dead idoles, and that after so cruell murder of Gods Saints, as alas, hath beene among vs, we are not altogether cast off, as were the Israelites, and many others for the like, or not so manifest wickednes, but receiued againe to grace with most euident signes and tokens of Gods especiall loue and fauour. To the intent therefore that we may not be vnmindfull of these great mercies, but seeke by all meanes (according to our duety) to be thankfull for the same, it behoueth vs so to walke in his feare and loue, that all the dayes of our life we may procure the glory of his holy Name. Now forasmuch as this thing chiefly is attained by the knowledge and praising of the word of God (which is the light to our paths, the key of the kingdome of heauen, our comfort in affliction, our shield & sword against Satan, the schole of all wisdom, the glasse wherein we behold Gods face, the testimony of his fauour, and the onely foode and nourishment of our soules) we thought that we could bestow our labours and study in nothing which could bee more acceptable to God and comfortable to his Church, then in the translating of the holy Scriptures into our native tongue: the which thing albeit that diuers heretofore haue indeuoured to archiue: yet considering the infancie of those times and imperfect knowledge of the tongues, in respect of this ripe age and cleare light which God hath now reueiled, the translations required greatly to be perused and reformed. Not that we vendicate any thing to our selues about the least of our brethre (for God knoweth with what feare and trembling we haue bene for the space of two yeeres and more day and night occupied herein) but being earnestly desired, and by diuers, whose learning and godlinesse we reuerence, exhorted, and also encouraged by the ready wils of such, whose hearts God likewise touched, not to spare any charges for the furtherance of such a benefit and fauour of God toward his Church (though the time was then most dangerous and the persecution sharpe and furious) wee submitted our selues at length to their godly iudgements, and seeing the great opportunitie and occasions, which God presented vnto vs in his Church, by reason of so many godly and learned men, and such diuersities of translations in diuers tongues: we vndertooke this great and wonderfull worke (with all reuerence, as in the presence of God, as intreating the word of God whereunto we thinke our selues vnsufficient) which now God according to his diuine providence and mercie hath directed to a most prosperous end. And this we may with good conscience protest, that wee haue in euery point and word, according to the measure of that knowledge which it pleased Almighty God to giue vs, faithfully rendred the text, and in all hard places most sincerely expounded the same. For God is our witnesse, that we haue by all meanes endeououred to set forth the puritie of the word, and right sence of the holy Ghost, for the edifying of the brethren in faith and charitie.

Now as we haue chiefly obserued the sence, and laboured alwayes to restore it to all integrity: so haue we most reuerently kept the propriety of the words, considering that the Apostles, who spake and wrote to the Gentiles in the Greeke tongue, rather constrained them to the liuely phrase of the Ebrew, then enterprised farre by mollifying their language, to speake as the Gentiles did. And for this and other causes we haue in many places referred the Ebrew phrases, notwithstanding that they may seeme somewhat hard in their eares that are not well practised, and also delight in the sweete founding phrases of the holy Scriptures. Yet lest either the simple should be discouraged, or the malicious haue any occasion of iust cauillation, seeing some translations read after one sort, & some after another, whereas all may serue to good purpose and edification, we haue in the margent noted that diuersity of speech or reading which may also seeme agreeable to the minde of the holy Ghost, and proper for our language with this marke, ||| Againe, whereas the Ebrew speech seemed hardly to agree with ours, we haue noted it in the margent after this sort, † vnto that which was more intelligible. And albeit that many of the Ebrew names be altered fro the old text, and restored to the true writing and first original, whereof they haue their signification, yet in the vsuall names little is changed for feare of troubling the simple Readers. Moreover, whereas the necessitie of the sentence required any thing to be added (for such is the grace and property of the Ebrew and Greeke tongues, that it cannot but either by circumlocution, or by adding the verbe or some word, be vnderstand of them that are not well practised therein) we haue put it in the text with another kind of letter, that it may easily be discerned from the comon letter. As touching the diuision of the verses, we haue followed the Ebrew examples, which haue so fro the beginning distinguished them. Which thing as it is most profitable for memory, so doth it agree with the best translations, and is most easie to finde out both by the best Concordances, and also by the quotations which we haue diligently herein perused and set forth by this *. Besides this, the principall matters are noted and distinguished by this marke ¶ Yea, and the arguments both for the booke and for Chapters with the number of the verse are added, that by all meanes the Reader might be holpen. For the which cause also we haue set ouer the head of euery Page, some notable word or sentence which may greatly further aswell for memory as for the chiefe point of the Page. And considering how hard a thing it is to vnderstand the holy Scriptures, and what errors, sects and heresies grow daily for lacke of the true knowledge therof, and how many are discouraged (as they pretend) because they cannot attaine to the true and simple meaning of the same, we haue also induoured both by the diligent reading of the best Commentaries, and also by the conference with the godly and learned brethren, to gather briefe Annotations vpon all the hard places, aswell for the vnderstanding of such words as are obscure, and for the declaration of the text, as for the amplification of the same, as may most appertaine to Gods glory, and the edification of his Church. Furthermore, whereas certaine places in the bookes of Moses; of the Kings, and Ezekiel seemed so darke, that by no description they could be made easie to the simple Reader, we haue so set them foorth with figures & notes for the full declaration thereof, that they which cannot by iudgement, being holpen by the Annotations noted by the letters a.b.c.&c. attaine thereunto, yet by the perspectiue, & as it were by the eye, may sufficiently know the true meaning of all such places, whereunto also we haue added certaine Mappes of Cosmographie, which necessarily serue for the perfect vnderstanding and memory of diuers places and Countreys, partly described, and partly by occasion touched, both in the Old and New Testament.

Finally, that nothing might lacke which might be bought by labours, for the increase of knowledge & furtherance of Gods glory, there are adioyned two most profitable Tables, the one seruing for the interpretation of the Ebrew names: and the other conteyning all the chiefe and principall matters of the whole Bible: so that nothing (as we trust) that any could iustly desire, is omitted. Therefore, as brethren that are partakers of the same hope and saluation with vs, we beseech you, that this rich Pearle and inestimable treasure may not be offered in vaine, but as sent from God to the people of God, for the increase of his kingdome, the comfort of his Church, and discharge of our conscience, whom it hath pleased him to raise vp for this purpose, so you would willingly receiue the word of God, earnestly study it, and in all your life practise it, that ye may now appeare indeed to be the people of God, not walking any more according to this world, but in the fruits of the Spirit, that God in vs may be fully glorified, through IESVS CHRIST our Lord, who liueth and reigneth for euer,

THE FIRST BOOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

* GENESIS.

THE ARGUMENT.

Moses in effect declareth three things which are in this booke chiefly to be considered. First, that the world, and all things therein were created by God, and that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderfull workes, and to praise his Name for the infinite graces, wherewith he had endued him, fell willingly from God through disobedience, who yet for his owne mercies sake restored him to life, and confirmed him in the same by his promise of Christ to come, by whom he should overcome Satan, death, and hell. Secondly, that the wicked, unkindfull of Gods most excellent benefits remained still in their wickednesse, and so falling most horribly from sinne to sinne, provoked God (who by his Preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to destroy the whole world. Thirdly, he assureth us by the examples of Abraham, Isaac, Iacob, and the rest of the Patriarches, that his mercies neuer faile them, whom he chuseth to be his Church, and to professe his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and persecutions he ever assisteth them, sendeth comfort, and delivereth them. And because the beginning, increase, preservation, and successe thereof might bee onely attributed to God, Moses sheweth by the examples of Kain, Ishmael, Esau, and others, which were noble in mans iudgement, that this Church dependeth not on the estimation and nobilitie of the world: and also by the fewnesse of them, which haue at all times worshipped him purely according to his word, that it standeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and despised, in the small flocke and little number, that man in his wisdom might be confounded, and the Name of God euermore praised.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heauen and the earth, 3 The Light and the darkenesse, 8 The firmament. 9 He separateth the water from the earth, 16 He createth the Sunne, the Moone, and the Starres. 21 He createth the fish, birdes, beasts, 26 He createth man, and giueth him rule over all creatures, 29 And prouideth nouriture for man and beaſt.

In the beginning God created the Heauen and the Earth.

2 And the earth was without forme & void, and darkenesse was vpon the deepe, and the Spirit of God mooued vpon the waters.

3 Then God said, * Let there be Light: And there was Light.

4 And God saw the Light that it was good, and God separated the Light from the darkenesse.

5 And God called the Light, Day, and the darkenesse, he called Night. * So the euening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ Again God said, * Let there be a firmament in the mids of the waters: and let it separate the waters from the waters.

7 Then God made the firmament, and separated the waters, which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were about the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament, Heauen. * So the euening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ God said againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appeare: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth: and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, ^h Let the earth budde forth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seed, the fruitfull tree, which beareth fruit according to his kinde, which hath his seed in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seed according to his kinde, also the tree that beareth fruit, which hath his seed in it selfe according to his kinde: and God saw that it was good.

13 * So the euening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, * Let there be lights in the firmament of the heauen, to¹ separate the day from the night, and let them bee for² signes, and for seasons, and for dayes and yeeres.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen to give light vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 God then made two³ great lights: the greater light⁴ to rule the day, & the lesse light to rule the night: he made also the starres.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.

18 And to⁵ rule in the day, & in the night, and to separate the Light from the darkenesse: and God saw that it was good.

19 So the Euening and the Morning were the fourth day.

20 Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance euery⁶ creeping thing that hath life: and let the foule flye vpon the earth in the open firmament of the heauen.

21 Then God created the great whales, and euery thing liuing and mouing, which the waters brought forth in abundance according to their kinde, and euery fethered foule according to his kinde: and God saw that it was good.

22 Then God blessed them, saying, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the waters in the Seas, and let the foule multiply in the earth.

23 So the Euening and the Morning were the fifth day.

24 Moreover God saide, Let the earth bring forth the liuing thing according to his kinde, cattell, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth, according to his kinde, and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kind, and the cattell according to his kinde, and euery creeping thing of the earth according to his kinde. And God saw that it was good.

26 Furthermore God said, * Let vs make man in our⁷ image according to our likenesse, and let them rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, & ouer the beasts, and ouer all the earth, and ouer euery thing that creepeth and moueth on the earth.

27 Thus God created the man in his Image: in the image of God created he him: he created them⁸ male and female.

28 And God blessed them, and God said to them, * Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer euery beast that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I haue giuen vnto you⁹ euery herbe bearing seed, which is vpon all the earth, and euery tree, wherein is the fruit of a tree bearing seed: * that shall bee to you for meat.

30 Likewise to euery beast of the earth, and to euery foule of the heauen, & to euery thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hath life in it selfe, euery greene herbe shall be for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw all that hee had made, and loe, it was very good. So the Euening and the Morning were the sixth day.

CHAP. II.

1 God reffecth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. 15 Hee setteth man in the Garden. 22 Hee createth the woman. 24 Man is ordained.

Thus the heauens and the earth were finished, and all the¹⁰ hoste of them.

2 For in the seventh day God ended his worke which hee had made, and the seventh day he¹¹ rested from all his worke, which he had made.

3 So God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had created and made.

4 These are the¹² generations of the heauens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,

5 And euery plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to¹³ raine vpon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground,

6 But a mist went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 The Lord God also made the man¹⁴ of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing foule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to grow euery tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the tree of life also in the middes of the Garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and of euill.

10 And out of Eden went a riuer to water the Garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heads.

11 The name of one is Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of Hauilah, where is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is Belium, and the Onix stone.

13 And the name of the second riuer is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of Cush.

14 The name also of the third riuer is Hiddekel: this goeth toward the Eastside of Asshur: and the fourth riuer is Perath.

15 Then the Lord God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might¹⁵ dresse it and keepe it.

16 And God would not haue man idle, though as yet there was no need to labour,

THE SITUATION OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN

As because mention is made in that ninth verse of this Chapter, of the river that watered the Garden, we must note that Euphrates and Tigris, called in Hebrew, Perath and Hiddekel, were called but one river where they joyned together, & so they had four names: That is, two at their springs, and two where they fell into the Persian sea. In this country and most plentiful land Adam dwelt, and this was called Paradise, that is, a garden of pleasure, because of the fruitfulness and abundance thereof. And whereas it is said that Pishon compasseth the land of Hamath, it is meant of Tigris, which in some country, as it is passed by divers places, was called by sundry names, as sometimes Digliss, in other places, Pashygris, and of some Phasin or Pishon. Likewise Euphrates toward the country of Cush or Ethiopia, or Arabia, was called Gihon. So that Tigris and Euphrates (which were but two rivers, and sometime when they joyned together were called after onename) were according to divers places called by these four names, so that they might seeme to have bene four divers rivers.

CHAP. III.

1 The woman seduced by the serpent, 6 Enticeth her husband to sinne. 8 They both flee from God. 14 They three are punished. 15 Christ is promised. 19 Man is dust. 23 Man is cast out of Paradise.

4 Then the serpent said to the woman,
Ye shall not die at all.

5 But God doth know that when ye shall eate thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods,^c knowing good and euill.

11 And he said, Who told thee, that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 Then the man said, The woman which thou^k gavest to be with me; she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13. And the Lord God said to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God said to the serpent, ^m Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and ⁿ dust shalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.

16 ¶ Vnto the woman he said, I will greatly increase thy sorrowes, and thy conceptions. In sorow shalt thou bring forth children, and thy desire shall be subiect to thine husband, and he shall rule ouer thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adam he said, Because thou hast obeyed the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, (whereof I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it) curled is the earth for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the daves of thy life.

Afterward the man knew Heuah his wife, in which he continued and bare Kain, and said, I have obtained a man by the Lord.
And again she brought forth his brother Habel, and Habel was a keeper of the sheep, and Kain was a tiller of the ground.

3 ¶ And in proceſſe of time it came to paſſe, that Kain brought an oblation vnto the Lord of the fruit of the ground.

And Habel also himselfe brought of the first fruits of his sheepe, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had respect vnto * Habel, and to his offering.

But vnto Kain and to his offering hee had no regard: wherefore Kain was exceeding wroth, and his countenance fell downe.

6 Then the Lord said vnto Kain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast downe?

7 If thou doe well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sinne lieth at the doore: also vnto thee his desire standeth be subject and thou shalt rule over him.

8 ¶ Then Kain spake to Habel his brother. And * when they were in the field, Kain rose vp against Habel his brother, & slew him 12 When thou shalt till the ground, it shall not henceforth yeeld vnto thee her strength a vagabond and a runnagate shalt thou be in the earth.

16 Then Kain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod toward the Eastside of Eden.

17 Kain also knew his wife, which conceived and bare Henoch: and he built a city, and called the name of the city by the name of his sonne, Henoch.

18 And to Henoch was borne Irad, and Irad begate Methusael, and Methusael begate Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech tooke to him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Iabal, who was the father of such as dwell in the tents, and of such as have cattell.

21 And his brothers name was Tubal, who was the father of all that play on the harpe and organs.

22 And Zillah also bare Tubal-kain, who wrought cunningly euery craft of brasie and of yron: and the sister of Tubal-kain was Naamah.

23 Then Lamech said vnto his wives Adah and Zillah, Heare my voice, yee wives of Lamech: hearken vnto my speech: for I would slay a man in my wound, and a yong man in mine hurt.

26 And to the same Sheth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enosh. Then began men to call vpon the name of the Lord.

1 The genealogie, 5 age and death of Adam. 6 His succession vnto Noah, and his children. 24 Henoch was taken away.

THIS is the booke of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the likenesse of God made he him.

2 Male and female created hee them, and blessed them, and called their name Adam in the day that they were created.

3 ¶ Now Adam liued an hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate a childe in his owne likenesse after his image, and called his name Sheth.

4 * And the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundredth yeeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

5 So all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundredth and thirtie yeeres: and he died.

6 And Sheth liued an hundredth and fiue yeeres, and begate Enosh.

7 And Sheth liued, after he begate Enosh, eight hundredth and seven yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

8 So all the dayes of Sheth were nine hundredth and twelue yeeres: and he died.

9 ¶ Also Enosh liued ninetie yeeres, and begate Kenan.

10 And Enosh liued, after he begate Kenan, eight hundredth and fiftene yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

11 So all the daies of Enosh were nine hundredth and fiue yeeres: and he died.

12 ¶ Likewise Kenan liued seventy yeeres, and begate Mahalaleel.

13 And Kenan liued, after he begate Mahalaleel, eight hundredth and fortie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 So all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundredth and ten yeeres: and he died.

15 ¶ Mahalaleel also liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Iered.

16 Also Mahalaleel liued, after he begate Iered, eight hundredth and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

17 So all the dayes of Mahalaleel were eight hundredth ninetie and fiue yeeres: and he died.

18 ¶ And Iered liued an hundredth and sixtie and two yeeres, and begate Henoch.

19 Then Iered liued after he begate Henoch, eight hundredth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 So all the daies of Iered, were nine hundredth sixtie and two yeeres: and he died.

21 ¶ Also Henoch liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Methushelah.

22 And Henoch ^f walked with God, after he begate Methushelah, three hundredth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

23 So all the dayes of Henoch were three hundredth sixtie and fiue yeeres.

24 And Henoch walked with God, and he was no more seene: for God tooke him away.

25 Methushelah also liued an hundredth eightie and seven yeeres, and begate Lamech.

26 And Methushelah liued, after he begate Lamech, seven hundredth eighty and two yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

27 So all the dayes of Methushelah were nine hundredth sixty & nine yeeres: and he died.

28 ¶ Then Lamech liued an hundredth eightie and two yeeres, and begate a sonne, 29 And called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort vs concerning our worke and sorow of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed.

30 And Lamech liued, after he begate Noah, five hundredth ninety and fiue yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

31 So all the dayes of Lamech were seven hundredth seventy and seven yeeres: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundredth yeere old. And Noah begate Shem, Ham and Iapheth.

3 Therefore the Lord said, My Spirit shall not alway ^d strue with man, because he is but flesh, and his dayes shall be an hundred and twentie yeeres.

4 There were ^e giants in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in old time were men ^f of renoune.

13 The flood ceaseth. 16 Noah is commanded to come forth of the Arke with his. 20 Hee sacrificeth to the Lord. 22 God promiseth that all things shall continue in their first order.

NOW God^a remembred Noah, and beuery beast, & all the cattell that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceased.

2 The fountaines also of the deepe, and the windowes of heauen were stopped, and the raine from heauen was restrained,

3 And the waters returned from about the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundredth & fiftieth day the waters abated.

4 And in the^e seuenth moneth, in the seuenteenth day of the moneth, the Arke[†] rested vpon the mountaines of[†] Ararat.

5 And the waters were going and decreasing vntill the^d tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth were the tops of the mountaines scene.

6 ¶ So[†] after forty dayes, Noah opened the window of the Arke, which he had made;

7 And sent forth a "Rauen, which went out, going forth and returning, vntill the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.

8 Again he sent a "Doue from him, that hee might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth.

9 But the Dove found no rest for the sole of her foote: therefore she returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) and he^e put forth his hand, and receiued her, & tooke her to him into the arke.

10 And he abode yet other seuen daies, and againe he sent forth the Dove out of the Arke.

11 And the Dove came to him in the evening, and loe, in her[†] mouth was an[†] olive leafe that she had pluckt: wherby Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 Notwithstanding hee waited yet other seuen dayes, and sent forth the Dove, which returned not againe vnto him any more.

13 ¶ And in the fixe hundredth and one yeere, in the first day of the^g first moneth, the waters were dried vp from off the earth: and Noah remoued the couering of the Arke, and looked, and behold, the vpper part of the ground was drie, 14 And in the second moneth, in the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth drie.

15 ¶ Then God spake to Noah, saying,

16^h Goe forth of the Arke; thou and thy wife, and thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wiues with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee euery beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both fowle and cattell, and euery thing that creepeth and mooueth vpon the earth, that they may breede abundantly in the earth, and bring forth fruit and increase vpon the earth.

18 So Noah came forth, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him.

19 Euery beast, euery creeping thing, and euery foule, all that mooueth vpon the earth after their kinds went out of the Arke.

20 ¶ Then Noahⁱ built an altar to the Lord, and tooke of euery cleane beast, and of euery cleane foule, and offered burnt offerings vpon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a[†] sauer of rest, and the Lord said in his heart, I wil henceforth curse the ground no more for mans cause: for the imagination of mans^{*} heart is euill, euen from his youth: neither will I smite any more all things liuing, as I haue done.

l When men shall see my bow in the heauen, they shall know that I haue not forgotten my covenant with them.

And God blessed Noah and his sonnes, and said to them, Bring forth fruit, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 Also the feare of you, and the dread of you shall be vpon every beast of the earth, and vpon every foule of the heauen, vpon all that mooueth on the earth, and vpon all the fishes of the sea: into your hand are they deliuered.

3 Euery thing that mooueth and lieth, shall be meat for you: as the greene herbe, haue I giuen you all things.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, I mean, with the blood thereof, shal ye not eate.

5 For surely I will require your blood, wherein your liues are: at the hand of euery beast will I require it: and at the hand of man, euen at the hand of a mans brother will I require the life of man.

6 Who so sheddeth mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God hath he made man.

7 But bring yee forth fruit and multiplie: grow plentifully in the earth, and increase therein.

8 God spake also to Noah, and to his sonnes with him, saying,

9 Behold, I, euen I establish my Covenant with you, and with your seed after you,

10 And with euery liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattell, and with euery beast of the earth with you, from all that goe out of the Arke, vnto euery beast of the earth.

11 And my Covenant wil I establish with you, that from henceforth all flesh shall not be rooted out by the waters of the Flood, neither shall there be a Flood to destroy the earth any more.

12 Then God said, This is the token of the Covenant which I make betweene me & you, and betweene euery liuing thing, that is with you vnto perpetuall generations.

13 I haue set my Bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a signe of the Covenant betweene me and the earth.

14 And when I shall couer the earth with a cloud, and the bow shall be seen in the cloud, 15 Then will I remember my Covenant, which is betweene me and you, and betweene euery liuing thing in all flesh, and there shall be no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore the Bow shalbe in the cloud, that I may see it, and remember the euerlasting Couenant betweene God, and euery liuing thing in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 God said yet to Noah, This is the signe of the Covenant, which I haue established betweene mee and all flesh that is vpon the earth.

18 Now the sonnes of Noah going forth of the Arke, were Shem and Ham and Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sonnes of Noah, and of them was the whole earth ouerspread.

20 Noah also began to be an husbandman, and planted a vineyard.

21 And hee drunke of the wine, and was drunken, and was vncouered in the middes of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakednesse of his father, hee told his two brethren without.

23 Then tooke Shem and Iapheth a garment, and put it vpon both their shoulders, and went backward, and couered the nakednes of their father with their faces backward: so they saw not their fathers nakednesse.

24 Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, 25 And said, Cursed be Canaan: a seruant of seruants shall he be vnto his brethren.

26 He said moreouer, Blessed bee the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

27 God perswade Iapheth, that hee may dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

28 And Noah liued after the Flood three hundred and fifty yeeres.

29 So all the daies of Noah were nine hundred and fifty yeeres: and he died.

2 The sonnes of Iapheth were Gomer and Magog, and Madai, and Iauan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 Also the sonnes of Iauan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the yles of the Gentiles diuided in their landes, euery man after his tongue, and after their families in their Nations.

6 Moreover, the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Seba and Hauiilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: also the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

9 Hee was a mighty hunter before the Lord, wherefore it is said, As Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land came Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the citie Rehoboth, and Calah:

12 Resen also, betwene Nineveh and Calah: this is a great citie.

13 And Mizraim begate Ludim, and Arnamim, and Lebchim, and Naphruhim:

14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhim (out of whom came the Philistims) and Caphtorims.

15 ¶ Also Canaan begate Zidon his first borne, and Heth:

16 And Jebusi, and Emori, and Girgathi:

17 And Hiti, and Arki, and Sinit:

18 And Aruadi, and Zemari, and Hamathi: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon, as thou comest to Gerar vntill Azzah, and as thou goest vnto Sodom, and Gomorah, and Admah, and Zeboiim, euen vnto Lasha.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham, according to their families, according to their tongues in their countreys, & in their nations.

21 ¶ Vnto Shem also the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Iapheth were children borne.

22 ¶ The sonnes of Shem were Elam and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram:

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Vz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth diuided: and his brothers name was Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begate Almodad and Sheleph, and Hazarmaueth, and Ierah, 27 And Hadoram, and Vzai, and Dicklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Iobab: all these were the sonnes of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreys and nations.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people: and out of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

¶ The building of Babel was the cause of the confusion of tongues. 10 The age and generation of Shem vnto Abram. 31 Abrahams departure from Ur with his father Terah, Sarai and Lot. 32 The age and death of Terah.

Then the whole earth was of one language and one speech.

2 And as they went from the East, they found a plaine in the land of Shinar, and there they abode.

3 And they said one to another, Come, let vs make bricke, and burne it in the fire. So they had brick for stone, and slime had they in stead of mortar.

4 Also they sayd, Go to, let vs build vs a citie and a towre, whose top may reach vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest wee be scattered vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord came downe, to see the citie and towre which the sons of men builded.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people are one, and they all haue one language, and this they begin to doe, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoever they haue imagined to doe.

7 Come on, let vs go downe, and there confound their language, that euery one perceiue not anothers speech.

8 So the Lord scattered them from thence vpon all the earth, and they left off to build the citie.

9 Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatter them vpon all the earth.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred yeere olde, and begate Arpachshad two yeere after the flood.

11 And Shem liued, after hee begate Arpachshad, fise hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

12 Also Arpachshad liued fise and thirtie yeeres, and begate Shelah.

13 And Arpachshad liued, after hee begate Shelah, foure hundred and three yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And Shelah liued thirtie yeeres, and begate Eber.

15 So Shelah liued, after hee begate Eber, foure hundred and three yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

17 So Eber liued, after hee begate Peleg, foure hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

18 And Peleg liued thirty yeeres, and begate Reu.

19 ¶ And Peleg liued after hee begate Reu, two hundred and nine yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 Also Reu liued two and thirtie yeeres, and begate Serug.

21 So Reu liued, after hee begate Serug, two hundred and seven yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

23 And Sorug lived after he begate Nahor, two hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty yeres, and begate Terah.

25 So Nahor lived, after he begate Terah, an hundred and nineteen yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

26 So Terah lived seutene yeres, and begate Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

28 Then Haran died before Terah his father, in the land of his natiuitie, in Vr of the Caldees.

29 So Abram and Nahor tooke them wives. The name of Abrams wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahors wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Isaac.

30 But Sarai was barren, and had no child.

31 Then Terah tooke Abram his sonne, and Lot the sonne of Haran, his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in law, his sonnes Abrams wife: and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to go into the land of Canaan, & they came to Haran, and dwelt there.

32 So the dayes of Terah were two hundred and five yeres, and Terah died in Haran.

C H A P. XII.

1 Abram by Gods commandment goeth to Canaan. 3 Christ is promised. 7 Abram buildeth altars for exercise and declaration of his faith among the Infidels. 10 Because of the dearth he goeth into Egypt. 15 Pharaoh taketh his wife, and is punished.

For the Lord had said vnto Abram, * * * Get thee out of thy countrey, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers house vnto the land that I will shew thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and will blesse thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be a blessing.

3 I will also blesse them that blesse thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, euen as the Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him. (And Abram was seutye and fuyee re olde, when he departed out of Haran)

5 Then Abram tooke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that they possessed, and the soules that they had gotten in Haran, and they departed, to go to the land of Canaan: and to the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ So Abram passed through the land vnto the place of Shechem, & vnto the plaine of Moreh (and the Canaanite was then in the land)

7 And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, and said, Vnto thy seed will I giue this land,

And there builded he an altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.

8 Afterward reuoluing thence vnto a mountaine Eastward from Beth-el, he pitched his tent hauing Beth-el on the West side, and Haai on the East: and there he built an altar vnto the Lord, and called on the Name of the Lord.

9 Again Abram went forth going and iourneying toward the South.

10 ¶ Then there came a famine in the land, wherefore Abram went downe into Egypt to sojourn there: for there was a great famine in the land.

11 And when he drew nere to enter into Egypt, hee said to Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a faire woman, to look upon.

12 Therefore it will come to passe, that when the Egyptians see thee, they will say, Shee is his wife: so will they kill me, but they will keepe thee aliue.

13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my life may be preserved by thee.

14 ¶ Now when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for she was very faire.

15 And the Princes of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her vnto Pharaoh: so the woman was taken into Pharaohs house.

16 Who intreated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheepe, and becues, and hee asses, and men seruants: and maid seruants, and shee asses, and camels.

17 But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 Then Pharaoh called Abram, and said, Why hast thou done this vnto mee? Wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that shee was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, Shee is my sister, that I should take her to be my wife? Now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and goe thy way.

20 And Pharaoh gaue men commandment concerning him: and they conueyed him forth, and his wife, and all that he had.

had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the Name of the Lord.

¶ And Lot also who went with Abram, had sheepe, and cattell, and tents.

6 So that the land could not beare them, shat they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 Also there was debate betwene the herdmen of Abrams cattell and the herdmen of Lots cattell, (and the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled at that time in the land.)

8 Then said Abram vnto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, betwene thee and me, neither between mine herdmen and thine herdmen: for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? depart, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right: or if thou goe to the right hand, then I will take the left.

10 So when Lot lifted vp his eyes, hee saw that all the plaine of Iorden was watered euery where: (for before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorah, it was as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest vnto Zoar)

11 Then Lot chose vnto him all the plaine of Iorden, and tooke his iourney from the East: and they departed the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen vnto Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked, and exceeding sinners against the Lord.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift vp thine eyes now, and looke from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward and Westward:

15 For all the land, which thou seeest, will I giue vnto thee, and to thy seede for euer.

16 And I will make thy feede, as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seede be numbered.

17 Arise, walke through the land, in the length thereof, and bredth thereof: for I will giue it vnto thee.

18 Then Abram remooued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and builded there an altar vnto the Lord.

3 All these ioyned together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelue yeres were they subiect to Chedor-laomer, but in the thirteenth yeere they rebelled.

7 And they returned and came to Enmishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwell in Hazezon-tamar.

8 Then went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar: and they ioyned battell with them in the vale of Siddim:

9 To wit, with Chedor-laomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: foure kings against fiue.

10 Now the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorah fled, and fel there: and the residue fled to the mountaine.

11 Then they tooke all the substance of Sodom and Gomorah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 They tooke Lot also Abram brothers sonne, and his substance, (for he dwelt at Sodom) and departed.

13 ¶ Then came one that had escaped, and tolde Abram the Ebrew, which dwelt in the plaine of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner, which were confederate with Abram.

14 When Abram heard that his brother was taken, he brought forth of them that were borne and brought vp in his house, three hundred & eightene, & pursued them vnto Dan.

15 Then he, and his seruants diuided themselves against them by night, and smote them, and pursued them vnto Hobah, which is on the left side of Damascus.

16 And he recovered all the substance, and also brought againe his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also and the people.

17 ¶ After that hee returned from the slaughter of Chedor-laomer, and of the kings that were with him, came the king of Sodom forth to meete him in the valley of Shauh, which is the kings dale.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Abrams name is changed to confirme him in the promise. 2 The Land of Canaan is the first time promised. 3 Circumcision is instituted. 4 Sarai is named Sarah. 5 Abraham prayeth for Ishmael. 6 Izhak is promised. 7 Abraham and his house are circumcised.

When Abram was ninetie yeere olde, and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said vnto him, I am God || all sufficient. * walke before me, and be thou || vp right.

2 And I wil make my couenant betweene mee and thee, and I will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 Beholde, I make my Couenant with thee, and thou shalt be a * father of many nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more bee called Abram, but thy name shall bee Abraham: * for a father of many nations haue I made thee.

6 Also I will make thee exceeding fruitfull, and will make nations of thee: yea, kings shall proceed of thee.

7 Moreouer, I will establish my Couenant betweene mee and thee, and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an * euerlasting couenant, to bee God vnto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will giue thee and thy seed after thee the land, wherein thou art a stranger, even all the land of Canaan for an euerlasting possession, and I will be their God.

9 Againe God saide vnto Abraham, Thou also shalt keepe my Couenant, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 This is my Couenant which yee shall keepe betweene me and you, and thy seed after thee, * Let euery man-child among you be circumcised:

11 That is, ye shall circumcise the foreskin of your flesh, and it shall be a * signe of the couenant betweene me and you.

12 And euery man-childe of eight dayes olde among you, shall be circumcised in your generations, as well he that is borne in thine house, as he that is bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is borne in thine house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needes be circumcised: so my couenant shall be in your flesh for an euerlasting Couenant.

14 But the vncircumcised * man-childe, in whose flesh the foreskinne is not circumcised, even that person shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my Couenant.

15 Afterward God said vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will blesse her, and will also giue thee a sonne of her, yea, I will blesse her, and she shall be the mother of nations: Kings also of people shall come of her.

17 Then Abraham fell vpon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a childe be borne vnto him, that is an hundreth yeere olde? and shall Sarah that is ninetie yeere old beare?

18 And Abraham said vnto God, Oh, that Ishmael might liue in thy sight.

19 Then God said, * Sarah thy wife shall beare thee a sonne in deed, and thou shalt call his name Izhak: and I will establish my couenant with him for an * euerlasting Couenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as concerning Ishmael, I haue heard thee: loc, I haue blessed him, and will make him fruitfull, and will multiply him t exceedingly: twelue princes shall he beget, and I will make a great nation of him.

21 But my Couenant will I establish with Izhak, which Sarah shall beare vnto thee, the next * yeere at this season.

22 And hee left off talking with him, and God went vp from Abraham.

23 Then Abraham tooke Ishmael his sonne, and all that were borne in his house, and all that was bought with his money, that is, euery man-childe among the men of Abrahams house, and he circumcised the foreskin of their flesh in that selfe same day, as God had commanded him.

24 Abraham also himselfe was ninetie yere olde and nine, when the foreskin of his flesh was circumcised.

25 And Ishmael his sonne was thirteene yeere old, when the foreskin of his flesh was circumcised.

26 The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised, ed vnto Abraham. 23 Abraham prayeth for them.

Again the Lord appeared vnto him in the plaine of Mamre, as he sat in his tent doore about the heat of the day.

2 And he lift up his eyes, and looked, and loe, three men stood by him, and when he saw them, he ranne to meete them from the tent doore, and bowed himselfe to the ground.

3 And he said, Lord, If I haue now found fauour in thy sight, goe not, I pray thee, from thy seruant.

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be brought, and wash your feet, and rest your selues vnder the tree.

5 And I will bring a morrell of bread, that you may comfort your hearts: afterward ye shall go your way: for therefore are ye come to your seruant. And they said, Doe euen as thou hast said.

6 Then Abraham made haste into the tent vnto Sarah, and said, Make ready at once three measures of fine meale: knead it, and make cakes vpon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ranne to the beasts, and tooke a tender and good calfe, and gaue it to the seruant, who hastened to make it ready.

8 And he tooke butter and milke, and the calfe, which he had prepared, and set before them, and stood himselfe by them vnder the tree, and they did eate.

9 Then they said to him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he answered, Behold, she is in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly come againe vnto thee according to the time of life: and loe, Sarah thy wife shall haue a sonne. and Sarah heard in the tent doore, which was behind him.

11 (Now Abraham and Sarah were olde and stricken in age, and it ceased to be with Sarah after the maner of women)

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within her selfe, saying, After I am waxed old, and my lord also, shall I haue lust?

13 And the Lord saide vnto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah thus laugh, saying, Shall I certainly beare a childe, which am old?

14 (Shall any thing be hard to the Lord? at the time appointed will I retorne vnto thee, euen according to the time of life, and Sarah shall haue a sonne.)

15 But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for she was afraid. And he said, It is not so: for thou laughedst.

16 Afterward the men did rise vp from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I doe?

18 Seeing that Abraham shall be in deed a great and a mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his sonnes and his household after him, that they keepe the way of the Lord to doe righteousnesse and iudgement, that the Lord may bring vpon Abraham that he hath spoken vnto him. Then the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorah is great, and because their sinne is exceeding grievous, 21 I will goe downe now, and see whether they haue done altogether according to that cry which is come vnto me: and if not, that I may know.

22 And the men turned thence and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

23 Then Abraham drew neere, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 If there be fifty righteous within the citie, wilt thou destroy and not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therein?

25 Be it farre from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be euen as the wicked, be it far from thee. Shall not the iudge of all the world do right?

26 And the Lord answered, If I shall finde in Sodom fifty righteous within the citie, then will I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I haue begun to speake vnto my Lord, and I am but dust and ashes.

28 If there shall lacke fise of fifty righteous, wilt thou destroy all the citie for fise? And he said, If I finde there fise and forty, I will not destroy it.

29 And he yet spake to him againe, & said, What if there shall be found forty there? Then he answered, I will not doe it for forties sake.

30 Again he said, Let not my Lord now be angry, that I speake, What if thirty be found there? Then he said, I will not doe it, if I finde thirty there.

31 Moreouer he said, Behold, now I haue begun to speake vnto my Lord, What if twentie be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twenties sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angry, and I will speake but this once, What if ten be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for tens sake.

33 And the Lord went his way, when he had left communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned vnto his place.

And in the evening there came two Angels to Sodome: and Lot sat at the gate of Sodome, and Lot saw them, and rose vp to meet them, and he bowed himselfe with his face to the ground:

And he said, See my Lords, I pray you turne in now into your seruants house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise vp early and goe your wayes. Who said, Nay, but we will abide in the street all night.

Then he pressed vpon them earnestly, and they turned in to him, and came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake vneleuened bread, and they did eat.

But before they went to bed, the men of the citie, even the men of Sodome compassed the house round about from the yonguent to the old, all the people from all quarters.

Who crying vnto Lot, saide to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them our vnto vs that we may know them.

Then Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and shut the doore after him,

And said, I pray you, my brethren, doe not so wickedly.

Behold now, I haue two daughters, which haue not known man: them will I bring out now vnto you, and doe to them as seemeth you good: onely vnto these men doe nothing: for therefore are they come vnder the shadow of my roofo.

Then they said, Away hence: and they said, He is come alone as a stranger, and shall he iudge and rule? we will now deale worfe with thee then with them. So they pressed fore vpon Lot himselfe, and came to breake the doore.

But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the doore.

Then they smote the men that were at the doore of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they were weary in seeking the doore.

Then the men said vnto Lot, Whom hast thou yet here? either sonne in law, or thy sonnes, or thy daughters, or whatsoeuer thou hast in the city, bring it out of this place,

For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is great before the Lord, and the Lord hath sent vs to destroy it.

Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in law, which married his daughters, and said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord will destroy the city: but he seemed to his sonnes in law, as though he had mocked,

And when the morning arose, the Angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters: which are here, leaue thou be destroyed in the punishment of the city.

And as he prolonged the time, the men caught both him and his wife, and his two daughters by the hands (the Lord being mercifull vnto him) and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

And when they had brought them out, the Angel said, Escape for thy life: looke not behind thee, neither tary thou in all the plaine: escape into the mountaine, lest thou be destroyed.

And Lot said vnto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord.

Behold now, thy seruant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed vnto me in saving my life: and I cannot escape in the mountaine, lest some euill take me, and I die.

See now this city here by to flee vnto, which is a little one: Oh let mee escape thither: is it not a little one, and my soule shall liue?

Then he said vnto him, Behold, I haue receiued thy request also concerning this thing, that I will not ouerthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

Haste thee, saue thee there: for I can doe nothing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the citie was called Zoar.

The Sunne did rise vpon the earth, when Lot entred into Zoar.

Then the Lord rained vpon Sodome and vpon Gomorah brimstone, and fire from the Lord out of heauen,

And ouerthrew those cities, and all the plaine, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that that grew vpon the earth.

Now his wife behinde him looked backe, and she became a pillar of salt.

And Abraham rising vp early in the morning, went to the place, where he had stood before the Lord,

And looking toward Sodome and Gomorah, and toward all the land of the plaine, beheld, he saw the smoke of the land mounting vp as the smoke of a fornace.

But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plaine, God thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, when he ouerthrew the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

Then Lot went vp from Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he feared to tary in Zoar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters.

35 So they made their father drinke wine that night also, and the younger arose, and lay with him, but he perceiued it not, when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, and she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites vnto this day.

38 And the younger bare a sonne also, and she called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites vnto this day.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham dwelleth in a stranger in the land of Gerar. 2 Abimelech taketh away his wife. 3 God reproveth the King. 9 And the King Abraham. 11 Sarah is restored with great gifts. 17 Abraham prayeth, and the King and his are healed.

Afterward Abraham departed thence toward the South countrey, and dwelled betweene Cadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. Then Abimelech King of Gerar sent and tooke Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dreame by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimelech had not yet come neere her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slay euen the righteous nation?

5 Said not he vnto me, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: with an vpright minde, and innocent hands haue I done this.

6 And God said vnto him by a dreame, I know that thou diddest this euen with an vpright minde, and I kept thee also, that thou shouldest not sinne against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now then deliuer the man his wife againe: for he is a Prophet, and he shall pray for thee that thou mayest liue: but if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimelech rising vp early in the morning, called all his seruants, and told all these things vnto them, and the men were fore afraid.

9 Afterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on mee and on my kingdome this great sinne? thou hast done things vnto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 Then Abraham answered, Because I thought thus, Surely the feare of God is not in this place, and they will slay me for my wifes sake.

12 Yet in very deed she is my sister: for she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she is my wife.

13 Now when God caused me to wander out of my fathers house, I said then to her, This is thy kindnesse that thou shalt shew vnto me in all places where we come, Say thou of me, He is my brother.

14 Then tooke Abimelech sheepe and beecus, and men seruants, and women seruants, and gaue them vnto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 Likewise to Sarah he said, Behold, I haue giuen thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is the vaile of thine eyes to all that are with thee, and to all others: and she was thus reprovued.

17 ¶ Then Abraham prayed vnto God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his women seruants: and they bare children.

18 For the Lord had shut vp euery wombe of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abrahams wife.

Now the Lord visited Sarah, as hee had said, and did vnto her according as he had promised.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a sonne in his old age, at the same season that God told him.

3 And Abraham called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sarah bare him, Izhak.

4 Then Abraham circumcised Izhak his sonne, when he was eight dayes old, as God had commanded him.

5 So Abraham was an hundred yere old, when his sonne Izhak was borne vnto him.

6 ¶ Then Sarah said, God hath made me to reioyce: all that heare will reioyce with me.

7 Againe she said, Who would haue said to Abraham, that Sarah should haue giuen children sucke? for I haue borne him a sonne in his old age.

8 Then the child grew and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Izhak was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne vnto Abraham) ^cmocking.

10 Wherefore she said vnto Abraham, ^eCast out this bond-woman and her sonne: for the sonne of this bond-woman shall not be heire with my sonne Izhak.

11 And this thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 ¶ But God said vnto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the childe, and for thy bond-woman: in all that Sarah shall say vnto thee, heare her voice: for in Izhak shall thy seed be ^dcalled.

13 As for the sonne of the bond-woman, I will make him ^ea nation also, because he is thy seed.

14 So Abraham arose vp early in the morning, and tooke bread, and a bottell of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the childe ^falso, and ^fsent her away: who departing, wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And when the water of the bottell was spent, she cast the childe vnder a certaine tree, 16 Then she went and sat her ouer against him afarre off about a bow shoot: for she said, I will not see the death of the child, and she fate downe ouer against him, and lift vp her voice and wept.

17 Then God ^gheard the voyce of the childe, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heauen, and said vnto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? feare not, for God hath heard the voice of the child where he is.

18 Arise, take vp the childe, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make of him a great people.

19 And God ^hopened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. so she went and filled the bottell with water, and gaue the boy drinke.

20 So God was ⁱwith the childe, and hee grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and was an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother tooke him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And at that same time Abimelech and Phichol his chiefe captaine spake vnto Abraham, saying, God ^jis with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore sweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not ^khurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: thou shalt deale with mee, and with the countrey where thou hast bene a stranger, according vnto the kinnesse, that I haue shewed thee.

24 Then Abraham said, I will ^ksweare.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelechs seruants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I know not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neither heard I of it but this day.

27 Then Abraham tooke sheep & beeues, and gaue them vnto Abimelech: and they two made a couenant.

28 And Abraham set seuen lambes of the flocke by themselves.

29 Then Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What meane these seuen lambes, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he answered, Because thou shalt receiue of mine hand ^lthese seuen lambes, that it may be a witnesse vnto me, that I haue digged this well.

31 Wherefore the place is called Beer-sheba, because there they both sware.

32 Thus made they a ^mcouenant at Beer-sheba: afterward Abimelech and Phichol his chiefe captaine rose vp, and turned againe vnto the land of the Philistims.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a groue in Beer-sheba, and ⁿcalled there on the Name of the Lord, the euermore God.

34 And Abraham was a stranger in the Philistims land a long season.

¶ And after these things God did ^oprooue ^hAbraham, and said vnto him, Abraham. Who answered, ¶ Here am I.

2 And hee said, Take now thine onely sonne Izhak whom thou louest, and get thee vnto the land of ^aMoriah, and ^boffer him there for a burnt offering vpon one of the mountaines, which I will shew thee.

3 Then Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and saddled his asse, & took two of his seruants with him, and Izhak his sonne, and cloued wood for the burnt offering, and rose vp and went to the place, which God had told him.

4 ¶ Then the third day Abraham lift vp his eyes, and saw the place afarre off,

5 And said vnto his seruants, Abide you here with the asse: for I and the child will goe yonder & worship, and come againe vnto you.

6 Then Abraham tooke the wood of the burnt offering, and layd it vpon Izhak his sonne, and hee tooke the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together.

7 Then spake Izhak vnto Abraham his father, and said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my sonne. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lambe for the burnt offering?

8 Then Abraham answered, My sonne, God will ^dprouide him a lambe for a burnt offering: so they went both together.

9 And when they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abraham builded an Altar there, & couched the wood, and ^ebound Izhak his sonne, ^fand layd him on the Altar vpon the wood.

^c He derided Gods promise made to Izhak, which the Apostle calleth perfection, Gal. 4. 29. Gal. 4. 30.

10 And Abraham stretching forth his hand, tooke the knife to kill his sonne.

11 But the Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.

19 Then turned Abraham againe vnto his seruants, and they rose vp & went together to Beer-sheba: & Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Abraham lamenteth the death of Sarah. 4 Hee buyeth a field to bury her of the Hittites. 13 The equitie of Abraham. 19 Sarah is buried in Machpelah.

2 That is when he had mourned to the godly may mourne, if they passe not measure: and the naturall affection is commendable.

3 ¶ Then Abraham rose vp from the sight of his corps, and talked with the Hittites, saying,

4 I am a stranger, and a forreiner among you, giue me a possession of buriall with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

6 Heare vs, my lord: thou art a prince of God among vs: in the chiefest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shall forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou mayest bury thy dead therein.

b That is godly or excellent: for the Hebrewes so speake of all things that are notable because all excellencie cometh of God.

7 Then Abraham stood vp, and bowed himselfe before the people of the land of the Hittites.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be || your minde, that I shall bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and intreat for mee to Ephron the sonne of Zohar,

9 That hee would giue mee the caue || of Machpelah, which he hath in the ende of his field: that hee would giue it mee for as much money as it is worth, for a possession to bury in among you.

|| Or, double caue, because one was within another.

10 (For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that went in at the gates of his citie, saying, c Meaning all the citizens and inhabitants.

11 No, my lord, heare me: the field giue I thee, and the caue, that therein is, I giue it thee: euen in the presence of the sonnes of my people giue I it thee, to bury thy dead.

d To show that he had them in good estimation and reuerence.

12 Then Abraham bowed himselfe before the people of the land,

13 And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, Seeing thou wilt giue it, I pray thee, heare mee, I will giue the price of the field: receiue it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 Ephron then answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

15 My lord, hearken vnto mee: the land is worth foure hundredth shekels of siluer: what is that betwene me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

e The common shekel is about 20 pence, so then 400 shekels mount to 80 pound & shillings and eight pence after 5 shillings sterling the ounce.

16 So Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the siluer which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, euen foure hundred siluer shekels of currant money among merchants.

17 ¶ So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, and ouer against Mamre, euen the field and the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all the borders round about, was made sure

18 Vnto Abraham for a possession, in the sight of the Hittites, euen of all that went in at the gates of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the caue of the field of Machpelah ouer against Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 Thus the field and the caue, that is therein, was made sure vnto Abraham for a possession of buriall by the Hittites.

f That is, all the people confirmed the sale.

4 But thou shalt goe vnto my c countrey, and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne Izhak.

5 And the seruant said to him, What if the woman wil not come with me to this land? shall I bring thy sonne againe vnto the land from whence thou camest?

6 To whome Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne d thither againe.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heauen, who tooke me from my fathers house, and from the land where I was borne, and that spake vnto mee, and that sware vnto mee, saying, * Vnto thy seed will I giue this land, he shall send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence.

9 Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him for this matter.

11 And he made his camels to † lie downe without the citie by a well of water, at euentide about the time that the women come out to draw water.

15 ¶ And now yer hee had left speaking, behold, h Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, sonne of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder.

16 (And the mayd was very faire to looke vpon, a virgine and vnknown of man) and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 Then the seruant ran to meete her, and said, Let me drinke, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke † fir: and shee hastened, and let downe her pitcher vpon her hand and gaue him drinke.

19 And when she had giuen him drinke, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also vntil they † haue drunken enough.

20 And she powred out her pitcher into the trough speedily, and ran againe vnto the well to draw water, and she drew for all his camels.

21 So the man wondered at her, and helde his peace, to know whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man tooke a golden ¶ k abillement of l halfe a shekel weight, & two bracelets for her hands, often shekels weight of gold:

23 And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tell mee, I pray thee, Is there roome in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah whome shee bare vnto Nahor.

25 Moreover she said vnto him, Wee haue litter also and prouender enough, and roome to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed himselfe and worshipped the Lord.

27 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawn his mercie m and his trueth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought me to my masters brethrens house.

28 And the maid ranne and told them of her mothers house according to these words.

29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, & Laban ran vnto the man to the well.

30 For when hee had seene the earerings and the bracelets in his sisters hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto me, then he went to the man, and loe, n he stood by the camels at the well.

46 And shee made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the camels drinke also.

47 Then I asked her, & said, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahors sonne, whom Milcah bare vnto him. Then I put the abillment vpon her face, and the bracelets vpon her hands:

48 And I bowed downe, and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, which had brought mee the right way to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.

49 Now therefore, if ye will deale mercifully and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell mee, that I may turne me to the right hand or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and said, this thing is proceeded of the Lord: we cannot therefore say vnto thee, neither euill nor good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her and go, that she may be thy masters sonnes wife, euen as the Lord hath said.

52 And when Abrahams seruant heard their words, hee bowed himselfe toward the earth vnto the Lord.

53 Then the seruant tooke forth iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and raiment, and gaue to Rebekah: also vnto her brother and to her mother he gaue gifts.

54 Afterward they did eat and drinke, both he, and the men that were with him, and taried all night, & when they rose vp in the morning, he said, Let me depart vnto my master.

55 Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maid abide with vs, at the least ten dayes: then shall she goe.

56 But he said vnto them, Hinder you me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my iourney: send mee away, that I may goe to my master.

57 Then they said, Wee will call the maid, and aske her consent.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And shee answered, I will goe.

59 So they let Rebekah their sister goe, and her nurse, with Abrahams seruant & his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said vnto her, Thou art our sister, grow into thousand thousands, and thy seed possess the gate of his enemies.

61 Then Rebekah arose, and her maids, and rode vpon the camels, & folowed the man. And the seruant tooke Rebekah, and departed.

62 Now Izhak came from the way of Beer-lahai-roi, (for hee dwelt in the South country)

63 And Izhak went out to pray in the field toward the euening: who lift vp his eyes and looked, and behold, the camels came.

64 Also Rebekah lift vp her eyes, and when she saw Izhak, she lighted downe from the camel.

65 (For she had said to the seruant, Who is yonder man, that commeth in the field to meete vs? and the seruant had said, It is my master) So she tooke a vaile, and couered her.

66 And the seruant tolde Izhak all things, that he had done.

67 Afterward Izhak brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he tooke Rebekah, and shee was his wife, and hee loued her: So Izhak was comforted after his mothers death.

e This was the exercise of the godly fathers, to meditate Gods promises, and to pray for the accomplishment thereof.

f The custome was that the spouse was brought to her husband, her head being couered in token of shamesfastnes and chastitie. ll Or, had left mourning for her mother.

Now

^a Whiles Sarah was yet alive,

Now Abraham had taken ^ahim another wife called Keturah,

Which bare him Zimran, and Iokshan, and Medan, & Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

And Iokshan begate Sheba, and Dedan:

And the sonnes of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

Also the sonnes of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoth, & Abida, and Eldaah: all these were the sonnes of Keturah.

And Abraham gaue fall his goods to Izhak.

But vnto the ^bsons of the ^cconcubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gaue gifts, and sent them away from Izhak his sonne: (while he yet liued) Eastward to the East country.

And this is the age of Abrahams life, which he liued, an hundred, seuentie & fise yere.

Then Abraham yeelded the spirit, and died in a good age, an old man, and of great yeeres, and was ^cgathered to his people.

And his sonnes, Izhak and Ishmael buried him in the caue of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron sonne of Zohar the Hittite, before Mamre.

Which ^afield Abraham bought of the Hittites, where Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

And after the death of Abraham God blessed Izhak his sonne, ^aand Izhak dwelt by Beer-lahai-roi.

Now these are the generations of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, whom Hagar the Egyptian Sarahs handmaid bare vnto Abraham.

And these are the names of the sonnes of Ishmael, name by name, according to their kinreds: the ^aeldest sonne of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

Hadar, and Tema, Ietur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their townes, and by their castles: ^atwit, twelve princes of their nations.

(And these are the yeeres of the life of Ishmael, an hundred thirty and seuen yeere, and he yeelded the spirit, and died, and was gathered vnto his ^apeople.)

And they dwelt from Hauilah vnto Shur, that is towards Egypt as thou goest to Asshur. ^aIshmael dwelt in the prefence of all his brethren.

Likewise these are the generations of Izhak Abrahams sonne. Abraham begat Izhak.

And Izhak was forty yeere olde, when he tooke Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the ^aAramite of Padan Aram, and sister to Laban the Aramite.

And Izhak prayed vnto the Lord for his wife because she was barren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

But the children ^astroue together within her: therefore she said, Seeing it is so, why am I thus? wherefore she went to aske the Lord.

And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in thy wombe, and two manner of people shall be diuided out of thy bowels, and the one people shall be mightier then the other, and the ^aelder shall serue the yonger.

Therefore when her time of deliuerance was fulfilled, behold, twinnes were in her wombe.

So he that came out first was red, and he was all ouer as a rough garment, and they called his name Esau.

And afterward came his brother out, and his hand held Esau by the heele: therefore his name was called Iaakob. Now Izhak was threescore yeere old when Rebekah bare them.

And the boyes grew, and Esau was a cunning hunter, and ^aliued in the fields: but Iaakob was a ^aplaine man, and dwelt in tents.

Now Iaakob sodde pottage, and Esau came from the field and was weary.

Then Esau said to Iaakob, Let me eate, I pray thee, of that pottage so red, for I am wearie. Therefore was his name called Edom.

And Iaakob said, Sell me euen now thy birthright.

And Esau said, Loe, I am almost dead, what is then this ^abirthright to me?

Iaakob then said, Swear to mee euen now. And hee sware to him, ^aand ^aI solde his birthright vnto Iaakob.

Then Iaakob gaue Esau bread and pottage of lentiles: and hee did eate and drinke, and rose vp, and went his way: So Esau contemned his birthright.

And there was a famine in the ^aland besides the first famine that was in the daies of Abraham. Wherefore Izhak went to Abimelech king of the Philistims vnto Gerar.

For the Lord appeared vnto him, and sayd, Go not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall shew vnto thee.

6 ¶ So Izhak dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife, and he said, Shee is my sister: for hee feared to say, Shee is my wife, lest, said hee, the men of the place should kill me, because of Rebekah: for she was beautifull to the eye.

8 So after hee had bene there long time, Abimelech king of the Philistims looked out at a window, and loe, hee saw Izhak sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Izhak, and said, Loe, shee is of a surety thy wife, and why saidst thou, Shee is my sister? To whom Izhak answered, Because I thought ^{so}; It may be that I shall die for her.

10 Then Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this vnto vs? one of the people had almost lien by thy wife, so shouldst thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.

11 Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall die the death.

12 Afterward Izhak sowed in that land, and found in the same yeere an hundred folde by estimation: and so the Lord blessed him.

13 And the man waxed mighty, and still increased, till he was exceeding great.

14 For he had stockes of sheepe, and herds of cartell, and a mighty household: therefore the Philistims had enuie at him.

15 Inasmuch that the Philistims stopped and filled vp with earth all the welles, which his fathers seruants digged in his father Abrahams time.

16 Then Abimelech said vnto Izhak, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then wee a great deale.

17 ¶ Therfore Izhak departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Izhak returning, digged the welles of water, which they had digged in the dayes of Abraham his father: for the Philistims had stopped them after the death of Abraham, and he gaue them the same names, which his father gaue them.

19 Izhaks seruants then digged in the valley, and found there a well of liuing water.

20 But the herdmen of Gerar did strue with Izhaks herdmen, saying, The water is ours: therefore called he the name of the well Esek, because they were at strife with him.

21 Afterward they digged another well, and stroue for that also, and he called the name of it Sitnah.

22 Then he remoued thence, and digged another well, for the which they stroue not: therefore called he the name of it Rehoboth, and said, Because the Lord hath now made vs rounge, we shall increase vpon the earth.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the Lord appeared vnto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: feare not, for I am with thee, and will blesse thee, and will multiply thy seed for my seruant Abrahams sake.

25 Then he built an Altar there, and called vpon the Name of the Lord, & there spread his tent: where also Izhaks seruants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Abuzzath one of his friends, and Phicol the captaine of his armie.

27 To whom Izhak said, Wherefore come ye to mee, seeing ye hate me and haue put me away from you?

28 Who answered, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we thought, Let there bee now an oath betwene vs, betwene vs and thee, and let vs make a covenant with thee.

29 If thou shalt do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as wee haue done vnto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace: thou now, the blessed of the Lord, do this.

30 Then he made them a feast, and they did eate and drinke.

31 And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: then Izhak let them goe, & they departed from him in peace.

32 And that same day Izhaks seruants came and told him of a well, which they had digged, and said vnto him, We haue found water.

33 So he called it Shibah: therefore the name of the citie is called Beer-sheba vnto this day.

34 ¶ Now when Esau was forty yeere old, he tooke to wife Iudith, the daughter of Beeri an Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon an Hittite also.

35 And they were a grieft of minde to Izhak and to Rebekah.

And when Izhak was old, and his eyes were dimme (so that he could not see) he called Esau his eldest sonne, and said vnto him, My sonne. And he answered him, I am here.

2 Then he said, Behold, I am now old, and know not the day of my death:

3 Wherefore now, I pray thee, take thine instruments, thy quier and thy bow, and get thee to the field, that thou mayest take mee some venison.

4 Then make me sauourie meate, such as I loue, and bring it me that I may eate, and that my soule may blesse thee, before I die.

sonne, saying, Behold, I haue heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, saying, 7 Bring me venison, and make me sauerie meat, that I may eate and blisse thee before the Lord, before my death.

8 Now therefore my sonne, heare my voyce in that which I command thee.

9 Get thee now to the flocke, and bring the thence two good kids of the goates, that I may make pleasant meate of them for thy father, such as he loueth.

10 Then thou shalt bring in to thy father, and hee shall eate, to the intent that hee may blisse thee before his death.

11 But Iaakob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smoothe.

12 My father may possibly feele me, and I shall seeme to him to be a mocker, so shall I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blessing.

13 But his mother said vnto him, I vpon me be thy curse, my sonne, onely heare my voyce, and goe and bring me them.

14 So he went and fetched them, and brought them to his mother, and his mother made pleasant meate, such as his father loued.

15 And Rebekah tooke faire clothes of her elder sonne Esau, which were in her house, and clothed Iaakob her yonger sonne.

16 And shee covered his hands and the smoothe of his necke with the skinned of the kiddes of the goats.

17 Afterward shee put the pleasant meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her sonne Iaakob.

18 ¶ And when he came to his father, shee said, My father, Who answered, I am heere: who art thou, my sonne?

19 And Iaakob said to his father, I am Esau thy first borne, I haue done as thou badest mee, arise, I pray thee: sit vp and eate of my venison, that thy soule may blisse me.

20 Then Izhak said vnto his sonne, How hast thou found it so quickly my sonne? Who said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

21 Againe said Izhak vnto Iaakob, Come neere now, that I may feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be that my sonne Esau or not.

22 Then Iaakob came neere to Izhak his father, & he felt him, and said, The voice is Iaakobs voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 (For he knew him not, because his hands were rough as his brother Esaus hands: wherefore he blessed him)

24 Againe he said, Art thou that my sonne Esau? Who answered, Yea.

25 Then said hee, Bring it me hither, and I will eate of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blisse thee. And he brought it to him, and heate: also he brought him wine, & he dranke.

26 Afterward his father Izhak said vnto him, Come neere now, and kisse me my sonne.

27 And he came neere & kissed him. Then hee smelled the fauour of his garments, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my sonne is as the smell of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

28 God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fatnesse of the earth, and plentie of wheate and wine.

29 Let people be thy seruants, and nations bow vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethren, and let thy mothers children honour thee: cursed be he that curse thee, and blessed be he that blisse thee.

30 ¶ And when Izhak had made an end of blessing Iaakob, and Iaakob was scarce gone out from the presence of Izhak his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting.

31 And hee also prepared sauerie meate, and brought it to his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise, & eate of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blisse me.

32 But his father Izhak said vnto him, Who art thou? And hee answered, I am thy sonne, such thy first borne Esau.

33 Then Izhak was stricken with a maruellous great feare, and said, Who and where is he that hunted venison, and brought it me, and I haue eate of all before thou camest? and I haue blessed him, therefore he shall be blessed.

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with a great crye and bitter out of measure, and said vnto his father, Bless me, as thou hast blessed him.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 Then he said, Was he not iustly called Esau? for hee hath deceived me these two times: he tooke my birthright, and loe, now hath he taken my blessing. Also he said, Hast thou not reserued a blessing for me?

37 Then Izhak answered, and said vnto Esau, Behold, I haue made him thy lord, and all his brethren haue I made his seruants: also with wheat & wine haue I furnished him, and vnto thee now what shall I doe, my sonne?

38 Then Esau said vnto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? blisse mee, as thou hast blessed him.

39 Then Izhak his father answered, and said vnto him, Behold, the fatnesse of the earth shall be thy dwelling place, and thou shalt haue of the dew of heauen from aboue.

40 And by thy sword shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant. But it shall come to passe, when thou shalt get the mastery, that thou shalt breake his yoke from thy necke.

41 ¶ Therefore Esau hated Iaakob, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his minde, The dayes of mourning for my father will come shortly, then I will slay my brother Iaakob.

42 And it was tolde to Rebekah of the words words of Esau her elder sonne, and thence sent and called Iaakob her younger sonne, and sayd vnto him, Behold, thy brother Esau is comforted against thee, meaning to kill thee.

43 Now therefore my sonne, heare my voice: arise, and flee thou to Haran to my brother Laban.

44 And tarie with him a while until thy brothers fiercene be stayed.

45 And till thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the things which thou hast done to him: then will I send and take thee from thence: why should I be depriued of you both in one day?

46 Also Rebekah said to Izhak, I am wearye of my life for the daughters of Heth. If Iaakob take a wife of the daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the land, what auaileth it me to live?

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Izhak forbiddeth Iaakob to take a wife of the Canaanites.
2 Esau despiseth a wife of the daughters of Ishmael against his fathers will.
3 Izhak in the way to Haran seeth a ladder reaching to heauen.
4 Christ is promised.
5 Iaakob asketh of God onely meate and clothing.

Then Izhak called Iaakob and blessed him, and charged him, and said vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

3 Arise, get thee to Padan Aram to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, & thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God is all sufficient to bless thee, and make thee to increase, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people.

4 And giue thee the blessing of Abraham, even to thee and to thy seede with thee, that thou mayest inherit the land (wherein thou art a stranger,) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Izhak sent forth Iaakob, and hee went to Padan Aram vnto Laban sonne of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah, Iaakobs and Esaus mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Izhak had blessed Iaakob, and sent him to Padan Aram, to get him a wife thence, & giuen him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

7 And that Iaakob had obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan Aram.

8 Also Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhak his father, 9 Then went Esau to Ishmael, and tooke ¶ vnto the wives which hee had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabaioth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ Now Iaakob departed from Beer-sheba, and went to Haran, 11 And he came vnto a certaine place, and taried there all night, because the Sunne was downe, & tooke of the stones of the place, and laid vnder his head and slept in the same place.

12 Then hee dreamed, and behold, there stood a ladder vpon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and loe, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it.

13 And behold, the Lord stood aboue it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Izhak: the land, vpon the which thou sleepest, I will giue thee, and thy seede.

14 And thy seede shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And loe, I am with thee, and will keepe thee whither thou goest, and will bring thee againe into this land: for I will not forsake thee vntill I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee.

16 ¶ Then Iaakob awoke out of his sleepe, and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen.

18 Then Iaakob rose vp early in the morning, and tooke the stone that hee had laid vnder his head, and set it vp as a pillar, and powred oyle vpon the top of it.

19 And hee called the name of that place Beth-el: notwithstanding the name of the citie was at the first called Luz.

20 Then Iaakob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with mee, and will keepe mee in this iourney which I goe, and will giue mee bread to eate, and clothes to put on:

21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safety, then shall the Lord be my God.

22 And this stone which I haue set vp as a pillar, shall bee Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue mee, will I giue the tenth vnto thee.

Then Iaakob lift vp his feete and came into the East country.

2 And as he looked about, behold, there was a well in the field, and loe, three flockes of sheepe lay thereby (for at that well were the flockes watered) and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.

3 And thither were all the flockes gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone againe vpon the wels mouth in his place.

4 And Iaakob said vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Haran.

5 Then he said vnto them, Know yee Laban the sonne of Nahor? Who said, We know him.

h The why Ia deceiued that in the wife were vnaile, was because her husband had a signe of a snake, and she had a snake.

d Or is he in Ebrewees signifie

6 Again hee sayd vnto them, Is hee in good health? And they answered, Hee is in good health, and behold, his daughter Rahel commeth with the sheepe.

7 Then he sayd, Lo, it is yet hie day, neither is it time that the cattell should be gathered together, water ye the sheepe, and go feed them.

8 But they sayd, Wee may not vntill all the flockes bee brought together, and till men roll the stone from the welles mouth, that wee may water the sheepe.

9 While he talked with them, Rahel also came with her fathers sheepe, for shee kept them.

10 And as soone as Iaakob sawe Rahel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, then came Iaakob neere, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iaakob kissed Rahel, and lift vp his voice, and wept.

12 (For Iaakob tolde Rahel, that hee was her fathers brother, and that hee was Rebe-kahs sonne) then she ranne and told her father.

13 And when Laban heard tell of Iaakob his sisters sonne, hee ranne to meete him, and imbraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house: and hee tolde Laban all these things.

14 To whom Laban sayd, Well, thou art my bone and my flesh: and he abode with him the space of a moneth.

15 For Laban said vnto Iaakob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serue me for nought? tell me, what shall be thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the yonger called Rahel.

17 And Leah was tender eyed, but Rahel was beautifull and faire.

18 And Iaakob loued Rahel, and said, I wil serue thee seuen yeeres for Rahel thy yonger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I should giue for to another man, abide with me.

20 And Iaakob serued seuen yeeres for Rahel, and they seemed vnto him but a fewe dayes, because hee loued her.

21 Then Iaakob said to Laban, Giue me my wife, that I may go in to her: for my terme is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But when the euening was come, hee tooke Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Laban gaue his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her seruant.

25 But when the morning was come, be-holde, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban,

Wherefore hast thou done thus to mee? did not I serue thee for Rahel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the maner of this place, to giue the yonger before the elder.

27 Fulfill seuen yeeres for her, and we will also giue thee this for the seruice, which thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeeres more.

28 Then Iaakob did so, and fulfilled her seuen yerres, so he gaue him Rahel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gaue to Rahel his daughter, Bilhah his maid to be her seruant.

30 So entred he in to Rahel also, and loued also Rahel more then Leah, and serued him yet seuen yeeres more.

31 When the Lord sawe that Leah was despised, hee made her fruitfull: but Rahel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a sonne, and she called his name Reuben: for shee said, Because the Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation, now therefore mine husband wil loue mee.

33 And she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, hee hath therefore giuen mee this sonne also, and shee called his name Simeon.

34 And shee conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and said, Now at this time will my husband keepe me company, because I haue borne him three sonnes: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 Moreouer she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, saying, Nowe will I praise the Lord: * therefore shee called his name Iudah,

ah giueth mandrakes to Rahel that Iaakob might lie with her. 27 Laban is enriched for Iaakobs sake. 43 Iaakob is made very rich.

And when Rahel sawe that shee bare Iaa-kob no children, Rahel enuied her sister, and said vnto Iaakob, Giue me children, or els
I die.

2 Then Iaakobs anger was kindled against Rahel, and he said, Am I in Gods stead, which hath withholden from thee the fruite of the wombe?

3 And she saide, Behold my maide Bilhah, goe in to her, and shee shall beare vpon my knees, and I shall haue children also by her.

4 Then shee gaue him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Iaakob went in to her.

5 So Bilhah conceived, and bare Iaakob a sonne.

tence on my side, and hath also heard my voice, † Ebr. wrestlings of God.

c. The arrogancie of mans nature appeareth in that she contemned her sister, after shee hath received this benefite of God to beare children.

8 Then Rahel said, With † excellent wrestlings haue I wrestled with my sister, and haue gotten the vpper hand: and she called his name, Naphtali.

9 And when Leah sawe that shee had left bearing, shee tooke Zilpah her maid, and gaue her Iakob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leahs maide bare Iakob a sonne.

d That is, God doth increase me with a multitude of children: for so Iakob doeth expound this name Gad, Chap. 49. 19.

11 Then saide Leah, A companie cometh: and she called his name, Gad.

12 Againc Zilpah Leahs maide bare Iakob another sonne.

13 Then saide Leah, Ah blessed am I, for the daughters will blese mee, and shee called his name, Asher.

e Which is a kind of herbe whose root hath a certaine likeness of the figure of a man.

14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the dayes of the wheate haruest, and found † mandrakes in the field, and brought them vnto his inother Leah. Then saide Rahel to Leah, Giue mee, I pray thee, of thy sonnes mandrakes.

15 But he answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my sonnes mandrakes also? Then saide Rahel, Therefore he shall sleepe with thee this night for thy sonnes mandrakes.

16 And Iakob came from the field in the euening, and Leah went out to meet him, and saide, Come in to me, for I haue † bought and paid for thee with my sonnes mandrakes: and he slept with her that night.

17 And God heard Leah, and shee conceived, and bare vnto Iakob the fift sonne.

f In stead of acknowledging her fault, shee boasteth as if God had rewarded her therefore.

18 Then saide Leah, God hath giuen me my reward, because I gaue my † maide to my husband, and shee called his name Issachar.

19 After, Leah conceived againe, and bare Iakob the sixth sonne.

20 Then Leah said, God hath endued mee with a good dowrie: now will mine husband dwell with me, because I haue borne him fixe sonnes: and shee called his name Zebulun.

21 After that she bare a daughter, and shee called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rahel, & God heard her, and † opened her wombe.

g Because fruitfulness came of Gods blessing, who said, Increase and multiply: barrennes was counted as a curse.

23 So shee conceived and bare a sonne, and said, God hath taken away my † rebuke.

24 And shee called his name Ioseph, saying, The Lord will giue me yet another sonne.

25 ¶ And as soone as Rahel had borne Ioseph, Iakob said to Laban, Send me away that I may goe vnto my place and to my countrey.

26 Giue me my wiues and my children, for whom I haue serued thee, and let me goe: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

ges, and will giue it thee.

29 But hee said vnto him, Thou knowest, what seruice I haue done thee, & in what taking thy cattell hath bene † vnder me.

¶ Or, with me.

32 I will passe through all thy flockes this day, and † separate from them all the sheepe with little spots and great spots, and all † blacke lambes among the sheepe, and the great spotted, and little spotted among the goates: and it shall be my wages.

i That which shall hereafter be thus spotted. k God shall testify for my righteous dealing by rewarding my labours

34 Then Laban said, Goe to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore † hee tooke out the same day the he goates that were particoloured and with great spots, and all the she goates with litle and great spots, and all that had white in them, and all the † blacke among the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his sonnes.

¶ Or, L. aban.

¶ Or, red, or brown

36 And he set three daies iourney between himselfe and Iakob. And Iakob kept the rest of Labans sheepe.

37 ¶ Then Iakob † tooke rods of greene poplar, and of hazell, and of the chefnut tree, and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in the rods.

l Iakob herein vied no deceit: for it was Gods commandment as he declareth in the next chap. ver. 9. and 11.

38 Then he put the rods which hee had piled, in the gutters and watering troughs, when the sheepe came to drinke, before the sheepe: (for they were in heat, when they came to drinke.)

39 And the sheepe † were in heat before the rods, and afterward brought forth yong of partie colour, and with sinall and great spots.

40 And Iakob parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards these lambes particoloured and all maner of blacke, among the sheepe of Laban: so hee put his owne flockes by themselves, and put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in euery ramming time of the strongest sheepe, Iakob laid the rodde before the eyes of the sheepe in the gutters, that they might conceiue before the rods.

42 But when the sheepe were feeble, he put them not in: and so the feeble were Labans, and the stronger Iakobs.

m As they which tooke the ram about September, and brought forth about March: so the feeble in March and lambed in September.

43 So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flockes, and maid seruants, and men seruants, and camels, and asses.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Laban's children murmur against Jaakob. 3 God commandeth him to returne to his countrey. 13. 24 The care of God for Jaakob. 19 Rahel stealeth her fathers idoles. 23 Laban followeth Jaakob. 44 The couenant betwene Laban and Jaakob.

d This Angel was Christ which appeared to Jaakob in Beth-el: & hereby appeareth he had taught his wives the feare of God: for he talketh as though they knew this thing.
* Chap. 28. 18.

e For they were given to Jaakob in recompense of his service, which was a kind of sale.

Now hee heard the wordes of Laban's sonnes, saying, Jaakob hath taken away all that was our fathers, & of our fathers goods hath he gotten all this honour.

2 Also Jaakob beheld the countenance of Laban, that it was not towards him as in times past.

3 And the Lord had said vnto Jaakob, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinned, and I will be with thee.

4 Therefore Jaakob sent and called Rahel and Leah to the field vnto his flocke.

5 Then said hee vnto them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not towards mee as it was wont, and the God of my father hath bene with me.

6 And ye know that I haue serued your father with all my might.

7 But your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he thus said, The spotted shall bee thy wages, then all the sheepe bare spotted: and if he said thus, The party coloured shall be thy reward, then bare all the sheepe particoloured.

9 Thus hath God taken away your fathers substance, and giuen it me.

10 ¶ For in ramming time I lifted vp mine eyes and saw in a dreame, and beholde, the he goats leaped vpon the she goats, that were particoloured with litle and great spots spotted.

11 And the Angel of God said to mee in a dreame, Jaakob. And I answered, Loe, I am here.

12 And he said, Lift vp now thine eyes, and see all the hee goats leaping vpon the she goats that are particoloured, spotted with litle and great spotted: for I haue seene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

13 ¶ I am the God of Beth-el where thou anoyntedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me. Now arise, get thee out of this countrey, and return vnto the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rahel and Leah, and said vnto him, Haue we any more portion and inheritance in our fathers house?

15 Doeth not he count vs as strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath eaten vp and consumed our money.

16 Therefore all the riches which God hath taken from our father, is ours & our childrens: now then whatsoeuer God hath sayd vnto thee, doe it.

17 ¶ Then Jaakob rose vp, and set his sons and his wives vpon camels.

18 And he caried away all his flockes, and all his substance which hee had gotten, to wit, his riches which he had gotten in Padan Aram, to goe to Izhak his father vnto the land of Canaan.

19 When Laban was gone to sheare his sheepe, then Rahel stole her fathers idoles.

20 Thus Jaakob stole away the heart of Laban the Aramite: for he told him not that he fled.

21 So fled he with all he had, and hee rose vp, and passed the riuer, and set his face toward mount Gilead.

22 And the third day after was it tolde Laban, that Jaakob fled.

23 Then he tooke his brethren with him, and followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertooke him at mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dreame by night, and said vnto him, Take heed that thou speake not to Jaakob: I ought saue good.

25 ¶ Then Laban ouertooke Jaakob, and Jaakob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gilead.

26 Then Laban sayd to Jaakob, What hast thou done? thou hast euen stolen away mine heart, and caried away my daughters, as though they had bene taken captiues with the sword.

27 Wherefore diddest thou flee so secretly and steale away from mee, and diddest not tell mee, that I might haue sent thee forth with mirth and with songs, with timbrell and with harpe?

28 But thou hast not suffered mee to kisse my sonnes and my daughters: now thou hast doone foolishly in doing so.

29 I am able to doe you euill: but the God of your father spake vnto mee yesterday, saying, Take heede that thou speake not to Jaakob: I ought saue good.

30 Now though thou wentest thy way because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house, yet wherefore hast thou stolne my gods?

31 Then Jaakob answered, and sayde to Laban, Because I was afraid, and thought that thou wouldest haue taken thy daughters from mee.

32 But with whome thou findest thy gods, let him not liue. Search thou before our brethren what I haue of thine and take it to thee, (but Jaakob wist not that Rahel had stolen them)

33 Then came Laban into Jaakob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maids tents, but found them not. So he went out of Leah's tent, and entred into Rahel's tent.

34 (Now Rahel had taken the idoles, and put them in the camels litter, and sate downe vpon them) and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 Then said she to her father, My lord,

36 ¶ Then laakob was wroth, and chode with Laban: laakob also answered and said to Laban, What haue I trespassed? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?

37 Seeing thou hast searched all my stuffe, what hast thou found of all thine household stuffe? put it here before my brethren, and thy brethren, that they may iudge betweene vs both.

38 This twentie yere I haue bene with thee: thine ewes and thy goats haue not cast their yong, and theran mics of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

39 † Whatsoeuer was torne of beastes, I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe: * of mine hande, diddest thou require it, were it stollen by day or stollen by night.

40 I was in the day, consumed with heate, and with frost in the night, and my sleepe departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus haue I bene twentie yere in thine house, and serued thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yeeres for thy sheepe, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the feare of Izhak had bene with mee, surely thou haddest sent me away now emptie: but Go I beheld my tribulation, and the labor of mine hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 Then Laban answered, and saide vnto laakob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these sheepe are my sheepe, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I doe this day vnto these my daughters, or to their sonnes, which they haue borne?

44 Now therefore come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witnesse betweene me and thee.

45 Then tooke laakob a stone, and set it vp as a pillar:

46 And laakob said vnto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones and made an heape, and they did eate there vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it Iegar-sahadutha, and laakob called it Galeed.

48 For Laban sayd, This heape is witnesse betweene me and thee this day: therefore hee called the name of it Galeed.

49 Also hee called it Mizpah, because he said, The Lord looke betweene mee and thee, when we shall be departed one from another.

50 If thou shalt vex me my daughters, or shalt take wiuens beside my daughters: there is no man with vs, behold, God is witnesse betweene me and thee.

51 Moreover Laban saide to laakob, Behold this heape, and behold the pillar which I haue set betweene me and thee,

52 This heape shall be witnesse, and the pillar shall be witnesse, that I will not come ouer this heape to thee, and that thou shalt not passe ouer this heape and this pillar vnto me for euill.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, and the God of their father be iudge betweene vs: But laakob sware by the feare of his father Izhak.

54 Then laakob did offer a sacrifice vpon the mount, & called his brethren to eat bread, and they did eate bread, and taried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose vp and kissed his sonnes and his daughters, and blessed them, and Laban departing, went vnto his place againe.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 God comforteth laakob by his Angels. 9. 10 Hee prayeth vnto God confessing his vnworthinesse. 13 He sendeth presents vnto Esau. 24. 28 He wrestled with the Angel, who nameth him Israel.

Now laakob went forth on his iourney, and the Angels of God met him.

2 And when laakob sawe them, hee said, This is Gods host, and called the name of the same place Mahanaim.

3 Then laakob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the countrey of Edom:

4 To whom hee gaue commandement, saying, Thus shall yee speake to my lord Esau: thy seruauit laakob sayth thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban, and taried vnto this time.

5 I haue beeuies also and asses, sheepe, and men seruants, and women seruants, and haue sent to shew my lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ So the messengers came againe to laakob, saying, Wee came vnto thy brother Esau, and hee also commeth against thee and foure hundred men with him.

7 Then laakob was greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, and diuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe and the beeuies, and the camels into two companies.

8 For hee sayd, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, the other company shal escape.

9 ¶ Moreover laakob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Izhak: Lord, which saydest vnto mee, Returne vnto thy countrey and to thy kinred, and I will doe thee good, 16 So he deliuered them into the hand of his seruants, euery droue by themselves, and said vnto his seruants, Passe before mee, and put a space betweene droue and droue.

17 And he commaunded the formost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose seruant art thou? And whither goest thou? And whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They bee thy seruant laakob: it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: and beholde, he himselfe also is behind vs.

19 So likewise commaunded he the second and the third, and all that followed the droues, saying, After this maner yee shall speake vnto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And ye shall say moreouer, Behold, thy seruant laakob commeth after vs (for hee thought, I will appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face: it may be that he will accept me.)

21 So went the present before him: but he taried that night with the company.

22 And he rose vp the same night, & tooke his two wiues, and his two maydes, and his eleuen children, & went ouer the forde Iabbok

23 And he tooke them, and sent them ouer the riuer, and sent ouer that hee had.

24 ¶ Now when laakob was left himselfe alone, there wrestled a^b man^h with him vnto the breaking of the day.

25 And he saw that he could notⁱ preuaile against him, therefore he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of laakob's thigh was loosed, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me goe, for the morning appeareth. Who answered, * I will not let thee goe, except thou blesse me.

27 Then said hee vnto him, What is thy name? And he said laakob.

28 Then said he, * Thy name shall be called Israel: because thou hast had^k power with God, thou shalt also preuaile with men.

29 Then laakob demaunded, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now doest thou aske my name? and hee blessed him there.

30 And laakob called the name of the place. Peniel: for, said hee, I haue seene God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And the Sunne rose to him as he passed Peniel, and he halted vpon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinewe that shranke in the hollow of the thigh, vnto this day: because hee touched the sinewe that shranke in the hollow of laakob's thigh.

CHAP. XXXIII.

4 Esau and laakob meete and are agreed. 11 Esau receiveth his gifts. 19 laakob buyeth a possession. 20 And buildeth an Altar.

¶ And as laakob lift vp his eyes, and looked, beholde, Esau came, and with him foure hundred men: and he diuided the children to Leah, and to Rahel, and to the two maydes.

2 And he put the mayds, & their children formost, and Leah, and her children after, and Rahel, and Ioseph hindermost.

3 So he went before them, and^b bowed himselfe to the ground seuen times, vntill hee came neere to his brother.

4 Then Esau ranne to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his necke, and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lift vp his eyes, and saw the women, and the children, and sayd, Who are these with thee? And he answered, They are the children whom God of his grace hath giuen thy seruant.

6 Then came the mayds neere, they and their children, and^c bowed themselves.

7 Leah also with her children came neere and made obeysance: and after Ioseph and Rahel drew neere, and did reuerence.

8 Then he sayd, What meanest thou by all this droue, which I met? Who answered, I haue sent it, that I may finde fauour in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I haue enough, my brother: keepe that thou hast to thy selfe.

10 But laakob answered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue found grace now in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hande: for^d I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.

11 I pray thee, take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and therefore I haue all things: so he^e compelled him, and he tooke it.

12 And he said, Let vs take our iourney and goe, and I will goe before thee.

13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the ewes and kine with yong vnder mine hand: and if they should ouerdrue them one day, all the flocke would die.

16 ¶ So Esau returned, and went his way that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iaakob went forward toward Succoth, and built him an house, and made boóths for his cattel: therefore he called the name of the place Succoth.

18 ¶ Afterward Iaakob came safeto Shechem a citie, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the citie.

19 And there he bought a parcel of ground, where hee pitched his tent, at the hand of the sonnes of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundredth pieces of money.

20 And he set vp there an altar, and called it, The mightie God of Israel.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

21 Dinah is rauished. 8 Hamor asketh her in marriage for his sonne. 22 The Shechemites are circumcised at the request of Iaakobs sonnes, and the persuasion of Hamor. 25 The whoredome is reuenged. 28 Iaakob reprooueth his sonnes.

Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, which shee bare vnto Iaakob, went out to see the daughters of that countrey.

2 Whom when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Hiuite lord of that countrey sawe, hee tooke her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 So his heart claue vnto Dinah the daughter of Iaakob: and hee loued the maide, and spake kindly vnto the maide.

4 Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this maide to wife.

5 (Now Iaakob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattell in the field: therefore Iaakob helde his peace vntill they were come.)

6 ¶ Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out vnto Iaakob to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Iaakob were come out of the fildes, and heard it, it grieved the men, and they were very angry, because he had wrought villenie in Israel, in that hee had lien with Iaakobs daughter: which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make affinitie with vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you,

10 And ye shall dwell with vs, and the land shall be before you: dwell, and doe your businesse in it, and haue your possessions therein.

11 Shechem also said vnto her father, and vnto her brethren, Let me finde fauour in your eies, and I will giue whatsoeuer ye shal appoint me.

12 ¶ Aske of me abundantly both dowrie and gifts, and I will giue as yee appoint me, so that ye giue me the maide to wife.

13 Then the sonnes of Iaakob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister, 14 And they said vnto them, We cannot do this thing, to giue our sister to an vncircumcised man: for that were a reproofe vnto vs.

15 But in this will we consent vnto you, if ye will be as we are, that eueryman child among you be circumcised:

16 Then wil we giue our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to vs, and will dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then will we take our daughters and depart.

18 Now their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne.

19 And theyong man deferred not to doe the thing, because he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was also the most set by of all his fathers house.

20 ¶ Then Hamor and Shechem his sonne went vnto the gate of their citie, and communed with the men of their citie, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with vs: and that they may dwell in the lande, and doe their affaires therein (for beholde, the land hath rourne enough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

22 Onely herein will the men consent vnto vs for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their flockes and their substance, and all their cattell be ours? onely let vs consent herein vnto them, and they wil dwell with vs.

24 And vnto Hamor, and Shechem his sonne, hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumcised, euen all that went out of the gate of his citie.

25 And on the third day (when they were fore) two of the sonnes of Iaakob, Simeon and Leui, Dinahs brethren, tooke either of them his sword, and went into the citie boldly, and slue euery male.

26 They slew also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the edge of the sword, and tooke Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way.

27 Again the other sonnes of Iaakob came vpon the dead, and spoyled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They tooke their sheepe & their beeces and their asses, and whatsoeuer was in the city, and in the fildes.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Iaakob at Gods commendement goeth vp to Beth-el, to build an Altar. 2 Hee reformeth his household. 3 God maketh the enemies of Iaakob afraid. 4 Deborah dieth. 12 The land of Canaan is promised him. 18 Rahel dieth in labour. 22 Reuben lieth with his fathers concubine. 23 The sonnes of Iaakob. 29 The death of Izhak.

Then God said to Iaakob, Arise, go vp to Beth-el, and dwel there, and make there an altar vnto God that appeared vnto thee, when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother.

2 Then said Iaakob vnto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and cleanse your selues, and change your garments:

3 For we wil rise and go vp to Beth-el, and I will make an Altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulation, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iaakob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their earerings which were in their eares, and Iaakob hidde them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their iourney, and the feare of God was vpon the cities that were round about them: so that they did not follow after the sonnes of Iaakob.

6 So came Iaakob to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Beth-el) he and all the people that was with him.

7 And he built there an Altar, and had called the place, The God of Beth-el, because that God appeared vnto him there, when hee fled from his brother.

8 Then Deborah Rebekahs nurse died, and was buried beneath Beth-el vnder an oke: and he called the name of it Allon Bachuth.

9 Againe God appeared vnto Iaakob after he came out of Padan Aram, & blessed him.

10 Moreouer God said vnto him, Thy name is Iaakob: thy name shall bee no more called Iaakob, but Israel shall be thy name: and hee called his name Israel.

11 Againe God sayd vnto him, I am God all sufficient, grow, and multiply, a nation and a multitude of nations shall spring of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loynes.

12 Also I wil giue the land, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhak, vnto thee: and vnto thy seed after thee will I giue that land.

13 So God ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Iaakob set vp a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone, and powred drinke offering thereon: also he powred oyle thereon.

15 And Iaakob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 Then they departed from Beth-el, and when there was about halfe a dayes iourney of ground to come to Ephrath, Rahel trauailed, and in traauiling she was in perill.

17 And when shee was in paines of her labour, the midwife said vnto her, Feare not: for thou shalt haue this sonne also.

18 Then as shee was about to yeelde vp the ghost (for she died) she called his name Benoni, but his father called him Benjamin.

19 Thus died Rahel, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Iaakob set a pillar vpon her graue: This is the pillar of Rahels graue vnto this day.

21 Then Israel went forward, and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-eder.

22 Nowe, when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Israels eare. And Iaakob had twelue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Leah: Reuben, Iaakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, and Leui, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sonnes of Rahel: Ioseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maid: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs mayd: Gad & Asher. These are the sonnes of Iaakob, which were borne him in Padan Aram.

27 Then Iaakob came vnto Izhak his father to Mamre a citie of Arbah: This is Hebron, where Abraham and Izhak were strangers.

28 And the daies of Izhak were an hundred and fourescore yeres.

29 And Izhak gaue vp the ghost and died, and was gathered vnto his people, being olde and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and Iaakob buried him.

2 Ioseph accuseth his brethren. 5 He dreameth, and is hated of his brethren. 28 They sell him to the Ishmeelites. 34 Iacob bewaileth Ioseph.

Iacob now dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Iacob: when Ioseph was seuentene yeere old, he kept sheep with his brethren, and the child was with the sonnes of Bilhah, and with the sonnes of Zilpah, his fathers wives. And Ioseph brought vnto their father their euill saying.

his sonnes, because he begat him in his old age, and he made him a coat of many colours.

So when his brethren saw that their father loued him more then all his brethren, then they hated him, and could not speake peaceably vnto him.

6 Fophel said vnto them, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Behold now, we were binding sheaues in the mids of the field: and loe, my sheafe arose, and also stood vpright, & behold, your sheaues compassed round about, and did reuerence to my sheafe.

8 Then his brethren saide to him: What, shalt thou reigne ouer vs, and rule vs? or shalt thou haue altogether dominion ouer vs? And they hated him so much the more, for his dreames, and for his words.

¶ Again he dreamed another dreame, and tolde it his brethren, & said, Behold, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the Sunne, and the Moone and eleuen starres did reuerence to me.

10 Then he tolde it vnto his father and to his brethren, and his father rebuked him, and said vnto him, What is this dreame which thou hast dreamed? shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come in deed, and fall on the ground before thee?

11 And his brethren enuied him, but his father noted the saying.

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to keepe their fathers sheepe in Shechem.

13 And Israel sayd vnto Ioseph, Do not thy brethren keepe in Shechem? come, and I will send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Then hee said vnto him, Goe now, see whether it bee well with thy brethren, and how the flocke prosper, and bring me word againe. so he sent him from the vale of Hebron, and hee came to Shechem.

15 ¶ Then a man found him: for lo, he was wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seeke my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keepe sheepe.

17 And the man saide, They are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let vs goe vnto Dothan. Then went Ioseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afarre off, euen before hee came at them, they conspired against him for to slay him.

19 For they saide one to another, Behold, this dreamer commeth.

20 Come now therefore, and let vs slay him, and cast him into some pit, and wee will say, A wicked beast hath deuoured him: then we shall see, what will come of his dreames.

21 ¶ But when Reuben heard that, hee deliuered him out of their hands, and said, ¶ Let vs not kill him.

22 Also Reuben saide vnto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand vpon him. Thus he said, that hee might deliuer him out of their hand, and restore him to his father againe.

23 ¶ Now when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript Ioseph out of his coat, his partie coloured coat that was vpon him.

24 And they tooke him, and cast him into a pit, and the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then they sate them down to eat bread: and they lift vp their eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came a company of Ishmeelites from Gilead, & their camels laden with spicery and balme, and myrhe, and were going to carry it downe into Egypt.

26 Then Iudah sayde vnto his brethren, What auaileth it, if we slay our brother, though wee keepe his blood secret?

27 Come and let vs sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hands be vpon him: for he is our brother and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 Then the Midianites merchant men passed by, and they drew forth, and lift Ioseph out of the pit, and sold Ioseph vnto the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of siluer, who brought Ioseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reuben returned to the pit, and beholde, Ioseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes.

30 And returned to his brethren, and sayd, The childe is not yonder, and I, whither shall I goe?

31 And they tooke Iosephs coat, and killed a kidd of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 So they sent that partie coloured coate, and they brought it vnto their father, and said, This haue we found: see now, whether it be thy sonnes coat, or no.

33 Then he knew it, & said, It is my sonnes coat: a wicked beast hath deuoured him: Ioseph is surely torne in pieces.

34 And Iacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his loynes, and forrowed for his sonne a long season.

35 Then all his sonnes and all his daughters rose vp to comfort him, but hee would not bee comforted, but said, Surely I wil go downe into the graue vnto my sonne mourning: so his father wept for him.

And at that time Iudah went downe from his brethren, and turned in to a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

And Iudah saw there the daughter of a man called Shuah a Canaanite, and he took her to wife, and went in vnto her.

So she conceived and bare a sonne, and he called his name Er.

And she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Onan.

Moreover she bare yet a sonne, whome she called Shelah: and Iudah was at Chezib when she bare him.

Then Iudah tooke a wife to Er his first borne sonne, whose name was Tamar.

Now Er the first borne of Iudah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slew him.

Then Iudah said to Onan, Goe in vnto thy brothers wife, and doe the office of a kinsman vnto her, and raise vp seede vnto thy brother.

And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: therefore when he went in vnto his brothers wife, he spilled it on the ground, lest he should giue seed vnto his brother.

And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which he did: wherefore he slew him also.

Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remaine a widow in thy fathers house, till Shelah my sonne grow vp: (for hee thought thus, Lest he die as well as his brethren.) So Tamar went and dwelt in her fathers house.

And in processe of time also, the daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife died. Then Iudah, when hee had left mourning, went vp to his sheep shearers to Timnah, he, and his neighbor Hirah the Adullamite.

And it was tolde Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father in law goeth vp to Timnah to sheare his sheepe.

Then she put her widowes garments off from her, and couered her with a vail, and wrapped her selfe, and sate downe in the Pethaenaim, which is by the way to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah was grown, and shee was not giuen vnto him to wife.

When Iudah saw her, hee iudged her an whore: for shee had couered her face.

And he turned to the way towards her, and sayde, Come, I pray thee, let me lie with thee: (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she answered, What wilt thou giue me for to lie with me?

Then said he, I will send thee a kid of the goats from the flock. And she said, Well, if thou wilt giue me a pledge, till thou send it.

Then he said, What is the pledge that I shall giue thee? And she answered, Thy signet, and thy cloake, and thy staffe that is in thine hand. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and shee was with child by him.

Then she rose, and went & put her vail from her, and put on her widowes garment.

Afterward Iudah sent a kid of the goats by the hand of his neighbour the Adullamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he found her not.

Then asked hee the men of that place, saying, Where is the whore, that sate in Enaim, by the way side? And they answered, There was no whore here.

He came therefore to Iudah againe, and said, I cannot find her: and also the men of the place said, There was no whore there.

Then Iudah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kidde, and thou hast not found her.

Now after three moneths, one tolde Iudah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the whore, and loe, with playing the whore, she is great with child. Then Iudah said, Bring ye her forth, and let her be burnt.

When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man vnto who these things pertaine am I with child: and sayd also, Looke, I pray thee, whose these are, the seale, and the cloke, and the staffe.

Then Iudah knew them, and said, She is more righteous then I: for she hath done it because I gaue her not to Shelah my sonne. So he lay with her no more.

Now, when the time was come that shee should bee deliuered, beholde, there were twinnes in her wombe.

And when she was in travell, the one put out his hand: and the midwife tooke & bound a redde threed about his hand, saying, This is come out first.

But when he plucked his hand backe againe, lo, his brother came out, and the midwife said, How hast thou broken out the breach vpon thee? and his name was called Phares.

And afterward came out his brother that had the redde threed about his hand, and his name was called Zarah.

Ioseph is sold to Potiphar. 2 God prospereth him. 7 Potiphar's wife tempteth him: 13. 20 He is accused and cast in prison. 21 God sheweth him fauour.

Now Ioseph was brought downe into Egypt: and Potiphar an Eunuch of Pharaohs (and his chiefe Steward an Egyptian) bought him at the hand of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him thither.

And the Lord was with Ioseph, and he was a man that prospered and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

And his master sawe that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that hee did to prosper in his hand.

So Ioseph found fauour in his sight, and serued him, & he made him ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand.

p The fauour of God is the fountaine of all prosperitie.

q Because God prospered him: and so he made religion to serue his profite.

^d The wicked are blessed by the company of the godly.

had the Lord ^d blessed the Egyptians house for Iosephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was vpon all that hee had in the house, and in the field.

^e For hee was assured that all things should prosper well: therefore he ate and dranke, and took no care.

^f Therefore he left all that hee had in Iosephs hand, and tooke account of nothing, ~~that was~~ with him, saue only of the bread which he did eat. And Ioseph was a faire person, and well fauoured.

^f In this word he declareth the summe whereunto all his vertues did tend.

^g ¶ Now therefore after these things, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Ioseph, and said, Lie with me.

^h But hee refused, and said to his masters wife, Behold, my master knoweth not what ~~hee~~ hath in the house with me, but hath committed all that he hath to mine hand.

ⁱ There is no man greater in this house then I: neither hath hee kept any thing from mee, but onely thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I doe this great wickednesse, and sinne against God?

^j And albeit shee spake to Ioseph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her, to lie with her, or to be in her company.

^k Then on a certaine day Ioseph entred into the house to do his businesse: and there was no man of the household in the house.

^m Now when she saw that hee had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out, ⁿ Shee called vnto the men of her house, and told them, saying, Behold, he hath brought in an Ebrewe vnto vs ^o to mocke vs: who came in to me for to haue slept with me: but I cried with a loud voice.

^l Or, to doe vs violence and shame. ^h This declareth that where incontinencie is, thereunto is ioyned extreme impudencie and craft.

^p And when hee heard that I lift vp my voyce and cried, he left his garment with mee, and fled away, and got him out.

^r Then shee told him ^s according to these wordes, saying, The Ebrewe seruant, which thou hast brought vnto vs, came in to mee, to mocke me.

^t But assoone as I lift vp my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out.

^u Then when his master heard the wordes of his wife, which shee tolde him, saying, After this manner did thy seruant to mee, his anger was kindled.

^v And Iosephs master tooke him and put him in ^w prison, in the place where the Kings prisoners lay bound: & there he was in prison.

^a And the keeper of the prison committed to Iosephs hand all the prisoners that were in the prison, and ^b whatsoeuer they did there, that did hee.

^c And the keeper of the prison looked vnto nothing that was vnder his hand, seeing that the Lord ~~was~~ with him: for whatsoeuer he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

CHAP. XL.

⁸ The interpretation of dreames is of God. 12. 19 Ioseph expoundeth the dreames of the two prisoners. 23. The ingratitude of the butler.

² And Pharaoh was angry against his two officers, against the chiefe butler, and against the chiefe baker.

³ Therefore hee put them in ward in his chiefe stewards house, in the prison and place where ^a Ioseph was bound.

⁵ ¶ And they both dreamed a dreame, either of them his dreame in one night, each one according to the interpretation of his dreame, both the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

^l Or, Euen as the word signifieth them that were in high estate, or them that were gilded, a God worketh many wonderfull meanes to deliuer his.

⁶ And when Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and looked vpon them, beholde, they were sad.

⁷ And hee asked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his masters ward, saying, Wherefore [†] looke ye so sadly to day?

[†] Ebr. why are your faces dull?

⁸ Who answered him, We haue dreamed each one a dreame, and there is none to interpret the same. Then Ioseph said vnto them, Are not interpretations of God? tell them me now.

⁹ So the chiefe butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and said vnto him, In my dreame, behold, a vine ~~was~~ before me.

¹⁰ And in the vine were three branches, and as it budded, her flowre came forth: and the clusters of the grapes waxed ripe.

¹¹ And I had Pharaohs cup in mine hand, and I tooke the grapes, and wrung them into Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

¹² Then Ioseph said vnto him, This ^d is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three dayes.

^d He was assured by the Spirit of God, that his interpretation was true.

¹³ Within three dayes shall Pharaoh lift vp thine head, and restore thee vnto thine [†] office, and thou shalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner, when thou wast his butler.

17 And in the vppermost basket there was of all manner baken meats for Pharaoh: and the birdes did eate them out of the basket vpon mine head.

18 Then Ioseph answered, and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three dayes.

19 Within three dayes shall Pharaoh take thine head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, & the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 And to the third day, which was Pharaohs birth day, Iee made a feast vnto all his seruants: and he liued vnto the head of the chiefe butler, and the head of the chiefe baker among his seruants.

21 And hee restored the chiefe butler vnto his butler ship, who gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

22 But hee hanged the chiefe baker, as Ioseph had interpreted vnto them.

23 Yet the chiefe butler did not remember Ioseph, but forgate him.

CHAP. XLI.

26 Pharaohs dreames are expounded by Ioseph. 40 Hee is made ruler over all Egypt. 43 Ioseph name is changed. 44 He hath two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth shru vnto the world.

And two yeres after, Pharaoh also dreamed, and beheld, he stood by a riuer,

2 And loe, there came out of the riuer seven goodly kine and fat fleshed, and they fed in a meadow:

3 And loe, seven other kine came vp after them out of the riuer, euill fauoured and leane fleshed, and stood by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.

4 And the euill fauoured and leane fleshed kine did eat vp the seven well fauoured and fat kine: so Pharaoh awoke.

5 Againe he slept, and dreamed the second time: and behold, seven eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, ranke and goodly.

6 And loe, seven thinne eares, and blasted with the East wind, sprang vp after them:

7 And the thin eares deuoured the seven ranke and full eares. Then Pharaoh awaked, and loe, it was a dreame.

8 Now when the morning came, his spirit was troubled: therefore he sent and called all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wisemen thereof, and Pharaoh tolde them his dreames: but none could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chiefe butler vnto Pharaoh, saying, I call to minde my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh being angry with his seruants, put mee in ward in the chiefe stewards house both me and the chiefe baker.

11 Then we dreamed a dreame in one night, both I, and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dreame.

12 And there was with vs a young man an Ebrew, seruant vnto the chiefe steward, whom when we told, he declared our dreames to vs, to euery one hee declared according to his dreames.

13 And as he declared vnto vs, so it came to passe: for hee restored mee to mine office, and hanged him.

14 Then sent Pharaoh, and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of prison, and hee shaued him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaoh.

15 Then Pharaoh sayde to Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard say of thee, that thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interpret it.

16 And Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Without mee God shall answer for the wealth of Pharaoh.

17 And Pharaoh sayd vnto Ioseph, In my dreame, beholde, I stood by the banke of the riuer:

18 And loe, there came vp out of the riuer seven fat fleshed, and well fauoured kine, and they fed in the meadow.

19 Also loe, seven other kine came vp after them, poore & very euill fauoured, and leane fleshed: I neuer sawe the like in all the land of Egypt, for euill fauoured.

20 And the leane and euill fauoured kine did eat vp the first seven fat kine.

21 And when they had eaten them vp, it could not be known that they had eaten them, but they were still as euill fauoured, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

22 Moreover, I saw in my dreame, and beholde, seven eares sprang out of one stalke, full and faire.

23 And loe, seven eares, withered, thinne, and blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

24 And the thin eares deuoured the seven good eares. Now I haue told the soothsayers, and none can declare it vnto me.

25 Then Ioseph answered Pharaoh, Both Pharaohs dreames are one. God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to doe.

26 The seven good kine are seven yeres, and the seven good eares are seven yeres: this is one dreame.

27 Likewise the seven thin and euill fauoured kine that came out after them, are seven yeres: and the seven empty eares blasted with the East wind, are seven yeres of famine.

28 This is the thing which I haue said vnto Pharaoh, that God hath shewed vnto Pharaoh, what he is about to doe.

29 Behold, there come seven yeres of great plenty in all the land of Egypt.

30 Againe, there shall arise after them seven yeres of famine, so that all the plenty shall bee forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the the famine shall consume all the land :

31 Neither shall the plentie be known in the land, by reason of this famine that shall come after : for it shall be exceeding great.

32 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to performe it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisedome, and set him ouer the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers ouer the land, and take vp the fift part of the land of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeeres.

35 Also let them gather all the foode of these good yeeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharaoh for food, in the cities, and let them keepe it.

36 So the food shall bee for the prouision of the land, against the seuen yeeres of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine.

37 ¶ And the saying pleased Pharaoh and all his seruants.

38 Then said Pharaoh vnto his seruants, Can wee finde such a man as this, in whome is the Spirit of God?

39 Then Pharaoh said to Ioseph, For as much as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding, or of wisedome like vnto thee.

40 * Thou shalt be ouer mine house, and at thy word shall all my people be armed, only in the Kings throne will I be aboue thee.

41 Moreouer, Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Beholde, I haue set thee ouer all the lande of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh tooke off his ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linnen, and put a golden chaine about his necke.

43 So hee set him vpon the best charet that hee had, saue one : and they cryed before him, Abrech, and placed him ouer all the land of Egypt.

44 Againe Pharaoh saide vnto Ioseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift vp his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Iosephs name ¶ Zaphnath-paaneah : and he gaue him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On. Then went Ioseph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Ioseph was thirtie yeere olde when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt : & Ioseph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeeres the earth brought forth store.

48 And he gathered vp all the foode of the seuen plenteous yeeres, which were in the land of Egypt, and laide vp foode in the cities : the food of the field, that was round about euery citie, laide he vp in the same.

49 So Ioseph gathered wheate, like vnto the sand of the sea, in multitude out of measure, vntill he left numbring : for it was without number.

50 Now vnto Ioseph were borne * two sons (before the yeeres of famine came) which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On bare vnto him.

51 And Ioseph called the name of the first borne Manasseh : for God, sayd he, hath made me forget all my labour, and all my fathers household.

52 Also hee called the name of the second, Ephraim : for God, sayd he, hath made me fruitful in the land of mine affliction.

53 ¶ So the seuen yeeres of the plentie that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 * Then began the seuen yeeres of famine to come, according as Ioseph had said : and the famine was in all landes, but in all the land of Egypt was bread.

55 At the length all the lande of Egypt was affamished, and the people cryed to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said vnto all the Egyptians, Goe to Ioseph : what hee saith to you, doe ye.

56 When the famine was vpon all the land, Ioseph opened all places, wherein the store was, and solde vnto the Egyptians : for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countreyes came to Egypt to buy corne of Ioseph, because the famine was sore in all lands.

13 And they saye, Wee thy seruants are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lande of Canaan: and beholde, the yongest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 Againe Ioseph said vnto them, This is it that I spake vnto you, saying, Ye are spies.

§ The Egyptians which were Idolaters, vsed to sweare by their kings life: but God forbideth to sweare by any but him: yet Ioseph dwelling among the wicked, smelleth of their corruptions.

¶ And therefore am true and iust.

17 So he put them in ward three daies.

18 Then Ioseph said vnto them the third day, This doe, and lue: ^f for I feare God.

¶ And therefore am true and iust.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in your prison house, & goe ye, cary food for the famine of your houses:

21 ¶ And they said one to another, ^g Wee haue verily sinned against our brother, in that we sawe the anguish of his soule, when hee besought vs, and we would not heare him: therefore is this trouble come vpon vs.

* Chap. 37. 21.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Warned I not you, saying, * Sinne not against the childe, and ye would not heare? and loe, his blood is now required.

h Though he shewed himselfe rigorous, yet his brotherly affection remained.

25 ¶ So Ioseph commaunded that they should fill their sacks with wheate, and put euery mans money againe in his sacke, and giue them vitale for the iourney: and thus did hee vnto them.

26 And they layd their vitale vpon their asses, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouender in the Inne, hee espied his money: for loe, it was in his sackes mouth.

28 Then hee saide vnto his brethren, My money is restored: for loe, it is euen in my sacke.

And their heart failed them, and they were astonished, and said one to another, What is this, that God hath done vnto vs?

† Ebr. was not. i Because their conscience accused them of their sinne, they thought God would haue brought them to trouble by this money.

29 ¶ And they came vnto Iakob their father vnto the land of Canaan, and tolde him all that had befallen them, saying, 30 The man, who is lord of the lande, spake roughly to vs, and put vs in prison as spies of the country.

31 And we saide vnto him, Wee are true men, and are no spies.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is not, and the yongest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 Then the Lord of the country said vnto vs, Hereby shall I knowe if yee be true men: Leau one of your brethren with mee, and take food for the famine of your houses, and depart, 34 And bring your yongest brother vnto me, that I may know that ye are no spies, but true men: so will I deliuer you your brother, and you shall occupie in the land.

35 ¶ And as they emptied their sacks, behold, euery mans bundell of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father saw the bundells of their money, they were afraide.

36 Then Iakob their father said to them, Ye haue robbed me of my children: Ioseph is not, and Simeon is not, and yee will take Benjamin: all these things are against me.

¶ Or, light upon me. k For they seemed not to be touched with any loue toward their brethren, which increased his sorowe: and partly as appeareth, he suspected them for Ioseph.

37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I will bring him to thee againe.

38 But hee saide, My sonne shall not goe downe with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if death come vnto him by the way which ye goe, then ye shall bring my gray head with sorow vnto the graue.

NOW great ^a famine was in the land.

a This was a great temptation to Iakob to suffer so great famine in that land where God had promised to blesse him.

Is your father yet aliue? haue ye any brother?
And weetold him according to these words:
could we know certainly that hee would say,
Bring your brother downe?

8 Then said Iudah to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, that we may rise and goe, and that we may liue & not die, both we and thou, and our children.

9 I will bee suretie for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. * If I bring him not to thee, & let him before thee, † then let me beare the blame for cuer.

10 For except wee had made this taryng, doubtlesse by this wee had returned the second time.

11 Then their father Israel sayd vnto them,
If it must neede be so now, doe thus: take of the best frutes of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a little rosen, and a little honie, † spices and myrrhe, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take b double money in your hand, and the money, that was brought againe in your sackes mouthes: carie it againe in your hand, lest it were some ouersight.

13 Take also your brother and arise and goe againe to the man.

14 And c God Almighty giue you mercie in the sight of the man, that he may deliuer you your other brother, and Benjamin: but I shall be d robbed of my childe, as I haue bin.

15 ¶ Thus the men tooke this present, and tooke twise so much money in their hand with Benjamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt, and stood before Ioseph.

16 And when Ioseph sawe Benjamin with them, he said † to his steward, Bring these men home and kill meate, and make ready: for the men shall eate with me at noone.

17 And the man did as Ioseph bade, and brought the men vnto Iosephs house.

18 Now when the men were brought into Iosephs house, they were e afraid, and said, Because of the money that came in our sackes mouthes at the first time, are we brought, that he may † picke a quarrell against vs, and † lay some thing to our charge, and bring vs in bondage and our asses.

19 Therefore came they to Iosephs steward, and communed with him at the doore of the house,

20 And said, Oh sir, * wee came in deede downe hither, at the first time to buy food,

21 And as wee came to an Inne, and opened our sackes, beholde, euery mans money was in his sackes mouth, euen our money in full weight, but we haue brought it againe in our hands.

22 Also other money haue wee brought in our hands to buy foode, but wee cannot tell, who put our money in our sackes.

23 And he said, ¶ Peace be vnto you, feare not: f your God, and the God of your father hath giuen you that treasure in your sackes, I had your money: and he brought forth Simeon to them.

24 So the man led them into Iosephs house, and gaue them water to wash their fecte, and gaue their asses prouender.

25 And they made readie their present against Ioseph came at noone (for they heard say, that they should eat bread there.)

26 When Ioseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed downe to the ground before him.

27 And he asked them of their † prosperitie, and said, Is your father, the old man, of whom yee tolde me, in good health? is he yet aliue?

28 Who answered, Thy seruant our father is in good health, he is yet aliue: and they bowed downe, and made obeisance.

29 And hee lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Benjamin his s mothers sonne, and saide, Is this your younger brother, of whom yee tolde me? And hee said, God be mercifull vnto thee, my sonne.

30 And Ioseph made haste (for his † affection was inflamed toward his brother, and sought where to weepe) and entred into his chamber, and wept there.

31 Afterward he washed his face, and came out, and refrained himselfe, and said, Set on † meate.

32 And they h prepared for him by himselfe, and for them by themselues, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselues, because the Egyptians might not eate bread with the Ebrewes: for that was an i abomination vnto the Egyptians.

33 So they sate before him: the eldest according vnto his age, and the yongest according vnto his youth: and the men marueiled among themselues.

34 And they tooke meases from before him, and sent to them: but Beniamins mease was fife times so much as any of theirs: and they drunke, k and had of the best drinke with him.

take them, say vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euill for good?

5 Is that not the cup, wherein my lord drinketh? and in the which hee doeth diuine and prophetic? y^e haue done euill in so doing.

6 ¶ And when he ouertooke them, he said those words vnto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore saith my lord such words? God forbid that thy seruants should doe such a thing.

8 Beholde, the money which we found in our sackes moueth, wee brought againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steale (out of thy lords house siluer or golde?

9 With what soeuer of thy seruants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lords bondmen.

10 And he said, Now then let it bee according vnto your words: he with whom it is found shalbe my seruant, and ye shalbe blamelesse.

11 Then at once euery man rooke downe his sacke to the ground, and euery one opened his sacke.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his asse, and went againe into the citie.

14 ¶ So Iudah and his brethren came to Iosephs house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 Then Ioseph said vnto them, What act is this, which ye haue done? know ye not that such a man as I, can diuine and prophesie?

16 Then saide Iudah, What shall wee say vnto my lord? what shall we speake? and how can we iustifie our selues? ¶ God hath found out the wickednesse of thy seruants: behold, wee are seruants to my lord, both wee, and he, with whom the cup is found.

17 But hee answered, God forbid, that I should doe so, for the man with whom the cup is found, he shalbe my seruant, and goe yee in peace vnto your father.

18 ¶ Then Iudah drewe neere vnto him, and said, O my lord, let thy seruant now speake a word in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy seruant: for thou art euen as Pharaoh:

19 My lord asked his seruants, saying, *Haue ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, Wee haue a father that is olde, and a yong^r childe, which hee begate in his age: and his brother is dead, and hee alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 Nowe thou saydest vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto me, that I may set mine eye vpon him.

22 And wee answered my lord, The childe cannot depart from his father: for if hee leaue his father, his father would die.

23 Then saydest thou vnto thy seruants, *Except your younger brother come downe with you, looke in my face no more.

24 So when we came vnto thy seruant our father, and shewed him what my lord had said,

25 And our father said vnto vs, Goe againe, buy vs a little food, 26 Then wee answered, Wee can not goe downe: but if our yongest brother goe with vs, then will we goe downe: for wee may not see the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 Then thy seruant my father said vnto vs, Ye know that my wife bare me two sonnes, 28 And the one went out from me, & I sayd, Of a surety he is torne in pieces, and I sawe him not since.

29 Now ye take this also away from me: if death take him, then yee shall bring my gray head in sorrow to the graue.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, and the childe be not with vs (seeing that his life dependeth on the childe)

31 Then when he shall see that the childe is not come, hee will die: so shall thy seruants bring the gray head of thy seruant our father with sorrow to the graue.

32 Doublesse thy seruant became suretie for the childe to my father, and said, *If I bring him not vnto thee againe, then I will beare the blame vnto my father for euer.

33 Now therefore I pray thee, let mee thy seruant bide for the childe, as a seruant to my lord, and let the childe goe vp with his brethren.

34 For how can I goe vp to my father, if the childe be not with me, vnlesse I would see the euill that shall come on my father?

2 And he wept, & cried, so that the Egyptians heard: the house of Pharaoh heard also.

3 Then Ioseph sayd to his brethren, I am Ioseph: doth my father yet liue? But his brethren could not answer him, for they were astonished at his presence.

4 Again, Ioseph saide to his brethren, Come neere, I pray you, to me. And they came neere. And he said, *I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

7 Wherefore God sent me before you to preserve you posteritie in this land, & to saue you aloue by a great deliuerance.

8 Now then you sent not me hither, but God, who hath made me a father vnto Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler thorow out all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste you and goe vp to my father, and tell him. Thus saith thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come downe to me, tary not.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and I will be there to thee, thou and thy children, and thy childrens children, & thy sheepe, and thy beasts, and all that thou hast.

11 All that I will nourish thee there (for yet remaine five yeeres of famine) lest thou perish through pouertie, thou and thy household, and all that thou hast.

12 And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that my mouth speaketh to you.

13 Therefore tell my father of all mine honour in Egypt, and of all that yee haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

15 Moreover, hee kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and afterward his brethren talked with him.

16 And the tidings came vnto Pharaohs house, so that they said, Iosephs brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his seruants.

17 Then Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, lade your beasts and depart, goe to the land of Canaan.

18 And take your father, and your households, and come to me, and I will giue you the best of the land of Egypt, and yee shall eat of the fat of the land.

19 And I command thee, Thus doe ye, take you charets out of the land of Egypt for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father and come.

20 Also regard not your stuffe: for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Ioseph gaue them charets according to the commandement of Pharaoh: he gaue them vi-taile also for the journey.

22 He gaue them al, none except, change of raiment: but vnto Benjamin he gaue three hundred pieces of siluer, and five suits of raiment.

23 And vnto his father likewise hee sent ten hee asses laden with the best things of Egypt and ten shee asses laden with wheat, and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So sent hee his brethren away, and they departed: and he said vnto them, Fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ Then they went vp from Egypt, and came vnto the land of Canaan vnto Iakob their father.

26 And tolde him, saying, Ioseph is yet aliue, and he also is gouernour ouer all the lande of Egypt, and Iakob heart failed: for he beleueed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Ioseph, which he had said vnto them: but when hee saw the charets, which Ioseph had sent to cary him, then the spirit of Iakob their father reuiued.

28 And Israel said, I haue ynough: Ioseph my sonne is yet aliue: I wil goe and see him yer I die.

¶ Then Israel tooke his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifice vnto the God of his father Izhak.

2 And God spake vnto Israel in a vision by night, saying, Iakob, Iakob. Who answered, I am here.

3 Then hee said, I am God, the God of thy father, feare not to goe downe into Egypt: for I will there make of thee a great nation.

4 I will goe downe with thee into Egypt, and I wil also bring thee vp againe, and Ioseph shall put his hand vpon thine eyes.

5 Then Iakob rose vp from Beer-sheba: and the sonnes of Israel caried Iakob their father, and their children, and their wiues in the charets, which Pharaoh had sent to carie him.

6 And they tooke their cattell and their goods, which they had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and came into Egypt, both Iakob and all his seede with him.

24 ¶ Also the sonnes of Naphtali: Iahzeel, and Guni, and Iezzer, and Shilem.

25 These are the sonnes of Bilhah, which Laban gaue vnto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these to Iaakob, in all, seuen soules.

26 All the * soules, that came with Iaakob into Egypt, which came out of his loynes (besides Iaakob's sonnes wiues) were in the whole, threescore and sixe soules.

27 Also the sonnes of Ioseph, which were borne him in Egypt, were two soules: so that all the soules of the house of Iaakob, which came into Egypt, are euentie.

28 ¶ Then he sent Iudah before him vnto Ioseph, to direct his way vnto Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 Then Ioseph made readie his charer, and went vp to Goshen to meete Israel his father, and presented himselfe vnto him and fell on his necke, & wept vpon his necke a good while.

30 And Israel saide vnto Ioseph, Now let me die, since I haue seene thy face, & that thou art yet aliue.

31 Then Ioseph said to his brethren, and to his fathers house, I will goe vp and shewe Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my fathers house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come vnto me.

32 And the men are shepheards, and because they are shepheards, they haue brought their sheepe and their cattell, and all that they haue.

33 And if Pharaoh call you, and aske you, What is your trade?

34 Then ye shall say, Thy seruants are men occupied about cattell, from our childhood euen vnto this time; both wee and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen: for every sheepe keeper is an abomination vnto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 Iaakob cometh before Pharaoh, and telleth him his age. 2 The land of Goshen is gaue him. 3 The idolatrous priests haue lining of the King. 4 Iaakob's age when he dieth. 5 Ioseph sweareth to bury him with his fathers.

¶ Then came Ioseph and told Pharaoh, and said, My father, and my brethren, & their sheepe, and their cattell and all that they haue, are come out of the land of Canaan, & behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And Ioseph tooke part of his brethren, euē five men, & presented them vnto Pharaoh.

3 Then Pharaoh saide vnto his brethren, What is your trade? And they answered Pharaoh, Thy seruants are shepheards, both wee and our fathers.

4 They said moreouer vnto Pharaoh: For to sojourne in the land are wee come: for thy seruants haue no pasture for their sheepe, so sore is the famine in the lande of Canaan. Now therefore, wee pray thee, let thy seruants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 Then spake Pharaoh to Ioseph, saying, Thy father & thy brethren are come vnto thee.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwell: let them dwell in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of actiuitie among them, make them rulers ouer my cattell.

7 Ioseph also brought Iaakob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Iaakob saluted Pharaoh.

8 Then Pharaoh saide vnto Iaakob, How old art thou?

9 And Iaakob saide vnto Pharaoh, The whole time of my pilgrimage is an hundred and thirtie yeeres: few and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and I haue not attained vnto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimages.

10 And Iaakob tooke leaue of Pharaoh and departed from the presence of Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Ioseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gaue them possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the lande euē in the lande of * Ramesses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Ioseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers household with bread, euē to the yong children.

13 ¶ Now there was no breade in all the lande: for the famine was exceeding sore: so that that the land of Egypt, and the land of Canaan were famished by reason of the famine.

14 And Ioseph gathered all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corne which they bought, and Ioseph laid up the money in Pharaohs house.

15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came vnto Ioseph, and said, Giue vs bread: for why should we die before thee? for our money is spent.

16 Then said Ioseph, Bring your cattell, and I will giue you for your cattell, if your money be spent.

17 So they brought their cattell vnto Ioseph, & Ioseph gaue them bread for the horses, and for the flockes of sheepe, and for the herds of cattell, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattell that yeere.

18 But when the yeere was ended, they came vnto him the next yeere, and said vnto him, We will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and my lord hath the herds of the cattell, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our ground.

19 Why shal we perish in thy sight, both we, and our land? buy vs and our land for bread, and we and our land will bee bond to Pharaoh: therefore giue vs seed, that we may liue and not die, and that the land go not to waste.

20 So Ioseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold euery man his ground, because the famine was fore vpon them: so the land became Pharaohs.

21 And he remooued the people vnto the cities, from one side of Egypt euen to the other.

22 Onely the land of the Priests bought he not: for the Priests had an ordinary of Pharaoh, and they did eate their ordinary, which Pharaoh gaue them: wherefore they solde not their ground.

23 Then Ioseph said vnto the people, Behold, I haue bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh: loe, heere is seede for you: sowe therefore the ground.

24 And of the increase ye shall giue the fift part vnto Pharaoh, and foure parts shalbe yours for the seed of the field, and for your meat, and for them of your households, and for your children to eat.

25 Then they answered, Thou hast saued our liues: let vs finde grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaohs seruants.

26 Then Ioseph made it a law ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharaoh should haue the fift part, except the land of the priests onely, which was not Pharaohs.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the countrey of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Moreover, Iaakob liued in the land of Egypt seuentene yeeres, so that the whole age of Iaakob was an hundred fourtie and seuen yeeres.

29 Now when the time drew neere that Israel must die, hee called his sonne Ioseph, and said vnto him, If I haue now found grace in thy sight, * put thine hand now vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truly with me: bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt.

30 But when I shall sleepe with my fathers, thou shalt cary me out of Egypt, and bury mee in their buriall. And he answered, I will doe as thou hast said.

31 Then he said, Swear vnto me. And he sware vnto him. And Israel worshipped towards the bed's head.

CHAP. XLVIII.

2 Also one told Iaakob, and said, Beholde, thy sonne Ioseph is come to thee, and Israel tooke his strength vnto him, and fate vpon the bed.

3 Then Iaakob said vnto Ioseph, God Almighty appeared vnto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

4 And he said vnto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitfull, and will multiply thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will giue this land vnto thy seede after thee for an euermlasting possession.

5 And now thy two sonnes, Manasseh and Ephraim, which are borne vnto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came to thee into Egypt, shalbe mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

7 Now when I came from Padan, Rahel died vpon mine hand in the land of Canaan, by the way when there was but halfe a dayes journey of ground to come to Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath: the same is Beth-lehem.

8 Then Israel behelde Iosephs sonnes, and said, Whose are these?

9 And Ioseph said vnto his father, They are my sonnes, which God hath giuen mee here. Then hee said, I pray thee, bring them to me, that I may blesse them:

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Izhak and Rebekah his wife: and there I buried Leah.

33 Thus Iakob made an ende of giuing charge to his sonnes, and^x plucked vp his feete into the bed, and gaue vp the ghost, and was gathered to his people.

CHAP. L.

13 Iakob is buried. 19 Ioseph forgiveth his brethren, 23 He seeth his childrens children. 25 He dieth.

Then Ioseph fell vpon his fathers face and wept vpon him, and kissed him.

2 And Ioseph commanded his seruants the^a physicians, to embalme his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 So fortie dayes were accomplished (for so long did the dayes of them that were embalmed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him^b seuentie dayes.

4 And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Ioseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I haue now found fauour in your eyes, speake, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, and say,

5 My father made me^c swear, saying, Lo, I die, bury me in my graue, which I haue made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me goe, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come againe.

6 Then Pharaoh said, Go vp and bury thy father, as he made thee to sweare.

7 ¶ So Ioseph went vp to bury his father, and with him went all the seruants of Pharaoh, both the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

8 Likewise all the house of Ioseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: only their children, and their sheepe, and their cattel left they in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went vp with him both charcers and horsemen: and they were an exceeding great company.

10 And they came to Goren Atad, which is beyond Iorden, and there they made a great and exceeding sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seuen dayes.

11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land sawe the mourning in Goren Atad, they said, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: wherefore the name therof was called^d Abel Mizraim, which is beyond Iorden.

12 So his sonnes did vnto him, according as he had commanded them:

13 For his sonnes carried him into the land of Canaan, & buried him in the caue of the field of Machpelah, which^e Abraham bought with the field, to bee^f a place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite besides Mamre.

14 ¶ Then Ioseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren: and all that went vp with him to bury his father, after that hee had buried his father.

15 And when Iosephs brethren sawe that their father was dead, they said, It may be that Ioseph wil hate vs, and will pay vs againe all the euil which we did vnto him.

16 Therefore they sent vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father comanded before his death, saying,

17 Thus shall yee say vnto Ioseph, Forgiue now, I pray thee, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin: for they rewarded thee euill. And now, we pray thee, forgie the trespass of the seruants of thy fathers^g God. And Ioseph wept when^h they spake vnto him.

18 Also his brethren came vnto him, and fell downe before his face, and said, Behold, we bee thy seruants.

19 To whom Ioseph sayd, Feare not: for I am not I vnderⁱ God?

20 When ye thought euill against me, God disposed it to good, that hee might bring to passe, as it is this day, and saue much people aliue.

21 Feare not now therefore, I will nourish you, & your children: and he comforted them, and spake^j kindly vnto them.

22 ¶ So Ioseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers house: and Ioseph liued an hundred and ten yeere.

23 ¶ And Ioseph saw Ephraims children, c- uen vnto the third generation: also the sonnes of Machir the sonne of Manasseh were brought vp on Iosephs knees.

24 And Ioseph sayd vnto his brethren, I am ready to die, and God will surely visite you, and bring you out of this land, vnto the land which he sware vnto Abraham, vnto Izhak, and vnto Iakob.

25 And Ioseph tooke an oath of the children of Israel, saying, ^k God will surely visite you, and ye shall cary my bones hence.

THE ARGVMENT.

A Fact that Iacob by Gods commandment, Gen. 46. 3. had brought his family into Egypt, where they remained for the space of foure hundred yeeres, and of seventy persons grew to an infinite number, so that the King and the country grudge and endeuoured both by tyranny and cruell slavery to suppress them: the Lord according to his promise, Gen. 15. 14. had compassion of his Church, and deliuered them, but played vnder their answer in most strange and sundry sorts. And the more that the tyranny of the wicked enaged against his Church, the more did his heavy iudgements increase against them, till Pharaoh and his army were drowned in the same Sea, which gaue an entry and passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, so did they immediately forget Gods wonderfull benefits: and albeit he had giuen them the Passouer to be a signe and memoriall of the same, yet they fell to distrust, and tempted God with sundry murmuring and grudging against him and his ministers: sometime moued with ambition, sometime for lacke of drinke or meate to content their lusts, sometime by idolatry, or such like. Wherefore God visited them with sharpe rods and plagues, that by his corrections they might seeke to him for remedy against his scourges, & earnestly repent them for their rebellions and wickednes. And because God loueth them to the end, whom he hath once begun to loue, he punished them not according to their desert, but dealt with them in great mercies, and euer with new benefites laboured to overcome their malice: for he still gouerned them and gaue them his word and Law, both concerning the manner of seruing him, and also the forme of iudgements and ciuill policy: to the intent that they should not serue God after their owne inuentions, but according to that order, which his heauenty wisdom had appointed.

a Moses describeth the wonderfull order that God obserueth in performing his promise to Abraham, Gen. 15. 14.

N these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, (every man and his householde came thither with Iacob)

1 Reuben, Simeon, Leui, and Iudah,

2 Issachar, Zekulun, and Benjamin,

3 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

4 So all the males that came out of the loynes of Iacob, were seventy soules: Ioseph was in Egypt already.

5 Now Ioseph died, and all his brethren, and that whole generation.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel brought forth fruit, & increased in abundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mighty, so that the land was full of them.

7 ¶ Then there rose vp a new king in Egypt, who knew not Ioseph.

8 And he said vnto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are greater and mightier then we.

9 Come, let vs work wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to passe, that if there bee warre, they ioyne themselues also vnto our enemies, and fight against vs, and get them out of the land.

10 Therefore did they set taskemasters ouer them, to keepe them vnder with burdens:

and they built the cities Pithom and Raames, for the treasures of Pharaoh.

11 But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied & grew: therefore they were more grieved against the children of Israel.

13 ¶ Thus they made them weary of their liues by sore labor in clay & in brick, and in all worke in the field, with all manner of bondage, which they laid vpon them most cruelly.

14 ¶ Moreover the king of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Ebrewewomen, (of which the ones name was Shiphray, and the name of the other Puah)

15 And said, When ye doe the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes, and see them on their stools, if it be a sonne, then yee shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her liue.

16 ¶ Notwithstanding the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but preferred aliue the men children.

17 ¶ Then the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and sayd vnto them, Why haue ye done thus, and haue preferred aliue the men children?

18 And the midwives answered Pharaoh, Because the Ebrewewomen are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuely, and are deliuered yer the midwife come at them.

19 ¶ God therefore prospered the midwives, and the people multiplied and were very mightie.

3 But when she could no longer hide him, shee tooke for him an arke made of reede, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and ^b layd downe to wash her in the riuer, and her may-saw the arke among the bulrushes, she sent her maid to fet it.

6 Then shee opened it, and saw it was a childe: and behold, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and said, This is one of the Ebrewes children.

7 Then said his sifter vnto Pharaohs daugh-

Ebrew women to nurse thee the childe?

8 And Pharaohs daughter sayde to her,
Goe. So the maid went and called the ^c childes

10 Now the childe grew, and shee brought him vnto Pharaohs daughter, and he was as her sonne, and she called his name Moses, because, said she, I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And in those dayes, when Moses was grown, he went forth vnto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: also he saw an Egyptian smiting an Ebrew one of his brethren.

12 And he looked [†] round about, and when he saw no man, hee ^e slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

man of authoritie, and a iudge ouer vs? Thinkest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses ^f feared and said, Certainly this thing is knowne.

sought to slay Moses: therefore Moses fledde from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sate downe by a well.

^k He heard before, but now he would reuenge it. 9 And now loe, the crie of the children of Israel is come vnto mee, and I haue also seene the oppression, wherewith the Egyptians oppresseth them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee vnto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

^l He doeth not fully disobey God, but acknowledge his owne weakness. 11 But Moses said vnto God, Who am I, that I should go vnto Pharaoh, & that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

^m Neither feare thine owne weakness, nor Pharaohs tyranny. 12 And he answered, Certainly I will bee with thee: and this shall be a token vnto thee, that I haue sent thee, After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shall serue God vpon this mountaine.

13 Then Moses sayd vnto God, Beholde, when I shall come vnto the children of Israel, and shall say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent mee vnto you: if they say vnto mee, What is his Name? what shall I say vnto them?

15 And God spake further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath sent mee vnto you: this is my Name for euer, and this is my memoriall vnto all ages.

17 Therefore I did say, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuirites, and the Iebusites, vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony.

^q Because Egypt was full of idolatry, God would appoint them a place where they should serue him purely. 19 But I know, that the king of Egypt wil not let you goe, but by strong hand.

20 Therefore will I stretch out mine hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders, which I will doe in the middes thereof: and after that shall hee let you goe.

21 And I will make this people to be favoured of the Egyptians: so that when ye goe, ye shall not goe empty.

3 Moses rodde is turned into a serpent. 6 His hand is leprous. 9 The water of the riuer is turned into blood. 14 Aaron is giuen to helpe Moses. 21 God hardeneth Pharaoh. 25 Moses wife circumciseth her sonne. 27 Aaron meeteth with Moses, and they come to the Israelites, and are beleued.

^r God beareth with Moses doubting, because he was not altogether without faith. Then Moses answered, and said, But loe, they will not belecue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lord said vnto him, What is that in thine hand? And he answered, A rod.

3 Then said he, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the ground, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it.

4 Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the taile. Then he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

^s This power to worke miracles was to confirme his doctrine, and to assure him of his vocation. 5 Doe this that they may belecue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath appeared vnto thee.

22. Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my sonne, euen my first borne.

1. Moses and Aaron doe their message to Pharaoh, who letteth not the people of Israel depart, but oppresseth them more and more. 20. They cry vnto Moses and Aaron therefore, and Moses complaineth to God.

¶ Then afterward Moses and Aaron went and saide to Pharaoh, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, Let my people goe, that they may celebrate a feast vnto me in the wilderness.

2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should heare his voyce, and let Israel goe? I knowe not the Lord, neither will I let Israel goe.

3. And they saide, ¶ We worship the God of the Ebrewes: we pray thee, let vs goe three dayes iourney in the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, lest he bring vpon vs the pestilence or sword.

4. Then saide the King of Egypt vnto them, Moses and Aaron, why cause ye the people to cease from their works? get you to your burthens.

5. Pharaoh saide furthermore, Beholde, much people is now in the land, and yee make them leaue their burthens.

6. Therefore Pharaoh gaue commaundement the same day vnto the taskmasters of the people, and to their officers, saying,

7. Ye shall giue the people no more straw, to make bricke († as in time past) but let them goe and gather them straw themselves:

8. Notwithstanding lay vpon them the number of bricke, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they bee idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice vnto our God.

9. Lay more worke vpon the men, and cause them to doe it, and let them not regard vaine words.

10. ¶ Then went the taskmasters of the people and their officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will giue you no more straw.

11. Goe your selues, get you strawe where ye can find it, yet shall nothing of your labour be diminished.

17 But hee said, Yee are too much idle: therefore ye say, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice to the Lord.

18 Goe therefore now and worke: for there shall no straw be giuen you, yet shal ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israel saw themselves in an euill case, because it was said, Yee shall diminish nothing of your bricke, nor of euery dayes taske.

20 ¶ And they met Moses & Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out from Pharaoh.

21 To whom they said, The Lord looke vpon you and iudge: for ye haue made our sauour to stinke before Pharaoh and before his seruants, in that yee haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

22 Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

5 So I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israel, whome the Egyptians keepe in bondage, and haue remembered my couenant.

CHAP. VII.

3 God hardeneth Pharaohs heart. 10 Moses and Aaron do the miracles of the serpent, and the blood: and Pharaohs forcerers doe the like.

THEN the Lord said to Moses, Beholde, I haue made thee ¶ Pharaohs a God, and Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaunded thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speake vnto Pharaoh, that hee suffer the children of Israel to goe out his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my miracles and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shall not hearken vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, euen my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great iudgements.

5 Then the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, euen so did they.

7 (Now Moses was fourescore yeere old, and Aaron fourescore and three, when they spake vnto Pharaoh)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh speake vnto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you, then thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall be turned into a serpent.

10 ¶ Then went Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his seruants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and forcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast downe euery man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, and he hearkened not to them, as the Lord had said.

14 ¶ The Lord then said vnto Moses, Pharaohs heart is obstinate, he refuseth to let the people goe.

15 Goe vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (lo, hee will come forth vnto the water) and thou shalt stand & meet him by the riuers brinke, and therod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hath sent mee vnto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serue mee in the wildernesse: and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not heare.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rodde that is in mine hande vpon the water that is in the riuier, and it shall bee turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the riuier shall die, and the riuier shall stinke, and it shall grieue the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuier.

19 ¶ The Lord then spake to Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, & stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers, & ouer their ponds, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shall be blood, and there shall be blood through out all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and of stone.

*20 So Moses and Aaron did euen as the Lord commanded: * and he lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuier in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and * all the water that was in the riuier, was turned into blood.*

21 And the fish that was in the riuier, died, & the riuier stanke: so that the Egyptians could not drinke of the water of the riuier: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

*22 * And the Enchanters of Egypt did likewise with their forceries: and the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so that hee did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had said.*

23 Then Pharaoh returned, and went againe into his house, neither did this yet enter into his heart.

24 All the Egyptians then digged round about the riuier for waters to drinke: for they could not drinke of the water of the riuier.

25 And this continued fully seven dayes after the Lord had smitten the riuier.

AFTERWARD the Lord saide vnto Moses, Goe vnto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith

5 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Say thou vnto Aaron, Stretch out thine hand with thy rodde vpon the streames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the ponds, and cause frogs to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched out his hand vpon the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came vp, and couered the land of ^b Egypt.

7 ¶ And the Sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogs vp vpon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, ^c Pray ye vnto the Lord, that hee may take away the frogs from mee, and from my people, and I will let the people goe, that they may doe sacrifice vnto the Lord.

9 And Moses said vnto Pharaoh, [†] Concerning mee, ^{enw} commaund when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogges from thee, and from thine houses, that they may remaine in the riuer onely.

10 Then hee said, To morow. And he answered, Be it as thou hast said, that thou maiest know, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.

11 So the frogges shall depart from thee, and from thine houses, and from thy seruants, and from thy people: onely they shall remaine in the riuer.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried vnto the Lord concerning the frogges, which hee had [¶] sent vnto Pharaoh.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: so the frogges ^d died in the houses, in the townes, and in the fields.

14 And they gathered them together by heapes, and the land stank of them.

15 But when Pharaoh sawe that hee had [¶] reft [¶] giuen him, hee [¶] hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

16 ¶ Again the Lord said vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may be [¶] turned to [¶] Lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and smote the dust of the earth: and Lice came vpon man and vpon beast: all the dust of the earth was Lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the Enchanters assayed likewise with their Enchantments to bring forth Lice, but they ^e could not. So the Lyce were vpon man and vpon beast.

19 Then said the Enchanters vnto Pharaoh, This is ^f the finger of God, But Pharaohs heart remained obstinate, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

20 ¶ Moreover the Lord saide to Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (loe, he wil come forth vnto the wate) and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people goe, beholde, I will send [¶] swarmes of flies both vpon thee, and vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall bee full of swarmes of flies, and the ground also whereon they are.

22 But the land of Goshen, where my people are, will I cause to be [¶] wonderfull in that day, so that no swarmes of flies shall bee there, that thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the middes of the [¶] earth.

23 And I will make a deliuerance of my people from thy people: to morowe shall this miracle be.

24 And the Lord did so: ^{* Wisd. 16. 9.} for there came [¶] great swarmes of flies into the house of Pharaoh, & into his seruants houses, so that through all the land of Egypt, the earth was corrupt by the swarmes of flies.

25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Goe, doe sacrifice vnto your God in this land.

26 But Moses answered, It is not meete to doe so: for [¶] then we shoul offer vnto the Lord our God, [¶] that, which is an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Loe, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone vs?

3 The morraine of bestes. 10 The plague of hatches and sores. 23 The horrible haile, thunder, and the lightening. 26 The land of Goshen is ever excepted. 27 Pharaoh confesseth his wickednes. 33 Moses prayeth for him. 35 Yet he is obstinate.

THEN the Lord said vnto Moses, Goe to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me.

2 But if thou refuse to let them goe, and wilt yet hold them still,

3 Beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thy flocke which is in the field: for vpon the horses, vpon the asses, vpon the camels, vpon the cattell, and vpon the sheepe shall be a mightie morraine.

4 And the Lord shall doe wonderfully betweene the bestes of Israel, and the beastes of Egypt: so that there shal nothing dye of all, that pertaineth to the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, saying, To morow the Lord shall finish this thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did this thing on the morow, and all the cattell of Egypt died: but of the cattell of the children of Israel died not one.

7 Then Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: and the heart of Pharaoh was obstinate, and he did not let the people goe.

8 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, and to Aaron, take your handfull of ashes of the fornace, and Moses shal sprinkle them toward the heauen in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And they shall bee turned to dust in all the land of Egypt: and it shall bee as a scabbe breaking out into blisters vpon man, and vpon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then they tooke ashes of the fornace, and stood before Pharaoh: and Moses sprinkled them toward the heauen, and there came a scabbe breaking out into blisters vpon man, and vpon beast.

11 And the forcerers could not stand before Moses, because of the scabbe: for the scabbe was vpon the Enchanters, and vpon all the Egyptians.

12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said vnto Moses.

13 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

14 For I wil at this time send al my plagues vpon thine heart, and vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people, that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out mine hande, that I may smite thee and thy people with the pestilence: & thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And in deede, for this cause haue I appointed thee, to shew my power in thee, and to declare my Name throughout al the world.

17 Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not goe.

18 Beholde, to morowe this time I will cause to raine a mightie great haile, such as was not in Egypt, since the foundation thereof was layd, vnto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattell, and all that thou hast in the field: for vpon all the men, and the bestes, which are found in the field, and not brought home, the haile shall fall vpon them, and they shall die.

20 Such then as feared the word of the Lord among the seruants of Pharaoh, made his seruants and his cattell flee into the houses:

21 But such as regarded not the word of the Lord, left his seruants, and his cattell in the field.

22 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heauen; that there may bee haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beast, and vpon all the herbs of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thunder and haile, and lightning vpon the ground: & the Lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was haile, and fire mingled with the haile, so gricuous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since it was a nation.

25 And the haile smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast: also the haile smote all the herbs of the field, and brake to peeces all the trees of the field.

26 Onely in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, I haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28 Pray ye vnto the Lord (for it is ynough) that there bee no more mightie thunders and haile, and I will let you goe, and yee shall tary no longer.

29 Then Moses said vnto him, As soone as I am out of the cite, I will spreade mine hands vnto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there bee any more haile, that thou mayest know that the earth is the Lords.

30 As for thee and thy seruants, I knowe before I pray, yee will feare before the face of the Lord God.

31 (And the flaxe, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flaxe was bolled.

and the thunder and the haile ceased, neither rained it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh sawe that the raine and the haile, and the thunder were ceased, hee sinned againe, and hardened his heart, both he, and his seruants.

35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel goe, as the Lord had said by Moses.

CHAP. X.

7 Pharaohs seruants counsaile him to let the Israelites depart. 13 Grasshoppers destroy the country. 16 Pharaoh confesseth his fault. 21 Darkenesse is sent. 28 Pharaoh forbiddeth Moses to come any more in his presence.

Again the Lord saide vnto Moses, Goe to Pharaoh: for * I haue hardened his heart, & the heart of his seruants, that I might worke these my miracles in the middes of his Realme,

3 And that thou mayest declare in the eares of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I haue done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

3 Then came Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and they saide vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Howe long wilt thou refuse to ^b humble thy selfe before mee? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people goe, beholde, to morowe will I bring ^h grasshoppers into thy houses.

5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that a man cannot see the earth: and they shall eate the residue which remaineth vnto you, and hath escaped from the haile: and they shall eate all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shall fill thine houses, and all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue scene, since the time they were vpon the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaohs seruants said vnto him, How long shall he be ^{an} offence vnto vs? let the men go, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first knowe that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharaoh, and hee saide vnto them, Goe serue the Lord your God, but who are they that shall goe?

9 And Moses answered, We will goe with our yong, and with our olde, with our sonnes and with our slaughters, with our sheepe and with our cattell will wee goe: for we ^{must} celebrate a feast vnto the Lord.

10 And he saide vnto them, Let ^d the Lord so be with you, as I will let you goe and your children: behold, for ^e euill is before your face.

11 It shall not bee so: now goe yee that are men, and serue the Lord: for that was your de- fire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence.

12 ¶ After, the Lord saide vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand vpon the land of Egypt for the grasshoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eate all the herbs of the land, ^{eu}en all that the haile hath left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rodde vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East winde brought the grasshoppers.

14 So the grasshoppers went vp vpon all the land of Egypt, and remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grievous grasshoppers, like to these were neuer before, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the land was darke: and they did eate all the herbs of the land, and all the fruits of the trees, which the haile had left, so that there was no greene thing left vpon the trees, nor among the herbs of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for ^f Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And now forgie me my sinne only this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh and prayed vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strong West winde, and tooke away the grasshoppers, and violently cast them into the red sea, ^{so that} there remained not one grasshopper in all the coast of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he did not let the children of Israel goe.

21 ¶ Again the Lord saide vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, that there may be vpon the land of Egypt darknes, euē darknesse that may be ^h felt.

22 Then Moses stretched forth his hand toward heauen, and there was a ^h blacke * darknesse in all the land of Egypt three dayes.

23 No man sawe another, neither rose vp from the place where hee was ^{for} three dayes: * but all the children of Israel had light where they dwelt.

24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses, and saide, Goe, serue the Lord. onely your sheepe and your cattell shall abide, and your children shall goe with you.

25 And Moses saide, Thou must giue vs also sacrifices, and burnt offerings, that we may doe ^{sacrifice} vnto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattell also shall goe with vs: there shall not an ⁱ hoose be left, for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: neither do we know ^k how we shall serue the Lord, vntill we come thither.

your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shall observe this day throughout your posterity, by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the first month, and the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread unto the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven dayes shall no leaven be found in your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, that person shall be cut off from the Congregation of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or borne in the land.

20 Ye shall eat no leavened bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said unto them, Chuse out and take you for every of your households a lamb, and kill the Passecouer.

22 And take a bunch of hyssope, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintell, and the doore cheekes with the blood that is in the basin, and let none of you goe out at the doore of his house until the morning.

23 For the Lorde will passe by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood upon the lintell, and on the two doore cheekes, the Lorde will passe over the doore, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shall ye observe this thing as an ordinance both for thee and thy sonnes for ever.

25 And when ye shall come into the land, which the Lord wil give you as he hath promised, then ye shall keep this service.

26 ¶ And when your children aske you, What service is this ye keepe?

27 Then ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lords Passecouer, which passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when hee smote the Egyptians, and preserved our houses. Then the people bowed themselves, and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

29 ¶ Now at midnight the Lord smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of beasts.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, hee, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians: and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, & said, Rise up, get you out from among my people, both ye, and the children of Israel, and go serve the Lord as ye have said.

32 Take also your sheepe and your cattel, as ye have said, and depart, and be blest me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We die all.

34 Therefore the people took their dough before it was leavened, even their dough bound in clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and they granted their request: so they spoiled the Egyptians.

38 And a great multitude of sundry sorts of people went out with them, and sheepe, and beeves, and cattell in great abundance.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, and made unleavened cakes: for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither could they tarry, nor yet prepare themselves vitales.

40 ¶ So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was four hundred and thirtie yeres.

41 And when the four hundred and thirtie yeres were expired, even the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be kept holy to the Lord, because he brought them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keepe throughout their generations.

43 Also the Lord said unto Moses & Aaron, This is the law of the Passecouer: no stranger shall eat thereof.

44 But every servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A stranger or an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 ¶ In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt carrie none of the flesh out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone thereof.

47 All the Congregation of Israel shall observe it.

48 But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will observe the Passecouer of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males that belong unto him, and then let him come and observe it, and he shall be as one that is borne in the land: for none uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is borne in the land, and to the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 Then all the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses & Aaron: so did they.

51 And the selfe same day did the Lord bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 *Sanctific vnto me al the first borne: that is, euery one that first openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beaſt: for it is mine.

3 ¶ Then Moses said vnto the people, *Remember this day in the which yee came out of Egypt, out of the house of a bondage: for by a mighty hand the Lord brought you out from thence: therefore no leauened bread shall bee eaten.

4 This day come ye out in the moneth of Abib.

5 ¶ Now when the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hiuites, and Iebusites (which hee ſware vnto thy fathers, that hee would giue thee, a land flowing with milke and hony) then thou shalt keepe this ſeruice in this moneth.

6 Seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleauened bread, and the ^d ſeuenth day shall be the feaſt of the Lord.

7 Vnleauened bread shall bee eaten ſeuē dayes, and there shall no leauened bread bee ſcene with thee, nor yet leauen bee ſcene with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt ſhewe thy ſonne in that day, ſaying, This is done, becauſe of that which the Lord did vnto me, when I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shall bee a ſigne vnto thee ^f vpon thine hand, and for a remembrance betwene thine eyes, that the Law of the Lord may be in thy mouth: for by a ſtrong hand the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinance in his ſeaſon appointed from yeere to yeere.

11 ¶ And when the Lord shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as hee ſware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee, 12 *Then thou shalt ſet apart vnto the Lord all that first openeth the wombe: alſo euery thing that first doeth open the wombe, and commeth forth of thy beaſt: the males shall be the Lords.

13 But euery [†] first foale of an aſſe, thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: & if thou redeeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: likewise alſo the first borne of man among thy ſonnes shalt thou ^b buy out.

14 ¶ And when thy ſonne ſhall aſke thee || to morrow, ſaying, What is this? thou shalt then ſay vnto him, With a mighty hand the Lord brought vs out of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage.

15 For when Pharaoh was heard hearted againſt our departing, the Lord then ſlew all the first borne in the land of Egypt: from the first borne of man euen to the first borne of beaſt: therefore I ſacrifice vnto the Lord all the males that first open the wombe, but all the first borne of my ſonnes I redeeme.

16 And it shall bee as a token vpon thine hand, and as || frontlets betwene thine eyes, that the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

17 ¶ Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God caried them not by the way of the Philiftims country, || though it were neerer: (for God ſaid, leſt the people repent when they ſee warre, and turne againe to Egypt)

18 But God made the people to goe about by the way of the wilderness of the red Sea: and the children of Israel went vp ^a armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 (And Moses tooke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel ſwear, ſaying, *God will ſurely viſite you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you)

20 ¶ So they tooke their iourney from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wilderness.

21 *And the Lorde went before them by day in a pillar of a ¹ cloud to lead them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might goe both by day and by night.

22 *He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

In this figure foure chiefe poyntes are to be considered. First, that the Church of God is ever subiect in this world to the crosse, and to be afflicted after one sort or other. The second, that the ministers of God following their vocation, shall be euill spoken of, and murmured against, euen of them that pretend the same cause and Religion that they doe. The third, that God deliuereth not his Church continually out of dangers, but to exercise their faith and patience continueth their troubles, yea, and often times augmenteth them: as the Israelites were now in lesse hope of their liues, then when they were in Egypt. The fourth point is, that when the dangers are most great, then Gods helpe is most ready to succour: for the Israelites had on either side them huge rocks and mountaines, before them the sea, behinde them most cruell enemies, so that there was no way left to escape to mans iudgement.

and all the chariots of Egypt, and captaines ouer euery one of them.

8 (For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and hee followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an high hand.)

9 And the Egyptians pursued after them, and all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen and his hoste ouertooke them camping by the Sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were fore afraid: wherfor the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord.

11 And they saide vnto Moses, Haft thou brought vs to die in the wilderness, because there were no graues in Egypt? wherfore haft thou serued vs thus, to cary vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tel thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that we may serue the Egyptians: for it had bin better for vs to serue the Egyptians, then that wee should die in the wilderness.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Feare ye not, stand still, and behold the saluation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day. For the Egyptians whom ye haue seene this day, ye shall neuer see them againe.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore hold you your peace.

15 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Wherfore criest thou vnto mee? speake vnto the children of Israel that they go forward:

16 And lift thou vp thy rod, and stretch out thine hand vpon the sea and diuide it, and let the children of Israel goe on drie ground thorow the mids of the sea.

17 And I, beholde, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may followe them, and I will get me honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his host, vpon his chariots, and vpon his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaoh, vpon his chariots, and vpon his horsemen.

19 And the Angel of God, which went before the host of Israel, remoued & went behind them: also the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them.

20 And came betwene the campe of the Egyptians, and the campe of Israel: it was both a cloud and darknes, yet gaue it light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moses stretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, and the Lord caused the Sea to runne backe by a strong East wind all the night, and made the sea drie land: for the waters were diuided.

22 Then the children of Israel went thorow the mids of the Sea vpon the drie ground, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the mids of the sea, euen all Pharaohs horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now in the morning watch, when the Lord looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, out of the fiery and cloudy pillar, hee strooke the hoste of the Egyptians with feare.

25 For hee tooke off their chariot wheeles, and they draue them with much adoe: so that the Egyptians euery one sayd, I will flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 Then the Lord said to Moses, Stretch thine hand vpon the sea, that the waters may returne vpon the Egyptians, vpon their chariots and vpon their horsemen.

27 Then Moses stretched forth his hand vpon the sea, and the sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord ouerthrew the Egyptians in the mids of the sea.

28 So the water returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, euen all the hoste of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked vpon drie land thorow the middes of the sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saued Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, & Israel saw the Egyptians dead vpon the sea banke.

31 And Israel sawe the mightie power, which the Lord shewed vpon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and beleueed the Lord, and his seruant Moses.

7 And in thy great glory thou hast ouerthrowen them that rose against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as the stubble.

8 And by the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered, the floods stood still as an heape, the depthes congealed together in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue. I will ouertake them, I will diuide the spoile,† my lust shall be satisfied vpon them, I will drawe my sword, mine hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou blewest with thy wind, the sea couered them, they sanke as lead in the mightie waters.

11 Who is like vnto thee, O Lord, among the gods: who is like thee so glorious in holinesse, so fearefull in praises, doing wonders!

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou wilt by thy mercy cary this people which thou deliueredst: thou wilt bring them in thy strength vnto thine holy habitation.

14 The people shall heare and be afraide: sorrow shall come vpon the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shalbe amased, and trembling shall come vpon the great men of Moab: all the inhabitants of Canaan shall waxe faint hearted.

16 Feare and dread shall fall vpon them: because of the greatnesse of thine armie, they shall bee still as a stone, till thy people passe, O Lord: till this people passe, which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, & plant them in the mountaine of thine inheritance, which is the place that thou hast prepared, O Lord, for to dwell in, euen the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thine hands shall establish.

18 The Lord shall reigne for euer and euer.

19 For Pharaohs horses went with his charrets and horsemen into the Sea, and the Lord

20 And Miriam the Prophetesse, sister of Aaron tooke a timbrell in her hand, and all the women came out after her with Timbrels and dances.

21 And Miriam answered the men, Sing ye vnto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath hee ouerthrowen in the Sea.

22 Then Moses brought Israel from the red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three dayes in the wilderness, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called I Marah.

24 Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drinke?

25 And hee cryed vnto the Lord, and the Lord shewed him a tree, which when hee had cast into the waters, the waters were sweete: there hee made them an ordinance and a lawe, and there hee proued them,

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken, O Israel, vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt giue care vnto his commaundements, and keepe all his ordinances, then will I put none of these diseases vpon thee, which I brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

day that I may proue them, whether they will walke in my law or no.

5 But the six day they shall prepare that, which they shall bring home, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 Then Moses and Aaron said vnto all the children of Israel, At euen yee shall know, that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning ye shall see the glory of the Lord: for he hath heard your grudging against the Lord: and what are we that ye have murmured against vs?

8 Again Moses said, At euen shall the Lord giue you flesh to eat, and in the morning your fill of bread: for the Lord hath heard your murmurings, which ye murmure against him: for what are we? your murmurings are not against vs, but against the Lord.

9 ¶ And Moses said vnto Aaron, Say vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, Draw neere before the Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

11 (For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tell them therefore, and say, At euen ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord your God.)

13 And so at euen the Quailes came and couered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the hofte.

14 ¶ And when the dew that was fallen was ascended, behold, a small round thing was vpon the face of the wilderness, final as the hoare frost on the earth.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they sayd one to another, It is MANN, for they wist not what it was. And Moses sayde vnto them, * This is the bread which the Lord hath giuen you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it euery man according to his eating, an Omer for a man according to the number of your persons: euery man shall take for them which are in his tent.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did measure it with an Omer, * hee that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that had gathered little, had no lacke: so euery man gathered according to his eating.

19 Moses then said vnto them, Let no man reserve thereof till morning.

20 Notwithstanding they obeyed not Moses: but some of them reserved of it till morning, and it was full of wormes, and stanke: therefore Moses was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it euery morning: euery man according to his eating: for when the heat of the sunne came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the six day they gathered twice so much bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And hee answered them, This is that which the Lord hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath vnto the Lord: bake that to day, which ye wil bake, and seethe that which ye wil seethe, and all that remaineth lay it vp to be kept till the morning for you.

24 And they laide it vp till the morning, as Moses bade, and it stanke not, neither was there any worme therein.

25 Then Moses said, Ear that to day: for to day is the Sabbath vnto the Lord: to day yee shall not find it in the field.

26 Sixe dayes shall yee gather it, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath: in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the Lord said vnto Moses, How long refuse yee to keepe my commandmentes, and my lawes?

29 Behold, how the Lord hath giuen you the Sabbath: therefore he giueth you the sixe day bread for two dayes: tarie therefore euery man in his place: let no man go out of his place the seventh day.

30 So the people rested the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name of it MANN: and it was like coriander seed, but white: and the taste of it was like vnto wafers made with hony.

32 And Moses said, This is that which the Lord hath commanded, Fill an Omer of it, to keepe it for your posteritie: that they may see the bread wherewith I haue fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 Moses also said to Aaron, Take a pottle and put an Omer full of MANN therein, and set it before the Lord to be kept for your posteritie.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laide it vp before the Testimony to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat MANN fortie yeres, vntill they came vnto a land inhabited: they did eate MANN vntill they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 The Omer is the tenth part of the Ephah.

So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs out of Egypt, to kill vs, and our children, and our cattell with thirst?
 4 And Moses cryed to the Lord, saying, What shall I doe to this people? for they be almost ready to stone me.
 5 And the Lord answered to Moses, Go before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rodde, wherewith thou shalt smote the river, take in thine hand and goe:
 6 Behold, I will stand there before thee upon the rocke in Horeb, and thou shalt smite on the rocke, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

And he called the name of the place, Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among vs, or no?

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Iethro cometh to see Moses his sonne in lawe. 8 Moses telleth him of the wonders of Egypt. 9 Iethro reioyceth and offereth sacrifice to God. 21 What manner of men

Officers and Iudges ought to be. 24 Moses obeyeth Iethros counsell in appointing Officers.

¶ When Iethro the Priest of Midian Moses father in law heard that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and how the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt.

¶ Then Iethro the father in law of Moses tooke Zipporah Moses wife (after he had sent her away)

And her two sonnes, (whereof the one was called Gershom: for he said, I haue bene an alien in a strange land:

And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was my helpe, and deliuered me from the sword of Pharaoh)

¶ And Iethro Moses father in lawe came with his two sonnes, and his wife vnto Moses into the wilderness, where he camped by the mount of God.

¶ And he said to Moses, I thy father in law Iethro am come to thee, and thy wife and her two sonnes with her.

¶ And Moses went out to meete his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him, and each asked other of his welfare: and they came into the tent.

¶ Then Moses tolde his father in law all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the rauaile that had come vnto them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.

¶ And Iethro reioyced at all the goodnes which the Lord had shewed to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

¶ Therefore Iethro said, Blessed bee the Lord, who hath deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hath also deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptians.

¶ Now I know that the Lord is greater then all the gods: for as they haue dealt proudly with them, so are they recompensed.

¶ Then Iethro Moses father in law tooke burnt offerings and sacrifices to offer vnto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eate bread with Moses father in lawe before God.

¶ Now on the morowe, when Moses sate to iudge the people, the people stood about Moses from morning vnto euen.

¶ And when Moses father in law sawe all that he did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning vnto euen?

¶ And Moses said vnto his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto mee to seeke God.

¶ When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge between one & another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

F 17 But

c That is, he sent messengers to say vnto him, I am of peace.

d Whereby it is euident that he worshipped the true God, and therefore Moses refused not to marrie his daughter.

e For they that drowned the children of the Israelites perished themselves by water.

f They are in that place, where the sacrifice was offered: for part was burnt, and the rest eaten.

g That is, to know Gods wil, and to haue iustice executed.

17 But Moses ſther in law ſayd vnto him,
The thing which thou doest, is not well.

18 Thou both weariest thy ſelfe greatly, and this people that is with thee: for the thing is too heavy for thee: thou art not able to doe it thy ſelfe alone.

19 Heare now my voyce, (I will giue thee counsell, and God ſhall be with thee) bee thou for the people to Godward, and report thou the cauſes vnto God,

20 And admoniſh them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, and ſhewe them the way, wherin they muſt walke, and the worke that they muſt doe.

21 Moreover, prouide thou among all the people: men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truly, hauing couerouſneſſe: and appoint ſuch ouer them to bee rulers ouer thou-ſands, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tennes.

22 And let them iudge the people at all ſeaſons: but every great matter let them bring vnto thee, and let them iudge all ſmall cauſes:
ſo ſhall it be eaſier for thee, when they ſhall beare the burden with thee.

23 If thou doeſt this thing, (and God ſo command thee) both thou ſhalt be able to endure, and all this people ſhall alſo go quietly to their place.

24 So Moses obeyed the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had ſaid:

25 And Moses choſe men of courage out of all Iſrael, & made them heads ouer the people, rulers ouer thouſands, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tennes.

26 And they iudged the people at all ſeaſons, but they brought the hard cauſes vnto Moses: for they iudged all ſmall matters themſelues.

27 Afterward Moses let his father in lawe depart, and he went into his countrey.

C H A P. XIX.

1 The Iſraelites come to Sinai. 5 Iſrael is choſen from among all other nations. 8 The people promiſe to obey God. 12
Hee that toucheth the hill, dieth. 16 God appeareth vnto Moses vpon the mount in thunder and lightning.

In the third moneth, after the children of Iſ-rael were gone out of the land of Egypt, the ſame day came they into y wildernes of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the deſert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderneſſe: then there Iſrael camped before the mount.

3 But Moses went vp vnto God, for the Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou ſay to the houſe of Iaakob, and tell the children of Iſrael,

4 Ye haue ſcene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caried you vpon eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto me.

5 Now therefore *it yee will heare my voyce indeede, and keepe my couenant, then ye ſhall be my chiefe treaſure aboue all people, though all the earth be mine.

6 Ye ſhall be vnto me alſo a kingdome of Priſtes, and an holy nation: Theſe are the words which thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the children of Iſrael.

7 Moses then came and called for the Elders of the people, & propoſed vnto them all theſe things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and ſaid, All that the Lord hath commanded, wee will doe. And Moses reported the words of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moses, Loe, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloud, that the people may heare, whiles I talke with thee, and that they may alſo beleue thee for euer. (for Moses had told the wordes of the people vnto
the Lord)

10 Moreover the Lord ſayd vnto Moses, Goe to the people, and ſanctifie them to day and to morrow, & let them waſh their clothes,

11 And let them be ready on the third day:
for the third day the Lord will come downe in the ſight of all the people vpon mount Sinai:

12 And thou ſhalt ſet markes vnto the people round about, ſaying, Take heede to your felues that yee goe not vp to the mount, nor touch the border of it: whoſoeuer toucheth the mount, ſhall ſurely die.

13 No hand ſhall touch it, but hee ſhall be ſtoned to death, or ſtricken thorow with darts:
whether it be beaſt or man, hee ſhall not liue:
when the horne bloweth long, they ſhall come vp into the mountaine.

14 Then Moses went downe from the mount vnto the people, and ſanctified the people, and they waſhed their clothes.

15 And he ſaid vnto the people, Be ready on the third day, and come not at your wiues.

16 And the third day when it was morning, there was thunders and lightnings, and a thicke cloud vpon the mount, and the ſound of the trumpet exceeding lowde, ſo that all the people, that was in the campe, was afraid.

17 Then Moses brought the people out of the tents to meete with God, and they ſtood in the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was all on ſmoke, because the Lord came downe vpon it in fire, and the ſmoke thereof aſcended, as the ſmoke of a fornaſe, and all the mount ſtrembled exceedingly.

19 And when the ſound of the trumpet blew long, and waxed louder and louder, Moſes ſpake, and God answered him by voyce.

20 (For the Lord came down vpon mount Sinai on the top of the mount) and when the Lord called Moses vp into the toppe of the mount, Moses went vp.

21 Then the Lord ſaide vnto Moses, Goe down, charge the people, that they breake not their bounds, to goe vp to the Lord to gaze, leſt many of them periſh.

29 Thou shalt make also ^b dishes for it, and incense cuppes for it, and coverings for it, and goblets, where with it shall be couered, ^c even of fine golde shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set vpon the Table Shew bread before me continually.

i It shall not be molten, but beaten out of the lump of golde with the hammer.

31 ^a Also thou shalt make a Candlestick of pure gold: of ⁱ worke beaten out with the hammer shall the Candlestick be made, his shaft, and his branches, his boules, his knops: and his floures shall be of the same.

32 Six branches: Ifo shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.

33 Three boules like vnto almonds, one knop and one floure in one branch: and three boules like almonds in the other branch, one knop and one floure: so throughout the six branches that come out of the Candlestick.

34 And in the ^b shaft of the Candlestick shall be four boules like vnto almonds, his knops and his floures.

35 And there shall bee a Loop vnder two branches made thereof: and a knop vnder two branches made thereof: and a knop vnder two branches made thereof, according to the six branches comming out of the Candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be thereof, all this shall be one beaten worke of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lampes thereof: and the lampes thereof shalt thou put thereon, to giue light toward that that is before it.

k This was the talent weight of the Temple, and weighed 120 pound.

38 Also the snuffers and snuffe dishes thereof shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a ^k talent of fine gold shalt thou make it with all these instruments.

40 * Look therefore that thou make them after their fashion, that was shewed thee in the mountaine.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The forme of the Tabernacle and the apperainances, 33 The place of the Arkes, of the Table, of the Table, and of the Candlestick.

Afterward thou shalt make the Tabernacle with ten curtaines of fine twined linen, and blewē filke, and purple, and skarlet: and in them thou shalt make Cherubims of ^a broidered worke.

2 The length of one curtaine shall be eight and twentie cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine, four cubites: every one of the curtaines shall haue one measure.

a That is, of most cunning or fine worke.

THE FIRST COVERING OF THE TABERNACLE.

NORTH.

A B C D The ten curtaines, which were eight and twenty cubites long of Cherubim work. A E The breadth of a curtaine was four cubites, and so the tenne were forty cubites broad. F G Two curtaines and an halfe: so that the whole laid together declareth that the Tabernacle was thirtie cubites long.

and twelue broad. F H Taches or bookes to tie the curtaines together.

3 Fiue curtaines shall be coupled one to another: and the other fiue curtaines shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make strings of blewē filke vpon the edge of the one curtaine, which is in the seluedge ^b of the coupling: and likewise shalt thou make in the edge of the other curtain in the seluedge in the second coupling.

b On the side that the curtains might be tied tog:ther.

5 Fiftie strings shalt thou make in one curtaine, and fiftie strings shalt thou make in the edge of the curtaine, which is in the ^c second coupling: the strings shall be one right against another.

c In tying together both the sides.

6 Thou shalt make also fiftie ^d taches of ^e Or, bookes, golde, and couple the curtaines one to another with the taches, and it shall be one ^f tabernacle. ^g Or, partition.

THE CURTAINES OF GOATES HAIRE.

NORTH.

These eleuen curtains of goates haire were put about the other tenne, A and the eleuenth hanged before the entrie of the Tabernacle, looke B. These also were thirtie cubites long, and the other but eight and twentie, ^h therefore on the South side they were a cubite longer then the other, looke C. And also another on the North side, that the boards might be couered, E.

7 ⁱ Also

7 ¶ Also thou shalt make curtaines of goats haire, to bee a couering vpon the Tabernacle: thou shalt make them to the number of eleuen curtaines.

8 The length of a curtaine shall bee thirtie cubits, & the bredth of a curtaine foure cubits: the eleuen curtaines shall be of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtaines by themselves, and the fixe curtaines by themselves: but thou shalt double the fixe curtaine vpon the forefront of the couering.

10 And thou shalt make fiftie strings in the edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of the coupling, and fifty strings in the edge of the other curtaine in the second coupling.

11 Likewise thou shalt make fifty [atches of brasse, & fasten them on the strings, & shalt couple the couering together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that resteth in the curtaines of the couering, even the halfe curtaine that resteth, shall be left at the backe side of the Tabernacle, 13 That the cubite on the one side, and the cubite on the other side of that which is left in the length of the curtaines of the couering, may remaine on either side of the Tabernacle to couer it.

14 Moreover, for that couering thou shalt make a couering of rammes skinned red, and a couering^h of badgers skinned aboue.

15 ¶ Also thou shalt make boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand vp.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and an halfe cubit the bredth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall bee in one board set in order as the teete of a ladder, one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

THE TABERNACLE.

A Twenty boards on the South side, and as many on the North side, which were of tenne cubites in length, that is frō E to E. The bredth of each was a cubit and halfe, by reason whereof, all ioyned together, made thirtie cubits, which was the length of the Tabernacle. Iosephus writeth that each board was an handfull thicke. B The nether part of the boardes which was cut into two tenons. C The two mortises for each tenon one, wrought in two pieces apart, wherein when the boards were put, they receiued the tenons, & held the boards vp. D D D D Signifie five barres to hold the boards in order: foure passed without the boards, the other most went thorow the thicknes of the boards, wherein holes were made therefore. E E Two rings, one at the upper part, and another at the nether part of the boards, which ioyned the sides of the Tabernacle, and the boards of the West end together. F F Rings wherethorow the barres passed. G H A vaile hanging on foure pillars, and wrought of Cherubims, which did separate the holy place from the most Holy. I The most Holy place. K The holy place, wherein on the South side the Candlesticke was placed, and on the North side against it, the Table of Shewbread. L Eight boards that close vp the Tabernacle on the West end, which was the uppermost end of the place. M A hanging or vaile, which was at the entry of the Tabernacle, being at the East end, which was fastened to hang at five pillars, 18 And thou shalt make boardes for the Tabernacle, even twenty boardes on the South side, even full South.

19 And thou shalt make fourty [ockets of siluer vnder the twentie boards, two sockets vnder one board for his two tenons, and two sockets vnder another board for his two tenons.

20 In like manner on the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North side shall be twentie boardes, 21 And their fourty sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder another board.

22 And on the side of the Tabernacle, toward the West shalt thou make fixe boards.

23 Also two boardes shalt thou make in the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides.

24 Also they shall bee ioyned beneath, and likewise they shall bee ioyned aboue to a ring: thus shall it be for them two: they shall be for the two corners.

25 So they shall be eight boardes hauing sockets of siluer, even fixteene sockets, that is, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder another board.

26 ¶ Then thou shalt make five barres of Shittim wood for the boards of one side of the Tabernacle, 27 And five barres for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle: also five barres for the boards of the side of the Tabernacle toward the West side.

28 And the middle bar shall go thorow the mids of the boards, from end to end.

29 And thou shalt couer the boardes with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the barres, and thou shalt couer the barres with golde.

30 So thou shalt reare vp the Tabernacle, * according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt make a vaile of blew filke and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: thou shalt make it of brodered work with Cherubims.

32 And thou shalt hang it vpon foure pillars of Shittim wood couered with golde, (whose hooks shall be of gold) standing vpon foure sockets of siluer.

33 ¶ Afterward thou shalt hang the vaile on the hookes, that thou mayest bring in thither, that is, (within the vaile) the Arke of the Testimony: and the vaile shall make you a separation betweene the holy place, and the most Holy place.

34 Also thou shalt put the Mercy seat vpon the Arke of the Testimony in the most Holy place, 35 And thou shalt set the Table without the vaile, and the Candlesticke ouer against the Table on the South side of the Tabernacle, and thou shalt set the Table on the North side.

e That is, five on the one side, and five on the other, & the fixe should hang ouer the doors of the Tabernacle.

f Or, hookes.

f For these curtaines were two cubits longer then the curtains of the Tabernacle: so that they were fider by a cubite on both sides.

36 Also thou shalt make an hanging for the doore of the Tabernacle of blew silke, and purple, & scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim, & couer them with gold: their heads shall be of golde, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brasie for them.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The altar of the burnt offering. 9 The court of the Tabernacle. 20 The lamps continually burning.

a For the burnt offering.

Moreover, thou shalt make the altar of Shittim wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad (the altar shall be foure square) and the height thereof three cubits,

THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING.

A B The length containing five cubits.
B C The breadth as much.
A D The height three cubits.
E The foure hornes or foure corners. F The grate which was put with in the altar, and whereupon the sacrifice was burnt.

H H H Ashpans, besoms, fleshhookes, basins, and such instruments appertaining to the altar.

2 And thou shalt make it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes shall be of it selfe, and thou shalt couer it with brasie.

3 Also thou shalt make his ashpans for his ashes, and his besomes, and his basins, and his fleshhookes, and his censers: thou shalt make all the instruments thereof of brasie.

4 And thou shalt make vnto it a grate like networke of brasie: also vpon that grate shalt thou make foure beaten rings vpon the foure corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it vnder the compasse of the altar beneath, that the grate may bee in the mids of the altar.

6 Also thou shalt make barres for the altar, barres of Shittim wood, and shalt couer them with brasie.

7 And the barres thereof shall be put in the rings, the which barres shall be vpon the two sides of the Altar: beare it.

8 Thou shalt make the altar hollowe betwene the boards: as God shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

c This was the first entry into the Tabernacle, where the people abode.

9 ¶ Also thou shalt make the court of the Tabernacle in the south side, euen full South: the court shall haue curtaines of fine twined linnen, of an hundred cubits long for one side, 10 And it shall haue twenty pillars, with their twentie sockets of brasie: the heads of the pillars, and their fillets shall be siluer.

11 Likewise on the North side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and the twentie pillars thereof with their twentie sockets of brasie: the heads of the pillars and the fillets shall be siluer.

13 And the breadth of the court Eastward, full East shall haue fiftie cubits.

14 Also hangings of fiftie cubits shall be on the one side with their three pillars and their three sockets.

15 Likewise on the other side shall be hangings of fiftie cubites, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 ¶ And in the gate of the court shall be a vaile of twentie cubites, of blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle, with the foure pillars thereof and their foure sockets.

17 All the pillars of the court shall haue fillets of siluer round about, with their heads of siluer, and their sockets of brasie.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty at either end, and the height five cubites, and the hangings of fine twined linnen, and their sockets of brasie.

19 All the vessels of the Tabernacle for all manner seruice thereof, & all the pinnes thereof, and all the pinnes of the court shall be brasie.

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring vnto thee pure oyle beaten, for the light, that the lampes may alway burne.

21 In the Tabernacle of the Congregation without the vaile, which is before the Testimonie, shall Aaron and his sons dresse them from euening to morning before the Lord, for a statute for euer vnto their generations, so be obserued by the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The Lord calleth Aaron and his sonnes to the Priesthood. 4 Their garments. 12. 29 Aaron entred into the Sanctuary in the name of the children of Israel. 30 Vrim and Thummim. 38 Aaron beareth the iniquity of the Israelites offerings.

AND cause thou thy brother Aaron to come vnto thee and his sonnes with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serue me in the Priests office: I meane, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, Aarons sonnes.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, glorious and beautifull,

3 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto all cunning men, whom I haue filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that he may serue mee in the Priests office.

4 Now

Now these shall be the garments, which they shall make, a breastplate, and an Ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coate, a miter, and a girdle: so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, and for his sonnes, that he may serue me in the Priests office.

THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST

A The Ephod, or upper coate, which was like cloth of golde and was girded vnto him, wherein was the breast-plate with the twelve stones, which was tied about with two chains to two rings, & beneath with two laces.

B The robe which was next vnder the Ephod, wherein were sowed the pomegranates and bells of gold.

C The tunicle or broidered coate, which was vnder the robe and longer then it, and was also without sleeves.

Therefore they shall take gold, & blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine linnen,

And they shall make the Ephod of golde blew silke, and purple, skarlet, and fine twined linnen of broidred worke.

The two shoulders thereof shall be ioyned together by their two edges: so shall it be closed.

And the embroidered gard of the same Ephod, which shall bee vpon him, shall be of the selfe same worke and stuffe, euen of golde, blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linnen.

And thou shalt take two Onix stones, and graue vpon them the names of the children of Israel:

Six names of them vpon the one stone, and the six names that remaine, vpon the second stone, according to their generations.

Thou shalt cause to graue the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel by a grauer of signets, that worketh and graeth in stone, and shall make them to bee set and embossed in golde.

And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

So thou shalt make bosses of golde;

And two chaines of fine golde at the end, of wrethed worke shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wrethed chaines vpon the bosses.

Also thou shalt make the breastplate of iudgement with broidred worke like the worke of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of golde, blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linnen shalt thou make it.

Four square it shall be and double, an hand breadth long, & an hand breadth broad.

Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, euen foure rowes of stones: the order shall bee thus, a rubie, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first row.

And in the second rowe thou shalt set an Iemeraud, a saphir, and a diamond.

And in the third row a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite.

And in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: and they shall bee set in gold in their embossments.

And the stones shall be, according to the names of the children of Israel, twelue, according to their names, grauen as signets, euerie one after his name, and they shall bee for the twelue tribes.

Then thou shalt make vpon the breastplate two chaines at the ends of wrethē worke of pure gold.

Thou shalt make also vpon the breastplate two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

And thou shalt put the two wrethen chaines of golde in the two rings in the endes of the breastplate.

And the other two ends of the two wrethen chaines, thou shalt fasten in the two embossments, and shalt put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod on the fore side of it.

Also thou shalt make two rings of golde, which thou shalt put in the two other ends of the breastplate, vpon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forepart of it ouer against the coupling of it vpon the broidered gard of the Ephod.

Thus they shall binde the breastplate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blew silke, that it may be fast vpon the broidred gard of the Ephod, & that the breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod.

So Aaron shall beare the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of iudgement vpon his heart, when hee goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

Also thou shalt put in the breastplate of iudgement the Vrim and the Thummim, which shall be vpon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lord continually.

And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blew silke.

And the hole for his head shall be in the middes of it, hauing an edge of wouen worke round about the collar of it: so it shall be as the collar of an habergion that it rent not.

And beneath vpon the skirts thereof thou shalt make pomegranates of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, round about the skirts thereof, 35 So it shall be vpon Aaron, when he ministereth, and his sound shall be heard, when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out, and he shall not die.

38 So it shall be vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may beare the iniquitie of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall be alwayes vpon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt embroider the fine linnen coat, and thou shalt make a miter of fine linnen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle worke.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonets shalt thou make them for glorie and comeliness.

q That is, consecrate them by giuing them things to offer, and thereby admit them to their office.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him, and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linnen breeches to couer their priuities: from the loines vnto the thighes shall they reach.

r Or, wisdom.

43 And they shall bee for Aaron and his sonnes when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie, and so die. This shall be a law for euer vnto him and to his seede after him.

CHAP. XXIX.

The manner of consecrating the Priests. 38 The continuall sacrifice. 45 The Lord promisseth to dwell among the children of Israel.

This thing also shalt thou doe vnto them when thou consecratest them to bee my Priests. Take a yong calfe, and two rammes without blemish,

* Levit. 9. 2.

2 And vnleavened bread and cakes vnleavened tempered with oile, and wafers vnleavened anointed with oile: (of fine wheate flour shalt thou make them) a To offer them in sacrifice.

3 Then thou shalt put them in one basket, and present them in the basket with the calfe and the two rammes,

4 And shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

5 Also thou shalt take the garments, and put vpon Aaron the tunicle, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the breastplate, and shalt close them to him with the broidered gird of the Ephod.

b Which was next vnder the Ephod.

6 Then thou shalt put the miter vpon his head, and shalt put the holy crowne vpon the miter.

* Chap. 28. 36.

7 And thou shalt take the anointing oile, and shalt powre vpon his head, & anoint him.

* Chap. 30. 25.

8 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and put coats vpon them,

9 And shalt gird them with girdles both Aaron and his sonnes: and shalt put the bonets on them, and the Priests office shall be theirs for a perpetuall lawe: thou shalt also fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes.

* Chap. 28. 41.

10 After, thou shalt present the calfe before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the calfe.

12 Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar with thy finger, and shalt powre all the rest of the blood at the foote of the Altar.

13 Also thou shalt take all the fat that couereth the inwards, and the kall, that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, & the fat that is vpon them, and shalt burne them vpon the Altar.

* Levit. 3. 3.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, and his skinnie, and his dung shalt thou burne with fire without the hofte: it is a sinne offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

16 Then thou shalt kill the ramme, and take his blood, and sprinkle it round about vpon the Altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ramme in pieces, and wash the inwards of him and his legs, and shalt put them vpon the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

18 So thou shalt burne the whole ramme vpon the Altar: for it is a burnt offering vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

d Or a sauour of rest, which causeth the wrath of God to cease.

19 And thou shalt take the other ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ramme, and take of his blood and put it vpon the lap of Aarons eare, and vpon the lappe of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thumb of their right hand, & vpon the great toe of their right foot, and shalt sprinkle the blood vpon the Altar round about.

e Meaning, the sole and neether part of the ear,

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the Altar, and of the anointing oile, and shalt sprinkle it vpon Aaron, and vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon the garments of his sonnes with him: so hee shall bee halowed, f Wherewith the Altar must be sprinkled.

† Ebr. fill their hands,

22 Also thou shalt take of the rammes the fat and the rumpe, euen the fat that couereth the inwards, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the ramme of consecration)

23 And one loafe of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oyle, and one wafer out of the basket of the vnleavened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sonnes, and shalt shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 Againe, thou shalt receiue them of their hands, and burne them vpon the Altar besides the burnt offering for a sweet sauour before the Lord: for this is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the brest of the ramme of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of the shaken offering, and the shoulder of the heaue offering, which was shaken to and fro, & which was heaued vp of the ramme of the consecration, which was for Aaron, and which was for his sonnes.

28 And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue it by a statute for euer, of the children of Israel: for it is an heaue offering, and it shall bee an heaue offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, euen their heaue offering to the Lord.

29 ¶ And the holy garments, which appertaine to Aaron, shall be his sonnes after him, to be anointed therein, & to be consecrate therin.

30 That sonne that shall bee Priest in his stead, shall put them on seuen dayes, when hee commeth into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ramme of the consecration, and seeth his flesh in the holy place.

32 * And Aaron and his sonnes shall eat the flesh of the ramme, and the bread that is in the basket, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 So they shall eat these things, whereby their atonement was made, to consecrate them and to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy things.

34 Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remaine vnto the morning, then thou shalt burne the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.

35 Therefore shalt thou doe thus vnto Aaron and vnto his sonnes, according to all things, which I haue commanded thee: seuen dayes shalt thou consecrate them,

36 And shalt offer euery day a calfe for a sinne offering, for reconciliation: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast offered vpon it for reconciliation, and shalt anoint it, to sanctifie it.

37 Seuen daies shalt thou cleanse the altar, and sanctifie it, so the altar shall bee most holy: and whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt present vpon the altar: euen two lambes of one yeere olde, day by day continually.

39 The one lambe thou shalt present in the morning, and the other lambe thou shalt present at euen.

40 And with the one lambe, a tenth part of fine floure mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of beaten oyle, and the fourth part of an hin of wine, for a drinke offering.

41 And the other lambe thou shalt present at euen: thou shalt do thereto according to the offering of the morning, and according to the drinke offering thereof, be, a burnt offering for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

42 This shall be a continuall burnt offering in your generations at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, where I will make appointment with you, to speake there vnto thee.

43 There I will appoint with the children of Israel, and the place shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctifie the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the altar: I will sanctifie also Aaron and his sonnes to be my priests.

45 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them out of the lande of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am the Lord their God.

7 And Aaron shall burne thereon sweete incense euery morning: when he^d dresseth the lamps thereof, shall he burne it.

8 Likewise at euen, when Aaron setteth vp the lamps thereof, hee shall burne incense:
this perfume shall be perpetually before the Lord throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no^e strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, neither powre any drinke offering^f thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make reconciliation vp on the hornes of it once in a yeere with the blood of the sinne offering in the day of reconciliation: once in the yeere shall hee make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generations: this is most holy vnto the Lord.

11 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 * When thou takest the summe of the children of Israel after their number, then they shall giue euery man^g a redemption of his life vnto the Lord, when thou tellest them, that there bee no plague among them when thou

13 This shall euery man giue, that goeth into the number, halfe a shekel, after the^h she-

Lord.

15 The rich shall not passe, and the poore shall not diminish from halfe a shekel, when ye shall giue an offering vnto the Lord, for the re-

16 So thou shalt take the money of the redemption of the children of Israel, and shalt put it vnto the vse of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that it may be a memoriall vn-redemption of your liues.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shall^k wash

20 When they goe into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they goe vnto the Altar to minister, and to make the perfume of the burnt offering to the Lord, they shall wash themselves with water, least they die.

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet that they die not: and this shall be to them an ordinance^l for euer, both vnto him and to his seede throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

CHAP. XXXI.

1 God maketh Bezaleel and Aholiab meete for his worke. 12 The Sabbath day is the signe of our sanctification. 18 The Tables written by the finger of God.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Behold, I haue called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iudah,

3 Whom I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in vnderstanding, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship:

4 To finde out curious workes to worke in gold, and in siluer, and in brasse.

5 Also in the art to set stones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner of workmanship.

6 And behold, I haue ioyned with him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted, haue I put wisdom to make all that I haue commanded thee:

7 That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Arke of the Testimonie, and the Mercies seat that shall be thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:

8 Also the Table and the instruments thereof, and the pure Candlestick with all his instruments, and the Altar of perfume:

9 Likewise the Altar of burnt offering with all his instrumentes, and the Lauer with his foote:

10 Also the garments of the ministration, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, to minister in the Priests office, 11 And the anointing oyle, and sweet perfume for the Sanctuarie: according to all that I haue commanded thee, shall they doe.

12 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

13 Speake thou also vnto the children of Israel, and say, Notwithstanding keepe yee my Sabbaths: for it is a signe betweene me and you in your generations, that yee may knowe that I the Lord doe sanctifie you.

14 * Ye shall therefore keepe the Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever worketh therein, the same person shall bee euen cut off from among his people.

15 Sixe dayes shall men worke, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth any worke in the Sabbath day, shall die the death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keepe the Sabbath, that they may obserue the rest throughout their generations for an euermore lasting couenant.

17 It is a signe betweene mee and the children of Israel for euer: * for in sixe dayes the Lord made the heauen & the earth, and in the seventh day he ceased, and rested.

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of communing with Moses vpon mount Sinai) * he gaue him two Tables of the Testimonie, euen Tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAP. XXXII.

4 The Israelites impute their delinuerance to the calfe. 14 God appeased by Moses prayer. 19 Moses breaketh the Tables. 27 He slayeth the idolaters. 32 Moses Zeale for the people.

But when the people saw, that Moses taried long or he came down from the mountaine, the people gathered themselues together against Aaron, and said vnto him, Vp, make vs gods to goe before vs: for of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt) wee know not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said vnto them, Plucke off the golden eareings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, & of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckt from themselues the golden eareings, which were in their eares, & they brought them vnto Aaron.

4 * Who receiued them at their handes, and fashioned it with the grauing tooles, and made of it a molten calfe: then they saide, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

5 When Aaron saw that, he made an Altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, To morrow shall be the holy day of the Lord.

6 So they rose vp the next day in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings: also the people sate them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

7 Then the Lord saide vnto Moses, * Go, get thee downe: for thy people which thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt, hath corrupted their waies.

8 They are soone turned out of the way, f Though I command these workes to be done yet will I not that you breake my Sabbath daies. Chap. 30. 8. 22. 10. 12. g God repeateth this point, because the whole keeping of the law standeth in the true use of the Sabbath, which is to cease from our workes, and to obey the will of God.

which I commanded them: for they haue made them a molten calfe, and haue worshipped it, and haue offered thereto saying, *These be thy gods, O Israel, which haue brought the out of the land of Egypt.

9 Again the Lord saide vnto Moses, *I haue seene this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

10 Now^f therefore let me alone, that my wrath may waxe hote against them, for I will consume them: but I will make of thee a mightie people.

11 *But Moses prayed vnto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath waxe hote against thy people, which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mightie hand?

12 *Wherefore shall the Egyptians speake, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the earth? turne from thy fierce wrath, and change thy minde from this euill toward thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Izhak, and Israel thy seruants, to whom thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saidst vnto them, *I will multiply your seed, as the starres of the heauen, and all this lande, that I haue spoken of, will I giue vnto your seede, and they shall inherite it for euer.

14 Then the Lord changed his minde from the euill, which he threatned to doe vnto his people.

15 So Moses returned & went downe from the mountaine with the two Tables of the Testimonie in his hande: the Tables were written on both their sides, euen on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And these Tables were the worke of God, and^h this writing was the writing of God grauen in the Tables.

17 And when Ioshua heard the noise of the people, as they shouted, hee saide vnto Moses, There is a noise of warre in the hoste.

18 Who answered, It is not the noyse of them that haue the victorie, nor the noyse of them that are ouercome: but I doe heare the noyse of singing.

19 Now, as soone as he came nere vnto the hoste, he saw the calfe and the dancing: so Moses wrath waxed hote, and hee cast the Tables out of his handes, and brake them in pieces beneath the mountaine.

20 *After, hee tooke the calfe, which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and strowed it vpon the water, and made the children of Israelⁱ drinke of it.

21 Also Moses said vnto Aaron, What did this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lord waxe fierce: Thou knowest this people, that they are enen set on mischiete.

23 And they said vnto mee, Make vs gods to goe before vs: for we know not what is become of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.)

24 Then I said to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it off: and they brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and therof came this calfe.

25 Moses therefore saw that the people were^k naked (for Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame among their enemies)

26 And Moses stood in the gate of the campe, and said, Who pertainto the Lord? let him come to me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered themselves vnto him.

27 Then he said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put euery man his sword by his side: goe to and fro, from gate to gate, through the hoste, and slay euery man his brother, and euery man his companion, and euery man his neighbour.

28 So the children of Leui did as Moses had commanded: and there fell of the people the same day about three thousand men.

29 (For Moses had said, Consecrate your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euery man vpon his^m sonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a blessing this day.)

30 And when the morning came, Moses saide vnto the people, Yee haue committed a grievous crime: but now I will goe vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your sinne.

31 Moses therefore went againe vnto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne, and haue made them gods of golde.

32 Therefore now if thou pardon their sinne, thy mercie shall appeare: but if thou wilt not, I pray thee, rase meeⁿ out of thy booke, which thou hast written.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against mee, I will put him out of my^o booke.

34 Go now therefore, bring the people vnto the place which I commanded thee: behold, mine Angel shal goe before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I wil^p visite their sinne vpon them.

35 So the Lord plagued the people, because they caused Aaron to make the calfe which hee made.

Afterward the Lord saide vnto Moses, Depart, *goe vp from hence, thou, and the people (which thou hast brought vp out of the land of Egypt) vnto the land which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iakob, saying, Vnto thy seede will I giue it.

5 (For the Lord had said to Moses, Say vnto the children of Israel, Yee are a stiffe necked people, I will come suddenly vpon thee, and consume thee: therefore now put thy costly raiment from thee, that I may know what to doe vnto thee)

6 So the children of Israel laid their good raiment from them, after Moses came downe from the mount Horeb.

7 Then Moses tooke his Tabernacle, and pitched it without the hoste farre off from the hoste, and called it * Ohel-moed. And when any did seeke to the Lord, he went out vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the hoste.

10 Now when all the people saw the cloudie pillar stand at the Tabernacle doore, all the people rose vp, and worshipped euery man in his tent doore.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, ^d face to face, as a man speaketh to his friend. After hee turned againe into the hoste, but his seruant Ioshua the sonne of Nun a yong man, departed not out of the Tabernacle.

12 ¶ Then Moses said vnto the Lord, See, thou sayest vnto me, lead this people forth, and thou hast not shewed me whom thou wilt send with me: thou hast said moreouer, I know thee by * name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, shewe mee now thy way, that I may know thee, and that I may find grace in thy sight: consider also that this nation is thy people.

14 And he answered, My ^f presence shall goe with thee, and I will giue thee rest.

15 Then he said vnto him, If thy presence goe not with vs, cary vs not hence.

16 And wherein now shall it bee knowen, that I and my people haue found fauour in thy sight? shall it not be when thou goest with vs? so I, and thy people shal haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the earth.

17 And the Lord said vnto Moses, I will doe this also that thou hast saide: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 Again he saide, I beseech thee, shewe me thy * glory.

19 And hee answered, I will make all my ^h good goe before thee, and I will ⁱ proclaim the name of the Lord before thee: * for I will shew ^k mercie to whom I wil shew mercie, and will haue compassion on whome I will haue compassion.

20 Furthermore he said, Thou canst not see my face, for there shal no man see me, and ^l liue.

21 Also the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by ^m me, and thou shalt stand vpon the rocke:

22 And while my glorie passeth by, I will put thee in a cleft of the rocke, and will couer thee with mine hand whiles I passe by.

10 And he answered, Behold, * I will make a couenant before all thy people, and will doe marueiles, such as haue not bene done in all the world, neither in all nations: and all the people among whom thou art, shall see the worke of the Lord: for it is a terrible thing that I will doe with thee.

11 Keepe diligently that which I command thee this day: Beholde, I will cast out before thee the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuities, and the Iebusites.

12 * Take heed to thy selfe, that thou make no compact with the inhabitants of the lande whither thou goest, lest they bee the cause of ruine among you.

13 But ye shall overthrow their altars, and breake their images in pieces, and cut downe their ^dgroues,

14 (For thou shalt bow downe to none other god, because the Lord, whose Name is * Ielous, is a ielous God)

15 Lest thou make a * compact with the Inhabitants of the land, and when they goe a whoring after their gods, and doe sacrifice vnto their gods, some men call thee, and thou * eat of his sacrifice:

16 And least thou take of their * daughters, vnto thy sonnes, and their daughters go awhoring after their gods, and make thy sonnes goe a whoring after their gods.

17 Thou shalt make thee no gods of ^emetall.

18 ¶ The feast of * vnleauened bread shalt thou keepe: seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleauened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the * moneth of Abib: for in the moneth of Abib thou camest out of Egypt.

19 * Euery male, that first openeth the wombe, shall be mine: also all the first borne of thy flock shall be reckoned mine, both of beees and sheepe.

20 But the first of the asse thou shalt buy out with a lambe: and if thou redeeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: all the first borne of thy sonnes shalt thou redeeme, and none shall appeare before me * ^femptie.

21 ¶ Sixe dayes shalt thou worke, and in the seuenth day thou shalt rest: both in earing time, and in the haruest thou shalt rest.

22 ¶ * Thou shalt also obserue the feast of weekes in the time of the first fruits of wheate haruest, and the feast of gathering fruites in the end of the yeere.

23 ¶ * Thrice in a yeere shall all your men children appeare before the Lord Ichouah God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy coastes, so that no man shall desire thy land, when thou shalt come vp to appeare before the Lord thy God thrice in the yeere.

25 ¶ Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leauen, neither shall ought of the sacrifice of the feast of Pascheuer bee left vnto the morning.

26 The first ripe fruits of thy land thou shalt bring vnto the house of the Lord thy God: yet shalt thou not see the kid in his mothers milke.

27 And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenour of * these words, I haue made a couenant with thee and with Israel.

28 So he was there with the Lord * fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, and did neither eate bread nor drinke water: and hee wrote in the Tables * the words of the couenant, even the ten commandements.

29 ¶ So when Moses came downe from mount Sinai, the two Tables of the Testimonies were in Moses hande, as hee descended from the mount: (now Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone bright, after that God had talked with him)

30 And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked vpon Moses, and beholde, the skinne of his face shone bright, and they were ⁱafraide to come neere him.

31 But Moses called them: And Aaron and all the chiefe of the Congregation returned vnto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came neere, and he charged them with all that the Lord had said vnto him in mount Sinai.

33 So Moses made an ende of communing with them, * and had put a couering vpon his face.

34 But, when Moses came ^mbefore the Lord to speake with him, hee tooke off the couering vntill he came out: then he came out, & spake vnto the children of Israel that which hee was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel sawe the face of Moses, how the skin of Moses face shone bright: therefore Moses put the couering vpon his face, vntill he went to speake with God.

6 Also blewes filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goats haire,

7 And raimmes skinned red, and badgers skinned with Shittim wood:

8 Also oyle for light, and spices for the anointing oyle, and for the sweet incense, 9 And onix stones, and stones to bee set in the Ephod, and in the brestplate.

10 And all the wise ^b hearted among you, shall come, and make all that the Lorde hath commanded:

11 That is, the ^{*} Tabernacle, the pavilion thereof, and his couering, and his taches, and his boards, his barres, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The Arke, and the barres thereof: the Mercy seat, and the vail that ^c couereth it,

13 The Table, and the barres of it, and all the instruments thereof, and the shew bread:

14 Also the Candlestick of light, and his instruments, and his lampes with the oyle for the light:

15 ^{*} Likewise the Altar of perfume and his barres, and the anointing oyle, and the sweet incense, and the vail of the doore at the entring in of the Tabernacle,

16 The ^{} Altar of burnt offering with his brasen grate, his barres and all his instruments, the lauer and his foot, 19 The ^{} ministering garments to minister in the Holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, that they may minister in the Priestes office.

20 ¶ Then all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And euery one, whose heart [†] encouraged him, and euery one whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the worke of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his vses, and for the holy garments.

22 Both men and women, as many as were free hearted, came and brought || taches and earerings, and rings, and bracelets, all were iewels of gold: and euery one that offered an offering of gold vnto the Lord:

23 Euery man also, which had blewes filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goats haire, and raimmes skinned red, and badgers skinned, brought them.

24 All that offered an oblation of siluer and of brasse, brought the offering vnto the Lord: and euery one, that [†] had Shittim wood for any manner worke of the ministration, brought it.

25 And all the women that were ^e wise hearted, did spin with their hands, and brought the spun work, euery the blew filke, and the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linnen.

26 Likewise all the women, ^f whose hearts were moued with knowledge, spunne goats haire.

27 And the rulers brought Onix stones, and stones to bee set in the Ephod, and in the brestplate:

28 Also spice, and oyle for light, and for the ^{} anointing oyle, and for the sweet perfume. ^{} Chap. 30. 23.

29 Euery man and woman of the children of Israel, whose hearts moued them willingly to bring for all the work which the Lord had commanded them to make ^g by the hand of Moses, brought a free offering to the Lord.

30 ¶ Then Moses said vnto the children of Israel, Behold, ^{*} the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iudah,

31 And hath filled him || with an excellent ^h spirit of wisdom, of vnderstanding, and of knowledge, and in all manner worke,

32 To find out curious works, to worke in gold, and in siluer, and in brasse, 33 And in grauing stones to set them, and in caruing of wood, euery to make any manner of fine worke.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach other: both he, and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan:

35 Them hath hee filled with wisdom of heart to worke all manner of ⁱ cunning ^{*} and broidered and needle worke: in blew filke, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linnen and weaving, euery to doe all manner of worke and subtil inuentions.

the holy work, came every man from his work which they wrought,

5 And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring too much, and more then ynough for the vse of the work, which the Lord hath commanded to be made.

6 Then Moses giue a commaundement, and they caused it to bee proclaimed throughout the hoste, saying, Let neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuary. So the people were stayed from offering.

7 For the stuffe they had was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ All the cunning men therefore among the workmen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linnen, and of blew filke, and purple, and scarlet: Cherubims of broyded worke made they vpon them.

9 The length of one curtaine was twentie and eight cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: and the curtaines were all of one size.

10 And he coupled fve curtaines together, and other fve coupled he together.

11 And hee made strings of blew filke by the edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of the coupling: likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine in the seluedge in the second coupling.

12 ¶ Fiftie strings made hee in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made hee in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the second coupling: the strings were set one against another.

13 After, he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtaines one to another with the taches: so was it one Tabernacle.

14 ¶ Also he made curtaines of goats haire for the couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleuen curtaines.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines were of one size.

16 And he coupled fve curtaines by themselves, and fixe curtaines by themselves:

17 Also he made fifty strings vpon the edge of one curtaine in the seluedge in the coupling, and fiftie strings made he vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the second coupling.

18 Hee made also fiftie taches of brasse to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And he made a couering vpon the pavilion of rammes skins died red, and a couering of badgers skynes aboue.

20 ¶ Likewise hee made the boards for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand vp.

21 The length of a board was en cubites, and the breadth of a board was a cubite, and an halfe.

22 One board had two tenons, set in order as the feet of a ladder, one against another: thus made he for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twenty boards for the South side of the Tabernacle, euen full South.

24 And fortie sockets of siluer made he vnder the twentie boards, two sockets vnder one board for his two tenons, and two sockets vnder another board for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twentie boards, 26 And their fortie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder another board.

27 Likewise towards the West side of the Tabernacle he made fixe boards.

28 And two boards made he in the corners of the Tabernacle, for either side, 29 And they were ioyned beneath, & likewise were made sure aboue with a ring: thus he did to both in both corners.

30 So there were eight boards, and their fixteene sockets of siluer, vnder euery board two sockets.

31 ¶ After, hee made barres of Shittim wood, fve for the boards in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And fve barres for the boards in the other side of the Tabernacle, and fve barres for the boards of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

33 And he made the middest barre to shoot through the boards, from the one end to the other.

34 He ouerlaid also the boards with golde, and made the rings of golde for places for the barres, and couered the barres with gold.

35 ¶ Moreouer hee made a vaile of blew filke, and purple, and of scarlet, & of fine twined linnen: with Cherubims of broyded worke made he it:

36 And made thereunto foure pillars of Shittim, and ouerlaid them with gold: whose hookes were also of gold, and he cast for them foure sockets of siluer.

37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle doore of blew filke, & purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, and needle worke, 38 And the fve pillars of it with their hookes, and ouerlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold, but their fve sockets were of brasse.

After this, Bezaleel made the Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe high:

2 And ouerlaide it with fine golde within and without, and made a crowne of gold to it round about,

7 And he made two Cherubims of golde, vpon the two ends of the Mercy seate: ^{each} of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on hie, and couered the Mercy seat with their wings, and their faces ^{were} one towards another: toward the Mercy seat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also hee made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubites ^{was} the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he ouerlaid it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of gold round about.

12 Also hee made thereto a border of an hand breadth round about, and made vpon the border a crowne of gold round about.

13 And he cast for it foure rings of golde, and put the rings in the foure corners that ^{were} in the foure feet thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And hee made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table.

16 * Also hee made the instruments for the Table of pure gold: dishes for it, & incense cups for it, and goblets for it, and coverings for it, wherewith it should be couered.

17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candlestick of pure gold: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the candlestick: and his shaft, and his branch, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And sixe branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.

19 In one branch three bolles made like almonds, a knoppe and a floure: and in another branch three bolles made like almonds, a knop and a floure: and so thorowout the six branches that proceeded out of the Candlestick.

20 And vpon the Candlestick ^{were} foure bolles after the fashion of almonds, the knops thereof, and the floures thereof:

21 That is, vnder euery two branches a knop ^{made} thereof, and a knop vnder the second branch thereof, and a knop vnder the third branch thereof, according to the sixe branches comming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one *beaten worke of pure *gold. ^{Chap. 25. 31.}

23 And he made for it seuen lamps with the snuffers, and snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it with all the instruments thereof. ^{c Reade Chap. 25. 39.}

25 ¶ Furthermore hee made the *perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it ^{was} a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit (it was square) and two cubits hie, and the hornes thereof were of the same, ^{Chap. 30. 1, 2, 3, 4.}

26 And he couered it with pure gold, both the top and the sides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of gold round about.

27 And hee made two rings of golde for it: vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith.

28 Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and ouerlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy *anointing oyle, ^{*Chap. 30. 23, 35} and the sweet pure incense after the Apothecaries arte:

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 The altar of burnt offerings 8 The brazen Laver. 9 The Court. 24 The summe of that the people offered.

Also he made the altar of the burnt offering of Shittim wood: five cubites ^{was} the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof: it ^{was} square and three cubits high. ^{*Chap. 27. 11}

2 And he made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, and he ouerlaid it with brasie.

3 Also he made all the instruments of the altar: the *ashpans, and the besoms, and the basins, the fleshhookes, and the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasie. ^{*Chap. 27. 3.}

4 Moreouer, hee made a brazen grate, wrought like a net to the Altar, vnder the compass of it beneath in the ^a mids of it,

5 And cast foure rings of brasie for the foure ends of the grate to put barres in. ^{a So that the gridyde or grate was halfe so hie as the Altar, and stood within it.}

6 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and couered them with brasie.

7 The which barres hee put into the rings on the sides of the Altar to beare it withall, and made it ^{*hollow} within the boards. ^{*Chap. 27. 3.}

8 ¶ Also he made the Laver of brasie, and the foot of it of brasie of the ^b glasses of the women that did assemble & came together at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ^{b Rab. Kimhi sayth, that the women brought their looking glasses which were of brasie or fine metal, and offered them freely vnto the vie of the Tabernacle: which was a bright thing, and of great maiesty.}

9 ¶ Finally, hee made the Court on the South side ful South: the hangings of the court were of fine twined linnen, hauing an hundreth cubites.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty: the hookes of the pillars, and their fillets were of siluer.

11 And on the North side the hangings were an hundreth cubits: their pillars twentie, and their sockets of brasie twenty, the hookes of the pillars, and their fillets of siluer.

The peoples offering. Exodus. Ephod, and Brestplate.

12 On the West side also were hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hookes of the pillars, and their filets of filuer.

13 And toward the East side, full East were hangings of fiftie cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side were fiftene cubites, their three pillars, and their three sockets:

15 And of the other side of the Court gate on both sides were hangings of fiftene cubits, with their three pillars, and their three sockets.

16 All the hangings of the Court round about were of fine twined linnen:

17 But the sockets of the pillars were of brasie: the hookes of the pillars and their filets of filuer, and the couering of their chapters of filuer: and all the pillars of the court were hooded about with filuer.

18 He made also the hanging of the gate of the Court of needle worke, blew filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, euen twenty cubites long, and fve cubites in height and breadth, like the hangings of the Court.

19 And their pillars were foure with their foure sockets of brasie: their hookes of filuer, and the couering of their chapters, and their filets of filuer.

20 But all the pinnis of the Tabernacle and of the Court round about were of brasie.

21 ¶ These are the parts of the Tabernacle, I meane, of the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, which was appointed by the commandement of Moses for the office of the Leuites, by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iudah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workeman, and an embroiderer, and a worker of needle worke in blew filke, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linnen.

24 All the gold that was occupied in all the worke wrought for the holy place (which was the golde of the offering) was nine and twentie talents, and seuen hundred and thirtie shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

25 But the filuer of them that were numbred in the Congregation, was an hundred talents, and a thousand seuen hundred seuentie and fve shekels after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

26 A portion for a man, that is, halfe a shekel after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for all them that were numbred from twenty yeere old and aboue, among fixe hundred thousand, & three thousand, and fve hundred and fiftie men.

27 Moreover there were an hundred talents of filuer, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuary, and the sockets of the vaile: an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 But he made the hooks for the pillars of a thousand seuen hundred and seuentie and fve shekels, and ouerlaid their chapters, and made filets about them.

29 Also the brasie of the offering was seuentie talents, and two thousand, and foure hundred shekels.

30 Whereof hee made the sockets to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the altar, 31 And the sockets of the Court round about, and the sockets for the Court gate, and all the pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pinnis of the Court round about.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The apparel of Aaron and his sonnes, 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made, and finished. 43 Moses blest the people.

Moreover, they made garments of ministration to minister in the Sanctuary, of blew filke, and purple, and scarlet: they made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 So he made the Ephod of gold, blew filke and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.

3 And they did beat the golde into thinne places, and cut it into wyers, to worke it in the blew filke, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linnen, with broidered worke.

4 For the which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broydered gard of his Ephod that was vpon him, was of the same stuffe, and of like worke: euen of gold, of blew filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought two onix stones closed in ouches of gold, and graued, as signets are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel,

7 And put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8 ¶ Also he made the brestplate of broidered worke like the worke of the Ephod: to wit, of golde, blew filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.

9 They made the brestplate double, and it was square, an handbreadth long, and an handbreadth broad: it was also double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The order was thus, a Rubie, a Topaze, and a Carbuncle in the first row:

11 And in the second rowe, an Emeraud, a Saphir, and a Diamond:

12 Also in the third rowe, a Turkeis, an Achate, and an Hematite:

13 Likewise in the fourth rowe, a Chrysolite, an Onix, and a Iasper: closed and set in ouches of gold.

14 So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, euen twelue after their names, 15 After, they made vpon the breſtplate chaines at the ends, of wrethen worke and pure golde.

16 They made alſo two boſſes of gold, and two golde rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the breſtplate.

17 And they put the two wrethen chaines of golde in the two rings, in the corners of the breſtplate.

18 Alſo the two other ends of the two wrethen chaines, they faſtened in the two boſſes, and put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod vpon the forefront of it.

19 Likewise they made two rings of gold, and put them in the two other corners of the breſtplate vpon the edge of it, which was on the inſide of the Ephod.

20 They made alſo two other golden rings, and put them on the two ſides of the Ephod, beneath on the forſide of it, and ouer againſt his coupling about the broidered gard of the Ephod.

21 Then they faſtened the breſtplate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blew filke, that it might bee faſt vpon the broidered gard of the Ephod, and that the breſtplate ſhould not bee looſed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

22 Moreouer, he made the robe of the Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blew filke.

23 And the hole of the robe was in the mids of it, as the collar of an habergion, with an edge about the collar, that it ſhould nor rent.

24 And they made vpon the ſkirtes of the robe pomegranates, of blew filke, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine linnen twined.

25 They made alſo *bels of pure gold, and put the bels betweene the pomegranates vpon the ſkirtes of the robe round about betweene the pomegranates.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the ſkirtes of the robe to miniſter in, as the Lord had commaunded Moſes.

29 And the girdle of fine twined linnen, and of blew filke, and purple, and ſcarlet, euery of needle worke, as the Lord had commaunded Moſes.

30 Finally, they made the plate for the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it a ſuperſcription like to the graving of a ſignet, HOLINES TO THE LORD.

31 And they tyed vnto it a lace of blew filke, to faſten it on high vpon the miter, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

32 Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, euery of the *Tabernacle of the Congregation finiſhed: and the children of Iſrael did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moſes: ſo did they.

33 Afterward they brought the Tabernacle vnto Moſes, the Tabernacle and all his instruments, his taches, his boards, his barres, and his pillars, and his ſockets, 34 And the couering of rammes ſkinnes died red, and the couerings of badgers ſkinnes, and the g couering vaile.

40 The curtaines of the Court with his pillars, and his ſockets, & the hanging to the court gate, and his coardes, and his pinnes, and all the instruments of the ſeruice of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

41 Finally, the miniſtring garments to ſerue in the Sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priſt, and his ſonnes garments to miniſter in the Priſts office.

42 According to euery point that the Lord had commanded Moſes, ſo the children of Iſrael made all the worke.

43 And Moſes behelde all the worke, and behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded: ſo had they done: and Moſes k bleſſed them.

10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may be an Altar most holy.

11 Also thou shalt anoint the Lauer and his foot, and shalt sanctifie it.

12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoint him, and sanctifie him, that he may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

14 Thou shalt also bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments,

And shalt anoint them as thou diddest anoint their father, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office: for their anointing shall be a signe, that the Priesthood shall be euerslasting vnto them throughout their generations.

16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

17 ¶ Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth, in the second yeere.

18 Then Moses reared vp the Tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set vp the boards thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillars.

19 And hee spread the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie about it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he tooke and put the Testimony in the Arke, and put the barres in the rings of the Arke, and set the Mercie seat on high vpon the Arke.

21 Hee brought also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the couering vaile, and couered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 Furthermore hee put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the North side of the Tabernacle, without the vaile,

23 And set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ Also hee put the Candlesticke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ouer against the Table toward the South side of the Tabernacle.

25 And hee lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

26 ¶ Moreover, hee set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the vaile;

27 And burnt sweet incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

28 ¶ Also hee hanged vp the vaile at the doore of the Tabernacle.

29 After, hee set the burnt offering Altar without the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Likewise hee set the Lauer betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and powred water therein to wash with.

31 So Moses and Aaron, and his sonnes washed their hands and their feet thereat.

32 When they went into the Tabernacle of the congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed; as the Lord had commanded Moses.

33 Finally, he reared vp the Court round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the court gate: so Moses finished the worke.

34 ¶ Then the cloud covered the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

35 So Moses could not enter into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

36 Now when the cloud ascended vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Israel went forward in all their iourneys.

37 But if the cloud ascended not, then they iourneyed not till the day that it ascended.

38 For the cloud of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel, thorowout all their iourneys.

THE THIRD BOOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

*LEVITICVS.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS God daily by most singular benefits declared himselfe to be mindfull of his Church: so he would not that they should have any occasion to trust either in themselves, or to depend vpon others, either for lacke of temporall things, or ought that belonged to his Diuine Service and Religion. Therefore hee ordeined diuers kindes of oblations and sacrifices, to assure them of forgiveness of their offences (if they offered offered them in true faith and obedience. All he appointed shew Priest and Levites, their apparell, offices, conuersation and portion: he shewed what feasts they should obserue, and in what sort. Moreover, he declared by these sacrifices and ceremonies that the reward of sinne is death; and that without the blood of Christ the innocent Lamb of God there can be no forgiveness of sinne. And because they should giue place to their own inuentions (which thing God most detesteth) as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribed euen to the least things, what they should doe, at what beasts they should offer, and what manner of sacrifices were requisite, and in what order they should take for all manner of filthinesse and pollution to purge it, whose companie they should flee: what marriages were law-full, and what politike lawes were profitable. Which things declared he by many fauours and blessing as thou shalt see hereinafter, and the cause of his lawe to them that transgressed them.

CHAP. I.

Of the burnt offering for particular persons. 1. 10. and 14.
of the burnt offering of the bullocke, and of the sheepe and birds.

¶ Over the Lord called Moses, and spake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

¶ Speake vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shall offer your sacrifice of cattell, of beemes and of the sheepe.

¶ If his sacrifice be a burnt offering of the heard, he shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his owne volunarie will at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

¶ And he shall put his hand vpon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall bee accepted to the Lord to be his atonement.

¶ And he shall kill the bullocke before the Lord, and the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall offer the blood, and shall sprinkle it round about vpon the Altar, that is by the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

¶ Then shall hee flay the burnt offering, and cut it in pieces.

¶ So the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shall put fire vpon the Altar, and lay the wood in order vpon the fire.

¶ Then the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall lay the parts in order, the head and the kalle, vpon the wood that is in the fire which is vpon the Altar.

¶ But the inwards thereof and the legges thereof hee shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on the Altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire, for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

¶ And if his sacrifice for the burnt offering be of the flocks (as of the sheepe, or of the goats) he shall offer a male without blemish,

¶ And he shall kill it on the North side of the Altar before the Lord, and the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the Altar.

¶ And he shall cut it in pieces, separating his head and his kalle, and the Priest shall lay them in order vpon the wood that lieth in the fire which is on the Altar:

¶ But he shall wash the inwards, and the legges with water, and the Priest shall offer the whole and burne it vpon the Altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire, for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

¶ And if his sacrifice be a burnt offering to the Lord of the fowles, then hee shall offer his sacrifice of the turtle doves, or of the young pigeons.

¶ And the Priest shall bring it vnto the Altar, and wing the necke of it afunder, and burne it on the Altar: and the blood thereof shall be shed vpon the side of the Altar.

¶ And he shall plucke out his naue with his fethers, and cast them beside the Altar on the East part in the place of the ashes.

¶ And he shall cleaue it with his wings, but not diuide it afunder: and the Priest shall burne it vpon the Altar vpon the wood that is in the fire: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

Of the meate offering. 1. 14. and of the oyle in the eare.

¶ And when any will offer a meate offering vnto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall powre oyle vpon it, and put incense thereon,

¶ And shall bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priestes, and he shall take thence his handfull of the flour, and of the oyle with all the incense, and the Priest shall burne it for a memorial vpon the Altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

¶ But the remnant of the meate offering shall be Aarons and his sonnes: for it is a most holy of the Lords offrings made by fire.

¶ If thou bring also a meate offering baken in the oven, it shall be an vnleauened cake of fine flour mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened water anointed with oyle.

¶ But if thy meate offering be an oblation of the frying pan, it shall be of fine flour vnleauened, mingled with oyle.

¶ And thou shalt part it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: for it is a meate offering.

¶ And if thy meate offering be an oblation made in the caldron, it shall be made of fine flour with oyle.

¶ After, thou shalt bring the meate offering (that is made of these things) vnto the Lord, and shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shall bring it to the Altar,

7 The Priest also shall put ^{some} of the blood before the Lord, vpon the hornes of the Altar of sweet incense, which is in the ^{} Tabernacle of the Congregation, then shall he powre ^{} all the rest of the blood of the bullocke at the foot of the Altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and he shall kil the bullocke before the Lord.

16 Then the Priest that is anoynted, shall bring of the bullockes blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 18 Also he shall put ^{some} of the blood vpon the hornes of the Altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall hee powre all the ^{rest} of the blood at the foote of the Altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

19 And hee shall take all his fat from him, and shall burne it vpon the Altar.

20 And the Priest shall doe with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his sinne: so shall he doe with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 For hee shall cary the bullocke without the hoste, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler shall sinne, and doe through ignorance ^{against} any of the Commandements of the Lord his God, which should not be done, and shall offend,

23 If one shewe vnto him his sinne, which he hath committed, then shall he bring for his offering an ^{||} he goat without blemish,

10 Also he shall offer the second for a burnt offering as the manner is: so shall the Priest make an atonement for him (for his sinne which hee hath committed) and it shall be forgiven him.

* Verse 7.

11 But if hee be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, then hee that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering, the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flour for a sinne offering, he shall put none oyle thereto, neither put any incense thereon: for it is a sinne offering.

† As in the meat offering, Chap. 2. 1.

* Chap. 4. 35.

13 So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that he hath committed in one of these points and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the Priests; as the meate offering.

14 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 15 If any person transgresse against me through ignorance, & by taking away things consecrated vnto the Lord, he shall then bring for his trespass offering vnto the Lord a ramme without blemish out of the flocke, worth two shekels of silver by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for a trespass offering.

16 So he shall restore that wherein hee hath offended, in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the fift part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

7 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, and it shall be forgiven him, whatsoever thing he hath done and trespassed therein.

8 ¶ Then

8 ¶ Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sonnes, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering, (it is the burnt offering because it burneth vpon the Altar all the night vnto the morning, and the fire burneth on the Altar)

10 And the Priest shall put on his linnen garment, & shal put on his linnen breeches vpon his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hath consumed the burnt offering vpon the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 After, he shall put off his garments, and put on other raiment, and cary the ashes forth without the host vnto a cleane place.

12 But the fire vpon the Altar shall burne thereon and neuer bee put out: wherefore the Priest shall burne wood on it euery morning, and lay the burnt offering in order vpon it, & he shall burne thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire shal euer burne vpon the Altar, and neuer goe out.

14 ¶ Also this is the law of the meate offering, which Aarons sonnes shall offer in the presence of the Lord, before the Altar.

15 He shal euen take thence his handfull of fine floure of the meate offering & of the oyle, and all the incense which is vpon the meate offering, and shall burne it vpon the altar for a sweet sauour, as a memoriall thereof vnto the Lord:

16 But the rest thereof shall Aaron and his sonnes eate: it shall be eaten without leauen in the Holy place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation they shall eate it.

17 It shall not bee baked with leauen: I haue giuen it for their portion of mine offerings made by fire: for it is as the sinne offering and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it: It shall be a statute for euer in your generations concerning the offerings of the Lord, made by fire: whatsoeuer toucheth them shall be holy.

19 ¶ Againe the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron & his sons, which they shal offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an Ephah of fine floure for a meate offering perpetuall: halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

21 In the frying pan it shall be made with oyle: thou shalt bring it fried, and shalt offer the baken pieces of the meate offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

22 And the Priest that is anointed in his stead, among his sons shal offer it: It is the Lords ordinance for euer, it shalbe burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offering of the Priest shalbe burnt altogether, it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron, & vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the law of the sinne offering, In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sinne offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holy.

26 The Priest that offereth this sin offering, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoeuer shal touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon a garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth in the Holy place.

28 Also the earthen pot, that it is sodden in, shalbe broke, but if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall both be scoured & washed with water.

29 All the males among the Priests shal eat thereof, for it is most holy.

30 * But no sinne offering, whose blood is brought into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to make reconciliation in the holy place, shalbe eaten, but shalbe burnt in the fire.

CHAP. VII.

1 The law of the trespass offering: 11 Also of the peace offering. 23 The fat and the blood may not be eaten.

Likewise this is the law of the trespass offering, it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering, shall they kill the trespass offering, and the blood thereof shall hee sprinkle round about vpon the Altar.

3 All the fat thereof also shal he offer, the rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwards.

4 After he shall take away the two kidnies, with the fat that is on them & vpon the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

5 Then the Priest shall burne them vpon the Altar, for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a trespass offering.

6 All the males among the Priests shal eat thereof, it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is most holy.

7 As the sinne offering is, so is the trespass offering, one law serueth for both: that where with the Priest shall make atonement, shall be his.

8 Also the Priest that offereth any mans burnt offering, shal haue the skinned of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meate offering that is baken in the oven, & that is dressed in the pan, and in the frying pan, shalbe the Priests that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offering mingled with oyle, and that is dry, shall pertaine vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, to all alike.

11 Furthermore, this is the law of the peace offerings, which he shall offer vnto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to giue thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and fine floure fried with the cakes mingled with oyle.

13 He shall offer also his offering with cakes of leauened bread, for his peace offerings, to giue thanks.

14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one cake for an heave offering vnto the Lord, and it shall be the Priests that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

15 Also the flesh of his peace offerings, for thanksgiving, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leaue nothing thereof vntill the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering bee a vow, or a free offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.

17 But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth vnto the third day, shall be burnt with fire.

18 For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, hee shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned vnto him, but shall be an abomination: therefore the person that eateth of it shall beare his iniquitie.

19 The flesh also that toucheth any vnclean thing, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: but of this flesh all that be cleane shall eat thereof.

20 But if any eate of the flesh of the peace offerings that pertaineth to the Lord, hauing his vncleannes vpon him, euen the same person shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreouer, when any toucheth any vncleane thing, as the vncleannesse of man, or of an vncleane beast, or of any filthy abomination, and eate of the flesh of the peace offerings, which pertaineth vnto the Lord, euen that person shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, Ye shall eat no fat of beecues, nor of sheep, nor of goats:

24 Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that which is torne with beasts, shall be occupied to any vse, but ye shall not eate of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fatte of the beast, of the which hee shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, euen the person that eateth, shall be cut off from his people.

26 Neither shall ye eate any blood, either of foule, or of beast in all your dwellings.

27 Euery person that eateth any blood, euen the same person shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, Hee that offereth his peace offerings vnto the Lord, shall bring his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offerings:

30 His hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be shaken to and fro before the Lord.

31 Then the Priest shall burne the fat vpon the Altar, and the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye giue vnto the Priest for an heave offering of your peace offerings.

33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the breast shaken to and fro, and the shoulder lifted vp, haue I taken of the children of Israel, euen of their peace offerings, and haue giuen them vnto Aaron the Priest, and vnto his sonnes by a statute for euer from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anoynting of his sonnes concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serue in the Priests office vnto the Lord.

36 The which portions the Lord commanded to giue them in the day that hee anoynted them from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is also the law of the burnt offering, of the meate offering, and of the sinne offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the peace offerings, 38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when hee commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts vnto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP. VIII.

Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 ¶ Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the garments, and the anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sinne offering, and two rams, and a basket of vneleavened bread,

3 And assemble all the company at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, & the company was assembled at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

5 Then Moses saide vnto the companie, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to doe,

6 And Moses brought Aaron, and his sonnes, and washed them with water, 7 And put vpon him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broidred gard of the Ephod, and bound it vnto him therewith.

8 After he put the breastplate thereon, & put in the breastplate the Vrim & the Thummim.

9 Also he put the miter vpon his head, and put vpon the miter on the forefront the golden plate, and the holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

12 * And he powred of the anointing oyle, vpon Aarons head, and anoynted him, to sanctifie him.

13 After, Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonets vpon their heads, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

14 * Then he brought the bullocke for the sinne offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering.

15 And Moses slewe him, and tooke the blood, which hee put vpon the hornes of the Altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and powred therest of the blood at the foote of the Altar: so he sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 Then hee tooke all the fat that was vpon the inwards, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneys, with their fat, which Moses burnt vpon the Altar.

17 But the bullocke and his hide, and his flesh, and his dounge, he burnt with fire without the hofte as the Lord had commanded Moses.

18 ¶ Also hee brought the ramme for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

19 So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the altar round about,

20 And Moses cut the ramme in pieces, and burnt the head with the pieces, and the fat, 21 And washed the inwards and the legs in water: so Moses burnt the ram euery whit vpon the altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweet sauour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ After, he brought the other ramme, the ramme of consecrations, and Aaron and his sonnes layd their hands vpon the head of the ramme,

24 Then Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the lappe of their right eares, & vpon the thumbs of their right hands, and vpon the great toes of their right feet, and Moses sprinkled therest of the blood vpon the Altar round about.

25 And he tooke the fat and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 Also he tooke of the basket of the vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder.

27 So he put *all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes handes, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moses tooke them out of their handes, and burnt them vpon the altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweet sauour which were made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 Likewise Moses tooke the breast of the ramme of consecrations, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Moses portion, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Also Moses tooke of the anointing oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, & on his sonnes garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Seethe the flesh at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there * eate it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shal eat it.

32 But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecrations be at an end: * for seven dayes, said the Lord, shall he consecrate you, 34 As he hath done this day: so the Lord hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation day and night seven dayes, and ye shall keepe the watch of the Lord, that yee die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sonnes did all things which the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

16 ¶ And Moses sought the goate, that was offered for sinne, and loe, it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazar and Itamar the sonnes of Aaron, which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have yee not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place, seeing it is most Holy? and God hath given it you, to beare the iniquitie of the congregation, to make an atonement for them before the Lord.

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought within the Holy place: ye should have eaten it in the Holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Behold, this day I have offered their sinne offering, and their burnt offering before the Lord, and such things as thou knowest are come vnto mee: if I had eaten the sinne offering to day, should it have bene accepted in the sight of the Lord?

20 So when Moses heard it, hee was content.

CHAP. XI.

Of beasts, fishes, and birds, which be cleane, and which be vncleane.

After, the Lorde spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, These are the beasts which ye shall eat, among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat:

4 But of them that chew the cud, or diuide the hoofe onely, of them ye shall not eat: as the camell, because he cheweth the cud, and diuideth not the hoofe, he shall be vncleane vnto you.

5 Likewise the cony, because he cheweth the cud and diuideth not the hoofe, he shall be vncleane to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carkeis shall ye not touch: for they shall be vncleane to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath finnes and scales in the waters, in the seas, or in the riuers, them shall ye eat.

10 But all that have not finnes nor scales in the seas, or in the riuers, of all that moueth in the waters, and of all living things that are in the waters, they shall be an abomination vnto you.

11 They, I say, shall be an abomination to you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but shall abhorre their carkeis.

12 Whatsoever hath not fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be abomination vnto you.

13 ¶ These shall ye haue also in abomination among the foules; they shall not be eaten: for they are an abomination, the eagle, and the goshawke, and the osprey:

18 Also the redshanke, and the pelicane, and the swan:

19 The stork also, the heron after his kind, and the lapwing, and the bakke:

20 Also euery foule that creepeth and goeth vpon all foure, such shall be an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet these shall ye eat: of euery foule that creepeth, and goeth vpon all foure, which haue their feet and legs all of one to leap withall vpon the earth, 22 Of them yee shall eat these, the grasshopper after his kinde, and the solean after his kinde, the hargol after his kinde, and the hagab after his kind.

23 But all other foules that creepe, and haue foure feete, they shall be abomination vnto you.

24 For by such ye shall be polluted: whosoever toucheth their carkeis, shall be vncleane vnto the euening.

25 Whosoever also beareth of their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill euen.

26 Euery beast that hath clawes diuided, and is not clouen footed, nor cheweth the cud, such shall be vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shall be vncleane.

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the camelion, and the stellio, and the molle.

31 These shall be vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoever doth touch them when they be dead, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

32 Also whatsoever any of the dead carkeises of them doeth fall vpon, shall be vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sacke: whatsoever vessell it bee that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as vncleane vntill the euen, and so be purified.

ⁱ As a bottle or bagge.

33 But every earthen vessell, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shall be vncleane, and * ye shall breake it.

* Chap. 6. 28.

34 All meate also that shall be eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shall be vncleane: and all drinke that shall be drunke in all such vessels shall be vncleane.

35 And euery thing that their carkeis fall vpon, shall be vncleane: the furnace or the pot shall be broken: for they are vncleane, and shall be vncleane vnto you.

36 Yet the fontaines & wells, where there is plenty of water shall be cleane: but that which toucheth their carkeises, shall be vncleane.

^k So much of the water as toucheth it.

37 And if there fall of their dead carkeis vpon any seed which vseth to be sown, it shall be vncleane.

38 But if any water bee powred vpon the seed, and there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it shall be vncleane vnto you.

39 If also any beast, whereof ye may eat, die, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

40 And hee that eateth of the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen: he also that beareth the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

41 Euery creeping thing therefore that creepeth vpon the earth shall be an abomination, and not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoever goeth vpon all foure, or that hath many feet amongal creeping things that creep vpon the earth, ye shall not eat of them, for they shall be abomination.

43 Ye shall not pollute your selues with any thing that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, neither defile your selues thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them.

^m He sheweth why God did chuse them to be his people, 1. Pet. 1. 5.

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be holy, for I am holy, and defile not your selues with any creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe of beasts, and of fowles, and of euery living thing that mooueth in the waters, and of euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth:

47 That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane and cleane, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

2. A lawe how women should be purged after their deliuerance.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ^a Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought forth seed, & borne a man child, she shall be vncleane * seven daies like as she is vncleane when she is put apart for her * disease.

3 (* And in the eight day, the foreskin of the childes flesh shall be circumcised)

4 And shee shall continue in the blood of her purifying three^b and thirtie dayes: shee shall touch no^c hallowed thing, nor come into the^d Sanctuary, vntill the time of her purifying be out.

5 But if she beare a maid child, then she shall be vncleane two^e weekes, as when she hath her disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threecore and sixe dayes.

6 Nowe when the dayes of her purifying are out, (whether it bee for a sonne or for a daughter) she shall bring to the Priest a lambe of one yeere olde for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle doue for a sinne offering, vnto the doore of the^f Tabernacle of the Congregation,

7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so she shall be purged of the issue of her blood: this is the law for her that hath borne a male or female.

8 But if she be not able to bring a lambe, shee shall bring two^g turtles, or two young pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so she shall be cleane.

CHAP. XIII.

2. What considerations the Priest ought to obserue in iudging the leprosie, 29 The blacke spot or scab, 47 And the leproy of the garment.

¶ Moreover the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shall haue in the skinne of his flesh a swelling or a scabbe, or a white spot, so that in the skinne of his flesh^a it bee like the plague of leprosie, then he shall be brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests.

3 And the Priest shall looke on the sore in the skinne of his flesh: if the haire in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seeme to be^b lower then the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: therefore the Priest shall looke on him, and^c pronounce him vncleane.

But if the white spot be in the skin of his flesh, and seeme not to be lower then the skin, nor the haire thereof be turned vnto white, then the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the plague seven dayes.

After, the Priest shall looke vpon him the seventh day: and if the plague seeme to him to abide still, and the plague growe not in the skin, the Priest shall shut him vp yet seven daies more.

Then the Priest shall looke on him againe the seventh day, and if the plague bee darke, and the sore growe not in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him cleane, for it is a scab: therefore hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

But if the scab growe more in the skin, after that hee is seen of the Priest for to be purged, he shall be seene of the Priest yet againe.

Then the Priest shall consider, and if the scab growe in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane: for it is leprosie.

When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shall be brought vnto the Priest.

And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling be white in the skinne, and haue made the haire white, and there bee raw flesh in the swelling,

It is an old leprosie in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane, and shall not shut him vp, for he is vn-cleane.

Also if the leprosie breake out in the skin, and the leprosie couer all the skinne of the plague, from his head euen to his feet, wherefore the Priest looketh,

Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosie couer all his flesh, hee shall pronounce the plague to be cleane, because it is all turned into whitenesse: so he shall be cleane.

But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seene, he shall be vn-cleane.

For the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and declare him to be vn-cleane: for the raw flesh is vn-cleane, therefore it is the leprosie.

Or if the raw flesh change and be turned into white, then he shall come to the Priest,

And the Priest shall behold him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shall pronounce the plague cleane, for it is cleane.

The flesh also in whose skinne there is a bile and is healed,

And in the place of the bile there bee a white swelling, or white spot somewhat reddish, it shall be seene of the Priest.

And when the priest seeth it, if it appeare lower then the skinne, and the haire thereof be changed into white, the Priest then shall pronounce him vn-cleane: for it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile.

But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haire therein, and if it be not lower then the skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him vp seven dayes.

And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane, for it is a sore.

But if the spot continue in his place, and growe not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

If there be any flesh in whose skinne there is an hore burning, and the quick flesh of the burning haue a white spot, somewhat reddish or pale,

Then the Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the haire in that spot be changed into white, and it appeare lower then the skin, it is a leprosie broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haire in the spot, and be no lower then the other skin, but be darker, then the priest shall shut him vp seven dayes.

After, the Priest shall looke on him the seventh day: if it be growen abroad in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is darke, it is a rising of the burning: the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, for it is the drying vp of the burning.

If also a man or woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard,

Then the Priest shall see the sore: and if it appeare lower then the skin, and there be in it a small yellow haire, then the Priest shall pronounce him vn-cleane: for it is a blacke spot and leprosie of the head or of the beard.

And if the Priest looke on the sore of the blacke spot, and if it seeme not lower then the skin, nor haue any black haire in it, then the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the sore of the blacke spot, seven dayes.

After, in the seventh day the Priest shall looke on the sore: and if the blacke spot growe not, and there bee in it no yellow haire, and the blacke spot seeme not lower then the skinne,

Then he shall be shauen, but the place of the blacke spot shall he not shau: but the priest shall shut vp him that hath the black spot, seven dayes more.

And the seventh day the Priest shall looke on the blacke spot, and if the blacke spot growe not in the skinne, nor seeme lower then the other skinne, then the Priest shall cleanse him, and hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

But if the blacke spot grow abroad in the flesh after his clensing,

Then the Priest shall looke on it: and if the blacke spot grow in the skinne, the Priest shall not seeke for the yellow haire: for he is vn-cleane.

g None were exempted, but if the Priest pronounced him vn-cleane, he was put out from among the people, as appeareth by Mary the propheticke, Num. 12. 14. and by king Vzziah, 2. Chron. 26. 30.

i None were exempted, but if the Priest pronounced him vn-cleane, he was put out from among the people, as appeareth by Mary the propheticke, Num. 12. 14. and by king Vzziah, 2. Chron. 26. 30.

j He shall not care whether the yellow haire bee there, or no.

37 But if the black spot seeme to him to abide, & that black haire grow therein, the black spot is healed, hee is cleane, and the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶ Further more if there be many white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman.

39 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat dark and white washall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whose haire is fallen off his head and is bald is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the haire on the forehead, and is bald before, he is cleane.

42 But if there be in the bald head, or in the balde forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosie springing in his bald head, or in his balde forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shall looke vpon it, and if the sifings of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, appearing like leprosie in the skinned of the flesh.

44 He is a leper and vncleane: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether vncleane: for the sore is in his head.

45 The leper also in whome the plague is, shall haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a covering vpon his lips, and shall cry, I am vncleane, I am vncleane.

46 As long as the disease shall be vpon him, he shall be polluted, for he is vncleane: he shall dwell alone, without the campe shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a linnen garment, 48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of finnen or of wollen, either in a skin, or in any thing made of skinned.

49 And if the sore be greene or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skinned, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosie, and shall be shewed vnto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut vp it that hath the plague, seven daies, 51 And shall looke on the plague the seuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skin, or in any thing that is made of skin, that plague is a fretting leprosie and vncleane.

52 And hee shall burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be woollen or linnen, or any thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, therefore it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet see that the plague growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoever thing of skinned it be,

54 Then the Priest shall command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and hee shall shut it vp seven dayes more.

55 Again the Priest shall looke on the plague after it is washed: & if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague spread no further, it is vncleane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is a fret inward, whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague be darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare still in the garment, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skinned, it is a spreading leprosie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoever thing of skinned it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed the second time, and be cleane.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosie in a garment of woollen or linnen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing of skin, to make it cleane or vncleane.

CHAP. XIII.

The cleansing of the Leper. 34 And of the house that is defiled.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, This is the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: that is, he shall be brought vnto the Priest.

¶ And the Priest shall go out of the campe, and the Priest shall consider him: and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper, 4 Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is cleansed, two sparrows alieue and cleane, and cedar wood, and a scarlet lace, and hyssope.

5 And the Priest shall command to kill one of the birds ouer pure water in an earthen vessel.

6 After, he shall take the liue sparrow with the Cedar wood, and the scarlet lace, and the hyssope, and shall dip them and the liuing sparrow in the blood of the sparrow slaine, ouer the pure water, 7 And hee shall sprinkle vpon him, that must be cleansed of his leprosie, seven times, and cleane him, and shall let goe the liue sparrow into the broad field.

8 Then he that shall be cleansed, shall wash his clothes, and shau off all his haire, and wash himselfe in water, so he shall be cleane: after that shall he come into the hoste, but shall tary without his tent seven daies.

9 So in the seuenth day he shall shau off all his haire, both his head, and his beard, and his eiebroes: euen all his haire shall he shau off, and shall wash his clothes, and shall wash his flesh in water: so he shall be cleane.

2.19. The maner of purging the vncleane issues both of men and women. 31 The children of Israel must be separate from all vncleaneesse.

Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoever hath an issue from his flesh, is vncleane, because of his issue.

3 And this shall be his vncleaneesse in his issue: when his flesh auoideth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his vncleaneesse.

4 Euery bed whereon hee lieth that hath the issue, shall bee vncleane, and euery thing whereon he sitteth, shall be vncleane.

5 Whosoever toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing, whereon he sate that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

7 Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall bee vncleane vntill the euen.

8 If hee also, that hath the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, hee shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall bee vncleane vntill the euen.

9 And what saddle soeuer he rideth vpon, that hath the issue, shall be vncleane,

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was vnder him, shall be vncleane vnto the euen: and he that beareth those things, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

11 Likewise whosoever he toucheth that hath the issue, & hath not washed his hands in water, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

12 And the vessell of earth that he toucheth, which hath the issue, shall be broken: and euery vessell of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 But if he that hath an issue, bee clenfed of his issue, then shall he count him seuen daies for his clensing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall he be cleane.

14 Then the eighth day hee shall take vnto him two Turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall giue them vnto the Priest.

15 And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sinne offering, and of the othra burnt offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

16 Also if any mans issue of seed depart from him, he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

17 And euery garment, and euery skinne wherupon shall be issue of seed, shall be euen washed with water, & be vncleane vnto the euen.

18 If he that hath an issue of seed do lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselues with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

2 The Priest might not at all times come into the most holy place. 8 The Scape goate. 14 The purging of the Sanctuary. 17 The cleansing of the Tabernacle. 21 The Priest confesseth the sinnes of the people. 29 The feast of cleansing sinnes.

Furthermore the Lord spake vnto Moses, after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they came to offer before the Lord, and died:

2 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the Holy place within the vaile, before the Mercie seate, which is vpon the Arke, that hee die not: for I will appeare in the cloud vpon the Mercie seate.

3 After this sort shall Aaron come into the Holy place: even with a young bullocke for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linnen coate, and shall haue linnen breeches vpon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linnen girdle, and shall couer his head with a linnen miter: these are the holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, when he doeth put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel, two hee goates for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering.

6 Then Aaron shall offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, and make an atonement for himselfe, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two hee goates, and present them before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 Then Aaron shall cast lots ouer the two hee goates: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the Scape goate.

9 And Aaron shall offer the goate, vpon which the Lords lot shall fall, and make him a sinne offering.

10 But the goate, on which the lot shall fall to be the Scape goate, shall be presented aliuie before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, and to let him goe (as a Scape goate) into the wilderness.

11 Thus Aaron shall offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, and make a reconciliation for himselfe, and for his house, and shall kil the bullocke for his sinne offering.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coales from off the Altar before the Lord, and his handfull of sweete incense beaten small, and bring it within the vaile, 13 And shall put the incense vpon the fire before the Lord, that the cloud of the incense may couer the Mercie seate that is vpon the Testimonie: so he shall not die.

14 And hee shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and sprinkle it with his finger vpon the Mercie seate Eastward: and before the Mercie seate shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger, seuen times.

15 Then shall he kill the goate that is the peoples sinne offering, and bring his blood within the vaile, and do with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it vpon the Mercie seate, and before the Mercie seate.

16 So he shall purge the Holy place from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses of all their sinnes: so shall he doe also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation placed with them, in the mids of their vncleannesse.

17 And there shall be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, vntill he come out and haue made an atonement for 20 ¶ When he hath made an end of purging the Holy place, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Altar: then he shall bring the liue goate:

 on the morrow: and that which remaineth vnto
 the third day shall be burnt in the fire.
 7 * For if it be eaten the third day, it shall bee vncleane, it shall not be accepted.
 8 * Therefore he that eateth it, shall beare his iniquitie, because he hath defiled the hallowed thing of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from his people.
 9 * When ye reape the harvest of your land, yee shall not reape euery corner of your field: neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.
 10 * Thou shalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyard cleane, neither gather euery grape of thy vineyard, but thou shalt leave them for the poore and for the stranger: I am the Lord your God.
 11 * Ye shall not steale, neither deale falsely, neither lie one to another.
 12 * Also yee shall not sweare by my name falsly, neither shalt thou defile the name of thy God: I am the Lord.
 13 * Thou shalt not doe thy neighbour wrong, neither rob him. * The workemans hire shall not abide with thee vntill the morning.
 14 * Thou shalt not curse the deafe, * neither put a stumbling blocke before the blinde, but shalt feare thy God: I am the Lord.
 15 * Yee shall not doe vniuently in iudge-ment. * Thou shalt not fauour the person of the poore, nor honour the person of the mightie, but thou shalt iudge thy neighbour iustly.
 16 * Thou shalt not walke about with tales among thy people. Thou shalt not stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord.
 17 * Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbour, and suffer him not to sinne.
 18 * Thou shalt not auenge, nor be mind-full of wrong against the children of thy people,
 * but shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe: I am
 the Lord.
 19 * Yee shall keepe mine ordinances.
 Thou shalt not let thy cattell gender with others of diuers kinds. Thou shalt not sowe thy field with mingled seede, neither shall a garment of diuers things, as of linnen and wollen come vpon thee.

nor come neere the altar, because he hath a blemish, lest he pollute my Sanctuaries: for I am the Lord that sanctifie them.

24 Thus spake Moses vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXII.

3 Who ought to abstaine from eating the things that were offered. 19 What oblations should be offered.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sons, that they be separated from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they pollute not mine holy Name, in those things, which they hallow vnto me: I am the Lord.

3 Say vnto them, Whosoever bee be of all your seede among your generations after you, that toucheth the holy things which the children of Israel hallow vnto the Lord, hauing his vncleannes vpon him, euen that person shall be cut off from my sight: I am the Lord.

4 * Whosoever also of the seede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, he shal not eat of the holy things vntill he be cleane: and who so toucheth any that is vncleane, by reason of the dead, or a man whose issue of seed runneth from him,

5 Or the man that toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may bee made vncleane, or a man by whom he may take vncleannes, whatsoever vncleannes he hath.

6 The person that hath touched such, shall therefore be vncleane vntill the euen, and shall not eat of the holy things, except he haue washed his flesh with water.

7 But when the Sunne is downe, he shal be cleane, & shal afterward eat of the holy things: for it is his food.

8 * Of a beast that dieth, or is rent with beastes, whereby he may be defiled, he shall not eat: I am the Lord.

9 Let them keepe therefore mine ordinance, lest they beare their sinne for it, and die for it, if they defile it: I the Lord sanctifie them.

10 There shal no stranger also eat of the holy thing, neither the ghest of the Priest, neither shall an hired seruant eat of the holy thing:

11 But if the Priest buy any with money, he shall eat of it, also he that is borne in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the Priestes daughter also bee married vnto a stranger, she may not eat of the holy offerings.

13 Notwithstanding if the Priestes daughter be a widow or diuorced, and haue no child, but is returned vnto her fathers house, she shal eate of her fathers bread, as she did in her youth: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ If a man eate of the holy thing vniawittingly, he shall put the 5 fist part thereunto, and giue it vnto the Priest with the hallowed thing.

15 So they shall not defile the holy things of the children of Israel which they offer vnto the Lord, 16 Neither cause the people to beare the iniquitie of their trespasse, while they eate their holy thing: for I the Lord doe hallow them.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoever bee be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his sacrifice for all their vowes, and for all their free offerings, which they vse to offer vnto the Lord, for a burnt offering, 19 Yee shall offer of your free minde a male without blemish of the beeuies, of the sheepe, or of the goats.

20 Yee shall not offer any thing that hath a blemish: for that shall not bee acceptable for you.

21 * And whosoever bringeth a peace offering vnto the Lord to accomplish his vow, or for a free offering of the beeuies, or of the sheepe, his free offering shal be perfect, no blemish shall be in it.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or hauing a wen, or sciruy, or scabbed: these shall yee not offer vnto the Lord, nor make an offering by fire of these vpon the altar of the Lord.

23 Yet a bullocke, or a sheepe that hath any member superfluous, or lacking, such mayest thou present for a free offering, but for a vowe it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer vnto the Lorde that which is bruised or crushed or broken, or cut away, neither shall ye make an offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither of the hand of a stranger shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these, because their corruption is in them, there is a blemish in them: therefore shall they not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate shal be brought forth, it shal be euen seuen daies vnder his dam: and from the eight day forth, it shall be accepted for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

28 As for the cowe or the ewe, ye shall not kill her, and her yong both in one day.

29 So when yee will offer a thanke offering vnto the Lord, ye shall offer willingly.

30 The same day it shall be eaten, yee shall leaue none of it vntill the morrow: I am the Lord.

31 Therefore shall ye keepe my commandments, and do them: for I am the Lord.

32 Neither shall yee pollute mine holy Name, but I will bee hallowed among the children of Israel: I the Lord sanctifie you, 33 Which haue brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them, The feasts of the Lord which ye shall call the holy assemblies, euē these are my feasts.

Or, conuocations.
*Exod. 30.9, 10.

Or, yermay worke.

Or, assembly.

3 Six dayes shall worke bee done, but in the seuenth day shall bee the Sabbath of rest, an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no worke therein, it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feastes of the Lord, and holy conuocations, which ye shall proclaime in their seasons.

a For the Sabbath was kept euery weeke, and these other were kept but once euery yere.

5 In the first moneth, and in the fourteenth day of the moneth at euening shall be the Pasche of the Lord,

num. 28.17.

6 And on the fifteenth day of this moneth shall be the feast of vnleauened bread vnto the Lord: seuen daies ye shall eat vnleauened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall haue an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

b Or, bodily labour, saue about that which one must eat, Exod. 12.16.

c The first day of the feast, and the seuenth were kept holy: in the rest they might worke, except any feast were intermeddied, as the feast of vnleauened bread the fifteenth day, and the feast of sheaves the sixteenth day.

Or, an Omer, reade Deut. 24. 19.
p/sal 129.7.
d That is, the second Sabbath of the Pascheouer.

8 Also ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day shall be an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye become into the land which I giue vnto you, and reape the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheafe of the first fruits of your harvest vnto the Priest, 11 And he shall shake the sheafe before the Lorde, that it may be acceptable for you: the morrow after the Sabbath, the Priest shall shake it.

12 And that day when ye shake the sheafe, shall ye prepare a lambe without blemish of a yere old, for a burnt offering vnto the Lord:

13 And the meate offering thereof shall bee two tenth deales of fine floure mingled with oyle, for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord of sweet sauour: and the drinke offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin of wine.

e Which is the fifth part of an Ephah, or two Omers: reade Exod. 16. 16.
f Reade Exod. 29. 40.

14 And ye shall eate neither bread nor parched corne, nor greene eares, vntill the selfe same day that ye haue brought an offering vnto your God: this shall be a law for euer in your generations, and in all your dwellings.

Or, full eares.

15 Ye shall count also to you from the morrow after the Sabbath, euē from the day that ye shall bring the sheafe of the shake offering, seuen Sabbaths, they shall be compleat.

g That is, the seuenth day after the first Sabbath of the Pascheouer.
Or, weekes.

16 Vnto the morrow after the seuenth Sabbath shall ye number fiftie dayes, then ye shall bring a new meate offering vnto the Lord.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations bread for the shake offering: they shall be two loanes of two tenth deales of fine floure, which shall be baken with leauen for first fruits vnto the Lord.

h Because the Priest should eat them, as Chap. 7. 13. and they should not be offered to the Lord vpon the altar.

18 Also ye shall offer with the bread seuen lambes without blemish of one yere old, and a yong bullocke and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, with their meate offerings, & their drinke offerings, for a sacrifice made by fire of a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

19 Then ye shall prepare an hee goate for a sinne offering, and two lambes of one yere old for peace offerings.

20 And the Priest shall shake them to and fro with the bread of the first fruites before the Lord, and with the two lambes: they shall be holy to the Lord, for the Priest.

i That is, offered to the Lord, and the rest should be for the Priests 21 So ye shall proclaime the same day, that it may bee an holy conuocation vnto you: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein: it shall be an ordinance for euer in all your dwellings, throughout your generations.

22 And when you reape the harvest of your land, thou shalt not rid cleane the corners of thy fildes when thou reapest, neither shalt thou make any after gathering of thy harvest, but shalt leaue them vnto the poore and to the stranger: I am the Lord your God.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, In the seuenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth, shall ye haue a Sabbath, for the remembrance of blowing the trumpets, an holy conuocation.

k That is, about the end of September.

l Or, an holy day to the Lord.

m Which blowing was to put them in remembrance of the manifold feasts that were in that moneth, and of the Iubile.

*Chap. 16. 29, 30

num. 29.7.

n By fasting, and praier,

25 Ye shall doe no seruile worke therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

27 The tenth also of this seuenth moneth shall be a day of reconciliation: it shall be an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall humble your soules, and offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

28 And ye shall doe no work that same day: for it is a day of reconciliation, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God.

29 For euery person that humbleth not himselfe that same day, shall euē bee cut off from his people.

30 And euery person that shall doe any worke that same day, the same person also will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall doe no maner worke therefore: this shall be a law for euer in your generations, throughout all your dwellings.

32 This shall be vnto you a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall humble your soules: in the ninth day of the moneth at euē, from euē to euē shall ye celebrate your Sabbath.

o Which continueth a night and a day: yet they tooke it but for their natural day.
The rest year Sabbath.

33 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

34 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say,

* Num. 29. 12.
John 7. 37.

say, * In the fifteenth day of this seventh month shalbe for seven dayes the feast of Tabernacles vnto the Lord.

35 In the first day shalbe an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

* Exod. 29. 8.

36 Seven dayes yee shall offer * sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, and in the eighth day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, & ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord: it is the solemne assemblie, ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

p Or, a day wherein the people are stayed from all worke.

37 These are the feasts of the Lord (which ye shall call holy conuocations) to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, as burnt offering, and meat offering, s sacrifice, and drink offerings, every one vpon his day.

g Or, peace offering.

38 Beside the Sabbaths of the Lord, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vowes, and beside all your free offerings, which ye shall giue vnto the Lord.

39 But in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye haue gathered in the fruites of the land, ye shall keepe an holy feast vnto the Lord seven daies: in the first day shalbe a Sabbath: likewise in the eighth day shalbe a Sabbath.

r Or, a solempne feast.

40 And ye shall take you in the first day the fruites of goodly trees, branches of palme trees, and the boughes of thicke trees, and willowes of the brooke, and shall reioyce before the Lord your God seven daies.

h Or of boughes sticke with leaues.

41 So ye shall keepe this feast vnto the Lord seven dayes in the yeere, by a perpetuall ordinance thorow your generations: in the seventh month shall you keepe it.

42 Ye shall dwell in boothes seven daies: all that are Israelites borne shall dwell in boothes, 43 That your posteritie may know that I haue made the children of Israel to dwell in boothes, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

f In the wilderness, forasmuch as they would not credit Iohua and Caleb, when they returned from spying the land of Canaan.

44 So Moses declared vnto the children of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIII.

2 The oyle for the lamps. 5 The shewbread. 14 The blasphemer shall be stoned. 17 He that killeth shall be killed.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 * Command the children of Israel that they bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue beaten, for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually.

a Reade Exod. 27. 30.

3 Without the vaile b of the Testimony, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shall Aaron dresse them, both euen and morning before the Lord alwayes: this shall bee a law for euer through your generations.

b Which vaile separated the holiest of all where was the Arke of the Testimony from the Sanctuary.

4 He shall dresse the lampes vpon the * pure Candlestick before the Lord perpetually.

* Exod. 31. 8.

5 ¶ Also thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue * cakes thereof: two c tenth deales shall be in one cake.

* Exod. 25. 30. c That is, 20 Omer: reade Exod. 16. 16.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six in a row vpon the pure table before the Lord.

7 Thou shalt also put pure incense vpon the rowes, that d in stead of the bread it may be for a remembrance, and an offering made by fire to the Lord.

d For it was burnt every Sabbath, when the bread was taken away.

8 Euerie Sabbath hee shall put them in rowes before the Lorde euermore, receiving them of the children of Israel for an euerlasting couenant.

9 * And the bread shall be Aarons and his sons, and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy vnto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetuall ordinance.

* Exod. 29. 33. chap. 8. 31. mat. 12. 1, 5.

10 ¶ And there went e out among the children of Israel the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian: and this sonne of the Israelitish woman, and a man of Israel stroue together in the hoste.

e Meaning, out of his tent.

11 So the Israelitish womans sonne f blasphemed the name of the Lord, and cursed, and they brought him vnto Moses (his mothers name also was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan) f By swearing, or despising God.

12 And they * put him in ward, till he tolde them the mind of the Lord.

* Num. 15. 34.

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the blasphemer without the hoste, & let all that heard him, * put their hands vpon his head, & let all the Congregation stone him.

* Deut. 17. 9. and 27. 7.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall g beare his sinne.

g Shall be punished.

16 And hee that blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, shall be put to death: all the Congregation shall stone him to death: as wel the stranger, as he that is borne in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him be slain.

17 ¶ * Hee also that h killeth any man, hee shall be put to death.

* Exod. 21. 12. deut. 19. 4, 11. h Ebr. smiteth the soule of any man. i Ebr. soule for soule.

18 And he that killeth a beast, hee shall restore it, i beast for beast.

19 Also if a man cause any blemish in his neighbour: as he hath done, so shall it be done to him.

20 * Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: such a blemish as he hath made in any, such shall be repaid to him.

* Exod. 21. 24. deut. 19. 21. mat. 5. 38.

21 And he that killeth a beast shall restore it: but he that killeth a man shall be slaine.

22 Ye shall haue * one law: it shall be as well for the stranger, as for one borne in the country: for I am the Lord your God.

* Exod. 12. 49. h Because the punishment was not yet appointed by the Law for the blasphemer, Moses consulted with the Lord, and told the people what God commanded.

23 ¶ Then b Moses told the children of Israel, and they brought the blasphemer out of the hoste, and stoned him with stones: so the children of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Sabbath of the seventh yeere. 8 The iubile in the fiftieth yeere. 14 Not to oppresse their brethren. 23 The sale, and redeeming of lands, houses and persons.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say say vnto them, When yee shall come into the land which I giue you, the ^a land shall [†] keepe Sabbath vnto the Lord.

3 ^a Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy fielde, and fixe yeeres thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the fruit thereof.

4 But the seuenth yere shall be a Sabbath of rest vnto the land: ^{it shall be} the Lords Sabbath: thou shalt neither sowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyard.

5 That which groweth of it ^b owne accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes: that thou hast left vnlaboured: for it shall be a yere of rest vnto the land.

6 And the ^c rest of the land shall be meate for you, ^{euen} for thee, and for thy seruant, and for thy maide, and for thy hired seruant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:

7 And for thy cartel, and for the beafts that are in thy land shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 [¶] Also thou shalt number seuen [¶] Sabbaths of yeres vnto thee, ^{euen} seuen times seuen yeeres, and the space of the seuen Sabbaths of yeres will be vnto thee nine and fortie yeeres.

9 ^a Then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth: ^{euen} in the day of the reconciliation shall ye make the trumpet blow, thorowout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow that yeere, ^{euen} the fiftieth yeere, and proclaime libertie in the land to all the ^f inhabitants thereof: it shall be the Iubile vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, and euery man shall returne vnto his family.

11 This fiftieth yeere shall be a yere of Iubile vnto you: ye shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes thereof, that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it shall be holy vnto you: ye shall eate of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the yere of this Iubile, ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession.

14 And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbour, or buyest at thy neighbours hand, ye shall ^h not oppresse one another:

15 ⁱ But according to the number of yeeres after the Iubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour: ^{also} according to the number of the yeres of the reuenues, he shall sell vnto thee.

16 According to the multitude of yeeres, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewnesse of yeres, thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of ^k fruits doeth he sell vnto thee.

17 Oppresse not yee therefore any man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 [¶] Wherefore yee shall obey mine ordinances, and keepe my lawes, and doe them, and ye shall dwell in the land [¶] in safetie.

19 And the land shall giue her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safetie.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seuenth yeere, for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will [†] send my blessing vpon you in the sixt yeere, and it shall bring forth fruit for three yeeres.

22 And ye shall sowe the eight yere, and eat of the old fruit vntill the ninth yeere: vntill the fruit thereof come, ye shall eat the old.

23 [¶] Also the land shall not be solde to bee cut off ^{from the family}: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me.

24 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall [¶] grant a redemption for the land.

25 [¶] If thy brother bee impouerished, and sell his possession, then his redeemer shall come, ^{euen} his neere kinsman, and buy out that which his [¶] brother sold.

26 And if hee haue no redeemer, but [†] hath gotten and found to buy it out,

27 Then shall he ^a count the yeres of his sale, and restore the ouerplus to the man to whome he sold it: so shall he returne to his possession.

28 But if hee cannot get sufficient to restore to him, then that which is solde, shall re-maine in the hand of him that hath bought it, vntill the yeere of the Iubile: and in the Iubile it shall come ^a out, and he shall returne vnto his possession.

29 Likewise if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled citie, he may buy it out againe within a whole yeere after it is solde: within a yeere may he buy it out.

30 But if it bee not bought out within the space of a full yeere, then the house that is in the walled citie shall bee established [¶] as cut off ^{from the family}, to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not goe out in the Iubile.

31 But the houses of villages, which haue no walles round about them, shall bee este-med as the field of the countrey: they may bee bought out againe, and shall [¶] goe out in the Iubile.

32 Notwithstanding, the Cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme [†] at all seasons.

33 And if a man purchase of the Leuites, the house that was solde, and the citie of their possession shall go out in the Iubile: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fielde of the [¶] suburbs of their cities, shall not be sold: for it is their perpetuall possession.

35 [¶] Moreover, if thy brother be impoue-rished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieue him, and ^{as} a stranger and sojourner, so shall he liue with thee.

36 ^a Thou shalt take no vsurie of him, nor vantage

vantage, but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee.

37 Thou shalt not giue him thy money to vsurie, nor lende him thy vitales for increase.

38 I am the Lorde your God, which haue brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to giue you the lande of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ If thy brother also, that dwelleth by thee bee impouerished, and bee solde vnto thee, thou shalt not compell him to serue as a bond seruant.

40 But as an hyred seruant, and as a sojourner he shall be with thee: he shall serue thee vnto the yeere of Iubile.

41 Then shall he depart from thee, both he, and his children with him, and shall returne vnto his familie, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne:

42 For they are my seruants, whome I brought out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen are sold.

43 ¶ Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bond seruant also, and thy bond maid, which thou shalt haue, shall be of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy seruants and maids.

45 And moreouer of the children of the strangers, that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your land: these shall be your possession.

46 So ye shall take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possesse them by inheritance, ye shall vse their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Israel yee shall not rule one ouer another with crueltie.

47 ¶ If a sojourner or a stranger dwelling by thee get riches, and thy brother by him be impouerished, and sell himselfe vnto the stranger or sojourner dwelling by thee, or to the stock of the strangers familie,

48 After that hee is solde, hee may bee bought out: one of his brethren may buy him out, 49 Or his vnckle, or his vnckles sonne may buy him out, or any of the kindred of his flesh among his familie, may redeeme him: either if hee can get so much, hee may buy himselfe out.

50 Then hee shall reckon with his buyer from the yeere that hee was solde to him, vnto the yeere of Iubile: and the money of his sale shall bee according to the number of yeeres: according to the time of an hyred seruant shall hee be with him.

51 If there be many yeeres behinde, according to them hee shall giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that hee was bought for.

52 If there remaine but few yeeres vnto the yeere of Iubile, then he shall count with him, and according to his yeeres giue againe for his redemption.

53 Hee shall be with him yeere by yeere as an hyred seruant: hee shall not rule cruelly ouer him in thy fight.

54 And if he bee not redeemed thus, hee shall goe out in the yeere of Iubile, hee, and his children with him.

55 For vnto mee the children of Israel are seruants: they are my seruants, whom I haue brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Idolatrie forbidden. 3 A blessing to them that keepe the commandments. 14 The curse to those that breake them. 42 God promisseth to remember his covenant.

YE shall make you none idols nor grauen image, neither reare you vp any pillar, neither shall yee set any image of stone in your lande to bow downe to it: for I am the Lord your God.

2 Yee shall keepe my Sabbaths, and reuerence my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord.

3 ¶ If yee walke in mine ordinances, and keepe my commaundements, and doe them,

4 I will then send you raine in due season, and the land shall yeelde her increase, and the trees of the field shall giue their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach vnto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach vnto sowing time, and you shall eate your bread in plenteousnesse, and dwell in your lande safely.

6 And I will send peace in the land, and yee shall sleepe and none shall make you afraid: also it wil rid euill beasts out of the land, and the sworde shall not goe through your land.

7 Also ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you vpon the sword.

8 ¶ And siue of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight, and your enemies shall fall before you vpon the sword.

9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you increase, and multiply you, and establish my couenant with you.

10 Yee shall eate also old store, and carie out old because of the new.

11 ¶ And I will set my Tabernacle among you, and my soule shall not lothe you.

12 Also I will walke among you, and I will bee your God, and yee shall bee my people.

13 I am the Lord your God which haue brought you out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the bonds of your yoke, and made you goe vpright.

p I will not accept your sacrifices.

32 I will also bring the lande vnto a wilderness, and your enemies which dwell therein, shall be astonished thereat.

33 Also I will scatter you among the heathen, and ^q will drawe out a sword after you, and your land shall be waste, and your cities shall be desolate.

q Signifying, that no enemy can come with our Gods lending.

34 Then shall the lande enioy her ^r Sabbaths, as long as it lieth voide, and yee shall be in your enemies land: then shall the land rest and enioy her Sabbaths.

35 All the daies that it lieth voide, it shall rest, because it did not rest in your ^r Sabbaths, when ye dwelt vpon it.

r Which I commanded you to keepe.

36 And vpon them that are left of you, I will send euen a ^s faipnesse into their hearts in the land of their enemies; and the sound of a leafe shaken shall chase them, and they shall flee as fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall, no man pursuing them.

s Or, cowardnesse.

37 They shall fall also one vpon another, as before a sword, though none pursue them, and yee shall not bee able to stand before your enemies:

t As if their enemies did chase them.

38 And yee shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you vp.

39 And they that are left of you, shall pine away for their iniquitie, in your enemies lands, and for the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with ^t them also.

t Forasmuch as they are culpable of their fathers faults, they shall be punished as well as their fathers.

40 Then they shall confesse their iniquitie, and the wickednesse of their fathers for their trespasses, which they haue trespassed against mee, and also because they haue walked stubbornly against me.

41 Therefore I wil walke stubbornly against them, and bring them into the land of their enemies, so then their vncircumcised hearts shall bee humbled, and then they shall willingly beare the ^u punishment of their iniquitie.

42 Then I will remember my couenant with Iakob, and my couenant also with Izhak, and also my couenant with Abraham will I remember, and will remember the land.

43 ¶ The lande also in the meane season shall bee left of them, and shall enioy her Sabbaths, while shee lieth waste without them, but they shall willingly suffer the punishment of their iniquitie, because they despised my lawes, and because their soule abhorred mine ordinances.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Of diuers vowes, and the redemption of the same. 28 A thing separate from the vse of man cannot be sold nor redeemed, but remaineth to the Lord.

Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, a As of his son or his daughter. b Which are the Priest.

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any man shall make a vowe of a person vnto the Lord, by ^b thy estimation, c Read the value of the shekel, Exod. 30. 13.

3 Then thy estimation shall be ^c thus: a male from twentie yere old vnto sixtie yere old shall be by thy estimation euen fiftie shekels of siluer, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

d He speaketh of those vowes whereby the fathers dedicated their children to God, which were not of such force, but they might be redeemed from them.

4 But if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirtie shekels.

e If he be not able to pay after thy valuation.

5 And from fiue yere old to twentie yere olde, thy valuation shall be for the male twentie shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

f Which is cleane, Chap. 11. 3.

6 But from a ^d moneth olde vnto fiue yere old, thy price of the male shall be fiue shekels of siluer, and thy price of the female, three shekels of siluer.

g That is, consecrate to the Lord.

7 And from sixtie yere old and aboue, if ^e he be a male, then thy price shall be fiftene shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer ^e then thou hast esteemed him, then shall he present himselfe before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him, according to the abilitie of him that vowed, so shall the Priest value him.

9 And if it be a ^f beast, whereof men bring an offering vnto the Lord, all that one giueth of such vnto the Lord, shall be holy.

10 He shal not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then ^g both this and that, which was changed for it, shall be ^g holy.

11 And if it be any vncleane beast, of which men doe not offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord hee shall then present the beast before the Priest, 12 And the Priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valuest it, ^h which art the Priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will buy it againe, then he shall giue the fift part of it more, aboue thy valuation.

h Euer, so it shall stand.

14 ¶ Also when a man shall dedicate his houte to be holy vnto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, ⁱ and as the Priest shall prise it, ⁱ so shall the value be.

15 But if hee that sanctified, will redeeme his house, then he shal giue therto the first part of money more then thy estimation, and it shal be his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord, any ground of his inheritance, then shalt thou estimate it according to the ^j seede thereof: an Homer of barley seed shall be at fiftie shekels of siluer.

17 If hee dedicate his field ^k immediately from the yeere of Iubile, it shall be worth as thou doest esteeme it.

18 But if hee dedicate his field after the Iubile, then the Priest shal reckon him the money according to the yeeres that remaine vnto the yeere of Iubile, and it shall be abated by thy estimation.

19 And if he that dedicateth it, will redeeme the field, then hee shall put the fift part of the price, that thou esteemest it at, thereunto, and it shall remaine his.

20 And if hee will not redeeme the field, but the Priest ^k sell the field to another man, it shal be redeemed no more.

21 But the field shall be holy to the Lord, when it goeth out in the Iubile, as a field ^l separate from common vses: the possession thereof shall be the Priests.

22 If a man also dedicate vnto the Lord a field which he hath bought, which is not of the ground of his inheritance, 23 Then the Priest shal set the price to him, as ^m thou esteemest it, vnto the yeere of Iubile, and he shall giue ^m thy price the same day, as a thing holy vnto the Lord.

24 But in the yeere of Iubile, the field shall returne vnto him, of whome it was bought: to him, ⁿ If say, whose inheritance the land was.

25 And all thy valuation shall be according to the shekel of the ^o Sanctuary: a shekel containeth twentie gerahs.

26 ¶ Notwithstanding the first borne of the beasts, because it is the Lords first borne, none shal dedicate such, be it bullock or sheep: for it is the ^o Lords.

27 But if it be an vncleane beast, then hee shall redeeme it by thy valuation, and giue the fift part more thereto: and if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sould, according to thy estimation.

28 ¶ Notwithstanding, nothing separate from the common vse that a man doeth separate vnto the Lord of all that he hath (whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance) may be sold nor redeemed: for euery thing separate from the common vse is most holy vnto the Lord.

29 Nothing separate from the common vse, which shall be separate from man, shall be redeemed, but ^p die the death.

30 Also all the tithe of the land ^q both of the seede of the ground, and of the fruit of the trees, is the Lords: ^q it is holy to the Lord.

THE FOWRTH BOOKE OF MOSES, CALLED NUMBERS.

By called, because of the diversity and multitude of numbers, which are here chiefly contained both of mens names and places.

Forasmuch as God hath appointed that his Church in this world should be under the Crosse, both because they should learne not to put their trust in worldly things, and also feele his comfort, when all other helpe faileth: he did not straightway bring his people, after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he promised them: but led them to and fro for the space of fortie yeeres, and kept them in continuall exercises before they enjoyed it, to trie their faith, and to teach them to forget the world, and to depend on him. Which triall did greatly profite to discerne the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithfull and true seruants of God, who serued him with pure heart, where as the other preferring their carnall affections to Gods glory, and making religion to serue their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lusts, and despised them whose God had appointed rulers ouer them. By reason whereof they prouoked Gods terrible iudgements against them, and are set forth as a most notable example for all ages to beware how they abuse Gods word, preferre their owne lusts to his will, or despise his ministers. Notwithstanding God is ever true in his promise, and governeth his by his holy Spirit, that either they fall not to such inconueniences, or els retorne to him quickly by true repentance: and therefore he continueth his graces toward them, hee giueth them ordinances and instructions, as well for religion as outward policie: hee preserveth them against all craft and conspiracie, and giueth them manifold victories against their enemies. And to auoid all controuersies that might arise, he taketh away the occasions, by diuiding among all the tribes, both the land, which they had wonne, and that also which he had promised, as seemed best to his godly wisdom.

CHAP. I.

2 Moses and Aaron with the twelue princes of the tribes are commanded of the Lord to number them that are able to goe to warre. 49 The Lewites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

THe Lord spake againe vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, in the first day of the second moneth, in the second yeere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 * Take ye the summe of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, and households of their fathers with the number of their names: to wit, all the males man by man:

3 From twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that goe forth to the warre in Israel, thou and Aaron shall number them, throughout their armies.

4 And with you shall bee c men of euery tribe, such as are the heads of the house of their fathers.

5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you, of the tribe of Reuben, Elizur the sonne of Shedeur:

6 Of Simeon, Shelumieli the sonne of Zurishaddai:

7 Of Iudah, Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar, Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar:

9 Of Zebulun, Eliab, the sonne of Helon:

10 Of the children of Ioseph: of Ephraim, Elishama, the sonne of Amihud: of Manasseh, Gamliel, the sonne of Pedahzur:

11 Of Benjamin, Abidan, the sonne of Gideon:

12 Of Dan, Ahiezer, the sonne of Ammishaddai:

13 Of Asher, Pagiel, the sonne of Ocran:

14 Of Gad, Eliafaph, the sonne of Deuel:

15 Of Naphtali, Ahira the sonne of Euan.

16 These were famous in the Congregation, c princes of the tribes of their fathers, and heads ouer thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron tooke these men which are expressed by their names.

18 And they called all the Congregation together, in the first day of the second moneth, who declared their kindreds by their families, lies, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, man by man.

19 As the Lord had commanded Moses, so he numbred them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 So were the sonnes of Reuben Israels eldest sonne by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty yeere old and aboue, as many as went forth to warre.

21 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Reuben, was sixe and fourtie thousand, and five hundred.

22 Of the sonnes of Simeon by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, the summe thereof by the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

23 The summe of them, I say, of the tribe of Simeon was nine and fiftie thousand, and three hundred.

24 Of the sonnes of Gad by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

25 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Gad was sixe and fourtie thousand, and sixe hundred and fiftie.

26 Of the sonnes of Iudah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

27 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Iudah was threescore and fouretee thousand, and sixe hundred.

28 Of the sonnes of Issachar by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

29 The number of them also of the tribe of Issachar was foure and fiftie thousand and foure hundred.

30 Of the sonnes of Zebulun by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

31 The number of them also of the tribe of Zebulun was seven and fiftie thousand & foure hundred.

32 Of the sonnes of Ioseph, namely of the sonnes of Ephraim by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

33 The number of them also of the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand & five hundred.

34 Of the sons of Manasse by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

35 The number of them also of the tribe of Manasse was two and thirty thousand and two hundred.

36 Of the sonnes of Benjamin by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

37 The number of them also of the tribe of Benjamin was five and thirtie thousand & foure hundred.

38 Of the sonnes of Dan by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty yeere old and aboue, all that went forth to warre:

THE FIGURE OF THE TABERNACLE ERECTED, AND OF THE Tents pitched round about it.

A B The length of the Court, of an hundred cubits, on the South side: in the which space there were 20. pillars of 5. cubites height a piece, whereto the curtaynes were tied, to enclose the Court. C D The North side, which was in all points like. B C The West end, which was of fiftie cubites wide. In this space there were 10. pillars of a quall height with the rest, wherunto the curtaynes were fastened, to close the Court in on that side.

A D The East end, which was also of fiftie cubites breadth, so that the whole Court was in length, twice the breadth. The romming in was at the East end, right at it there hanged a wrought hanging of twenty cubites long, fastened to foure pillars. E At the sides of the hanging there were curtaynes of fiftie cubites in length, which were fastened on this side of the hanging, to three pillars, and on the other side to as many, as the Figure sheweth.

39 The number of them also of the tribe of Dan was threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

40 Of the sonnes of Asher by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and above, all that went forth to warre:

41 The number of them also of the tribe of Asher was one and fortie thousand and five hundred.

42 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere old and above, all that went to the warre:

43 The number of them also of the tribe of Naphtali, was three and fiftie thousand, and four hundred.

44 These are the summes which Moses, and Aaron numbred, and the princes of Israel, the twelue men, which were euery one for the house of their fathers.

45 So this was all the summe of the sonnes of Israel, by the houses of their fathers, from twentie yeere old and above, all that went to the warre in Israel, 46 And all they were in number sixe hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fiftie.

47 But the Levites, after the tribes of their fathers, were not numbred among them.

48 For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, and said,

49 Onely thou shalt not number the tribe of Leui, neither take the summe of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites ouer the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, and ouer all the instruments thereof, and ouer all things that belong to it: they shall beare the Tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof, and shall minister in it, and shall dwell round about the Tabernacle.

51 And when the Tabernacle goeth forth, the Levites shall take it downe: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it vp: for the stranger that commeth neere shall be slaine.

52 Also the children of Israel shal pitch their tents, euery man in his campe, and euery man vnder his standerd throughout their armies.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, lest vengeance come vpon the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the Levites shall take the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

54 So the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

17 ¶ Then the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall goe with the hoste of the Levites, in the mids of the campe as they haue pitched so shall they goe forward, euery man in his order according to their standers.

6 The charge and office of the Levites. 12. 35 Why the Lord separated the Levites for himselfe. 16 Their number, families and captaines. 40 The first borne of Israel is redeemed by the Levites. 47 The overplus is redeemed by money.

These also were the ^a generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 So these are the names of the sonnes of Aaron, ^{*} Nadab the first borne, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron the anointed Priests, whom ^{Moses} did ^c consecrate to minister in the Priests office.

4 ^{} And Nadab and Abihu died ^b before the Lord, when they offered ^{} strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar served in the Priests office in the ^c sight of Aaron their father.

5 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

9 And thou shalt giue the Levites vnto Aaron and to his ^f sonnes: for they are giuen him freely from among the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sonnes to execute their Priests office: and the ^g stranger that cometh neere, shall be slaine.

11 ¶ Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 Beholde, I haue euen taken the Levites from among the children of Israel: for all the first borne that openeth the matrice among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine, 13 Because all the first borne are mine: for the same day that I smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt, ^{*} I sanctified vnto me all the first borne in Israel, both man and beast: mine they shall be: I am the Lord.

14 ¶ Moreover, the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the houses of their fathers, in their families: euery male from a moneth old and aboue shalt thou number.

16 Then Moses numbred them according to the word of the Lord, as he was commanded.

38 ¶ Also on the forefront of the Tabernacle toward the East, before the Tabernacle, I say of the Congregation Eastward shall Moses and Aaron & his sonnes pitch, hauing the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the children of Israel: but the stranger that cometh neere shall be slaine.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites to mee for all the first borne of the children of Israel, (I am the Lord) and the cattell of the Levites for all the first borne of the cattell of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbred, as the Lord commanded him, all the first borne of the children of Israel.

43 And all the first borne males rehearsed by name from a moneth old and aboue, according to their number were two and twentie thousand, two hundred seentie and three.

44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Levites for their cattell; and the Levites shall be mine, (I am the Lord)

46 And for the redeeming of the two hundred seentie and three, (which are more then the Levites) of the first borne of the children of Israel, 48 And thou shalt giue the money, where-with the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and to his sonnes.

7 And vpon the table of shew bread they shall spread a cloth of blewē silke, and put thereon the dishes, and the incense cups, and goblets, and coverings to couer it with, and the bread shall be thereon continually:

8 And they shall spread vpon them a couering of scarlet, and couer the same with a couering of badgers skinnēs, and put to the bars thereof:

9 Then they shall take a cloath of blewē silke, and couer the candlestick of light with his lampes and his snuffers, and his snuffe dishes, and all the oile vessels thereof, which they occupy about it.

10 So they shall put it, & all the instruments thereof in a couering of badgers skins, and put it vpon the barres.

11 Also vpon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blewē silke, and couer it with a couering of badgers skins, and put to the bars thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments of the ministry, wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blewē silke, and couer them with a couering of badgers skinnēs, and put them on the barres.

13 Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth vpon it.

14 And shall put vpon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupy about it: the censers, the fleshhooks and the besoms, and the basins, euen all the instruments of the altar: and they shall spread vpon it a couering of badgers skins, and put to the barres of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sonnes haue made an end of couering the Sanctuary, and all the instruments of the Sanctuary, at the remo- uing of the hoste, afterward the sonnes of Kohath shall come to beare it, but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. This is the charge of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest pertai- neth the oile for the light, and the sweet incense and the daily mear offering, and the anointing oile, with the ouersight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuary and in all the instruments thereof.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

18 Ye shall not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus doe vnto them, that they may liue and not die, when they come neere to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sonnes come and appoint them, euery one to his office, and to his charge.

20 But let them not goe in, to see when the Sanctuary is folden vp, lest they die.

21 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, say- ing,

22 Take also the summe of the sons of Gershon, euery one by the houses of their fathers throughout their families:

23 From thirtie yeere old and aboue, vntill fiftie yeere old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly for to doe seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

24 This shall be the seruice of the families of the Gershonites, to serue and to beare.

25 They shall beare the curtaines of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his couering, and the couering of badgers skinnēs, that is on high vpon it, and the vaile of the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

26 The curtaines also of the court, and the vaile of the entring in of the gate of the court, which is neere the Tabernacle and neere the Altar round about, with their cords, and all the instruments for their seruice: and all that is made for them: so shall they serue.

27 At the commandement of Aaron and his sonnes shall all the seruice of the sonnes of the Gershonites be done, in all their charges, and in all their seruice, and yee shall appoynt them to keepe all their charges.

28 This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall bee vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

29 ¶ Thou shalt number the sonnes of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers:

30 From thirtie yeere olde and aboue, euen vnto fiftie yeere old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly, to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

31 And this is their office and charge according to al their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the boards of the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets.

32 And the pillars round about the Court, with their sockets and their pins, & their cords, with all their instruments, euen for all their seruice: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge.

33 This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of Merari, according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

34 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregation numbred the sonnes of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 35 From thirtie yeere olde and aboue, euen vnto fiftie yeere old, all that enter into the Assembly for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

1 The Law of the consecration of the Nazarites. 24 The manner to blesse the people.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When a man or a woman doeth separate themselves to vow a vowe of a Nazarite to separate himselfe vnto the Lord,

3 Hee shall abstaine from wine and strong drinke, & shall drinke no sowre wine nor sowre drinke, nor shal drink any liquor of grapes, neither shall eat fresh grapes nor dried.

4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eate nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels, nor the huske.

5 While he is separate by his vow, the razor shal not come vpon his head, vntil the daies be out, in the which he separateth himselfe vnto the Lord, he shal be holy, and shall let the locks of the haire of his head grow:

6 During the time that he separateth himselfe vnto the Lord, he shall come at no dead body:

7 He shall not make himselfe vncleane at the death of his father, or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his separation he shal be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any die suddenly by him, or he be ware, then the head of his consecration shal be defiled, and he shal shau his head in the day of his cleansing: in the seuenth day he shal shau it.

10 And in the eight day he shall bring two Turtles, or two young pigeons to the Priest, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest shall prepare the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and shall make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead: so shal he hallow his head the same day.

12 And he shall consecrate vnto the Lord the dayes of his separation, and shall bring a lambe of a yere old for a trespass offering, and the first daies shal be void: for his consecration was defiled.

13 This then is the law of the Nazarite: When the time of his consecration is out, hee shal come to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 16 The which the Priest shall bring before the Lord, and make his sinne offering and his burnt offering.

17 He shall prepare also the ram for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vnleauened bread, and the Priest shall make his meat offering, and his drinke offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shau the head of his consecration at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall take the haire of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire, which is vnder the peace offering.

19 Then the Priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and an vnleauened cake out of the basket, and a wafer vnleauened, and put them vpon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration.

65 And for a peace offering, two bullockes, five rammes, five hee goates, five lambes of a yeere olde: this was the offering of Abidan the sonne of Gideoni.

66 ¶ The tenth day ¶ Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan offered. ¶ The offering of Ahiezer.

67 His offering was a siluer charger of an hundreth and thirtie shekels weight, a siluer boule of seuentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, both full of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meate offering,

72 ¶ The eleuenth day ¶ Pagiel the sonne of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher offered. ¶ The offering of Pagiel, or Phegiel.

73 His offering was a siluer charger of an hundreth and thirtie shekels weight, a siluer boule of seuentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, both full of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meate offering,

78 ¶ The twelfth day ¶ Ahira the sonne of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali offered. ¶ The offering of Ahira.

79 His offering was a siluer charger of an hundreth and thirtie shekels weight, a siluer boule of seuentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, both full of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meate offering,

80. A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense.

81. A yong bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yeere old for a burnt offering, f This was the offering of the princes, when Aaron did dedicate the Altar.

84. This was the dedication of the Altar by the princes of Israel, when it was anointed: twelve chargers of siluer, twelve siluer boules, twelve incense cups of gold,

85. Euery charger containing an hundreth and thirtie shekels of siluer, and euery boule sequentie: all the siluer vessell contained two thousand & fower hundreth shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie.

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and purifie them.

7 And thus shalt thou do vnto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle^e water of purification vpon them, and let them shade all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shall be cleane.

8 Then they shall take a yong bullocke, with his meate offering of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering.

9 Then thou shalt bring the Levites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and assemble^d all the Congregation of the children of Israel.

d That thou maiest doe this in presence of them all.

10 Thou shalt bring the Levites also before the Lord, and the^e children of Israel shall put their hands vpon the Levites.

e Meaning, certainly of them in the name of the whole.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord, as a shake offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the seruice of the Lord.

12 And the Levites shall put their hands vpon the heads of the bullocks, and make thou the one a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offering vnto the Lord, that thou maiest make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer them as a shake offering to the Lord.

14 Thus thou shalt separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be^f mine.

15 And afterward shall the Levites goe in, to serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purifie them, and offer them as a shake offering.

g Which serue the Israelites should else doe.

20 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Levites, according vnto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites: so did the children of Israel vnto them.

h Because the Levites goe into the Sanctuarie in their name.

21 So the Levites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a shake offering before the Lord, & Aaron made an atonement for them, to purifie them.

24 This also belongeth to the Leuites: from five and twentie yeere olde and vpward, they shall go in, to execute their office in the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fiftie yeeres, they shall cease from executing the office, and shal ferue no more.

26 But they shall minister with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation to keepe things committed to their charge, but they shall doe no seruice: thus shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites touching their charges.

CHAP. IX.

1 The Pascheouer is commanded againe. 13 The punishment of him that keepeth not the Pascheouer. 15 The cloud covered the Tabernacle through the wilderness.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first moneth of the second yeere, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 The children of Israel shal also celebrate the Pascheouer at the time appointed thereunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at euen, yee shall keepe it in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall yee keepe it.

4 Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Pascheouer.

5 And they kept the Pascheouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth at euen in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 And certaine men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Pascheouer the same day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron the same day.

7 And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are wee kept backe that wee may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in the time thereunto appointed among the children of Israel?

8 Then Moses said vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lord will command concerning you.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any among you, or of your posteritie, shall be vn-cleane by the reason of a corps, or be in a long journey, he shal keepe the Pascheouer vnto the Lord.

11 In the fourteenth day of the second moneth at euen they shall keepe it: with vn-leauened bread and sowe herbes shall they eate it.

12 They shal leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Pascheouer shall they keepe it.

13 But the man that is cleane and is not in a journey, and is negligent to keepe the Pascheouer, the same person shall bee cut off from his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shal beare his sinne.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, and will keepe the Pascheouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Pascheouer, and as the manner thereof is, so shall hee doe: yee shall haue one law both for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same land.

15 And when the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloud couered the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of the Testimonie: and at euen there was vpon the Tabernacle, as the appearance of fire vntill morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud couered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandement of the Lord the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandement of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle, they lay still.

19 And when the cloud taried still vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israel kept the watch of the Lord, and journeyed not.

20 So when the cloud abode a few daies vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents, according to the commandement of the Lord: for they journeyed at the commandement of the Lord.

21 And though the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle from euen vnto the morning, yet if the cloud was taken vp in the morning, then they journeyed: whether by day or by night the cloud was taken vp, then they journeyed.

22 Or if the cloude taried two daies, or a moneth, or a yeere vpon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Israel abode still, and journeyed not: but when it was taken vp, they journeyed.

23 At the commandement of the Lord they pitched, & at the commandement of the Lord they journeyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

in your feast dayes, & in the beginning of your moneths, ye shall also blow the trumpets ouer your burnt sacrifices, and ouer your peace offerings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.

11 ¶ And in the second yeere, in the second moneth, & in the twentieth day of the moneth, the cloud was taken vp from the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

12 And the children of Israel departed on their journeyes out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 So they first tooke their journey at the commaundement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the first place went the stander of the hoste of the children of Iudah, according to their armies: and Nahshon the sonne of Am-minadab was ouer his band.

15 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar.

16 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the sonne of Helon.

17 When the Tabernacle was taken downe, then the sonnes of Gershon, and the sonnes of Merari went forward bearing the Tabernacle.

18 ¶ After, departed the stander of the hoste of Reuben, according to their armies, and ouer his band was Elizur the sonne of She-deur.

19 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the sonne of Zurishaddai.

20 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel.

21 The Kohathites also went forward and bare the Sanctuary, and the former did set vp the Tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ Then the stander of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and ouer his band was Elishama the sonne of Ammihudai.

23 And ouer the band of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasse was Gamliel the sonne of Pedazur.

24 And ouer the band of the tribe of the sonnes of Benjamin was Abidan the sonne of Gideon.

25 ¶ Last, the stander of the hoste of the children of Dan marched, gathering all the hostes according to their armies: and ouer his band was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai.

26 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the sonne of Enan.

28 ¶ These were the remoouings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.

29 ¶ After, Moses said vnto Hobab the sonne of Reuel the Midianite, the father in law of Moses, We goe into the place, of which the Lord said, I will giue it you: Come thou with vs, and wee will doe thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israel.

30 And hee answered him, I will not goe:
but I will depart to mine owne countrey, and to my kined.

31 Then he said, I pray thee, leaue vs not:
for thou knowest our camping places in the wildernesse: therefore thou maiest bee our guide.

32 And if thou goe with vs, what goodnes the Lord shall shew vnto vs, the same will wee shew vnto thee.

33 ¶ So they departed from the mount of the Lord, three daies journey: and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloude of the Lord was vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.

35 And when the Arke went forward, Moses said, Rise vp, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Returne, O Lord, to the many thousands of Israel.

Quailes. 22. Their lust is punished.*

When the people became murmurers, the displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed the utmost part of the hoste.

Then the people cried vnto Moses: and when Moses praised vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

And hee called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.

¶ And a number of people that was among them, fell a lusting, and turned away, and the children of Israel also wept, and saide,
Who shall giue vs flesh to eat?

We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for nought, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the leekes, and the onions, and the garlicke.

But now our soules is dried away, we can see nothing but this MAN.

(The MAN also was as a coriander seed, and his colour like the colour of bdellium.

The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in milles, or beat it in morters, and baked it in a caldron, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of fresh oyle.

And when the dew fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, the MAN fell with it.)

¶ Then Moses heard the people weepe throughout their families: euery man in the doore of his tent, and the wrath of the Lord was grievously kindled: also Moses was grie-ued.

¶ And Moses said vnto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou vexed thy seruant? and why haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of all this people vpon me?

¶ Haue I conceived all this people? or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldst say vnto me, Carie them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth the sucking childe) vnto the land, for the which thou swarest vnto their fathers?

Where should I haue flesh to giue vnto all this people? for they weepe vnto me, saying, Giue vs flesh that we may eat.

I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heauie for me.

Therefore if thou deale thus with me, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, kill me, that I behold not my miserie.

¶ Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto mee seuentie men of the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and gouernours ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let them stand there with thee,

And I will come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burden of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone.

¶ Furthermore thou shalt say vnto the people, Be sanctified against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for you haue wept in the eares of the Lord, saying, Who shall giue vs flesh to eat? for wee were better in Egypt:
therefore the Lord will giue you flesh, and ye shall eat.

¶ Ye shall not eat one day nor two daies, nor five daies, neither ten daies, nor twentie daies,

But a whole moneth, vntill it come out at your nostrils, and bee loathsome vnto you, because ye haue contemned the Lord, which is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?

¶ And Moses said, Six hundred thousand fooremen are there of the people, among whom I am: and thou sayest, I will giue them flesh, that they may eat a moneth long.

¶ Shall the sheepe and the beecies be slaine for them, to finde them? either shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?

¶ And the Lord said vnto Moses, Is the Lords hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to passe vnto thee, orno.

¶ So Moses went out, and told all the people the words of the Lord, and gathered seuentie men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

¶ Then the Lord came downe in a cloud, and spake vnto him, & tooke of the Spirit that was vpon him, and put it vpon the seuentie Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested vpon them, then they prophesied, and did not cease.

¶ But there remained two of the men in the hoste: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested vpon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the hoste.

¶ Then there ranne a yong man, and tolde Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad doe prophesie in the hoste.

¶ And Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses one of his yong men answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

¶ But Moses said vnto him, Enuieest thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lords people were Prophets, and that the Lord would put his Spirit vpon them.

¶ And Moses returned into the hoste, he and the Elders of Israel.

¶ Then there went forth a winde from the Lord, and brought Quailes from the Sea, and let them fall vpon the campe, a dayes

32 Then the people arose, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the Quailles: he that gathered the least, gathered ten Homers full, and they spread them abroad for their use round about the hoste.

33 While the flesh was yet betweene their teeth, before it was chewed, even the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 So the name of the place was called, Kibroth-hattavah: for there they buried the people that fell a lusting.

3 (But Moses was a very meeke man, about all the men that were vpon the earth)

4 And by and by the Lord said vnto Moses, and vnto Aaron, and vnto Miriam, Come out ye three vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and they three came forth.

5 Then the Lord came downe in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, & they both came forth.

6 And he said, Heare now my words, If there bee a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will bee knowne to him by a vision, and will speake vnto him by dreame.

7 My seruant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 Vnto him will I speake mouth to mouth, and by vision, and not in darke words, but hee shall see the similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were yee not afraid to speake against my seruant, euen against Moses?

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with them, and departed.

10 Also the cloud departed from the Tabernacle: and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow: and Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and behold she was leprous.

11 Then Aaron said vnto Moses, Alas, my Lord, I beseech thee lay not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed, and wherein we haue sinned.

12 Let her not, I pray thee, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is halfe consumed, when hee commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 Then Moses cried vnto the Lord, saying, O God, I beseech thee, heale her now.

14 And the Lord said vnto Moses, If her father had spit in her face, should she not haue bene ashamed seuen daies? let her bee shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and after she shall be receiued.

15 So Miriam was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and the people remooued not, till Miriam was brought in againe.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Certaine men are sent to search the land of Canaan: 24 The bringing of the fruit of the land: 31 Caleb comforteth the people against the discouraging of the other spies.

Then afterward the people remooued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

2 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

3 Send thou men out to search the land of Canaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, such as are all rulers among them.

4 Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandement of the Lord: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the sonne of Zaccur:

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori:

7 Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh:

8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Ioseph:

9 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the sonne of Nun:

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu:

11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi.

12 Of the tribe of Ioseph, Manasseh, Gaddi the sonne of Sufi:

13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli:

14 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the sonne of Michael:

15 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the sonne of Vophsi:

16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the sonne of Machi.

17 These are the names of the men, which Moses sent to spie out the land: and Moses called the name of Oshea the sonne of Nun, Iehoshua.

18 So Moses sent them to spie out the land of Canaan, and said vnto them, Goe vp this way toward the South, and goe vp into the mountaines.

19 And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwell therein, whether they bee strong or weake, either few or many,

31 And what the land is, whether it bee fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not, and be of good courage, and bring of the fruite of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes.)

32 So they went vp, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of Zin vnto Rehob, to go to Hamath, 33 And they ascended toward the South, and came vnto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmi, the sonnes off Anak. And Hebron was built seuen yeere before Zoan in Egypt.

34 Then they came to the riuer of Eschol, and cut down thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it vpon a bar betweene two, and brought of the pomegranates, and of the figges.

35 That place was called the riuer Eschol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence.

36 Then after fourtie dayes, they turned againe from searching of the land.

37 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and brought to them, and to all the Congregation tidings, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

38 And they told him, and said, Wee came vnto the land whither thou hast sent vs, & surely it floweth with milke and honie: and here is of the fruit of it.

39 Neuerthelesse, the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreover, wee sawe the sonnes of Anak there.

40 The Amalekites dwell in the South Countrey, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the sea, and by the coast of Iorden.

41 Then Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let vs goe vp at once, and possesse it: for vndoubtedly we shall ouercome it.

42 But the men that went vp with him said, We be not able to go vp against the people: for they are stronger then we.

43 So they brought vp an euil report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we haue gone thorow to search it out, is a land that eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we saw in it, are men of great stature.

44 For there wee saw giants, the sonnes of Anak, which come of the giants, so that we seemed in our sight like grasshoppers: and so wee were in their sight.

CHAP. XIII.

2 The people murmure against Moses. 10 They would haue stoned Caleb and Ioshua. 13 Moses pacifieth God by his prayer. 24 The people that would enter into the land contrary to Gods will, are slaine.

Then all the Congregation lifted vp their voice, and cried: and the people wept that night,

And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron: and the whole assembly said vnto them, Would God wee had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness: would God we were dead.

3 Wherefore now hath the Lord brought vs into this land to fall vpon the sword? our wiues and our children shall be a pray: were it not better for vs to returne into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let vs make a captaine, and returne into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the Congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephthah, two of them that searched the land, rent their clothes,

7 And spake vnto all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land which wee walked thorow to search it, is a very good land.

8 If the Lord loue vs, he will bring vs into this land, & giue it vs, which is a land that floweth with milke and honie.

9 But rebell not yee against the Lord, neither feare ye the people of the land: for they are but bread for vs: their shield is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not.

10 And all the multitude said, Stone them with stones: but the glorie of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 And the Lord said vnto Moses, How long will this people prouoke me, & how long will it be yee they belecue me, for all the signes which I haue shewed among them?

12 I wil smite them with the pestilence and destroy them, and will make thee a greater nation and mightier then they.

13 But Moses said vnto the Lord, When the Egyptians shall heare it (for thou broughtest this people by thy power from among them)

14 Then they shall say to the inhabitants of the land, (for they haue heard that thou, Lord, art among this people, and that thou, Lord, art seene face to face, and that thy cloud standeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night)

15 That thou wilt kill this people as one man: so the heathen which haue heard the fame of thee, shall thus say, 16 Because the Lorde was not able to bring this people into the land, which he sware vnto them, therefore hath he slaine them in the wilderness.

26 ¶ After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I suffer this wicked multitude to murmur against mee? I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Tell them, *As I liue, (saith the Lord) I

35 I the Lord haue said, Certainly I will do so to all this wicked company, that are gathered together against me: for in this wildernes they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men which Moses had sent to 38 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb to search the land, shall liue.

39 ¶ Then Moses told these sayings vnto all the children of Israel, and the people sorrowed greatly.

40 And they rose vp early in the morning, and gate them vp into the toppe of the moun-taine, saying, Loe, we be ready to goe vp to the place which the Lord hath promised: for wee haue sinned.

41 But Moses said, Wherefore transgresse ye thus the commandement of the Lord? it will not so come well to passe.

42 Goe not vp (for the Lord is not among you) lest yee be ouerthrowen before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and yee shall fall by the their sinne offering before the Lord for their ignorance.

26 Then it shall be forgiven all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them: for all the people were in ignorance.

NOW Korah the sonne of Izhar, the sonne with Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben.

2 And they rose vp against Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie capitaines of the assembly, famous in the Congregation, and men of renowne.

3 Who gathered themselves together against Moses, and against Aaron, and said vnto them, * Ye take too much vpon you, seeing all the Congregation is holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye your selues above the Congregation of the Lord?

4 But when Moses heard it, hee fell vpon his face,

5 And spake to Korah and vnto all his company, saying, To morrow the Lord will shewe who is his, and who is holy, and who ought to approch neere vnto him: and whom hee hath chosen, he will cause to come neere to him.

6 This do therefore, Take you censers, both Korah and all his company,

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord to morow: and the man whom the Lord doeth chuse, the same shall be holy: d ye take too much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui.

8 Againe Moses said vnto Korah, Heare, I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui.

9 Seemeth it a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you neere to himselfe, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister vnto them?

10 He hath also taken thee to * him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee, and seeke ye the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause, thou and all thy company are gathered together against the Lord:
and what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: who answered,
We will not come vp.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of a lande that floweth with milke and hony, to kill vs in the wilderness, except thou make thy selfe lord, and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Also thou hast not brought vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony, neither giuen vs inheritance of fields & vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? wee will not come vp.

15 Then Moses waxed very angry, and said vnto the Lord, * Looke not vnto their offering:
I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said vnto Korah, Be thou and all thy company h before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron to morow:

17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring yee euery man his censer before the Lord, two hundred and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.

18 So they tooke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and layd incense thereon, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the multitude against them vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glory of the Lord appeared vnto all the Congregation.

20 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate your selues from among this Congregation, that I may consume them at once.

22 And they fell vpon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, hath not one man only sinned, and wilt thou bee wroth with all the Congregation?

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the Congregation, and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose vp, and went vnto Da-than and Abiram; and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And hee spake vnto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs;
lest ye perish k in all their sinnes.

27 So they gatethem away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out & stood in the doore of their tents, with their wiues, and their sonnes, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lorde hath sent mee to doe all these works: for I haue not done them of mine owne minde.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they bee visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me.

30 But if the Lord make m a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them vp with all that they haue, and they goe downe that these men haue prouoked the Lord.

33 So they and all that they had, went downe aliue into the pit, and the earth couered them: so they perished from among the Congregation.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offered the incense.

36 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire beyond the altar: for they are hallowed, 38 The censers, I say, of these sinners; that destroyed themselves: and let them make of them broad plates for a couering of the Altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they shall be holy, and they shall be a signe vnto the children of Israel.

39 Then Eleazar the Priest took the brasen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made broad plates of them for a couering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seed of Aaron, come neere to offer incense before the Lord, that hee bee not like Korah and his company, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morow all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Yee haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, then they turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and behold, the cloud couered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

45 Get you vp from among this Congregation: for I will consume them quickly: then they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moses said vnto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the Altar, and put therein incense, and goe quickly vnto the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord: the plague is begun.

47 Then Aaron tooke as Moses commanded him, and ran into the mids of the Congregation, and beholde, the plague was begun among the people, and he put in incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And when he stood betweene the dead, & them that were aliue, the plague was staied.

49 So they died of this plague foureteene thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died in the conspiracie of Korah.

50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moses before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the plague was staied.

CHAP. XVII.

1. The twelve rods of the twelve princes of the tribes of Israel.

8 Aarons rod buddeth, and beareth blossomes, 10 For a testimony against the rebellious people.

And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and take of euery one of them a rod, after the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the family of their fathers, euery twelve rods: and thou shalt write euery mans name vpon his rodde.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt put them in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the Arke of the Testimonie, where I will declare my selfe to you.

5 And the mans rod whom I chuse, shall blossom: and I will make cease from mee the grudgings of the children of Israel, which grudge against you.

6 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, and all their princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euery prince, according to the houses of their fathers, euery twelve rods, and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

8 And when Moses on the morrow went into the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, and brought forth blossoms, and bare ripe almonds.

9 Then Moses brought out all the roddees from before the Lord vnto all the children of Israel: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rod.

10 ¶ After, the Lord said vnto Moses, Bring Aarons rod againe before the Testimonie to be kept for a token to the rebellious children, and thou shalt cause their murmurings to cease from me, that they die not.

11 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel spake vnto Moses, saying, Behold, we are dead, we perish, we are all lost:

13 Whosoever commeth neere, or approacheth to the Tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: shall we be consumed and die?

5 Therefore shall ye keepe the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the Altar: so there shall fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

24 For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering vnto the Lord, I haue giuen the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I haue said vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse none inheritance.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The sacrifice of the red kow. 9 The sprinkling water. 11 He that toucheth the dead. 14 The man that dieth in a tent.

And the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red kow without blemish, wherein is no spot, vpon the which neuer came yoke.

3 And hee shall giue her vnto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her without the hofte, and cause her to be slaine before his face.

4 Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven times,

5 And cause the kowe to bee burnt in his sight, with her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, and her doung shall he burne her.

6 Then shall the Priest take cedar wood, and hyssope, and skarlet lace, and cast them in the mids of the fire where the kow burneth.

7 Then shall the Priest wash his clothes, and hee shall wash his flesh in water, and then come into the hofte, and the Priest shall be vn-cleane vnto the euen.

8 Also he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water and be vn-cleane vntill euen.

9 And a man, that is cleane, shall take vp the ashes of the kowe, and put them without the hofte in a cleane place: and it shall bee kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for a sprinkling water: it is a sinne offering.

10 Therefore hee that gathereth the ashes of the kow, shall wash his clothes, and remaine vn-cleane vntill euen: and it shall bee vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shall be vn-cleane euen seven daies.

12 He shall purifie himselfe therewith the third day, & the seuenth day he shall be cleane: but if he purifie not himselfe the third day, then the seuenth day he shall not be cleane.

13 Whosoever toucheth the corps of any man that is dead, and purgeth not himselfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from Israel, because the sprinkling water was not sprinkled vpon him:

he shall be vn-cleane, and his vn-cleannesse shall remaine still vpon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent, all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be vn-cleane seven daies,

15 And all the vessels that be open, which haue no couering fastened vpon them, shall be vn-cleane.

16 Also whosoever toucheth one, that is slaine with a sword in the field, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shall be vn-cleane seven daies.

17 Therefore for an vn-cleane person they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sinne offering, and pure water shall be put thereto in a vessel.

18 And a cleane person shall take hyssope and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it vpon the tent, & vpon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therein, and vpon him that touched the bone, or the slaine, or the dead, or the graue.

19 And the cleane person shall sprinkle vpon the vn-cleane the third day, and the seuenth day, and hee shall purifie himselfe the seuenth day, and wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be cleane at euen.

20 But the man that is vn-cleane and purifieth not himselfe, that person shall bee cut off from among the Congregation, because hee hath defiled the Sanctuarie of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hath not bene sprinkled vpon him: therefore shall he be vn-cleane.

21 And it shall bee a perpetuall law vnto them, that hee that sprinkleth the sprinkling water, shall wash his clothes: also he that toucheth the sprinkling water, shall be vn-cleane vntill euen.

22 And whatsoeuer the vn-cleane person toucheth, shall be vn-cleane: and the person that toucheth him shall be vn-cleane vntill the euen.

Is there any water to drinke?

6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the assembly vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and fell vpon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared vnto them.

7 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, and speake ye vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it shall giue forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rocke: for thou shalt giue the Congregation, and their beastes drinke.

9 Then Moses tooke the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses & Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rocke, and they said vnto them, Heare now, ye rebels: shall we bring you water out of this rocke?

11 Then Moses lift vp his hand, and with his rod he smote the rocke twice, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beastes drinke.

12 And againe the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, Because ye beleueed me not, to sanctifie me in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore yee shall not bring this Congregation into the lande which I haue giuen them.

13 This is the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel stroue with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

14 Then Moses sent messengers from Kadesh vnto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauell that we haue had, 15 How our fathers went downe into Egypt, & we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euill and our fathers.

16 But when wee cried vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angel, and hath brought vs out of Egypt, and behold, we are in the citie Kadesh in thine vtmost border.

17 I pray thee that wee may passe through thy country: wee will not goe through the fields nor the vineyards: neither will we drinke of the water of the wells: wee will goe by the kings way, and neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill we bee past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, Thou shalt not passe by mee, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel saide vnto him, We will goe vp by the hie way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will onely (without any harme) go through on my feete.

20 He answered againe, Thou shalt not goe through. Then Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mightie power.

21 Thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage through this country: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from Kadesh, they came vnto the mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor neere the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shall be gathered vnto his people: for he shall not enter into the land, which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye disobeyed my commandement at the water of Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, and bring them vp into the mount Hor.

26 And cause Aaron to put off his garments and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: for Aaron shall be gathered to his fathers, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the Lord had commanded: & they went vp into the mount Hor, in the sight of all the Congregation.

28 And Moses put off Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: so Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came downe from off the mount.

29 When all the Congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirtie daies.

3 Israel vanquisheth king Arad. 6 The fierie serpents are sent for the rebellion of the people. 24 Sihon and Og are overcome in battell.

When king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt toward the South, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies, then fought hee against Israel, and tooke of them prisoners.

2 So Israel vowed a vow vnto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer and giue this people into mine hand, then I will vtterly destroy their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voice of Israel, and deliuered them the Canaanites: and they vtterly destroyed them and their cities, and called the name of the place Hormah.

4 After, they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the people were foregriued because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God and against Moses, saying, Wherefore haue yee brought vs out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soule lotheth this light bread.

6 Wherefore the Lord sent fierie serpents among the people, which stung the people: so that many of the people of Israel died.

21 ¶ Then Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,

22 * Let me goe through thy land: wee will not turne aside into the fields, nor into the vineyards, neither drinke of the waters of the wells: we will goe by the kings way, vntill we be past thy countrey.

23 * But Sihon gaue Israel no licence to passe through his countrey, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Iahoz, and fought against Israel.

24 * But Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and conquered his land, from Arnon vnto ^b Iabok, euen vnto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was ⁱ strong.

25 And Israel tooke all these cities, & dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Heshbon and in all the ^t villages thereof.

26 For ^k Heshbon was the citie of Sihon the king of the Amorites, which had fought before time against the king of the Moabites, and had taken all his land out of his hand, euen vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that spake in prouerbs, say, Come to Heshbon, let the citie of Sihon be built and repaired:

28 For a fire is gone out of Heshbon and a flame from the citie of Sihon, and hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 Woe bee to thee, Moab: O people of Chemosh, thou art vndone: he hath suffred his sonnes to be pursued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie to Sihon the king of the Amorites, 30 Their empire also is lost from Heshbon vnto Dibon, and we haue destroyed them vnto Nophah, which reacheth vnto Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to search out Iazer, and they tooke the townes belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶ And they turned and went vp toward Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edrei.

34 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand and al his people, and his land. * and thou shalt do to him as thou diddest vnto Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sons, and al his people, vntill there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

^d Thinking to bribe him with gifts to curse the Israelites.

7 And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, hauing ^d the reward of the soothsaying in their hand, and they came vnto Balaam, and told him the words of Balak.

^e Whom before he called Elders: meaning the gouernours, and after called them seruants: that is, subiects to their king.

8 Who answered them, Tary heere this night, & I wil giue you an answer, as the Lord shall say vnto me, So the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 Then God came vnto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said vnto God, Balak the sonne of Zippor, king of Moab hath sent vnto me, saying,

11 Behold, ^e there is a people come out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shall be able to ouercome them in battell, and to driue them out.

^f He warned him by a dream, that he should not consent to the kings wicked request.

12 And God ^f said vnto Balaam, Goe not thou with them, neither curse the people, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balak, Returne vnto your lande: for the Lord hath refused to giue me leau to goe with you.

^g Els he shewed himselfe willing, couetousnes had so blinded his heart.

14 So the princes of Moab rose vp, & went vnto Balak, and saide, Balaam hath refused to come with vs.

15 ¶ Balak yet sent againe moe princes, and more honourable then they.

^h the wicked secke by all meanes to further their naughty enterprises, though they know that God is against them.

16 Who came to Balaam, and saide to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, ^b Be not thou staid, I pray thee, from comming vnto mee.

17 For I will promote the vnto great honour, and will doe whatsoever thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse mee this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said vnto the seruants of Balak, * If Balak would giue mee his house full of siluer and gold, I cannot goe beyond the word of the Lord my God, to doe lesse or more.

* Chap. 24. 13.

19 But now, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord will say vnto me ⁱ more.

ⁱ Because he tempted God to require him contrary to his commandement, his petition was granted, but it turned to his owne condemnation.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe.

21 So Balaam rose vp early, and saddled his asse, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he ^k went: & the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as hee rode vpon his asse, and his two seruants were with him.

^k Mooued rather with couetousnes then to obey God.

23 And ^{*} when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, & his sword drawne in his hand, the asse turned out of the way and went into the field. But Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

24 ¶ Againe the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyards, ^l hauing a wal on the one side, and a wall on the other. ^l The second time.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, & dashed Balaams foot against the wall: wherefore hee smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turne, ^m either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she lay downe vnder Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wroth, & smote the asse with a staffe. ⁿ Or, fell.

28 Then the Lord ⁿ opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three times?

^m Gave her power to speake.

29 And Balaam said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked mee: I would there were a sword in mine hande, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon ⁿ since thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed at any time to doe thus vnto thee? Who saide, Nay.

ⁿ Since thou hast bene my master.

31 And the Lord ^o opened the eyes of Balaam, and hee sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand, then he bowed himselfe, and fell flat on his face.

^o For whole eie the Lord doth not open, they can neither see his anger, nor his loue.

32 And the Angel of the Lord saide vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse three times? beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because ^p thy way is not straight before me.

^p Both thy heart is corrupt, and thine enterprise wicked.

33 But the asse sawe me, and turned from me now three times: for els, if she had not turned from me, surely I had euen now slaine thee, and sau'd her aloue.

34 Then Balaam saide vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way ^q against mee: now therefore if it please thee, I will turne [†] home againe.

^q Or, before me, or, to meet me. [†] Ebr. I will returne to me.

35 But the Angel said vnto Balaam, Goe with the men: but ^r what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

^r Because his heart was euill, his charge was renewed, that he should not pretend ignorance.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, hee went out to meet him vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the ^r border of Arnon, euen in the vtmost coast.

37 Then Balak said vnto Balaam, Did I not send for thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not vnto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee vnto honour?

¹ Balaam cansteth seven Altars to be built. ⁵ God teacheth

And Balaam said vnto Balak, Build mee here seven altars, and prepare me here seuen bullocks, and seven rammes.

2 And Balak did as Balaam said, and Balak and Balaam offered on euery altar a bullocke and a ramme.

3 Then Balaam saide vnto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will goe, if so be that the Lord will come and meete mee: and whatsoeuer he sheweth me, I will tell thee: so he went forth alone.

4 And God^b met Balaam, and Balaam said vnto him, I haue prepared seven altars, and haue offered vpon euery altar a bullocke and a ramme.

5 And the Lord^c put an answer in Balaams mouth, and said, Goe againe to Balak, and say on this wise.

6 So when he returned vnto him, loe, hee stood by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 Then he vttered his^{||} parable, and said,
Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram out of the mountaines of the East, saying, Come, curse Iaakob for my sake: come, and detest Israel.

8 How shall I curse, where God hath not curfed? or how shall I detest, where the Lord hath not detested?

9 For from the top of the rockes I did see him, and from the hills I did behold him: loe, the people shall dwell by themselves, and shall not be reckoned among the^e nations.

10 Who can tell the^f dust of Iaakob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

11 Then Balak said vnto Balaam, What hast thou done vnto me? I tooke thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered, and saide, Must I not take heed to speake that, which the Lord hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with me vnto another place, whence thou mayest see them and thou shalt see but the vt-most part of them, and shalt not see them all:

therefore curse them out of that place for my sake.

14 ¶ And he brought him into^{||} Sede-sophim to the top of Pitgah, & built seven altars, and offered a bullocke, and a ram on euery altar.

15 After, he said vnto Balak, Stand hereby thy burnt offering, and I will meet the Lord yonder.

16 And the Lord met Balaam, and^{*} put an answer in his mouth, and said, Goe againe vnto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, hee stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him: so Balak said vnto him, what hath the Lord said?

18 And he vttered his parable, and said, Rise vp, Balak, and heare: hearken vnto mee, thou sonne of Zippor.

19^h God is not as man that hee should lie, neither as the sonne of man that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not doe it? and hath he spoken, and shall he not accomplish it?

20 Behold, I haue receiued commandment to bleffe: for he hath blessed, and I cannot alter it.

21 He seeth none iniquitie in Iaakob, nor seeth no transgression in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and theⁱ ioyfull shoute of a king is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt: their strength is as an vnicorne.

23 For there is no forcerie in Iaakob, nor it shall be said of Iaakob and of Israel, What 24 Beholde, the people shall rise vp as a ly-not lie downe, till he eate of the pray, and till he drinke the blood of the slaine.

25 ¶ Then Balak said vnto Balaam, Neither curse, nor bleffe them at all.

26 But Balaam answered, and said vnto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh that must I doe?

27 ¶ Againe Balak said vnto Balaam, Come
I pray thee, I wil bring thee vnto another place, if so bee it will please God, that thou maiest thence curse them for my sake.

28 So Balak brought Balaam vnto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Ieshmon.

29 Then Balaam said vnto Balak, Make me

2 And stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the princes, and all the assembly, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and hee was not among the assembly of them that were assembled against the Lord in the company of Korah, but died in his sinne, and had no sonnes.

4 Wherefore should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he hath no sonne? giue vs a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 Then Moses brought their cause before the Lord.

6 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherit among their fathers brethren, & shalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them.

8 Also thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and haue no sonne, then yee shall turne his inheritance vnto his daughter.

9 And if he haue no daughter, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his brethren.

10 And if he haue no brethren, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his next kinsman of his family, & he shall possesse it: and this shall be vnto the children of Israel a lawe of iudgement, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

12 ¶ Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Go vp into this mount of Abarim, and behold the land which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seene it, thou shalt bee gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye were disobedient vnto my word in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assembly, to sanctifie mee in the waters before their eyes. * That is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying,

16 Let the Lord God of the spirits of all flesh appoint a man ouer the Congregation, 17 Who may goe out and in before them, and leade them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lord be not as sheepe, which haue not a shepheard.

18 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Take thee Ioshua the sonne of Nun, in whome is the Spirit, and put thine hands vpon him, 19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation, and giue him a charge in their sight.

20 And giue him of thy glory, that all the Congregation of the children of Israel may obey.

21 And hee shall stand before Eleazar the Priest, who shall aske counsell for him by the iudgement of Vrim before the Lord: at his word they shall goe out, and at his word they shall come in, both hee, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the Congregation.

22 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and hee tooke Ioshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation.

23 Then hee put his handes vpon him, and gaue him a charge, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of Moses.

3 Concerning vowes. 4 The vow of the maid, 7 Of the wife, 10 Of the widow, or divorced.

¶ Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded him.

1 Moses also spake vnto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded,

2 Whosoever voweth a vow vnto the Lord, or sweareth an oath to binde him selfe by a bond, hee shall not breake his promise, but shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, and binde herselfe by a bond, being in her fathers house in the time of her youth,

4 And her father heare her vow and bond, wherewith she hath bound herselfe, and her father hold his peace concerning her, then all her vowes shall stand, and euery bond, wherewith she hath bound herselfe, shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her the same day that hee heareth all her vowes and bonds, wherewith she hath bound herselfe, they shall not bee of value, and the Lord will forgieue her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if shee haue an husband when she voweth or pronounceth ought with her lips, wherewith she bindeth herselfe,

7 If her husband heard it, and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vowe shall stand, and her bondes wherewith she bindeth herselfe, shall stand in effect.

8 But if her husband disallow her the same day that he heareth it, then shall hee make her vowe which shee hath made, and that that shee hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith she bound herselfe, of none effect: and the Lord will forgieue her.

9 But euery vowe of a widow, and of her that is diuorced (wherewith she hath bound herselfe) shall stand in effect with her.

10 And if she vowed in her husbands house, or bound herselfe straitly with an oath,

11 And her husband hath heard it, and held his peace concerning her, not disallowing her, then then all her vowes shall stand, and every bond, wherewith shee bound her selfe, shall stand in effect.

13 But if her husband disanulled them, the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceeded out of her lips concerning her vowes, or concerning her bonds, shall stand in effect: for her husband hath disanulled them: and the Lord will forgive her.

14 So every vowe, and every oath or bond, made to humble the soule, her husband may rublish it, or her husband may breake it.

15 But if her husband holde his peace concerning her from day to day, then hee stablisheth all her vowes and all her bonds which she hath made: hee hath confirmed them, because he held his peace concerning her the same day that he heard them.

16 But if he breake them after that he hath heard them, then shall he beare her iniquities.

17 These are the ordinances which the Lord commaunded Moses, betweene a man and his wife, and between the father and his daughter, being yong in her fathers house.

5 So there were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelve thousand prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, euē a thousand of euery tribe, & sent them with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest to the war: and the holy instruments, that is, the trumpets to blow, were in his hand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slewe all the males.

8 They slewe also the kings of Midian among them that were slaine: *Eui and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian, and they slewe Balaam the sonne of Beor with the sword:

9 But the children of Israel tooke the women of Midian prisoners, and their children, and spoyled all their cattell, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their villages with fire.

11 And they tooke all the spoile and all the pray, both of men and beasts.

12 And they brought the captiues, and that which they had taken, & the spoile vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into the campe in the plaine of Moab, which was by Iordan toward Iericho.

13 Then Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the Congregation went out of the campe to meet them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captains of the hoste, with the captains ouer thousands and captains ouer hundreds, which came from the warre and battell.

15 And Moses said vnto them, What haue ye sauēd all the women?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel thorow the counsell of Balaam to commit a trespass against the Lord, as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, slay all the males among the children, and kill all the women that haue known man by carnall copulation.

18 But all the women children that haue not known carnall copulation, keepe alieue for your selues.

19 And ye shall remaine without the hoste seven daies, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead, and purifie both your selues and your prisoners the third day and the seuenth.

20 Also ye shall purifie euery garment, and all that is made of skins, and all worke of goats haire, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Priest said vnto the men of warre, which went to the battell, This is the ordinance of the lawe which the Lord commanded Moses.

22 As for gold, and siluer, brasse, yron, tinne, and lead:

23 Euē all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go thorow the fire, & it shall be cleane: yet it shalbe purified with the water of purification: and all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall cause to passe by the water.

24 Yee shall wash also your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane: and afterward ye shall come into the hoste.

25 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take the summe of the pray that was taken, both of persons and of cattell, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chiefe fathers of the Congregation.

27 And diuide the pray between the soldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute vnto the Lord of the men of warre, which went out to battell: one perion of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beecues, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.

29 Ye shall take it of their halfe, and giue it vnto

47 Moses, I say, tooke of the halfe that pertained vnto the P children of Israel, one taken out of fiftie, both of the persons, and of the cattell, and gaue them vnto the Leuites which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 ¶ Then the captaines which were ouer thousands of the hoste, the captaines ouer the thousands, & the captaines ouer the hundreds came vnto Moses:

49 And said to Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder t our authoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs.

50 ¶ Wee haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lord, what euery man found ofiewels of gold, bracelets, and chaines, rings, eare rings, and ornaments of the legges, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the gold of them, and all wrought iewels, 52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered vp to the Lord (of the captaines ouer thousands and hundreds) was fixteene thousand seuen hundredth and fiftie shekels,

53 (For the men of warre had spoyled euery man for him selfe)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the gold of the captaines ouer the thousands, and ouer the hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, for a memo- riall of the children of Israel before the Lord.

2 The request of the Reubenites and Gadites. 16 And their promise vnto Moses. 20 Moses granteth their request. 33 The Gadites, Reubenites, and halfestribe of Manasseh, conquer and build cities on this side Iordan.

NOW the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: and they saw the land of Iazer, and the land of b Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell.

2 Then the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben came, and spake vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 The land of Ataroth, and Dibon, and Iazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Which countrey the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel, is a land meete for cattell, and thy seruants haue cattell:

5 Wherefore, said they, if wee haue found grace in thy sight, let this land bee giuen vnto thy seruants for a possession, and bring vs not ouer Iorden.

6 And Moses saide vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren goe to warre, and ye tarie here?

7 Wherefore now discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel, to goe ouer into the land, which the Lord hath giuen them?

8 Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 For  when they went vp euen vnto the  Chap. 13. 34.* riuer of Eshcol, and sawe the land: they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they would not goe into the land, which the Lord had giuen them.

23 But if ye wil not doe so, behold, ye haue sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sinne will find you out.

24 Build you then cities for your children, and foldes for your sheepe, and do that ye haue spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants will doe as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wiues, our sheepe, and all our cattell shall remaine there in the cities of Gilead, 27 But thy seruants will goe euery one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my Lord faith.

k Moses gaue charge that his promise made to the Reubenites and others, should be performed after his death, so that they brake not theirs.

28 So concerning them, Moses commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, will goe with you ouer Iorden, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, yee shall giue them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not goe ouer with you armed, then they shall haue their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered saying, As the Lord hath said vnto thy seruants, so will we doe.

32 We wil goe armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance may be to vs on this side Iorden.

33 ¶ So Moses gaue vnto them, euen to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to halfe the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Ioseph, the kingdome of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdome of Og king of Bashan, the land with the cities thereof and coasts, euen the cities of the countrey round about.

34 ¶ Then the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Iazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, defenced cities: also sheepfolds.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon, and turned their names, and Shibmah: and gaue other names vnto the cities which they built.

39 And the children of Machir the sonne of Manasse went to Gilead, and tooke it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

40 Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, and he dwelt therein.

41 ¶ And Iair the sonne of Manasse went and tooke the small townes thereof, and called them Hauoth Iair.

42 Also Nobah went and tooke Kenath, with the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his owne name.

7 All the cities which ye shall giue to the Levites, shall be eight and fortie cities: them shall ye giue with their suburbs.

8 And concerning the cities which ye shall giue, of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take moe, and of few yee shall take lesse: euery one shall giue of his cities vnto the Levites, according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, *When ye be come ouer Iorden into the land of Canaan, 11 Yee shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth any person vnwares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shall be for you a refuge from the ^d auenger, that hee which killeth, die not, vntil he stand before the Congregation in iudgement.

13 And of the cities which ye shall giue, six cities shall ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shall appoint three ^e on this side Iorden, and ye shall appoint three cities in the land of ^f Canaan which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These fixe cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among you, that euery one which killeth any person vnwares, may flee thither.

16 *And if one ^g smite another with an instrument of yron that he die, hee ^h is a murdherer, and the murdherer shall die the death.

17 Also if he smite him by casting a ⁱ stone, wherewith he may be slaine, and he die, he is a murdherer, ^j and the murdherer shall die the death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slaine, if he die, he is a murdherer, ^k and the murdherer shall die the death.

19 The reuenger of the blood himselfe shall slay the murdherer: when he meeteth him, hee shall slay him.

20 But if hee thrust him ^l of hate, or hurle at him by laying of waite, that he die, 21 Or smite him through enimitie with his hand, that hee die, hee that smote him shall die the death: for hee is a murdherer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murdherer when hee meeteth him.

22 But if hee pushed him ^m vnadvisedly, and ⁿ not of hatred, or cast vpon him any ^o thing, without laying of waite,

23 Or any stone (whereby hee might bee slaine) and saw him not, nor caused it to fall vpon him, and he die, and was not his enimie, neither sought him any harme,

24 Then the Congregation shall iudge betweene the slayer and the ^p auenger of blood according to these lawes.

25 And the Congregation shall deliuer the slayer out of the hand of the auenger of blood, and the Congregation shall restore him vnto the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide there vnto the death of the ^q high Priest, which is anoynted with the holy oyle.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fledde,

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood slay the ^r murdherer, he shall be guiltlesse,

6 An order for the marriage of the daughters of Zelophehad.

7 The inheritance could not be giuen from one tribe to another.

Then ^a the chiefe fathers of the familie of the ſonnes of Gilead, the ſonne of Machir, the ſonne of Maniſſeh, of the families of the ſonnes of Ioseph, came and ſpake before Moſes, and before the Princes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Iſrael;

2 And ſaid, * The Lord commanded ^b my lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Iſrael: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they be married to any of the ſonnes of the other tribes of the children of Iſrael, then ſhall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and ſhall be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they ſhall be: ſo ſhall it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Alſo when the ^c Iubile of the children of Iſrael commeth, then ſhall their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they ſhall bee: ſo ſhall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moſes commanded the children of Iſrael, according to the word of the Lord, ſaying, The tribe of the ſonnes of Ioseph haue ſaid well.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, ſaying, They ſhall be wiues, to whom they thinke beſt, only to the familie of the tribe of their father ſhall they marrie.

7 So ſhall not the inheritance of the children of Iſrael remoue from tribe to tribe, for euery one of the childre of Iſrael ſhal ioyn himſelfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that poſſelleth any ^c inheritance of the tribes of the children of Iſrael, ſhall be wiue vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Iſrael may enioy euery man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Neither ſhall the inheritance goe about from tribe to tribe: but euery one of the tribes of the children of Iſrael ſhall ſticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moſes, ſo did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For * Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, & Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married vnto their fathers brothers ſons.

12 They were wiues to certaine of the families of the ſonnes of Manaſſeh the ſonne of Ioseph: ſo their inheritance remained in the tribe of the familie of their father.

13 Theſe are the ^f commandements and lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moſes, vnto the children of Iſrael in the plaine of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho.

^c Signifying that at no time it could returne, for in the Iubile all things returned to their owne tribes.

THE FIFTH BOOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

* DEUTERONOMIE.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE wonderfull loue of God toward his Church is linely ſet forth in this booke. For albeit through their ingratitude and ſundry rebellions againſt God, for the ſpace of 40. yeeres, Deut. 9. 7. they had deſerued to haue bene cut off from the number of his people, and for euer to haue bene deprived of the uſe of his holy word and Sacraments: yet he did euer preſerue his Church euen for his owne mercies ſake, and would ſtill haue his name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, deſtroyeth their enemies, giueth them their countrey, townes, and goods, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whoſe infidelitie, idolatry, adulteries, mumblings and rebellion, hee had moſt ſharply puniſhed) to feare and obey the Lord, to embrace and keepe his law without adding theretherunto, or diminishing thereof. For by his word he would be knowne to be thir God, and they his people: by his word he would governe his Church, and by the same they should learne to obey him: by his word he would discerne the false prophet from the true, light from darknesse, ignorance from knowledge, and his owne people from all other nations and infidels: teaching them thereby to refuse and detest, destroy and abolish whatsoeuer is not agreeable to his holy will, seeme it otherwise neuer so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise up Kings and Gouvernours, for the setting forth of his word, and preservation of his Church: giuing vnto them an especial charge for the executing thereof: whom therefore he willesh to exercise themselves diligently in the continuall study and meditation of the same: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their subiects, abhorre couetousnesse and vice, and whatsoeuer offendeth the maiesty of God. And as he had tofore instructed their fathers in all things appertaining both to his spirituall seruice, and also for the maintenance of that society which is betwene men: so he prescribeth here anew, all such lawes and ordinances, which either concerne his diuine seruice, or else are necessary for a Common weale: appointing vnto euery estate and degree their charge and dutie: as well, how to rule and line in the feare of God, as to nourish friendship toward their neighbours, and to preserve that order which God hath establisshed among men: threatening withall, most horrible plagues to them that transgresse his Commandements, and promising all blessings and felicitie to such as obserue and obey them.

* That is, a ſecond law: ſo called becauſe the lawe which God gaue in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a new law: and this booke is accompanie with exposition of the ten commandements.

CHAP. I.

A briefe rehearsal of things done before, from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea. 32 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulitie. 44 The Israelites are overcome by the Amorites, because they fought against the commandment of the Lord.

THese bee the wordes which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on this side Iorden in the wilderness, in the plaine, ^a ouer against the red Sea, betwene Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahab.

^b There are eleuen dayes journey from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

^c And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fortieth yeere that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, according vnto all that the Lord had giuen him in commandement vnto them, ^d After that he had slaine ^e Sihon the king of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt at Atheroth in Edrei.

^f On this side Iorden in the land of Moab ^g began Moses to declare this law, saying,

^h The Lord our God spake vnto vs in ⁱ Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long enough in this mount,

^j Turne you and depart, and goe vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, and vnto all places neere therunto: in the plaine, in the mountaine, or in the valley: both Southward, and to the Sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and vnto Lebanon: even vnto the great riuer, the riuer ^k Perath.

^l Behold, I haue set the land before you: goe in and ^m possesse that land which the Lord swore vnto your fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue vnto them and to their seed after them.

ⁿ And I spake ^o vnto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

^p 10 The Lord your God hath ^q multiplied you: and behold, yee are this day as the starres of heauen in number:

^r 11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as yee are, and blesse you, as he hath promised you)

^s 12 How can I alone ^t beare your cumbrance and your charge, and your strife?

^u 13 Bring you men of wisdome and of vnderstanding, and ^v knownen among your tribes, and I will make them rulers ouer you:

^w 14 Then ye answered me and said, The thing is good that thou hast commanded vs to doe.

^x 15 So I tooke the chiefe of your tribes ^y wife and knownen men, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, and captaines ouer fiftie, and captaines ouer tenne, and officers among your tribes.

^z 16 And I charged your Iudges that same time, saying, Heare the controuersies betwene your brethren, & ^{aa} iudge righteously betwene euery man and his brother, & the stranger that is with him.

^{ab} 17 Yee shall haue no respect of person in iudgement, ^{ac} but shall heare the small as well as the great: yee shall not feare the face of man: for the indgement is ^{ad} Gods: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring vnto mee, and I will heare it.

^{ae} 18 Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye should doe.

^{af} 19 ¶ Then wee departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness (as ye haue seene) by the way of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

^{ag} 20 And ^{ah} I said vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth giue vnto vs.

^{ai} 21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath laid the land before thee, goe vp and possesse it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hath sayde vnto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged.

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his sonne, in all the way which yee haue gone, vntill ye came vnto this place.

38 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun, which standeth before thee, hee shall goe in thither: encourage him: for hee shall cause Israel to inherite it.

u Which were vnder twentie yeere olde, as Num. 14. 31.

39 Moreover, your children, which yee said should be a pray, and your sonnes, which in that day had no knowledge between good and euill, they shall goe in thither, and vnto them will I giue it, and they shall possesse it.

40 But as for you, turne backe, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red sea.

41 Then ye answered, and said vnto me, We haue sinned against the Lord, * we wil go vp and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commaunded vs: and ye armed you euery man to the warre, and were ready to go vp into the mountaine.

x This declareth mans nature, who will do that which God forbideth, and will not doe that which he commaundeth.

42 But the Lord said vnto mee, Say vnto them, Goe not vp, neither fight, (for I am not among you) lest ye fall before your enemies.

y Signifying that man hath no strength, but when God is at hand to helpe him.

43 And when I tolde you, yee would not heare, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went vp into the mountaine.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountaine came out against you, & chased you (as bees vse to doe) and destroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Hormah.

45 And when ye came againe, ye wept before the Lord, but the Lord would not heare your voice, nor incline his eares vnto you.

z Because ye- ther shewed your hypocritise, then true repentance: rather lamenting the losse of your brethren, then re- penting of your sinnes.

46 So yee abode in Kadesh a long time, according to the time that yee had remained before.

CHAP. II.

¶ Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 And Ammonites. 33 Sihon king of Heshbon is discomfited.

¶ Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the red sea, as the Lord spake vnto me: and we compassed mount Seir a long time.

a They obeyed, after that God had chastised them.

b Eight and thirtie yeere, as verse 14.

1 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 2 Ye haue compassed this mountaine long enough: turne you Northward.

3 And warnethou the people, saying, Ye shall goe through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed therefore.

c This was the second time; for before they had caused the Isra- elites to returne, Num 20. 21.

4 Ye shal not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land so much as a foot breadth, * because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau for a possession.

d And giuen thee means wherewith thou mayest make re- compense: also God will direct thee by his pro- uidence, as hee hath done.

possession, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great and many, and tall, as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for giants as the Anakims: whom the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whom the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their stead: as Israel shall do vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath giuen them.

13 Now rise vp, sayde I, and get you ouer the riuer Zered: and we went ouer the riuer Zered.

14 This space also wherein we came from Kadesh-barnea, vntill wee were come ouer the riuer Zered, was eight and thirtie yeres, vntill all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord sware vnto them.

15 For in deece the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the hoste, till they were consumed.

16 So when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among all the people:

17 Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

18 Thou shalt goe through Ar the coaste of Moab this day:

19 And thou shalt come neere ouer against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue waire against them: for I will not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 That also was taken for a land of giants: for giants dwelt therein afore time, whome the Ammonites called Zamzummims:

21 A people that was great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead vnto this day.

23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazerim came vnto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, & dwelt in their stead.

24 Rise vp therefore, saide the Lord, take your journey, and passe ouer the riuer Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihon, the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battell.

25 This day will I begin to send thy feare and thy dread vpon all people vnder the whole heauen, which shall heare thy fame, and shall tremble and quake before thee.

26 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth vnto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,

27 Let me passe thorow thy land: I will go by the hie way: I wil neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell mee meate for money for to eate, and shalt giue me water for money for to drinke: onely I will goe thorow on my foote, 29 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me) vntill I become ouer Iordene into the land which the Lord our God giueth vs.

30 But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let vs passe by him: for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because he would deliuer him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord sayd vnto mee, Behold, I haue begun to giue Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possesse and inherite his land.

32 Then came out Sihon to meet vs, himselfe with all his people to fight at Iahaz.

33 But the Lord our God deliuered him into our power, and wee smote him, and his fornes, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities the same time, and destroyed euery citie, men, and women, and children: we let nothing remaine.

35 Only the cattell we tooke to our selues, and the spoile of the cities which we tooke.

36 From Aroer, which is by the banke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is vpon the riuer, euen vnto Gilead: there was not one citie that escaped vs: for the Lord our God deliuered vp all before vs.

37 Onely vnto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto any place of the riuer Iabbok, nor vnto the cities in the mountaines, nor vnto whatsoeuer the Lord our God forbade vs.

Then we turned, and went vp by the way of Bashan: and Og king of Bashan came out against vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edrei.

2 And the Lord sayd vnto mee, Feare him not, for I wil deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thine hand, and thou shalt do vnto him as thou diddest vnto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the Lord our God deliuered also vnto our hand, Og the King of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him, vntill none was left him aliue.

4 And wee tooke all his cities the same time, neither was there a citie which we rooke not from them, euen threescore cities, and all the countrey of Argob, the kingdome of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walles,

Which were the Moabites and Ammonites, signifying, that as these giants were driven out for their sinne to the wicked when their sinne are ripe, cannot away Gods plagues.

7 For what nation is so great, vnto whome the Gods come so neere vnto them, as the Lord our God is neere vnto vs, in all that we cal vnto him for?

8 And what nation is so great, that hath ordinances and lawes so righteous, as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 But take heede to thy selfe, and keepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thine heart all the dayes of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes:

10 Forget not the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will cause them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare mee all the dayes that they shall liue vpon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you neere, and stood under the Mountaine, and the Mountaine burnt with fire vnto the mids of heauen, and there was darknesse, clouds and mist.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the mids of the fire, and yee heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude, saue a voice.

13 Then hee declared vnto you his Couenant which he commaunded you to do, when the ten Commandements, and wrote them vpon two Tables of stone.

14 And the Lord commaunded mee that same time, that I should teach you ordinances and lawes, which ye should obserue in the land, whither ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good heede vnto your selues: for yee saw no image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horeb out of the mids of the fire:

16 That yee corrupt not your selues, and make you a grauen image or representation of any figure: whether it be the likenesse of male or female,

17 The likenesse of any beast that is on earth, or the likenesse of any fethered foule that flieth in the aire:

18 Or the likenesse of any thing that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth, 19 And lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the Sun & the Moone and the flars with all the host of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worship them and serue them, which the Lord thy God hath distributed to all people vnder the whole heauen.

20 But the Lord hath taken you & brought you out of the yron fornace, out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with mee for your wordes, and sware that I should not go ouer Iorden, and that I should not goe in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must die in this land, and shall not go ouer Iorden: but ye shall go ouer, and possesse that good land.

23 Take heed vnto your selues lest ye forget the Couenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, and lest yee make you any grauen image, or likenesse of any thing, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a ielous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and childrens children, & shalt haue remained long in the land, if ye corrupt your selues, and make any grauen image, or likenesse of any thing, and work euil in the sight of the Lord thy God to prouoke him to anger,

26 I call heauen and earth to record against you this day, that yee shall shortly perishe from the land, whereunto ye goe ouer Iorden to possesse it: ye shall not prolong your dayes therein, but shall viterly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you:

28 And there yee shall serue gods, euen the worke of mans hand, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seeke the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thine heart, & with all thy soule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come vpon thee, at the length if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voice, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a mercifull God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the couenant of thy fathers, which he sware vnto them.

32 For inquire now of the dayes that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, & aske from the one ende of heauen vnto the other, if there came to passe such a great thing as this, or whether any such like thing hath bin heard.

33 Did euer people heare the voice of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued?

34 Or hath God assaied to go and take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know, that the Lord hee is God, and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heauen hee made thee heare his voice to instruct thee, and vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voice out of the mids of the fire.

37 And because hee loued thy fathers, therefore hee chose their seede after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight by his mightie power,

41 ¶ Then Moses separated three cities on this side of Iordan toward the Sunne rising:

42 That the slaier should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at vnwares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, vnto one of those cities, and liue:

43 That is, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plaine country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites: and Golan in Bashan among them of Manasseh.

5 Moses is the meane betweene God and the people. 6 The Lawe is repeated. 23 The people are asfayde at Gods voyce. 29 The Lord wisheth that the people would feare him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hand nor left.

Then Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Heare, O Israel the ordinances and the Lawes which I propose to you this day, that ye may learne them, and take heede to obserue them.

2 * The Lord our God made a covenant with vs in Horeb.

3 The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers only, but with vs, euen with vs all here aliue this day.

4 The Lord talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the mids of the fire.

5 (At that time I stood betweene the Lord and you, to declare vnto you the word of the Lord: for yee were afraid at the sight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount) and he said,

¶ I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt haue none other gods before my face.

8 Thou shalt make thee no grauen image, or any likeness of that that is in heaven aboue, or which is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters vnder the earth.

9 Thou shalt neither bowe thy selfe vnto them, nor serue them: for I the Lord thy God am a ielous God, visiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate mee:

10 And shewing mercy vnto thousands of them that loue me and keepe my commandments.

11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not holde him guiltlesse that taketh his Name in vaine.

13 Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and shalt doe all thy worke:

14 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not doe any worke therein, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruant, nor thy mayde, nor thine ox, nor thine asse, neither any of thy cattel, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruant and thy maid may rest as well as thou.

23 And when ye heard the voyce out of the mids of the darkenesse, (for the mountaine did burne with fire) then ye came to mee, all the chiefe of your tribes, and your Elders:

24 And ye said, Behold, the Lord our God hath shewed vs his glory and his greatnesse, and we haue heard his voyce out of the mids of the fire: we haue seene this day that God doth talke with man, and he liueth.

25 Now therefore, why should we die? for this great fire will consume vs: if wee heare the voyce of the Lord our God any more, wee shall die.

31 But stand thou here with mee, and I will tell thee all the Commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou shalt teach them: that they may do them in the land which I giue them to possesse it.

32 Take heed therefore, that yee doe as the Lord your God hath commanded you: turne not aside to the right hand nor to the left.

33 But walke in all the waies which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may liue, and that it may goe well with you: and that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shall possesse.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commandements, 5 Which is, to loue him with all thine heart. 7 The same must bee taught to the posteritie. 16 Not to tempt God. 25 Righteousnesse is contained in the law.

THESE now are the Commandements, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord your God commanded mee to teach you, that yee might doe them in the land whither yee goe to possesse it;

2 That thou mightest feare the Lord thy God, and keepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I command thee, thou and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may bee prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heed to doe it, that it may goe well with thee, & that yee may increase mightily in the lande that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Heare, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord onely.

5 And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

6 And these wordes which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heare.

7 And thou shalt rehearse them continually vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou tariest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, & when thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp:

8 And thou shalt bind them for a signe vpon thine hand, and they shall bee as frontlets betwene thine eyes.

9 Also thou shalt write them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

10 And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land, which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iacob, to giue to thee, with great & goodly cities which thou buildedst not:

11 And houses full of all manner of goods which thou filledst not, and wells digged which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten and art full,

12 Beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and serue him, and shalt sweare by his Name.

14 Ye shal not walke after other gods after any of the gods of the people which are round about you, 15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you) lest the wrath of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16 Yee shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Massah:

17 But ye shall keepe diligently the Commandements of the Lord your God, & his testimonies, and his ordinances which hee hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt doe that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou maiest prosper, and that thou maist goe in, and possesse that good land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers,

1 The Israelites may make no covenant with the Gentiles.
2 They must destroy the idols. 3 The election dependeth on the free loue of God. 4 The experience of the power of God ought to confirme vs. 5 To avoid all occasion of idolatry.

When the Lord thy God shall bring thee in to the land whither thou goest to possesse it, and shall roote out many nations before thee: the Hittites, and the Gira-shites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Iebusites, such nations greater & mightier then thou,

2 And the Lord thy God shall giue them before thee, then thou shalt smite them: thou shalt utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor haue compassion on them,

3 Neither shalt thou make mariages with them, neither shalt thou giue thy daughter vnto his son, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne.

4 For if they will cause thy sonne to turne away from me, and to serue other gods: then will the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus ye shall deale with them, Ye shall ouerthrow their altars, and breake downe their pillars, & ye shall cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire.

6 For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, the Lord thy God hath chosen thee, to be a precious people vnto himselfe, aboue all people that are vpon the earth.

7 The Lord did not set his loue vpon you, nor chuse you, because ye were more in number then any people: for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the Lord loued you, and because he would keepe the othe which he had sworne vnto your fathers, the Lord hath brought you out by a mightie hand, and deli-uered you out of the house of bondage from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 That thou maiest know, that the Lord keepeth couenant and mercie vnto them that loue him & keepe his Commandements, to a thousand generations.

10 And rewardeth them to their face that hate him, to bring them to destruction: he will not deferre to reward him that hateth him, to his face.

11 Keepe thou therefore the commandements, and the ordinances, & the lawes, which I command thee this day to doe them.

12 For if ye hearken vnto these lawes, and obserue and doe them, then the Lord thy God shall keepe with thee the couenant, and the mercie which he swore vnto thy fathers.

13 And he wil loue thee, and blesse thee, and multiplie thee: he will also blesse the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy land, thy corne, and thy wine, and thine oyle, and the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheepe in the land, which hee swore vnto thy fathers to giue thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed aboue all people:
there shall be neither male nor female barren among you, nor among your cattell.

15 Moreover, the Lord will take away from thee all infirmities, and will put none of the euill diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) vpon thee, but will send them vpon all that hate thee.

16 Thou shalt therefore consume all people which the Lord thy God shall giue thee:
thine eye shall not spare them, neither shalt thou serue their gods, for that shall be thy destruction.

17 If thou say in thine heart, These nations are more then I, how can I cast them out?

18 Thou shalt not feare them, but remember what the Lord thy God did vnto Pharaoh, and vnto all Egypt:

19 The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signes and wonders, and the mightie hand and stretched out arme, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God doe vnto all the people, whose face thou fearest.

20 Moreover, the Lord thy God will send hornets among them vntill they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, bee destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not feare them: for the Lord thy God is among you, a God mightie and dreadfull.

22 And the Lord thy God will roote out these nations before thee by litle & litle: thou maiest not consume them at once, least the

YE shall keepe all the commandments which I command thee this day, for^a to do them: that ye may liue, and be multiplied, and goe in, and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee this fourtie yeere in the wilderness, for to humble thee, and to^b prouue thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keepe his commandments or no.

3 Therefore hee humbled thee, and made thee hungry, and fed thee with M A N, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know it, that he might teach thee that man lieth not by bread onely, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doeth a man live.

ble thee, and to prooue thee, that he might doe thee good at thy latter end.

17 Beware lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hande hath prepared me this abundance.

it is hee which giueth thee power to get subre vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, and serue them, and worship them, I ^k testifie vnto you this day that ye shall surely perish.

10 As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before you, so ye shall perish, because ye could not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

4 God doeth them not good for their owne righteousness, but for his owne sake. 7 Moses putteth them in remembrance of their sinnes. 17 The two Tables are broken. 26 Moses prayeth for the people.

HEare O Israel, thou shalt passe over Iordan^a this day, to go in and to possesse nations greater and mightier then thy selfe, and cities great and walled vp to heauen,

3 A people great and tall, even the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast ^bheard/say, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Vnderstand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which goeth ouer before thee as a consuming fire : hee shall destroy them, and hee shall bring them downe before thy face : so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath said vnto thee.

4 Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my^d righteousness the Lord hath brought me in, to possesse this land :

but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

5 For thou enrest not to inherite their land for thy righteousness, or for thy upright heart: but for the wickednesse of those nations, the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee, and that he might performe the worde which the Lord thy God swore vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob.

6 Vnderstand therefore, that the Lord thy God giueth thee not this good land to possesse it for thy righteousness: for thou art a stiffnecked people.

e Like stubburne oxen, which will not endure their masters yoke.

f He proueth by the length of time, that their rebellion was most great and intolerable.

7 Remember and forget not, how thou prouokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: since the day that thou diddest depart out of the land of Egypt, vntill ye came vnto this place yee haue rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye prouoked the Lord to anger so that the Lord was wroth with you euē to destroy you.

* Exod. 43. 18. and 34. 28.

* Exod. 31. 18. g That is miraculously, and not by the hand of men.

9 When I was gone vp into the mount, to receiue the tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the couenant, which the Lord made with you: and I abode in the mount fortie dayes and fortie nights, and I neither ate bread nor yet drank water:

10 Then the Lord deliuered me two Tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and in them was contained according to all the words which the Lord had said vnto you in the mount out of the mids of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And when the fortie dayes and fortie nights were ended, the Lord gaue mee the two tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the couenant.

* Exod. 33. 7.

h So soone as man declineth from the obedience of God, his waies are corrupt.

12 And the Lord said vnto me, * Arise, get thee downe quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue corrupt their waies: they are soone turned out of the way which I commaunded them: they haue made then a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto mee, saying, I haue seene this people, and behold, it is a stiffnecked people.

i Signifying that the prayers of the faithful are a barre to stay Gods anger, that he consume not all.

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from vnder heauen, and I will make of thee a mightie nation, and greater then they be.

15 So I returned, and came downe from the mount (and the mount burned with fire, and the two Tables of the couenant were in my two hands)

k That is, from the Law: wherein he declareth what is the cause of our perdition.

16 Then I looked, and behold, yee had sinned against the Lord your God: for yee had made you a molten calfe, & had turned quickly out of the way which the Lord had commaunded you.

17 Therefore I tooke the two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, & brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell downe before the Lord, forty dayes, and fourtie nights, as before: I neither ate bread nor dranke water, because of all your sinnes, which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that yee prouoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraid of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moued against you, euē to destroy you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was very angry with Aaron, euē to destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

l Why erch by he sheweth what danger they are in, that haue authoritie, and resist not wickednesse.

21 And I tooke your sinne, I mean the calfe which yee had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him, and ground him small, euē vnto verie dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the riuer, that descended out of the mount.

m Horeb, or Sinai. * Num. 11. 1. 3. * Ex. 17. 7. * Num. 11. 34.

22 Also in * Taberah, and in * Massah, * and in Kibroth-hattaauh yee prouoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Goe vp, and possesse the land which I haue giuen you, then yee rebelled against the commandement of the Lord your God, and belecued him not, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

n At the returne of the spies.

24 Ye haue bene rebellious vnto the Lord, since the day that I knew you.

25 Then I fell downe before the Lord * fortie dayes and fourtie nights, as I fell downe before, because the Lord had said, that he would destroy you.

o Whereby is signified that God requireth earnest continuance in prayer.

26 And I prayed vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance which thou hast redeemed through thy greatnesse, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

27 Remember thy seruants Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob: looke not to the stubburnesse of this people, nor to their wickednesse, nor to their sinne.

p The godly in their prayers ground on Gods promise, and confesse their sinnes.

28 Left the country, whence thou broughtest them, say, * because the Lord was not able to bring them into the Land which hee promised them, or because he hated them, he caried them out to slay them in the wilderness.

thou brakeſt, and thou ſhalt put them in the Arke.

And I made an Arke of Shittim wood, and hewed two Tables of ſtone like vnto the firſt, and went vp into the mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand.

Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the firſt writing (the ten commandments, which the Lord ſpake vnto you in the Mount, out of the middes of the fire in the day of the aſſembly) and the Lord gaue them vnto mee.

And I departed, and came downe from the Mount, and put the Tables in the Arke which I made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.

¶ From thence they departed vnto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Iorbath, a land of running waters.

¶ The ſame time the Lord ſeparated the tribe of Leui to beare the Arke of the covenant of the Lord, and to ſtand before the Lord, to miniſter vnto him, and to bleſſe in his Name vnto this day.

¶ Wherefore Leui hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promiſed him.

¶ And I taried in the mount, as at the firſt time, fourtie daies and fourtie nights, and the Lord heard mee at that time alſo, and the Lord would not deſtroy thee.

¶ But the Lord ſaid vnto mee, Ariſe, goe forth in the iourney before the people, that they may goe in and poſſeſſe the land, which I ſware vnto their fathers to giue vnto them.

¶ And now, Iſrael, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his waies, and to loue him, and to ſerue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule,

¶ That thou keepe the commandements of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, for thy wealth?

¶ Behold, heauen, and the Heauen of heauens is the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

¶ Notwithſtanding, the Lord ſet his delight in thy fathers to loue them, and did chuſe their ſeede after them, even you aboue all people, as appeareth this day.

¶ Circumciſe therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.

¶ For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mightie and terrible which accepteth no persons nor taketh reward:

¶ Who doeth right vnto the fatherleſſe and widow, and loueth the ſtranger, giuing him food and raiment.

¶ Loue ye therefore the ſtranger, for yee were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt.

¶ Thou ſhalt feare the Lord thy God: thou ſhalt ſerue him, and thou ſhalt cleaue vnto him, and ſhalt ſweare by his Name.

¶ He is thy praiſe, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee theſe great and terrible things, which thine eyes haue ſeene.

¶ Thy fathers went downe vnto Egypt with ſeuentie perſons, and now the Lord thy God hath made thee, as the ſtarrs of the heauen in multitude.

CHAP. XI.

An exhortation to loue God, and keepe his law. 10 The praifer of Canaan. 18 To meditate continually the word of God. 19 To teach it vnto the children. 26 Bleſſing and curſing.

¶ Therefore thou ſhalt loue the Lord thy God, and ſhalt keepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his lawes, and his commandements alway.

¶ And conſider this day (for I ſpeake not to your children, which haue neither knowen nor ſeene) the chaſtiſement of the Lord your God, his greatneſſe, his mightie hand, and his ſtretched out arme,

¶ And his ſignes, and his actes, which hee did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land:

¶ And what he did vnto the hoſt of the Egyptians, vnto their horſes, and to their charrets, when hee cauſed the waters of the red Sea to ouerflow them, as they purſued after you, and the Lord deſtroyed them vnto this day:

¶ And what he did vnto you in the wilderneſſe, vntill ye came vnto this place:

¶ And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the ſonnes of Eliab the ſonne of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed them with their houſholdes and their tents, and all their ſubſtance that they had in the mids of all Iſrael.

¶ For your eyes haue ſeene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.

¶ Therefore ſhall yee keepe all the commandements, which I command you this day, that ye may be ſtrong, and goe in and poſſeſſe the land whither ye goe to poſſeſſe it:

¶ Alſo that ye may prolong your dayes in the land, which the Lord ſware vnto your fathers to giue vnto them and to their ſeed, even a land that floweth with milke and honie.

¶ For the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, is not as the lande of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou ſowedſt thy ſeed, and wateredſt it with thy foot as a garden of herbes:

¶ But the land whither yee goe to poſſeſſe it, is a land of mountaines and valleis, and drincketh water of the raine of heauen.

¶ This land doeth the Lord thy God care for:

14 I also will giue raine vnto your lande in due time, the first raine and the latter, that thou maist gather in thy wheat, and thy wine, and thine oyle.

15 Also I will send grasse in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou maist eat, & haue enough.

18 ¶ Therefore shall yee lay vp these my words in your heart & in your soule, and bind them for a signe vpon your hande, that they may be as a froetlet betweene your eyes.

20 And thou shalt write them vpon the posts of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

21 That your daies may be multiplied, and the dayes of your children, in the land which the Lord swore vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as the heauens are aboue the earth.

22 ¶ For if yee keepe diligently all these commandments, which I command you to do: that is, to loue the Lord your God, to walk in all his wayes, and to cleaue vnto him;

23 Then will the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall possesse great nations and mightier then you.

24 ¶ All the places whereon the soles of your feet shall tread, shall be yours: your coast shall be from the wilderness and from Lebanon, and from the riuer, euen the riuer Perath vnto the uttermost sea.

28 And the curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye haue not known.

hath brought thee into the lande, which thou goest to possesse it; then thou shalt put the blessing vpon mount Gerizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal.

CHAP. XII.

To destroy the idolatrous places. 5. 8 To serue God where he commandeth, and as he commandeth, and not as men fantasie. 19 The Levites must be nourished. 31 To delate no harme their children to their gods. 32 To adde nothing to Gods word.

These are the ordinances and the lawes, which ye shall obserue and do in the land, (which the Lord God of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it) as long as ye liue vpon the earth.

1 ¶ Yee shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which yee shall possesse, serued their gods vpon the hie mountaines and vpon the hills, and vnder euery green tree.

2 ¶ Also yee shall ouerthrow their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and burne their groues with fire: and yee shall hew downe the grauen images of their gods, and abolish their names out of that place.

3 ¶ Ye shall not so doe vnto the Lord your God.

4 ¶ But yee shall seeke the place which the Lord your God shall chooe out of all your tribes, to put his Name there; and there to dwel, and thither thou shalt come.

5 ¶ And yee shall bring thither your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offering of your hands, & your vowe, and your free offerings, and the first borne of your kine and of your sheepe.

and all your speciall vowes which ye vow vnto the Lord.

12 And yee shall reioyce before the Lorde your God, ye, & your sonnes, and your daughthe Leuite that is within your gates: for hee hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in euery place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the Lorde shall chuse in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt doe all that I command thee.

15 Nor withstanding thou mayst kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath giuen thee: both the vncleane and the cleane may eat thereof, as of the roe bucke, and of the Hart.

16 Onely yee shall not eat the blood, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

17 Thou maiest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corne, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oile, nor the first borne of thy kine, nor of thy sheepe: neither any of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy free offerings, nor the offring of thine hands,

18 But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shal chuse, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt re-ioyce before the Lord thy God, in all that thou puttest thine hand to.

19 Beware that thou forsake not the Leuite as long as thou liuest vpon the earth.

20 When the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, & thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, (because thine heart longeth to eat flesh) thou maiest eat flesh, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth.

21 If the place which the Lorde thy God hath chosen to put his Name there, be far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy bullocks, and of thy sheepe which the Lord hath giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth.

22 Euen as the roe bucke, and the Hart is eaten, so shalt thou eat them: both the vncleane and the cleane shall eat of them alike.

23 Onely bee sure that thou eate not the blood: for the blood is the life, and thou maiest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it, that it may go well with thee, & with thy children after thee, when thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

16 But thine holy things which thou hast and thy vowes thou shalt take up, and come vnto the place which the Lord shall chuse.

17 And thou shalt make thy burnt offerings of the flesh, and of the blood vpon the altar of the Lord thy God, and the blood of thine offerings shall be powred vpon the altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

18 Take heed, and heare all these wordes which I command thee, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee foreuer, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God.

19 When the Lord thy God shall deli-uer the nations before thee, whither thou goest to possesse them, and thou shalt possesse them, and dwell in their land,

20 Beware lest thou be taken in a snare after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and lest thou aske after their gods, saying, How did these nations serue their gods? that I may doe so likewise.

21 Thou shalt not doe so vnto the Lord thy God: for all abomination, which the Lord ha-teth, haue they done vnto their gods: for they haue burned both their sonnes & their daughters with fire to their gods.

22 Therefore whatsoeuer I command you, take heed you doe it: thou shalt put nothing thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

5 Also the Priestes the sonnes of Leui (whom the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to blesse in the name of the Lord) shall come forth, and by their word shall all strife and plague be tried.

6 And all the Elders of that citie that came neere to the slaine man, shall wash their hands ouer the heifer that is beheaded in the valley.

3 In like manner shalt thou doe with his asse, & so shalt thou doe with his raiment, and shalt so doe with all lost things of thy brother, which he hath lost: if thou hast found them, thou shalt not withdraw thy selfe from them.

4 ¶ Thou shalt not see thy brothers asse nor his oxen fall downe by the way, and withdrawe thy selfe from them, but shalt lift them vp with him.

5 ¶ The woman shall not weare that which pertaineth vnto the man, neither shall a man put on womans raiment: for all that do so, are abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

6 ¶ If thou find a birds nest in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be yong or eggs, and the damme sitting vpon the yong, or vpon the egges, thou shalt not take the damme with the yong,

7 But shalt in any wise let the damme goe and take the yong to thee, that thou maiest prosper and prolong thy dayes.

11 ¶ Thou shalt not weare a garment of diuers sorts, as of woollen and linnen together.

12 ¶ Thou shalt make thee fringes vpon the foure quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou couerest thy selfe.

13 ¶ If a man take a wife, and when he hath lien with her, hate her,

14 And lay slanderous things vnto her charge, and bring vp an euill name vpon her, and say, I tooke this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a maide,

15 Then shall the father of the maide and her mother, take and bring the signes of the maides virginie vnto the Elders of the citie to the gate,

16 And the maides father shall say vnto the Elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this man to wife, and he hateth her.

17 And loe, he layeth slanderous things vnto her charge, saying, I found not thy daughter a maide: loe, these are the tokens of my daughters virginie: and they shall spread the vesture before the Elders of the citie.

18 Then the Elders of the citie shall take that man and chastise him, 19 And shall condemne him in an hundred shekels of siluer, and giue them vnto the father of the maide, because he hath brought vp an euill name vpon a maide of Israel: and shee shall be his wife, and hee may not put her away all his life.

20 ¶ But if this thing be true, that the maide be not found a virgine, 21 Then they shall bring forth the maide to the doore of her fathers house, and the men of her citie shall stone her with stones to death: for she hath wrought folly in Israel, by playing the whore in her fathers house: so thou shalt put euill away from among you.

26 And vnto the maide thou shalt doe nothing, because there is in the maide no cause of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and woundeth him to death, so is this matter.

27 For he found her in the fields: the betrothed maide cryed, and there was no man to succour her.

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand with thine eye shall not spare her.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not haue in thy bagget two manner of weights, a great and a small.

14 Neither shalt thou haue in thine house diuers measures, a great and a small.

15 But thou shalt haue a right and iust weight: a perfit and a iust measure shalt thou haue, that thy dayes may be lengthened in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

16 For all that doe such things, and all that doe vnrighteously, are abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

17 ¶ Remember what Amalek did vnto thee by the way, when yee were come out of Egypt:

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of you al that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast fainted and wearie, and he feared not God.

19 Therefore, when the Lord thy God hath giuen thee rest from all thine enemies round about in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance to possesse it, then thou shalt put out the remembrance of Amalek from vnder heauen: forget not.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The offering of the first fruits. 2 What they must protest when they offer them. 3 The tithes of the third yeere. 4 Their protestation in offering it. 5 To what honour God preferreth them which acknowledge him to be their Lord.

¶ Also when thou shalt come into the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee for inheritance, and shalt possesse it, and dwell therein,

2 Then shalt thou take of the first of all the fruite of the earth, and bring it out of the land that the Lord thy God giueth thee, and put it in a basket, and goe vnto the place, which the Lord thy God shall chuse to place his Name there.

3 And thou shalt come vnto the priest, that shall be in those daies, and say vnto him, I acknowledge this day vnto the Lord thy God, that I am come vnto the countrey which the Lord swaue vnto our fathers for to giue vs.

4 Then the Priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it downe before the altar of the Lord thy God.

5 And thou shalt answer and say before the Lord thy God, A Syrian was my father, who being readie to perish for hunger, went downe into Egypt, and sojourned there with a small companie, and grew there vnto a nation great, and mightie, and full of people.

6 And the Egyptians vexed vs, and troubled vs, and laded vs with cruell bondage.

7 But when we cried vnto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our aduersitie, & on our labour, and on our oppression.

8 And the Lord brought vs out of Egypt in a mightie hand, and a stretched out arme, with a great terriblenesse, both in signes and wonders.

9 And he hath brought vs into this place, and hath giuen vs this land, even a land that floweth with milke and honie.

10 And now, loe, I haue brought the first frutes of the land which thou, O Lord, hast giuen me, and thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worshipping before the Lord thy God:

11 And thou shalt reioyce in all the good things which the Lord thy God hath giuen vnto thee and to thine household, thou and the Leuite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an ende of tithing all the tithes of thine increase, the third yeere, which is the yeere of tithing, and hast giuen it vnto the Leuite, to the stranger, to the fatherlesse, and to the widow, that they may eate within thy gates, and be satisfied,

13 Then thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I haue brought the hallowed thing out of mine house, and also haue giuen it vnto the Leuites and to the strangers, to the fatherlesse, and to the widowe, according to all thy commandements which thou hast commanded me: I haue transgressed none of thy commandements, nor forgotten them.

14 I haue not eaten thereof in my mourning, nor suffered ought to perish through vncleannes, nor giuen ought thereof for the dead, but haue hearkened vnto the voice of the Lord my God: I haue done after all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Looke downe from thine holy habitation, even from heauen, and blesse thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast giuen vs (as thou swauest vnto our fathers) the land that floweth with milke and honie.

16 ¶ This day the Lord thy God doth command thee to doe these ordinances, and lawes: keepe them therefore, and doe them with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.

17 Thou hast set vp the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walke in his waies, and to keepe his ordinances, & his commandements, CHAP. XXVII.

They are commanded to write the Law upon stones for a remembrance. Also to build an altar in mount Ebal.

Then Moses with the Elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keepe all the commandments, which I command you this day.

2 And when yee shall passe over Iordan vnto the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou shalt set thee vp great stones, and plaister them with plaister.

3 And thou shalt write vpon them all the words of this Law, when thou shalt come over, that thou mayest goe into the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee: a land that floweth with milke and honie, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore when yee shall passe over Iordan, yee shall set vp these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal: and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

5 And there shalt thou build vnto the Lord thy God an altar, even an altar of stones: thou shalt lift none yron instrument vpon them.

6 Thou shalt make the altar of the Lord thy God of whole stones, and offer burnt offerings thereon vnto the Lord thy God.

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eate there and reioyce before the Lord thy God:

8 And thou shalt write vpon the stones all the words of this Law, well and plainly.

9 And Moses and the Priests of the Leuites spake vnto all Israel, saying, Take heede and heare, O Israel: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou shalt hearken therefore vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and doe his commandments and his ordinances, which I command thee this day.

11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand vpon mount Gerizim, to blesse the people when ye shall passe over Iordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand vpon mount Ebal, to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

14 And the Leuites shall answere and say vnto all the men of Israel with a lowde voice, 15 Cursed be the man that shall make any carved or molten image, which is an abomination vnto the Lord: the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth in a secret place: And all the people shall answere, and say, So be it.

16 Cursed be hee that curseth his father and his mother: And all the people shall say, So be it.

17 Cursed be he that remoueth his neighbour's marker: And all the people shall say, So be it.

18 Cursed be hee that maketh the blind goe out of the way: And all the people shall say, So be it.

19 Cursed be he that hindereth the sight of the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the widow: And all the people shall say, So be it.

21 Cursed be hee that lieth with any beast: And all the people shall say, So be it.

22 Cursed be hee that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: And all the people shall say, So be it.

26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this Law, to doe them: And all the people shall say, So be it.

CHAP. XXVIII.

The promises to them that obey the commandments. 15 The threatenings to the contrary.

1 Thou shalt obey diligently the voyce of the Lord thy God, and obserue and doe all his commandments, which I command thee this day, then the Lord thy God will set thee on high, above all the nations of the earth.

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and ouertake thee, if thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou bee in the citie, and blessed also in the field.

4 Blessed shall bee the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattell, the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket & thy dough.

6 Blessed shalt thou be, when thou comest in, and blessed also when thou goest out.

18 The Lord shall command the blessing to thee with thee in thy store houses: and in all that thou settest thine hand to, and will bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee: and thou shalt be blessed.

19 The Lord shall make thee a holy people unto himselfe: as he hath sworn vnto thee, if thou shalt keepe the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walke in his wayes.

20 Then all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord thy God, and they shall be afraid of thee.

21 And the Lord shall make thee plenteous in goods in the fruit of thy body: & in the fruit of thy cattell, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the Lord swore vnto thy fathers to giue thee.

22 The Lord shall open vnto thee his good treasure, the heauen, to giue rain vnto thy land in due season, and to bless all the worke of thine hands: and thou shalt lend vnto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow of any.

23 And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the taile, and thou shalt be aboue only, and shalt not be beneath: if thou obey the commandments of the Lord thy God which I command thee this day, to keepe and to do.

24 But thou shalt not decline from any of the words which I command thee this day, either to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serue them.

25 But if thou wilt not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, to keepe and to do all his commandments and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, then all these curses shall come vpon thee, and ouertake thee.

26 Cursed shalt thou be in the towne, and cursed also in the field.

27 Cursed shall thy basket bee, and thy dough.

28 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheepe.

29 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed also when thou goest out.

30 The Lord shall send vpon thee cursing, trouble, and shame, in all that which thou set-test thine hand to do, vntill thou be destroyed, and perish quickly, because of the wickednes of thy works whereby thou hast forsaken me.

31 The Lord shall make the pestilence cleaue vnto thee, vntill hee hath consumed thee from the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

32 The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with the feauer, and with a burning ague, and with feruent heat, and with the sword, and with blasting, & with the mildew, and they shall pursue thee vntill thou perish.

33 And thine heauen that is ouer thine head, shall be brass, and the earth that is vnder thee, yron.

34 The Lord shall giue thee for the raine of thy land dust and ashes: vntill thou be destroyed.

35 And the Lord shall cause thee to fall before thine enemies: thou shalt be cut out one way against them, and shalt flee seven wayes before them, and shalt be scattered through all the kingdomes of the earth.

36 And thy carkeis shall be made vnto all foules of the aire, and vnto the beastes of the earth, and bone shall lay them away.

37 The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emeroides, and with the scab, and with the itch, that thou canst not be healed.

38 And the Lord shall smite thee with madnesse, and with blindness, and with a stonying of heart.

39 Thou shalt forsake the people of thy land, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and shalt not prosper in thy wayes: and thou shalt meet with oppression, wrong, and perdition euermore, and no man shall succour thee.

40 Thou shalt begeth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not eat the fruit thereof.

41 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine asse shall be violently taken away before thy face, and shalt not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be giuen vnto thine enemies, and no man shall rescue them for thee.

42 Thy sonnes and thy daughters shall be gi-still looke for them, euertill they fall out, and there shall be no power in thine hand.

shall a people, which thou knowest not, eate, and thou shalt neuer but suffer wrong, and violence alway.

which thine eyes shall see.

45 The Lord shall smite thee in the knees, canst not be healed: euen from the sole of thy foot vnto the top of thine head.

46 The Lord shall bring thee & thy King (which thou shalt set ouer thee) vnto a nation, which neither thou nor thy fathers haue know-en, and there thou shalt serue other gods: euen wood and stone.

47 And thou shalt be a wonder, a prouerb, and a common talke among all people, whiche
the Lord shall cary thee.

48 Thou shalt cary out much seed into the field, and shalt gather but little in: for the grahoppers shall destroy it.

49 Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and dresse it, but shalt neither drinke of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the wormes shall eat it.

46 And they shall be vpon thee for signes and wonders, and vpon thy seed for euer.

47 Because thou seruest not the Lord thy God with ioyfulness and with a good heart, for the abundance of all things.

48 Therefore thou shalt serue thine enemies which the Lord shall send vpon thee, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakednesse, and in need of all things: and hee shall put a yoke of yron vpon thy necke, vntill hee haue destroyed thee.

49 The Lord shall bring a nation vpon thee from farre, even from the end of the world, flying swift as an eagle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not vnderstand:

52 And hee shall besiege thee in all thy cities, vntill thine hie and strong wals fall downe, wherein thou trustedst in all the land: & he shall besiege thee in all thy cities throughout all thy lande which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

53 And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy body: even the flesh of thy sonnes and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee, during the siege and straitnesse wherein thine enemies shall inclose thee:

54 So that the man (that is tender and exceeding dainty among you) shall be grieved at his brother, and at his wife that lieth in his bosome, and at the remnant of his children, which hee hath yet left,

56 The tender and daintie woman among you, which would venture to set the sole of her foote vpon the ground (for her softnesse and tendernesse) shall be grieved at her husband that lieth in her bosome, and at her sonne, and at her daughter,

59 Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderfull, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues and of long continuance, and sore diseases, and of long durance.

60 Moreover he will bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, wherof thou wast afraid, and they shall cleaue vnto thee.

61 And euery sicknesse, and euery plague, which is not written in the booke of this law, will the Lord heape vpon thee, vntill thou bee destroyed.

62 And yee shall bee left fewe in number, where ye were as the stars of heauen in multitude, because thou wouldst not obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

63 And as the Lord hath reioyced ouer you to do you good, and to multiply you, so he will reioice ouer you, to destroy you, and bring you to nought, and ye shall be rooted out of the land whither thou goest to possesse it.

64 And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the world vnto the other, & there thou shalt serue other gods, which thou hast not known nor thy fathers, even wood and stone.

65 Also among these nations thou shalt find no rest, neither shall the sole of thy foote haue rest: for the Lord shall giue thee there a trembling heart, and looking to returne till thine eyes fall out, and a sorrowfull mind.

66 And thy life shall hang before thee, and thou shalt feare both night and day, and shalt haue none assurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were euening, & at euening thou shalt say, Would God it were morning, for the feare of thine heart which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eyes, which thou shalt see.

prehended vnder Gods couenants. 19 The punishment of him that flattereth himselfe in his wickednesse. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

THese are the wordes of the couenant, which the Lord commaunded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab beside the couenant which he had made with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called all Israel, and sayde vnto them, Ye haue seene all that the Lord did before your eyes in the lande of Egypt vnto Pharaoh and vnto all his seruants, and vnto all his land,

3 The great tentations which thine eyes haue seene, those great miracles and wonders:

4 Yet the Lorde hath not ^dgiuen you an heart to perceiue, and eyes to see, and eares to heare vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yeere in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, neither is thy shoe waxed olde vpon thy foot.

6 Ye haue eaten no ^ebread, neither drunk wine, nor strong drinke, that yee might know how that I am the Lord your God.

7 After, ye came vnto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbon, and Og King of Bashan came out against vs vnto battell, and we slew them.

8 And tooke their land, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Reubenites, & to the Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.

9 * Keepe therefore the wordes of this couenant and doe them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shall doe.

10 Ye stand this day every one of you before the Lord your ^fGod: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, euē all the men of Israel:

11 Your children, your wiues, & thy stranger that is in thy campe from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou shouldest ^g passe into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his oath which the Lorde thy God maketh with thee this day, 13 For to establish thee this day a people vnto himselfe, and that hee may be vnto thee a God, as hee hath said vnto thee, and as hee hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob.

14 Neither make I this couenant, and this oath with you onely, 15 But as well with him that standeth heere with vs this day before the Lord our God, as with him ^h that is not here with vs this day.

16 For ye know, how we haue dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the mids of the nations, which ye passed by.

17 And yee haue seene their abominations and their idoles (wood, and stone, siluer, and gold) which were among them,

18 That there should not bee among you man, nor woman, nor family, nor tribe, which should turne his heart away this day from the Lorde our God, to goe and serue the gods of these nations, and that there should not bee among you ⁱ any roote that bringeth forth * gall and wormewood, 19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, hee ^j blesse himselfe in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, although I walke according to the stubburnesse of mine owne heart, thus adding ^k drunkenness to thirst.

20 The Lord will not bee mercifull vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his iellousie shall smoke against that man, and euery curse that is written in this booke, shall light vpon him, and the Lord shall put out his name from vnder heauen, 21 And the Lord shall separate him vnto euill out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the couenant, that is written in the booke of this law.

22 So that the ^l generation to come, euē your children that shall rise vp after you, and the stranger, that shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it:

23 (For all that land shall burne with brimstone and salt: it shall not be sownen, nor bring forth, nor any grasse shall grow therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of * Sodom & Gomorah, Adinah, and Zeboim, which the Lorde ouerthrew in his wrath and in his anger.)

24 Then shall all nations say, * Wherefore hath the Lord done thus vnto this land? how fierce is this great wrath?

25 And they shall answeere, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when hee brought them out of the land of Egypt, 26 And went and serued other gods, and worshipped them: euē gods which they knew not, and ^m which had giuen them nothing.

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hote against this land, to bring vpon it euery curse that is written in this booke.

28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeareth this day.

29 The ⁿ misfecter things belong to the Lord our God, but the things reueiled belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this law.

Then Moses went and spake these wordes vnto all Israel,

2 And said vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeere old this day: I ^a can no more goe out and in: also the Lord hath said vnto mee, * Thou shalt not go ouer this Iordan.

3 The Lord thy God he wil go ouer before thee: he wil destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possesse them, * Ioshua, hee shall go before thee, as the Lord hath said.

5 And the Lord shal giue them ^b before you that ye may do vnto them according vnto euery * commandment, which I haue commanded you.

6 ¶ Plucke vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God himselfe doeth go with thee: he will not faile thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ¶ And Moses called Ioshua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Be ^c of a good courage & strong: for thou shalt go with this people vnto the land which the Lord hath sworne vnto their fathers to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherite.

8 And the Lord himselfe doth ^d go before thee: he wil be with thee: he wil not faile thee, neither forsake thee: feare not ^e therefore, nor be discomforted.

10 And Moses commaunded them, saying, * Euery seventh yere * when the yeere of freedom shall be in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israel shall come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which he shall chuse, thou shalt read this law before all Israel that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and keepe and obserue all the wordes of this Law.

13 And that their children which haue not knowen it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as yee liue in the land, whither ye goe ouer Iordan to possesse it.

14 ¶ Then the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Behold, thy dayes are come, that thou must die: call Ioshua, & stand ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may giue him a charge. So Moses and Ioshua went, and stood in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle, in the pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloude stood ouer the doore of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Beholde, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people will rise vp, and goe a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whither they goe to dwell therein) and will forsake mee, and breake my couenant which I haue made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath will waxe hote against them at that day, and I will forsake them, and will hide my face from them: then they shall be consumed, and many aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them: so then they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the euil which they shall commit, in that they are turned vnto other gods.

19 Now therefore write yee this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouthes, that this song may bee my witness against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the land (which I sware vnto their fathers) that floweth with milke and hony, and they shall eat, & fill themselves, and waxe fat: then shall they turne vnto other gods, and serue them, and contemne me, and breake my couenant.

21 And then when many aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them, this song shall answer them to their face as a witnesse: for it shall not bee forgotten out of the mouthes of their posterity: for I know their imagination, which they goe about euen now, before I haue brought them into the land which I sware.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And God gaue Ioshua the sonne of Nun a charge, and sayd, * Bee strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I sware vnto them, and I will be with thee.

24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the wordes of this Law in a booke vntill he had finished them,

25 Then Moses commaunded the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, saying, 26 Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion and thy stifte necke: behold, I being yet aloue with you this day, yee are rebellious against the Lord: how much more then after my death?

28 Gather vnto mee all the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these wordes in their audience, and call heauen and earth to record against them.

29 For I am sure that after my death ye will utterly bee corrupt and turne from the way which I haue commaunded you: therefore euill will come vpon you at the length, because yee will commit euill in the sight of the Lord, by prouoking him to anger through the worke of your hands.

30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the wordes of this song, vntill he had ended them.

8 When the most high God diuided to the nations their inheritance, when hee separated the sonnes of Adam, he appointed the borders of the people, according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the Lords portion is his people: Iacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 Hee found him in the land of the wilderness, in a waste and roaring wilderness: hee led him about, he taught him, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stretcheth vp her nest, fluttereth ouer her birdes, stretcheth out her wings, taketh them, and beareth them on her wings, 12 So the Lord alone led him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He carried him vp to the high places of the earth, that he might eat the fruits of the fields, and hee caused him to sucke honey out of the stone, and oyle out of the hard rocke.

14 Butter of kine, and milke of sheepe with fat of the lambes, and rammes fed in Bashan, and goats, with the fat of the graines of wheat, and the redde liquour of the grape hath thou drunke.

15 ¶ But he that should haue bene i' vpright, when he waxed fatte, spurned with his heele: thou art fat, thou art grosse, thou art laden with fatnesse: therefore he forsooke God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of his saluation.

16 They prouoked him with strange gods: they prouoked him to anger with abominations.

17 They offered vnto deuils, not to God, but to gods whome they knew not: new gods that came newly vp, whom their fathers feared not.

18 Thou hast forgotten the mightie God, that begate thee, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 The Lord then sawe it, and was angrie, for the prouocation of his sonnes and of his daughters.

20 And hee sayd, I will hide my face from them: I will see what their ende shall be: for they are a froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They haue moued me to ielousie with that which is not God: they haue prouoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will moue them to ielousie with those which are no people: I wil prouoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, and shall burne vnto the bottome of hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountaines.

23 I will spend plagues vpon them: I will bestow mine arrowes vpon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts vpon them, with the venime of serpents creeping in the dust.

25 The sword shall kill them without, and in the chambers feare: both the young man and the young woman, the suckling with the man of gray haire.

26 I haue said, I would scatter them abroad: I would make their remembrance to cease from among men, 27 Saue that I feared the fury of the enemy, lest their aduersaries should waxe proud, and lest they should say, Our hand and not the Lord hath done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsell, neither is there any vnderstanding in them.

29 Oh that they were wise, then they would vnderstand this: they would consider their latter end.

30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put tenne thousand to flight, except their strong God had sold them, and the Lord had shut them vp?

31 For their God is not as our God, euen our enemies being iudges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the vines of Gomorah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters be bitter.

33 Their wine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruell gall of aspes.

34 Is not this laid in store with me, and sealed vp among my treasures?

35 Vengeance and recompense are mine: their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hand, and the things that shall come vpon them, make haste.

36 For the Lord shall iudge his people, and repent toward his seruants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and none shut vp in hold nor left abroad.

37 When men shall say, Where are their gods, their mighty God in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and did drinke the wine of their drinke offering? let them rise vp, and helpe you: let him be your refuge.

39 Beholde now, for I, I am he, and there is no gods with me: I kil, & giue life: I wound, and I make whole: neither is there any that can deliuer out of mine hand.

40 For I lift vp mine hand to heauen, and say, I liue for euer.

41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take holde on iudgement, I will execute vengeance on mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrowes drunke with blood (& my sword shall eat flesh) for the blood of the slaine: and of the captiues, when I begin to take vengeance of the enemy.

43 Ye nations, praise his people: for he will auenge the blood of his seruants, and will execute vengeance vpon his aduersaries, and will be mercifull vnto his land, and to his people.

52 Thou shalt therefore see the land before thee, but shalt not go thither, I meane, into the land which I giue the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Moses before his death blest all the tribes of Israel. 26 There is no god like to the God of Israel: 29. Nor any people like vnto his.

NOW this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and said,

2 The Lord came from Sinai, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared clearly from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of Saints, and at his right hand a fierie Law for them.

3 Though he loue the people, yet all thy Saints are in thine hands: and they are humbled at thy feet, to receiue thy words.

4 Moses commanded vs a Law for an inheritance of the Congregation of Iakob.

5 Then I hee was among the righteous people, as King, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel were assembled.

6 ¶ Let Reuben liue, and not die, though his men be a small number.

7 ¶ And thus he blessed Iudah, and saide, Heare, O Lord, the voice of Iudah, & bring him vnto his people: his hands shall bee sufficient for him, if thou helpe him against his enemies.

8 ¶ And of Leui he said, Let thy Thummin and thine Vrim bee with thine holy one, whom thou didst proue in Massah, and didst cause him to strue at the waters of Meribah.

9 Who said vnto his father and to his mother, I haue not sene him, neither knewe hee his brethren, nor know his owne children: for they obserued my word, & kept thy commandment.

10 ¶ They shall teach Iakob thy iudgements, & Israel thy Law: they shall put incense before thy face, and the burnt offering vpon thine altar.

11 ¶ Bless, O Lord, his substance, and accept the worke of his hands: I meane, through the laynes of them shall rise against him, & of them shall hate him, that they rise not against him.

12 ¶ Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the Lord shall dwell in safety by him: the Lord shall couer him all the day long, and dwell between his shoulders.

13 ¶ And of Ioseph he said, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the sweetnesse of heaven, for the dew, and for the depth lying beneath.

14 And for the sweet increase of the sunne, and for the sweet increase of the moone,

15 And for the sweetnesse of the top of the mountaine, and for the sweetnesse of the old hill,

16 And for the sweetnesse of the earth, and abundance thereof: & the good wil of him that dwelt in the bush, shall come vpon the head of Ioseph, and vpon the toppe of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

17 His beautie shall be like his first borne bullocke, and his thornes as the thornes of an vine: with them he shall smite the people together, euen the ends of the world: these are for the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 ¶ And of Zebulun hee saide, Reioyce Zebulun, in thy going out, and thou Issachar in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people vnto the mountaine: there they shall offer the sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of the treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ Also of Gad he saide, Blessed be hee that enlargeth Gad: hee dwelleth as a lion, that catcheth for his pray the arme with the head.

21 And he looked to himselfe at the beginning, because there was a portion of the Law giuer hid: yet he shall come with the heads of the people, to execute the iustice of the Lord, and his iudgements with Israel.

22 ¶ And of Dan hee saide, Dan is a lions whelp: he shall leape from Bashan.

23 ¶ Also of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with fauour, & filled with the blessing of the Lord, possesse the West and the South.

24 ¶ And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with children: he shall be acceptable vnto his brethren, and shall dip his foot in oyle.

25 Thy shooes shall be yron and brasse, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou liuest.

16 And she said unto them, Goe you into the mountaine, least the pursuers meete with you, and hide your selues there three dayes vntill the pursuers be returned: then afterward may ye goe your way.

17 And the men said vnto her, We will be blamelesse of this thine othe, which thou hast made vs swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the lande, thou shalt bring this cord of red threed in the window, whereby thou lettest vs downe, and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mesher, and thy brethren, and al thy fathers household home to thee.

19 And whosoever then doeth goe out at the doores of this house into the streete, his blood shall be vpon his head, and wee will be guiltlesse: but whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand touch him.

20 And if thou utter this our matter, wee will be quite of thine othe, which thou hast made vs swear.

21 And she answered, according vnto your words so be it: then she sent them away, and they departed, and she bound the red cord in the window.

22 And they departed and came into the mountaine, and there abode three dayes, vntill the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them thorowout all the way, but found them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, and passed ouer, and came to Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and told him all things that came vnto them.

24 Also they said vnto Ioshua, Surely the Lord hath deliuered into our hands al the land: for euen all the inhabitants of the countrey faint because of vs.

CHAP. III.

3 Ioshua commandeth them to depart when the Arke remoueth. 7 The Lord promiseth to exalt Ioshua before the people. 9 Ioshuas exhortation to the people. 16 The waters part asunder whiles the people passe.

Then Ioshua rose very early, and they remooued from Shittim, and came to Iorden, he, and al the children of Israel, and lodged there, before they went ouer.

2 And after three dayes the officers went throughout the hoste,

3 And commanded the people, saying, When yee see the Arke of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Leuites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and goe after it.

4 Yet there shall be a space betweene you and it, about two thousand cubites by measure: yee shall not come neere vnto it, that yee may know the way, by the which yee shal goe: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

5 (Now Ioshua had said vnto the people, Sanctifie your selues: for to morow the Lord will doe wonders among you)

6 Also Ioshua spake vnto the Priests, saying, Take vp the Arke of the Covenant, and go ouer before the people: so theyooke vp the Arke of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day will I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, which shall know that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

8 Thou shalt therefore command the Priests that beare the Arke of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the waters of Iorden, ye shall stand still in Iorden.

9 Then Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, Come hither, and heare the words of the Lord your God.

10 And Ioshua said, Hereby ye shal know that the liuing God is among you, and that he will certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hiuites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

11 Behold the Arke of the covenant of the Lord of all the world passeth before you into Iorden.

12 Now therefore take from among you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euery tribe a man.

13 And as soone as the soles of the feete of the Priests (that beare the Arke of the Lord God the Lord of all the world) shall stay in the waters of Iorden, the waters of Iorden shalbe cut off: for the waters that come from aboue, shall stand still vpon an heape.

14 Then when the people were departed from their tents to goe ouer Iorden, the Priests bearing the Arke of the Covenant went before the people.

15 And as they that bare the Arke came vnto Iorden, and the feete of the Priests that bare the Arke were dipped in the brink of the water, (for Iorden vseth to fill all his banks all the time of haruest)

16 Then the waters that came downe from aboue stayed, and rose vp on an heape and departed farre from the cite of Adam, that was beside Zaretan: but the waters that came downe toward the Sea of the wilderness, euen the salt Sea, failed, and were cut off: so the people went right ouer against Iericho.

17 But the Priests that bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord, stood dry within Iorden ready prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer drye, vntill all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iorden.

3 And command you them saying, Take you three out of the mids of Iorden, out of the place where the Priests stood in a readiness, twelve stones, which yee shall take away with you, and leave them in the lodging where you shall lodge this night.

4 Then Ioshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man, and Ioshua said unto them, Goe ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euen through the mids of Iorden, and take vp euery man of you a stone vpon his shoulder, according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel.

6 Then yee may answer them, That the waters of Iorden were cut off before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord: for when it passed through Iorden, the waters of Iorden were cut off: therefore these stones are a memoriall vnto the children of Israel for euer.

7 Then the children of Israel did euen so as Ioshua had commanded, & tooke vp twelve stones out of the mids of Iorden: as the Lord had said vnto Ioshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and caried them away with them vnto the lodging, and laid them downe there.

8 And Ioshua set vp twelve stones in the mids of Iorden, in the place where the secte of the Priests, which bare the Arke of the couenant stood, and there haue they continued vnto this day.

9 So the Priests, which bare the Arke, stood in the mids of Iorden, vntill euery thing was finished that the Lord had commaunded Ioshua to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Ioshua: then the people hastened and went ouer.

10 When all the people were cleane passed ouer, the Arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priests before the people.

11 And the sonnes of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasse went ouer before the children of Israel armed, as Moses had charged them.

12 Euen forty thousand prepared for warre, went before the Lord vnto battell, into the plaine of Iericho.

13 That day the Lord magnified Ioshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him as they feared Moses all the daies of his life.

14 And the Lord spake vnto Ioshua, saying, 15 Command the Priests that beare the Arke of the Testimonie, to come vp out of Iorden.

16 Ioshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye vp out of Iorden.

17 And when the Priests that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord were come vp out of the mids of Iorden, and as soon as the soles of the Priests feet were set on the drie land, the waters of Iorden returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bankes thereof, as they did before.

18 So the people came vp out of Iorden the tenth day of the first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the East side of Iericho.

19 Also the twelve stones, which they took out of Iorden, did Ioshua pitch in Gilgal.

20 And he spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall aske their fathers in time to come, and say, What mean these stones?

21 Then yee shall shew your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iorden on drie lande:

22 For the Lord your God dried vp the waters of Iorden before you, vntill yee were gone ouer, as the Lord your God did the red Sea, which he dried vp before vs, all we were gone ouer.

23 That all the people of the world may know that the hand of the Lord is mightie, that yee might feare the Lord your God continually.

The Canaanites are afraid of the Israelites. 2 Circumcision is commanded the second time. 10 The Passouer is kept. 12 Manna ceaseth. 13 The Angel appeareth vnto Ioshua.

NOW when all the kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Iorden Westward, & all the kings of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the Lord had dried vp the waters of Iorden before the children of Israel vntill they were gone ouer, their heart fainted: and there was no courage in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

2 That same time the Lord saide vnto Ioshua, Make thee sharpe kniues, and returne, and circumcise the sonnes of Israel the second time.

3 Then Ioshua made him sharpe kniues, and circumcised the sonnes of Israel in the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Ioshua circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out were circumcised: but al the people that were borne in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt, were not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty yeeres in the wildernes, til all the people of the men of war that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whom the Lord sware, that he would 9 After this, the Lord said unto Joshua, This day have I taken away the shame of Egypt from you: therefore he called the name of that place Gilgal unto this day.

10 So the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and kept the feast of the Passover the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plain of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of the corn of the land, on the morrow after the Passover, when they had eaten bread and parched corn in the same day.

Now Jericho was shut up, and closed, because of the children of Israel: none might goe out nor enter in.

3 All yet therefore that be men of warre, shall compass the citie, in going round about the citie: once: thus shall you doe sixe dayes.

4 And seven Priests shall beare seven trumpets of rams hornes before the Arke: & the seventh day ye shall compass the citie seven times, and the Priest shall blow with the trumpets.

the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: then shall the wall of the citie fall downe flat, and the people shall ascend upon the wall straight before him.

6 Then Joshua the sonne of Nun called the Priests, and said unto them, Take up the Arke of the covenant, and let seven Priests beare seven trumpets of rammes hornes before the Arke of the Lord.

7 Butcher said unto the people, Goe and compass the citie: and let him that is armed goe forth before the Arke of the Lord.

8 And when Joshua had spoken unto the people, the seven Priests beare the seven trumpets of rams hornes, and went forth before the Arke of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets, and the Arke of the covenant of the Lord followed them.

9 And the men of armes went before the Priests, that beare the trumpets: when they gathered together, came after the Arke, as they went and blew the trumpets.

10 (Now Joshua had commended the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, neither make any noise with your voice, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day that I say unto you, Shout, then shall ye shout.)

11 So the Arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went about it once: then they returned into the host, and lodged in the campe.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the Priests beare the Arke of the Lord.

13 Also seven Priests beare seven trumpets of rams hornes, and went before the Arke of the Lord, & going, blew with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but they gathered together, came after the Arke of the Lord, as they went and blew the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the citie once, and returned into the host: thus they did five dayes.

15 And when the seventh day came, they rose early, even with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after the same manner sixe times: onely that day they compassed the citie seven times.

16 And when the Priests had blown the trumpets the seventh time, Joshua saide unto the people, Shout, for the Lord hath given you the citie.

17 And the citie shall be an execrable thing, both it, and all that are therein, unto the Lord: onely Rahab the harlot shall live, shee, and all that are with her in the house: for she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 Norwithstanding, be ye ware of the execrable thing, lest ye make your selves execrable, & in taking of the execrable thing, make also the host of Israel execrable, and trouble it.

19 But all silver, and golde, and vessels of brasie, and yron shall be consecrate unto the Lord, and shall come into the Lords treasure.

blown trumpets: for when the people had heard the sound of the trumpet, they shouted with a great shout: & the walls fell downe flue: so the people went vp into the cite, every man straight before him: and they took the city.

21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the cite, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheepe, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Ioshua had sayd vnto the two men that had spied out the countrey, Go into the harlots house, bringing out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye swore to her.

23 So the young men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and all her brethren, and all that shee had: also they brought out all her family, and put them without the hoste of Israel.

24 After they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein, only the silver and the golde, and the vessels of brasie and yron, they put into the treasure house of the house of the Lord.

25 So Ioshua saved Rahab the harlot, and her fathers household, and all that she had: and she dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because she had hid the messengers, which Ioshua sent to spie out Iericho.

26 And Ioshua ware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth vp, and buildeth this city Iericho: for he shall lay the foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, & in his youngest sonne shall he set vp the gates of it.

27 So the Lord was with Ioshua, and he was famous through all the world.

CHAP. VII.

The Lord is angry with Achan. 4. They of Ai put the Israelites to flight. 6. Ioshua prayeth vnto the Lord, 16. So Ioshua enquireth out him that sinned, and stoneth him, and all his.

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the excommunicate thing: for Achan the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the son of Zerah of the tribe of Iudah tooke of the excommunicate thing: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Ioshua sent men from Iericho to Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on the East side of Beth-el, and spake vnto them, saying, Go vp, and view the countrey. And the men went vp, and viewed Ai.

3 And returned to Ioshua, and said vnto him, Let not all the people goe vp, but let as it were two or three thousand men goe vp, and smite Ai, and make not all the people to labour thither, for they are few.

4 So there went vp thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai more of them vp on a thirty and sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate vnto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted away like water.

6 Then Ioshua rent his clothes, and fel to the earth upon his face before the Arke of the Lord vntill the euentide, hee, and the Elders of Israel, and put dust vpon their heads.

7 And Ioshua saide, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Jordan, to deliver vs into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy vs? would God we had bene content to dwell on the other side Iordani.

8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turne their backs before their enemies?

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall heere of it, and shall compass vs, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou doe vnto thy mightie Name?

10 And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Get thee vp: wherefore hast thou thus vpon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they haue transgressed my Couenane, which I commanded them: for they haue euen taken of the excommunicate thing, and haue also sollowen, and thussembled also, and haue put it euen with their owne stuffe.

11 Therefore the children of Israel can not stand before their enemies, but haue turned their backs before their enemies, because they bee execrable: neither will I bee with you any more, except yee destroy the excommunicate from among you.

12 Vp therefore, sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morrow for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, O Israel, therefore ye cannot stand against your enemies, until ye haue put the execrable thing fro among you.

13 In the morning therefore yee shall come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shall come according to the families: and the family which the Lord shall take, shall come by the householdes: and the household which the Lord shall take, shall come man by man.

14 And he that is taken with the excommunicate thing, shall be burnt with fire, hee, and all that he hath, because hee hath transgressed the couenane of the Lord, and because hee hath wrought folly in Israel.

15 So Ioshua rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe of Iudah was taken.

16 And he brought the families of Iudah, and tooke the family of the Zarahites, and hee brought the family of the Zarahites, man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

17 And hee brought his household, man by man, and Achan the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zerah, of the tribe of Iudah was taken.

18 Then Ioshua said vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseech thee, giue glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession vnto him, and shew shew me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me.

And Achan answered Ioshua, and said, In deed, I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus, and thus have I done. I saw among the spoile a goodly Babylonish garment, an ewen hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, and I coveted them, and took them, and behold, they lie hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

Then Ioshua sent messengers, which ran into the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

Therefore they took them out of the tent, and brought them unto Ioshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them before the Lord.

Then Ioshua took Achan the sonne of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, & his sonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, & his sheep, and his tent, and all that hee had: and all Israel with him brought them unto the valley of Achor.

And Ioshua saide, In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shall trouble thee this day: and all Israel threw stones at him, and burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones: and they cast upon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lord turned from his fierce wrath: therefore he called the name of that place, The valley of Achor, vnto this day.

CHAP. VIII.

The siege, 19 and winning of Ai. 19 The King thereof was bound. 20 Ioshua's speech vnto Achan. 21 Hee weareth the Lawe vpon his feet. 22 And readeth it to all the people.

After, the Lord sayd vnto Ioshua, * Fearing not, neither be thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee, and arise, goe vp to Ai: behold, I haue giuen into thine hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his citie, and his land.

And thou shalt do to Ai, and to the king thereof, as thou diddest vnto Iericho, and to the king thereof: neuertheles the spoile thereof, and the cartell thereof shall ye take vnto you for a pray: thou shalt lie in wait against the citie on the backside thereof.

Then Ioshua arose, and all the men of war to goe vp against Ai: and Ioshua chose out thirtiethousand strong men, and valiant, and sent them away by night.

And hee commaunded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the citie on the backside of the citie: go not very farre from the citie, but be ye all in a readinesse.

And I and all the people that are with me, will approach vnto the citie: and when they shall come out against vs as they did at the first time, then will we flee before them.

For they will come out after vs, till wee haue brought them out of the citie: for they will say, They flee before vs as at the first time: so we will flee before them.

Then you shall rise vp from lying in wait, and destroy the citie: for the Lord your God will deliuer it into your hand.

And when ye haue taken the citie, ye shall set it on fire: according to the commaundement of the Lord shall ye do. Behold, I haue charged you.

Ioshua then sent them forth, and they went to lie in wait, and abode betwene Beth-el, and Ai, on the West side of Ai: but Ioshua lodged that night among the people.

And Ioshua rose vp early in the morning, and counted the people, and he and the Elders of Israel went vp before the people against Ai.

Also all the men of warre that were with him, went vp and drew nere, and came against the citie, and pitched on the North side of Ai: and there was a valley betwene them and Ai.

And hee took about sixethousand men, and set them to lie in wait betwene Beth-el and Ai, on the West side of the citie.

And the people set all the hoste that was on the North side against the citie, and the liers in wait on the West against the citie: and Ioshua went the same night into the midst of the valley.

And when the king of Ai saw it, then the men of the citie hastened and rose vp early, and went out against Israel to battell, hee and all his people at the time appointed before the plaine: for he knew not that any lay in wait against him on the backside of the citie.

Then Ioshua and all Israel's were beaten before them, fled by the way of the wilderness.

And all the people of the citie were called together, to pursue after them: and they pursued after Ioshua, and were drawn away out of the citie.

So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Stretch out the speare that is in thine hand, toward Ai: for I will giue it into thine hand. And Ioshua stretched out the speare that he had in his hand toward the citie.

And they that lay in wait, arose quickly out of their place, and ranne as soone as he had stretched out his hand, and they entred into the citie, and tooke it, and hastened, and set the citie on fire.

And the men of Ai looked behind them, and sawe it: for loe, the smoke of the citie ascended vp to heauen, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned backe vpon the pursuers.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field; that is, in the wilderness, where they chased them; and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword; until they were consumed; all the Israelites returned vnto Ai; and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And all that fell that day; both of men and women; were twelue thousand; euen at the men of Ai.

26 For Ioshua drew not his hand backe againe; which hee had stretched out with the speare; until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Onely the cattell and the spoyle of this city, Israel tooke for a pray vnto themselues; according vnto the word of the Lord, which hee commanded Ioshua.

28 And Ioshua burnt Ai; & made it an heape for euer; and a wilderness vnto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree; vnto the evening. And as soone as the Sun was downe, Ioshua commanded that they should take his carkeis downe from the tree; and cast it at the entring of the gate of the citie; and lay thereon a great heape of stones; that remaineth vnto this day.

30 Then Ioshua built an Altar vnto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal.

31 As Moses the seruant of the Lorde had commanded the children of Israel; as it is written in the booke of the Law of Moses; an altar of whole stone; ouer which no man had life an yron; and they offered thereon burnt offerings vnto the Lord; and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 Also hee wrote there vpon the stones, a rehearal of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers, and their Iudges stood on this side of the Arke; and on that side, before the Priests of the Leuites, which bare the arke of the couenant of the Lord) as wel the stranger as he that is borne in the country: halfe of them were ouer against mount Gerizim; and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebal; as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded before; that they should blesse the children of Israel.

34 Then afterward hee read all the wordes of the Lawe, the blessings and cursings; according to all that is written in the booke of the Law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded; which Ioshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel; as well before the women and the children; as the stranger that was conuerlant among them.

CHAP. IX.
Discomfiting Ioshua's enemies against Ioshua. 1. The craft of the Gibeonites. 2. Ioshua maketh a league with them. 3. For their craft they are condemned to perpetual slavery.

And when all the kings that were beyond Iordan, in the mountaines and in the valleys; and by all the coasts of the great sea ouer against Lebanon (the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites) heard thereof;

They gathered themselues together; to fight against Ioshua; and against Israel with one accord.

But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Ioshua had done vnto Iericho; and to Ai.

And therefore they wrought craftily: for they went & feined themselues ambassadours; and took old sacks vpon their asses; and old bottles for wine; both rent and bound vp.

And olde shooes and clouted vpon their feet; also the raiment vpon them was old; & all their prouision of bread was dried and moulded.

So they came vnto Ioshua into the hoste to Gilgal; and saide vnto him; and vnto the men of Israel; We be come from a far country: now therefore make a league with vs.

Then the men of Israel said vnto the Hiuites; It may bee that thou dwellest among vs; how then can I make a league with thee?

And they said vnto Ioshua; Wee are thy seruants. Then Ioshua said vnto them; Who are ye? and whence come ye?

And they answered him; From a very far countrey thy seruants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for wee haue heard his fame; and all that he hath done in Egypt;

And all that hee hath done to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordan; to Sihon king of Heshbon; and to Og king of Bashan; which were at Ashtaroth.

Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our countrey spake to vs; saying; Take vitales with you for the iourney; and goe to meete them; and say vnto them; We are your seruants: now therefore make ye a league with vs.

This our bread wee tooke it hote with vs for vitale out of our houses; the day we departed to come vnto you: but now behold; it is dried; and it is moulded.

Also these bottels of wine which we filled were new; and lo; they be rent; and these our garments and our shooes are olde; by reason of the exceeding great iourney.

And the men accepted their tale concerning their vitales; and counselled not with the mouth of the Lord.

Some thinke; that the Israelites ate of their vitales; and so made a league with them.

A league with the Gibeonites: Joshua. The Sunne standeth still.

15 So Ioshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he would suffer them to live: also the princes of the Congregation swore vnto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of three daies, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel took their journey, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Chophiyah, and Bethoron, and Kirjath-moan.

18 And the children of Israel slew them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworn vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the princes.

19 Then all the Princes sayde vnto all the Congregation, We haue sworn vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 But this wee will doe to them, and let them liue, lest the wrath be vpon vs, because of the oath which we swore vnto them.

21 And the Princes said vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shall hewe wood, and drawe water vnto all the Congregation, as the princes appoint them.

22 Ioshua then called them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, saying, We are very farre from you, when yee dwell among vs?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you bee freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water, for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Ioshua, and said, Because it was told thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his seruant Moses to giue you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding sore afaide for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing:

25 And behold, now we are in thine hand: do as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to doe vnto vs.

26 Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Ioshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the altar of the Lorde vnto this day, in the place which hee should chuse.

CHAP. X.

1 Five kings make warre against Gibeon, whome Ioshua discomfith. 11 The Lord rained hailestones and slew many. 12 The Sunne standeth at Ioshuas prayer. 26 The five Kings are hanged. 29 Many more cities and Kings are destroyed.

NOW when Adoni-zedek king of Ierusalem had heard how Ioshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Iericho and to the king thereof, for he had done to Ai, and to the king thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them, 21 Then they feared exceedingly, for Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Ierusalem sent vnto Hohab king of Hebron, and vnto Piram king of Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia king of Lachish, and vnto Debil king of Eglon, saying, Come up with me, and helpe me, that we may smite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Ioshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Ierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon gathered themselves together, and went vp, they with all their hosts, and besieged Gibeon, and made warre against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Ioshua, when he was at Gilgal, saying, Withdrawe not thine hand from thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, & helpe vs: for all the kings of the Amorites which dwell in the mountains, are gathered together against vs.

7 So Ioshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the men of might.

8 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them shall stand against thee.

9 Ioshua therefore came vnto them suddenly: for he went vp from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah and to Makkedah.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going downe to Beth-horon, the Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them; vntill Azekah, and they died: they were more that died with the hailestones, then they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Ioshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, *Sunne, stay thou in Gibeon, and thou moone in the valley of Aialon.

13 And the Sunne abode, and the Moone stood stil, vntill the people auenged themselves vpon their enemies: (is not this writen in the booke of *Iasher?) so the Sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to goe downe for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

15 ¶ After, Ioshua returned, and all Israel with

But the five kings fled and were hid in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told to Joshua, saying, The five kings are hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 Then Joshua said, Rouse ye up, for the Lord is on the mouth of the cave, and let us go by night to keep them.

19 But they ye not still follow after your enemies, and I will smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to enter into their cities for the Lord your God hath given them into your hand.

20 And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them, with an exceeding great slaughter, all they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entered into walls & cities.

21 Then all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: no man raised his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 After, Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out these five kings in the fourth of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings vnto him forth of the cave, the king of Ierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they had brought out those kings vnto Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said vnto the chiefe of the men of war which went with him, Come neer, set your feet vpon the neckes of these kings: and they came neere, and set their feet vpon their neckes.

25 And Joshua said vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, but be strong & of a good courage: for thus will the Lord do to all your enemies, against whom ye fight.

26 So then Joshua smote them, & slew them, and hanged them on five trees, and they hanged still vpon the trees vntill the euening.

27 And at the going down of the sunne, Joshua gaue commaundement, that they should take them downe off the trees, and cast them into the caue (wherein they had beene hid) and they layde great stones vpon the caues mouth, which remaine vntill this day.

28 And that same day Joshua took Makkedah, & smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof destroyed hee with them, and all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: for hee did to the king of Makkedah as he had done vnto the king of Iericho.

29 Then Joshua went from Makkedah, and all Israel with him vnto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord gaue it also and the king thereof into the hand of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the king thereof, as he had done vnto the king of Iericho.

31 And Joshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him vnto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lord gaue Makkedah into the hand of Israel, which took on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein, as he had done to Libnah.

33 Then Horam king of Gomer came to help Lachish: but Joshua and all Israel smote him, and all the people that were with him, and he let none remaine.

34 And from Lachish Joshua departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him: and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

35 And they took it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: hee let none remaine the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua went vnto Hebron, and all Israel with him vnto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the people thereof, and all the soules that were therein: hee let none remaine, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for hee destroyed it vnto the utter, and all the soules that were therein.

38 So Joshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.

39 And when he had taken it, and the king thereof, & all the cities thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and vnto the utter destroyed all the soules that were therein, hee let none remaine: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the king thereof.

40 So Joshua smote all the hill countries, and the South countries, and the valleys, & the hill sides, and all their kings, and let none remaine, but vnto the utter destroyed euery soule, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from Kadeshbarnes euen vnto Azzah, and all the countrey of Goshen, euen vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 Afterward, Joshua and all Israel with him returned vnto the campe in Gilgal.

18 Joshua and the people were long time with all those kings, but he had not yet finished them.

19 Neither was there any child that made prison with the children of Israel, like those of Hittites that inhabited Gilead: all whom they took by assault, and bit their heels.

20 But it came to pass, that the Lord hardened their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, to the intent that they should destroy them utterly, and smite them from among the Lord's inheritance: as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 And that time when Joshua and the children of Israel fought with the Amorites, the Hittites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, the Lord said unto Joshua, saying, I have given thee into the hands of the Lord.

22 Then came Joshua & all the men of war with him, and fought with the Amorites, the Hittites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and smote them, until they had none remaining of them.

23 And Joshua did unto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

24 At that time also Joshua turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

25 Moreover, they smote all the persons that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying all, leaving none alive, and he burnt Hazor with fire.

26 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded.

27 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stood still in their strength, save Hazor only, that Joshua burnt.

28 And all the spoile of these cities and the cattell, the children of Israel tooke for their pray, but they smote every man with the edge of the sword vntill they had destroyed them, not leaving one alive.

29 As the Lord had commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 So Joshua took all this land of the mountains, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the low country, and the plaine, and the mountaine of Israel, and the low country of the same.

31 From the mount Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, vnder mount Hermon: & all their kings he tooke, and smote them, and slew them.

Cities and countreyes M. Ioshua conquered by Ioshua.

3 And he came to the Canaanites, both by East and by West, and vnto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, & Jebusites in the mountaynes, and vnto the Hittites vnder Hermon in the land of Mizraim.

4 And they came out with all their hostes with them, many people with shields and on the sea shore for multitude with horses, and charres exceeding many.

5 So all these kings gathered together, & came and pitched in Beth-horon vnder the waters of Mechem, for to fight against Ioshua.

6 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Be not afraid for me: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them all vnto thine hand: thou shalt tread vpon their hostes, and burne their charres with fire.

7 Then came Ioshua & all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell vpon them.

8 And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, & chased them vnto great Zidon, and vnto Mithrephothaim, and vnto the valley of Mizraim Eastward, and smote them vntill they had none remaining of them.

9 And Ioshua did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charres with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdomes.

11 Moreover, they smote all the persons that were therein with the edge of the sword, vtterly destroying all, leauing none alieue, and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and vtterly destroyed them, as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stood still in their strength, saue Hazor onely, that Ioshua burnt.

14 And all the spoile of these cities and the cattell, the children of Israel tooke for their pray, but they smote euery man with the edge of the sword vntill they had destroyed them, not leauing one alieue.

15 ¶ As the Lord had commanded Moses his seruant, so did Moses command Ioshua, and so did Ioshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Ioshua took all this land of the mountaynes, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the low countrey, and the plaine, and the mountaine of Israel, and the low countrey of the same,

17 From the mount Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, vnder mount Hermon: & all their kings he tooke, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Ioshua made warre long time with all those kings.

19 Neither was there any cite that made peace with the children of Israel, save those Hittites that inhabited Gibeon: all other they tooke by battell.

20 For it came of the Lord to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battell, to the intent that they should destroy them vtterly, and shew them no mercy, but that they should bring them to nought: as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Ioshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaynes: out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountaynes of Iudah, and out of all the mountaynes of Israel: Ioshua destroyed them vtterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel, only in Azzah, in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Ioshua tooke the whole land, according to all that the Lord had said vnto Moses: and Ioshua gaue it for an inheritance vnto Israel according to their portions through their tributes: then the land was at rest without warre.

CHAP. XII.

1 ¶ What Kings Ioshua and the children of Israel killed in the land of Canaan, which were in number thirtie and one.

¶ And these are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote and possessed their land, on the other side Iorden toward the rising of the sunne, from the riuer Arnon vnto mount Hermon, and all the plaine Eastward.

3 And from the plaine vnto the sea of Cinneroth Eastward, & vnto the sea of the plaine, euen the salt sea Eastward, the way to Beth-shimoth, & from the South vnder the springs of Pisgah.

4 ¶ They conquered also the coast of Og king of Bashan of the remnant of the giants, which dwelt at Ashtaroth, and Edrei,

5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, vnto the border of the Geshurites, and the Maachathites, and halfe Gilead, euen the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Moses the seruant of the Lord, and the children of Israel smote them: Moses also the seruant of the Lord gaue their land for a possession vnto the Reubenites, and vnto the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh.

d Which were tribes.

8 But my brethren that went up with me, discouraged the heart of the people: yet I followed still the Lord my God. 1. Chron. 12. 32.
Wherefore Moses swore the same day, saying, Certainly the land wherewith thy feet have troden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for ever, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God.

9 This is the land which the Lord swore unto Caleb.

10 Therefore behold now, the Lord hath kept me as he promised: this is the fortieth and fifty years since the Lord spake this thing unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now loe, I am this day four score and five yeere old:

* Gen. 46. 9.

11 And yet as I stood at this time, as I was when Moses sent mee as strong as I was then, so strong am I now, either for warre, or for gouernement.

12 This is the
land which the Lord swore unto Caleb.

12 Now therefore giue mee this mountaine wherof the Lord spake in that day (for thou heardst in that day, how the Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled): if so be the Lord will be with me, that I may drue them out, as the Lord said.

13 This is the
land which the Lord swore unto Caleb.

13 Then Ioshua blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

* Chap. 11. 13.

tance of Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenezite, vnto this day: because he followed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

time, Kiriath-arba: which Arba was a great man among the Anakims: thus the land ceased from warre.

CHAP. XV.

1 The lot of the children of Iudah, and the names of the cities and villages of the same. 13 Calebs portion. 18 Therequest of Achsah.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudah by their families: euen to the border of Edom and the wilderness of Zin, Southward on the South coast.

* Num. 34. 3.

2 And their South border was the salt Sea coast, from the point that looketh Southward.

* Num. 34. 36.

3 And it went out on the South side toward Maaleth-akrabbim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vpon the South side vnto Kadesh-barnea, and went along to Hezron, and went vp to Adar, and then compassed to Karkaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the West side: this shal be your South coast.

5 Also the East border shal be the salt Sea, vnto the end of Iorden: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Iorden.

5 Also the East border shal be the salt Sea, vnto the end of Iorden: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Iorden.

6 And this border goeth vp to Bethhogla, and goeth along by the North side of Beth-arabbah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

6 And this border goeth vp to Beth-hogla, and goeth along by the North side of Beth-arabbah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

7 And the border
goeth vp to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward turning toward Gilgal, which lieth before the going vp to Adum-mim, which is on the South side of the riuer: also this border goeth vp to the waters of Enshemesh, and endeth at En-rogel.

7 And the border goeth vp to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward turning toward Gilgal, which lieth before the going vp to Adummim, which is on the South side of the riuer: also this border goeth vp to the waters of En-shemesh, and endeth at En-rogel.

8 Then this border
goeth vp to the valley of the sonne of Hin-nom, on the South side of the Jebusiter: the same is Ierusalem: also this border goeth vp to the top of the moun-taine that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of the giants Northward.

8 Then this border goeth vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, on the South side of the Jebusiter: the same is Ierusalem: also this border goeth vp to the top of the mountaine that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of the giants Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the waters of Nephtoi, and goeth out to the cities of mount Eph-ron: and this border draweth to Baalah, which is Kiriath-Iearim.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the waters of Nephtoi, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah, which is Kiriath-Iearim.

10 Then this border
compasseth from Ba-lah Westward vnto mount Seir, and goeth along vnto the side of mount Iearim, which is Chelafon on the North side: so it commeth down to Bethshemesh, and goeth to Timnah.

10 Then this border compasseth from Ba-lah Westward vnto mount Seir, and goeth along vnto the side of mount Iearim, which is Chelaflon on the North side: so it commeth down to Beth-shemesh, and goeth to Timnah.

11 Also this border goeth out vnto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth vnto Iabbeneel: and the ends of this coast are to the Sea.

11 Also this border goeth out vnto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth vnto Iabbeneel: and the ends of this coast are to the Sea.

12 And the West border is to the great Sea: so this border shall bee the bounds of the children of Iudah round about,
according to their families.

12 And the West border is to the great Sea:
so this border shall bee the bounds of the children of Iudah round about, according to their families.

13 And vnto Caleb
the sonne of Iephun-neh did Ioshua giue a part among the children of Iudah, as the Lord commaunded him, euen Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak, which is in Hebron.

13 And vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephun-neh did Ioshua giue a part among the children of Iudah, as the Lord commaunded him, euen Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak, which is in Hebron.

14 And Caleb droue thence three sonnes of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak.

14 And Caleb droue thence three sonnes of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak.

15 And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir:
and the name of Debir beforetime was Kiriath-sepher.

15 And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before-time was Kiriath-sepher.

16 Then Caleb said, Hee that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, euen
to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

16 Then Caleb said, Hee that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel, the sonne of Kenaz,
the brother of Caleb tooke it: and hee gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel, the sonne of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb tooke it: and hee gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And as she went in to him, shee mooued him to aske of her father a field:
and shee lighted off her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

18 And as she went in to him, shee mooued him to aske of her father a field: and shee lighted off her asse, and Caleb said vnto her,
What wilt thou?

19 Then she answered, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen mee the South countrey:
giue me also springs of water. And he gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath.

19 Then she answered, Giue me a blessing:
for thou hast giuen mee the South countrey:
giue me also springs of water. And he gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath.

3 And also of the rest of the sonnes of Manasse by their families, even of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sonnes of Helek, and of the sonnes of Azriel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Hephher, and of the sonnes of Shemida: these were the males of Manasse, the sonne of Ioseph according to their families.

4 But Zelophehad the sonne of Hephher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

5 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give vs an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the Lord hee gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

6 And there fell ten portions to Manasse, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of Iorden.

7 Because the daughters of Manasse did inherit among his sonnes: and Manasse's other sonnes had the land of Gilead.

8 So the borders of Manasse were from Asher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hand, euen vnto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

9 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasse, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasse belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim.

10 Also this border goeth downe vnto the riuer Kanah Southward to the riuer, these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasse: & the border of Manasse is on the North side of the riuer, & the ends of it are at the Sea.

11 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasse, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

12 And Manasse had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean, and her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, and the inhabitants of Dor, with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dor, with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Taanach with her townes, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the townes of the same, euen three countries.

13 Yet the children of Manasse could not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

14 Neuertheless, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

15 Then the children of Ioseph spake vnto Ioshua, saying, Why hast thou giuen mee but one lot, and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the Lord hath blessed mee hitherto?

16 Ioshua then answered them, If thou be much people, get thee vp to the wood, and cut trees for thy selfe there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the giants, if mount Ephraim bee too narrow for thee.

17 Then the children of Ioseph said, The mountaine will not be enough for vs, and all the Canaanites that dwell in the low country haue charrets of yron, as well they in Beth-shean, and in the towne of the same, as they in the valley of Izrael.

18 And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasse, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not haue one lot.

19 Therefore the mountaine shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it downe: and the ends of it shall be thine, and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charrets, and though they be strong.

CHAP. xviij.

The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. Certaine are sent to diuide the land to the other seven tribes. The lot of the children of Israel.

And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subiect vnto them.

2 Now there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, to whom they had not diuided their inheritance.

3 Therefore Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, How long are yee so slacke to enter & possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you?

4 Giue from among you for euery tribe three men, that I may send them, and that they may rise, and walke thorow the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and returne to me.

5 And that they may diuide it vnto them into seven parts, (Iudah shall abide in her coast at the South, and the house of Ioseph shall stand in their coasts at the North)

6 Ye shall describe the land therefore into seven parts, and shall bring them hither to mee, and I will cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

7 But the Levites shall haue no part among you: for the Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad and Reuben, and halfe the tribe of Manasse haue receiued their inheritance beyond Iorden Eastward, which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them.

8 Then the men arose and went their way: and Ioshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart, and goe thorow the land, and describe it, and returne to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the men departed, and passed thorow the land, and described it by cities into seven parts

10 ¶ Then Ioshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua divided the land vnto the children of Israel, according to their portions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the coast of their lot lay betwene the children of Iuda, and the children of Ioseph.

12 And their coast on the North side was from Iorden, and the border went vp to the side of Iericho on the North part, and went vp thorough the mountaines Westward, and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-auch:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, ^{euē} to the South side of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atroth-addar, neere the mount, that lieth on the South side of Beth-horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount that lieth before Beth-horon Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-earim) a citie of the children of Iuda: this is the West quarter.

15 And the South quarter is from the ende of Kiriath-earim, and this border goeth out Westward, and commeth to the fountaine of waters of Nephtoah.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountaine, that lieth before the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of the giants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Iebusi Southward, and goeth downe to En-rogel,

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forth to En-shemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: and the ends thereof ^{that is}, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the ende of Iorden Southward: this is the South coast.

20 Also Iorden is the border of it on the East side: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, are Iericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, 22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Auim, and Parah, and Ophrah, 24 And Chephar, Ammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelue cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah and Mo-zah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zela, Eleph, and Jebusi, (which is Ierusalem) Gibeath, and Kiriath: foureteene cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to their families.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The portion of Simeon, 20 Of Zebulun, 32 Of Issachar, 33 Of Asher, 34 Of Naphtali, 40 Of Dan, 49 The possession of Ioshua.

And the second lot came out to Simeon, ^{euē} for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Iuda.

2 Now they had in their inheritance, Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, & Azem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-sufah,

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, vnto Baalathbeer, and Ramath Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Iuda came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Iuda was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 ¶ Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the coasts of their inheritance came to Sarid.

11 And their border goeth vp Westward, euē to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbasheth, and meeteth with the riuer that lieth before Iokneam,

18 And their coast was Izreelah, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, 19 And Hapharaim, and Sihon, and Anaharath,

20 And Harabbith, and Kishion, and Abetz,

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families:

28 And to Ebron, and Rehob, & Hammon, and Kanah, vnto great Zidon.

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah and to the strong city of Zor, and this border turneth to Hosah, and the endes thereof are at the sea from Hebel to Achzib, 30 Vimmah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twenty cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even to the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from ^bHeleph, and from Allon in Zaanannim, & Adaminekeb, and Iabneel, even to Lakum, and the endes thereof are at Iorden.

34 So this coast turneth Westward to Aznoth-tabor, & goeth out from thence to Hukkok, & reacheth to Zebulun on the South side, and goeth to Asher on the West side, and to Iudah by Iorden toward the sunne rising.

35 And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and ^dCinnereth, 36 And Adanah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anah, and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, 42 And Shaalabbin, and Ailalon, & Ithlah,

43 And Elon, and Termathah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, & Gibbethon, & Baalah,

45 And Iehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon;

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before ^kIapho.

47 But the coasts of the children of Dan fell out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went vp. to ^lfight against Leshem, and tooke it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, ^mDan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of diuiding the land by the coastes thereof, then the children of Israel gaue an inheritance vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun among them.

50 According to the word of the Lord they gaue him the city which he asked, even ⁿTimnath-herah in mount Ephraim: and he built the citie and dwelt therein.

51 ¶ These are the heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel diuided by lot in Shiloh before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an end of diuiding the cuntry.

CHAP. XXI.

The cities given to the Levites, 41 in number eight and forty, 44 The Lord according to his promise gave the children of Israel rest.

¶ Then came the principal fathers of the Levites vnto Eleazar the Priest, and vnto Joshua the son of Nun, and vnto the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, Or, Galile.

And spake vnto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to giue vs cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattell, Or, Galile.

3 So the children of Israel gaue vnto the Levites, out of their inheritance at the commandement of the Lord these cities with their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Iudah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin thirteene cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh ten cities.

6 Also the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Aser, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteene cities.

7 The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelue cities.

8 So the children of Israel gaue by lot vnto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gaue out of the tribe of the children of Iudah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here named.

10 And they were the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sonnes of Levi (for theirs was the first lot) 11 So they gaue them Kirith-ba of the father of Anok (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Iudah, with the suburbs of the same round about it.

12 (But the land of the city, and the villages thereof, gaue they to Caleb the sonne of Iephonah to be his possession)

13 ¶ Thus they gaue to the children of Aaron the Priest, a city of refuge for the slayer, Or, Galile. Hebron with her suburbs, and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Iamth with her suburbs, and Eshthemoa and her suburbs,

15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,

16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Iuttah with her suburbs, Beth-shean with her suburbs: nine cities out of those two tribes.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirteene cities with their suburbs.

20 ¶ But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Levites, which were the rest of the children of Kohath (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephraim)

21 They gaue them the city of refuge for the slayer, Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbs,

25 And out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs: two cities.

26 All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were tenne with their suburbs.

27 ¶ Also vnto the children of Gershon of the families of the Levites, they gaue out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, the citie of refuge for the slayer, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Beeshterah with her suburbs: two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Daberch with her suburbs,

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the citie of refuge for the slayer, Kedesh in Galil, Or, Galile.

with her suburbs, and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, b He meaneth them that were Priests: for some were but Levites. c Every tribe gaue moe or fewer cities according as their inheritance was great or little, Num. 35. 8.

d For Aaron came of Kohath, and therefore the Priests office remained in that family.

¶ Chap. 1. 4. 14. 1. chron. 6. 56.

¶ That is, the Priests of the families of the Kohathites, of whom Aaron was chiefe.

f The suburbs were a thousand cubites from the wall of the cities round about, Num. 35. 4.

g That were not Priests.

h Hebron and Shechem were the two cities of refuge vnder the Kohathites.

i Which dwelt in Canaan.

k Golan & Kedesh were the cities of refuge vnder the Gershonites.

suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs: three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites, according to their families, were thirtene cities with their suburbs.

34 ¶ Also vnto the families of the children of Merari the rest of the Levites, they gaue out of the tribe of Zebulun, Iokneam with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs,

39 Heshbon with her suburbs, and Iazer with her suburbs: foure cities in all.

40 So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Levites) were by their lot, twelue cities.

41 And all the cities of the Levites within the possessiō of the children of Israel were eight and fortie with their suburbs.

42 These cities lay euery one seuerally with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities.

43 ¶ So the Lord gaue vnto Israel all the land, which he had sworne to giue vnto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 Also the Lord gaue them rest round about according to all that he had sworne vnto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord deliuered all their enemies into their hand.

45 * There failed nothing of all the good things, which the Lord had said vnto the houte of Israel, but all came to passe.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Reuben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh are sent againe to their possiōns. 10 They build an altar for a memoriall. 15 The Israelites reprove them. 21 Their answer for defence of the same.

¶ Then Ioshua called the Reubenites, & the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said vnto them, Yee haue kept all that Moses the seruant of the Lord^b commanded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye haue not forsaken your brethren this long season vnto this day, but haue diligently kept the comandement of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hath giuen rest vnto your brethren as he promised them: therefore now returne ye & goe to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the seruant of the Lord * hath giuen you beyond Iorden.

5 But take diligent heed, to doe the comandement and law, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded you: That is, * that ye loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his waies, & keep his commandements, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with al your heart, and with all your soule.

6 So Ioshua^d blessed them, and sent them away, and they went vnto their tents.

7 ¶ Now vnto one halfe of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had giuen a possession in Bashan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Ioshua among their brethren on this side Iorden Westward: therefore when Ioshua sent them away to their tents, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake vnto them, saying, Returne with much riches vnto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattell, with siluer and with gold, with brasse and with yron, and with great abundance of raiment: diuide the spoile of your enemies with your * brethren.

9 ¶ So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shi'oh (which is in the land of Canaan) to go vnto the countrey of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came vnto the borders of Iorden (which are in the land of Canaan): then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh, built there an altar by Iorden, a great altar to see to.

11 ¶ When the children of Israel heard say, Beholde, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh to go vp to warre against them.

13 Then the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest, 14 And with him ten princes, of euery chiefe house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israel: for euery one was chiefe of their fathers household among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ So they went vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh, vnto the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith ^h the whole Congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that yee haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that yee haue built you an altar for to rebell this day against the Lord?

18 Yee also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing yee rebell to day against the Lord, euen to morrow he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding if the land of your possession be vncleane, come yee ouer vnto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the 21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasse answered, and sayd vnto the heads ouer the thousands of Israel,

22 The Lord God of gods, the Lord God of gods, hee knoweth, and Israel himselfe shall knowe: if by rebellion, or by transgression against the Lord we haue done it, saue thou vs not this day.

23 If wee haue built vs an altar to returne away from the Lord, either to offer thereon burnt offering, or meate offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord himselfe require it:

24 And if we haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might say vnto our children, What haue ye to do with the Lord God of Israel?

25 For the Lord hath made Iorden a border betweene vs and you, yee children of Reuben, and of Gad: therefore ye haue no part in the Lord: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we said, We will now goe about to make vs an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

27 But it shalbe a* witnesse betweene vs and you, and betweene our generations after vs, to execute the seruice of the Lord before him in our burnt offerings, and in our sacrifices, and in our peace offerings, & that your children should not say to our children in time to come, Yee haue no part in the Lord.

28 Therefore sayd wee, If so bee that they should so say to vs or to our generations in time to come, then will we answer, Behold the fashion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, but it is a witnesse betweene vs and you.

29 God forbid, that wee should rebell against the Lord, and turne this day away from the Lord, to build an altar for burnt offering, or for meate offering, or for sacrifice, saue the Altar of the Lord our God, that is before his Tabernacle.

¶ And when Phinehas the Priest, and the princes of the Congregation & heads ouer the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the wordes, that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasse spake, they were well content.

¶ And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest sayd vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasse, This day we perceiue, that the Lord is among vs, because yee haue not done this trespasse against the Lord: now ye haue deli-uered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

¶ Then Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest with the Princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, vnto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

¶ And the saying pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God, and minded not to go against them in battell, for to destroy the land, wherein the children of Reuben, and Gad dwelt.

¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shalbe a witnes betweene vs, that the Lord is God.

14 And beholde, this day doe I enter into the way of all the world, & ye know in all your hearts & in all your soules, that *nothing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God promised you, but all are come to passe vnto you: nothing hath failed thereof.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 Ioshua rehearseth Gods benefites, 14 and exhorteth the people to feare God. 25 The league renewed betwene God and the people. 29 Ioshua dieth. 32 The bones of Ioseph are buried. 33 Eleazar dieth.

And Ioshua assembled againe all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called the Elders of Israel, and their heads, and their Iudges, and their officers, and they presented themselves before God.

2 Then Ioshua said vnto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, *Your fathers dwelt beyond the flood in old time, euen Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and serued other gods.

3 And I tooke your father Abraham from beyond the flood, and brought him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gaue him Izhak.

4 And I gaue vnto Izhak, *Iaakob and Esau: and I gaue vnto *Esau mount Seir, to possesse it: but *Iaakob & his children went down into Egypt.

5 *I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt: & when I had so done among them, I brought you out.

6 So I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came vnto the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with charrets and horſemen vnto the red ſea.

7 Then they cried vnto the Lord, and he put a darknesse betweene you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea vpon them, and couered them: so your eyes haue seene what I haue done in Egypt: also ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Iorden, *and they fought with you: but I gaue them into your hand, and ye possessed their country, and I destroyed them out of your sight.

9 *Also Balak the sonne of Zippor King of Moab arose and warred against Israel, and sent to call Balaam the son of Beor for to curse you.

10 But I would not heare Balaam: therefore he blessed you, and I deliuered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went ouer Iorden, and came vnto Iericho, and the men of Iericho fought against you, the Amorites, & the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, and I deliuered them into your hand.

12 And I sent *hornets before you, which cast them out before you, euen the two kings of the Amorites, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I haue giuen you a land, wherein ye did not labor, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them, and eate of the vineyards and oliue trees, which ye planted not.

14 Now therefore feare the Lord, & serue him in vprightnesse and in truth, and put away the gods, which your fathers serued beyond the flood and in Egypt, and serue ye the Lord.

15 And if it seeme euill vnto you to serue the Lord, chuse you this day whome yee will serue, whether the gods which your fathers serued (that were beyond the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: *but I and mine house will serue the Lord.

16 Then the people answered and sayde, God forbid that we should forsake the Lord, to serue other gods.

17 For the Lord our God he brought vs and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he did thote great miracles in our sight, and preserved vs in all the way that we went, and among al the people thorow whom we came.

18 And the Lord did cast out before vs all the people, euen the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serue the Lord, for he is our God.

19 And Ioshua sayd vnto the people, Yee cannot 24 And the people saide vnto Ioshua, The Lord our God will we serue, and his voyce will we obey.

^{i By ioyning God and the people together: also he repeated the promises and threatnings out of the law.} 25 So Ioshua ⁱ made a couenant with the people the same day, and gaue them an ordinance and law in Shechem.

^{|| Or, elme.} 26 And Ioshua wrote these wordes in the booke of the law of God, & took a great stone, and pitched it there vnder an ^{||} oke that was in the Sanctuary of the Lord.

27 And Ioshua said vnto all the people, Behold, this stone shal be a witnesse vnto vs: for it hath heard all the wordes of the Lord which he spake with vs: it shalbe therefore a witnesse against you, lest ye e deny your God.

28 Then Ioshua let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritance.

29 And after these things Ioshua the sonne of Nun, the seruant of the Lord died, being an hundred and ten yeeres old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in * Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the North side of mount Gaash.

31 And Israel ⁱ serued the Lord all the daies of Ioshua, and all the daies of the Elders that ouerliued Ioshua, and which had knowen all the workes of the Lord that he had done for Israel.

ⁱ 32 And the bones of Ioseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in a parcell of ground which Iakob bought of * the sonnes of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of siluer, and the children of Ioseph had them in their inheritance.

THE BOOKE OF IVDGES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasing and hainous that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Israelies were entred into the land of Canaan, and saw the truth of Gods promise performed, instead of acknowledging his great benefits, and giuing thanks for the same, they fell to most horrible obliuion of Gods graces, contrary to their sollemne promise made vnto Ioshua, & so prouoked his vengeance (as much as in them stood) to their viter destruction. Whereof as they had most euident signes by the mutability of their state: (for he suffered them to be most cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants: he pulled them from liberty, and cast them into slavery, to the intent they might feeble their owne miseries, and so call vnto him and be deliuered) So to shew that his mercies endure for euer, he raised vp from time to time such as should deliuer them, & assure them of his fauour and grace, if they would turne to him by true repentance. And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executers of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people nor by succession, but raised vp, as it seemed best to God for the gouernance of his people. They were foureene in number besides Ioshua, & gouerned from Ioshua vnto Saul the first king of Israel. Ioshua and these vnto the time of Saul ruled 377. yerres. In this booke are many notable points declared, but two especially: first, the battell that the Church of God hath for the maintenance of true religion against idolatry and superstition: next, what great danger that Common wealth is in, when as God giueth not a magistrate to retaine his people in the purenesse of religion and his true seruice.

dah shall goe vp: behold, I haue giuen the land into his hand.

3 And Iudah saide vnto Simeon his ^c brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off the thumbs of his hands and of his feet.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Seventie kings having the thumbs of their hands and of their feet cut off, gathered bread under my table: as I have done, so God hath rewarded me, so they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 (Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the citie on fire.)

9 Afterward also the children of Judah went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountaine, and toward the South, and in the low country.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, which Hebron before time was called Kiriath-arba: and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in olde time was Kiriath-sepher.

12 And Caleb said, Hee that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, even to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the sonne of Kenaz Calebs younger brother tooke it, to whom he gaue Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And when she came to him, shee mooued him to aske of her father a field, & shee lighted off her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she answered him, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me a South country, giue me also springs of water: and Caleb gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath.

16 And the children of Keni Moses father in law went vp out of the citie of the palme trees with the children of Judah, into the wilderness of Judah, that lieth in the South of A-rad, and went and dwelt among the people.

17 But Judah went with Simeon his brother, & they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and vtterly destroyed it, and called the name of the citie Hormah.

18 Also Judah tooke Azzah with the coasts thereof, and Askelon with the coastes thereof, and Ekron with the coasts thereof.

19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he possessed the mountaines: for hee could not driue out the inhabitants of the valles, because they had charrets of yron.

20 And they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, as Moses had said, and hee expelled thence the three sonnes of Anak.

21 But the children of Benjamin did not cast out the Iebusites, that inhabited Ierusalem: therefore the Iebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Ierusalem vnto this day.

22 They also that were of the house of Ioseph, went vp to Beth-el, and the Lord was with them.

23 And the house of Ioseph caused to view Beth-el (and the name of the citie before time was Luz)

24 And the spies saw a man come out of the citie, and they said vnto him, Shew vs, we pray thee, the way into the citie, and we will shew thee mercie.

25 And when he had shewed them the way into the citie, they smote the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his household depart.

26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a citie, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof vnto this day.

27 Neither did Manassch destroy Beth-shean with her townes, nor Taanach with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her townes, neither the inhabitants of Megiddo with her townes: but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

28 Neuertheless when Israel was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

29 Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun expell the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Asher cast out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob, 32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the lande: for they did not driue them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali driue out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: neuertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, and of Beth-anath became tributaries vnto them.

34 And the Amorites droue the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffered them not to come downe to the valley.

35 And the Amorites dwelt still in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shalbim, and when the hand of Iosephs familie preuailed, they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from Maaleh-akrabbim, even from Selah & vpward.

CHAP. II.

And an Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to goe vp out of Egypt, and haue brought you vnto the lande which I had sworne vnto your fathers, and said, I will neuer breake my couenant with you.

Ye shall also make no couenant with the inhabitants of this land; for shall breake downe their altars: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce. Why haue ye done this?

Wherefore, I will also, I will not cast them out before you; but they shall be your destruction, and their gods shall be your destruction.

And when the Angel of the Lord spake these words vnto all the children of Israel, the people lift vp their voyce, and wept.

Therefore they called the name of that place, Bochim, and offered sacrifices there vnto the Lord.

Now when Ioshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man into his inheritance, to possesse the land.

And the people had serued the Lord all the dayes of Ioshua, and all the dayes of the Elders that outliued Ioshua, which had seene all the great works of the Lord that hee did for Israel.

But Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruuant of the Lord died, when he was an hundred and ten yeeres olde:

And they buried him in the coasts of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres in mount Ephraim, on the North side of mount Gaash.

And so all that generation was gathered vnto their fathers, and another generation arose after them, which neither knew the Lord, nor yet the workes which he had done for Israel.

Then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord and serued Baalim,

And forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto them, and prouoked the Lord to anger.

So they forsooke the Lord, and serued Baal and Ashtaroth.

And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israel, and hee deliuered them into the hands of spoyle's, that spoyled them, & he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

Whithersoever they went out, the hande of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, and as the Lord had sowne vnto them: so he punished them sore.

Notwithstanding, the Lord raised vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressours.

But yet they would not obey their Iudges: for they went a whoring after other gods and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandements of the Lord: they did not so.

And when the Lord had raised them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the dayes of the Iudge (for the Lord had compassion of their groanings because of them that oppressed them and tormented them).

Yet when the Iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following their gods to serue them and worship them: they ceased not from their own inuentions, nor from their rebellious way.

Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my couenant, which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voyce,

Therefore will I no more cast out before them, any of the nations, which Ioshua left when he died,

That through them I may proue Israel, whether they will keepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

So the Lord left those nations, and droue them not out immediately, neither deliuered them into the hand of Ioshua.

CHAP. III.

The Canaanites were left to trie Israel. 9 Othniel deliuereth Israel. 21 Ehad killeth king Eglon. 31 Shamgar killeth the Philistines.

These now are the nations which the Lord left, that he might proue Israel by them (even as many of Israel as had not knowne all the warres of Canaan, Five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Bal-hermon vntill one come to Hamath.

And these remained to proue Israel by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandements of the Lord, which hee commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites.

And they tooke their daughters to bee their wiues, and gaue their daughters to their sonnes, and serued their Gods.

So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgate the Lord their God, and serued Baalim, and Ashtaroth.

Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he solde them into the hande of Chusshan-rishathaim King of

¶ And when the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a saviour to the children of Israel, and bestowed them, even Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Calebs younger brother.

¶ And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he iudged Israel, and went out to war: and the Lord deliuered Chushan-rishathaim king of Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

¶ So the land had rest foure yeeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenaz died.

¶ Then the children of Israel againe committed wickednes in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickednes before the Lord.

¶ And hee gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, & they possessed the citie of palme trees.

¶ So the children of Israel serued Eglon king of Moab eighteeen yeeres.

¶ But when the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a saviour, Ehud the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini, a man of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon King of Moab.

¶ And Ehud made him a dagger with two edges of a cubit length, and he did gird it vnder his raiment vpon his right thigh.

¶ And hee presented the gift vnto Eglon King of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man).

¶ And when hee had now presented the present, hee sent away the people that bare the present,

¶ But hee turned againe from the quarries, that were by Gilgal, & said, I haue a secret errand vnto thee, O King. Who said, Keepe silence: and all that stood about him, went out from him.

¶ Then Ehud came vnto him, (and he sate alone in a summer parler, which he had) and Ehud said, I haue a message vnto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne,

¶ So that the haft went in after the blade, and the fat closed about the blade, so that hee could not draw the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

¶ Then Ehud gate him out into the porch, & shut the doores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

¶ And when he was gone out, his seruants came: who seeing that the doores of the parler were locked, they said, Surely he doth his easment in his Summer chamber.

¶ And they taried till they were ashamed: and seeing hee opened not the doores of the parler, they tooke the key, and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

¶ So Ehud escaped (while they taried) and was passed the quarries, & escaped vnto Seirath.

¶ And when hee came downe, he blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

¶ Then said he vnto them, Follow me: for the Lord hath deliuered your enemies, even Moab into your hand. So they went downe after him, and tooke the passages of Iorden toward Moab, & suffered not a man to passe ouer.

¶ And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all ffit men, and all were warriors, & there escaped not a man.

¶ So Moab was subdued that day, vnder the hand of Israel: and the land had rest foure score yeeres.

¶ And after him was Shagar the son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines fixe hundred men with an oxe goad, and hee also deliuered Israel.

¶ Then the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundred charrets of yron, and twentie yeres he had vexed the children of Israel very fore)

¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetesse the wife of Lapidoth iudged Israel.

¶ And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.

¶ Then shee sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh of Naphtali, and said vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Goe, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

¶ And I will draw vnto thee to the riuer Kishon, Sisera, the captaine of Iabins army with his charrets, and his multitude, and will deliuer him into thine hand.

¶ And Barak said vnto her, If thou wilt goe with me, I will go: but if thou wilt not goe with me, I will not goe.

¶ Then she answered, I will surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shal not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Sisera, into the hand of a woman. And Deborah

For they went up, and till the carrell, and came with their tents as grasshoppers in multitude, so that they & their camels were without number: and they came into the land, and destroyed it.

So was Israel exceedingly impoverished by the Midianites: therefore the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord.

¶ And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord because of the Midianites, the Lord sent vnto the children of Israel a Prophet, who said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought you vp from Egypt, and haue brought you out of the house of bondage.

And I haue deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and haue cast them out before you, and giuen you their land.

And I haue vnto you, I am the Lord your God: feare not the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell: but you haue not obeyed my voyce.

¶ And the Angel of the Lord came, & sate vnder the oke which was in Ophrah, that pertained vnto Joash the father of the Ezrites; and his sonne Gideon threshed wheare by the vinepresse, to hide it from the Midianites.

¶ Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and said vnto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

¶ To whom Gideon answered, Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why then is all this come vpon vs? and where bee all his miracles which our fathers told vs of, and said, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hand of the Midianites.

¶ And the Lord looked vpon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt saue Israel out of the hands of the Midianites: haue not I sent thee?

¶ And hee answered him, Ah, my Lord, whereby shall I saue Israel? behold, my father is poore in Manasseh, and I am the least in my fathers house.

¶ Then the Lord said vnto him, I wil therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

¶ And he answered him, I pray thee, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, then shew me a signe, that thou talkest with me.

¶ Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntill I come vnto thee; and bring mine offering, and lay it before thee. And he said, I will tary vntill thou come againe.

vpon the altar that was made.

38 Therefore they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? and when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the sonne of Ioash hath done this thing.

39 Then the men of the citie said vnto Ioash, Bring out thy sonne, that he may die: for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath also cut downe the groue that was by it.

40 And Ioash saide vnto all that stood by him, Will ye plead Baals cause? or will ye saue him? he that will contend for him, let him die ere the morning. If hee be God, let him pleade for himselfe against him that hath cast downe his altar.

41 And in that day was Gideon called Ie-rubbaal, that is, Let Baal plead for himselfe because he hath broken downe his altar.

42 Then all the Midianites and the Amale-kites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Izreel.

gather, and went and pitched in the valley of Izreel.

43 But the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Gideon, and he blew trumpets, and Abiezer was ioyned with him.

44 And hee sent messengers thorowout all Manasseh, which also was ioyned with him, and he sent messengers vnto Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali, and they came vp to meet them.

45 Then Gideon said vnto God, If thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 46 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece onely, and it be drie vpon the earth, then shall I be sure, that thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. 47 And so it was: for he rose vp early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bowle of water.

48 Again, Gideon said vnto God, Bee not angry with me, that I may speake once more:
let me proue once againe, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be drie onely vpon the fleece, and let dewe be vpon all the ground.

49 And God did so that same night: for it was drie vpon the fleece onely, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAP. VII.

The Lord commanded Gideon to slay away a great part of his company. The Midianites are distressed by a wonderous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeeb are slaine.

1 Then Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose vp early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the hoste of the Midianites was on the Northside of them in the valley by the hill of Moreh.

2 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me:
to giue the Midianites into their handes, leaue Israel make their vaunt against mee, and say,
Mine hand hath saued me.

3 Now therefore proclaime in the audience of the people, and say, Who so is timorous or fearefull, let him retorne, and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people, which were at mount Gilead, two & twen-tie thousand: so ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them downe vnto the water, and I will trie them for thee there: and of whom I say vnto thee, This man shall goe with thee, the same shall go with thee:
and of whomsoever I say vnto thee, This man shall not goe with thee, the same shall not goe.

5 So hee brought downe the people vnto the water. And the Lord said vnto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues as a dog lappeth, them put by themselves, and euery one that shal bow down his knees to drinke putt apart.

16 And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouths were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to drinke water.

17 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Gideon, By these three hundred men that lapped, will I saue you, & deliuer the Midianites into thine hand, and let all the other people go euery man vnto his place.

18 ¶ So the people took vitales with them, and their trumpets, and haſent al the rest of Israel euery man vnto his tent, and retained the three hundred men: and the hoste of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

19 ¶ And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Arise, & get thee downe vnto the hoste, for I haue deliuered it into thine hand.

20 But if thou see too great a hoste, then goe thou, & flourish thy seruants downe to the hoste.

21 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thine hands be strong to go downe vnto the hoste. Then went he downe, and Phurah his seruant vnto the outside of the souldiers that were in the hoste.

22 ¶ And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the sea side for multitude.

23 And when Gideon was come, behold a man told a dreame vnto his neighbor, and said, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, and loe, a cake of barley bread tumbled from aboute into the hoste of Midian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it, that the tent fell downe.

24 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else saue the sword of Gideon the son of Ioash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Midian and all the hoste.

25 ¶ When Gideon heard the dreame told, and the interpretation of the same, hee worſhipped, and returned vnto the hoste of Israel, and said, Vp: for the Lord hath deliuered into your hand the hoste of Midian.

26 And he diuided the three hundred men into three bands, & gaue euery man a trumpet in his hand with emptie pitchers, and lampes within the pitchers.

27 And he sayd vnto them, Looke on me, and do likewise, when I come to the side of the hoste: euen as I doe, so doe you.

28 When I blow with a trumpet and al that are with me, blow yee with trumpets also on euery side of the host, and say, For the Lord, and for Gideon.

29 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised vp the watchmen, and they blewe with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

30 And the three hundred blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the swarmpes in their right hands to blow withall: and they cryed, The sword of the Lord and of Gideon.

31 And they stood, euery man in his place round about the hoste, and all the hoste ranne, and cried, and fled.

32 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, and the Lord set euery mans sword vpon his neighbor, and vpon all the hoste: for he had fled to Beth-hatharah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-meholah, vnto Tabbath.

33 Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasse, pursued after the Midianites.

34 And Gideon sent messengers vnto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Midianites, and take before them the waters vnto Beth-barah and Iorden. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together, and took the waters vnto Beth-barah and Iorden.

35 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb & Zeeb, and slew Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, and slew Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond Iorden.

¶ Then the men of Ephraim saide vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chode with him sharply.

2 ¶ To whom hee sayd, What haue I now done in comparison of you? is not the glean- ing of grapes of Ephraim better, then the vintage of Abiezer?

3 ¶ God hath deliuered into your hands the princes of Midian Oreb & Zeeb: and what was I able to doe in comparison of you? And when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶ And Gideon came to Iorden to passe ouer, hee, and the three hundred men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And hee sayd vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, morsels of bread vnto the people that follow mee (for they bee weary) that I may follow after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we should giue bread vnto thine army?

7 Gideon then said, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine shall destroy the enemies.

118 ¶ And hee went vp thence to Peniel, and spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Peniel answered him, as the men of Succoth answered.

119 ¶ And he said also vnto the men of Peniel,
When I come againe in peace, I will breake downe this towre.

120 ¶ Now Zeba and Zalmunna were in Tabor, and thither they went with them, about fifteene thousand, of that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slaine an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

121 ¶ And Gideon went thorow them that dwelt in the Tabernacles on the East side of No-bah and Lotan: and smote the holte, for the holte was carelesse.

122 ¶ And when Zeba and Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, and tooke the two kings of Midian, Zeba and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the holte.

123 ¶ So Gideon the sonne of Ioash returned from battell, the sunne being yerie.

124 ¶ And tooke a seruant of the men of Succuth, and enquired of him: and he wrote to him the princes of Succoth, and the Elders ther-of, euen seuentie and seuen men.

125 ¶ And he came vnto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zeba & Zalmunna by whom ye vpbraided me, saying, Are the handes of Ze-bah and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should giue bread vnto thy weary men?

126 ¶ Then hee tooke the Elders of the citie, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and did teare the men of Succoth with them.

127 ¶ Also he brake downe the towre of Pe-niel, and slew the men of the citie.

128 ¶ Then said he vnto Zeba and Zalmun-na, What manner of men were they, whom yee slewe at Tabor? and they answered, As thou art, so were they: every one was like the children of a king.

129 ¶ And he said, They were my brethren, euen my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I would not slay you.

130 ¶ Then he said vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp, and slay them: but the boy drewe not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

131 ¶ Then Zeba and Zalmunna said, Rife thou, and fall vpon vs: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zeba and Zalmunna, and tooke away the ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

132 ¶ Then the men of Israel saide vnto Gideon, Reigne thou ouer vs, both thou, and thy sonne; and thy sonnes sonne: for thou hast de-liuered vs out of the hand of Midian.

133 ¶ And Gideon said vnto them, I will not reigne ouer you, neither shall my childe reigne ouer you, but the Lord shall reigne ouer you.

24 ¶ Againe Gideon said vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would giue me euery man the eareings of his pray (for they had golden eareings because they were Ima-clites).

25 ¶ And they answered, We will giue them.
And they spread a garment, and did cast therein euery man the eareings of his pray.

26 ¶ And the weight of the golden eareings that he required, was a thousand & seuen hundred shekels of gold, beside collars, and Jewels, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian; and beside the chaines that were about their camels neckes.

27 ¶ And Gideon made an Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his citie, and all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

28 ¶ Thus was Midian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lift vp their heads no more: and the countrey was in quietnesse fortie yeres in the dayes of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then Jerubbaal the sonne of Ioash went, and dwelt in his owne house.

30 ¶ And Gideon had seuentie sonnes begotten of his body: for he had many wiues.

31 ¶ And his concubine that was in Shechem bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 ¶ So Gideon the sonne of Ioash died in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioash his father in Ophrah, of the fathers of the Ezrites.

33 ¶ But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 ¶ And the children of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the handes of all their enemies on euery side.

35 ¶ Neither shewed they mercy on the house of Jerubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodnes which he had shewed vnto Israel.

these words: and their hearts were moued to follow Abimelech: for, said they, He is our brother.

2 And they gaue him seuentie pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired 1 vaine and light fellowes; which followed him.

3 And hee went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Ierubbaal, about seuentie persons vpon one stone: yet Iotham the yongest sonne of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid himselfe.

4 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, with all the house of Millo, & came and made Abimelech king in the plaine, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they tolde it to Iotham, hee went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift vp his voyce, and cryed, and said vnto them, Harken vnto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 The trees went forth to anoynt a king ouer them, and said vnto the oliue tree, Reigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the oliue tree said vnto them, Should I leaue my farnesse, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to aduance me aboute the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetnesse, and my good fruit, and go to aduance me aboute the trees?

12 Then said the trees vnto the vine, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

13 But the vine said vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I chere God and man, and go to aduance me aboute the trees?

14 Then said all the trees vnto the bramble, Come thou, and reigne ouer vs.

15 And the bramble said vnto the trees, If ye will indeed anoint me king ouer you, come, and put your trust vnder my shadow: and if not, the fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye do truly and vncorruptly to make Abimelech king, and if ye haue dealt well with Ierubbaal and with his house, and haue done vnto him according to the deservings of his hands, 17 (For my father fought for you, and aduentured his life, and deliuered you out of the hands of Midian.

18 And yee are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slaine his children about seuentie persons vpon one stone, and haue made Abimelech the sonne of his maid seruant King ouer the men of Shechem, because he is your brother)

19 If ye then haue dealt truly and purely with Ierubbaal and with his house this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo: also let a fire come forth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned three yeere ouer Israel.

23 But God sent an euill spirit betweene Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech.

24 That the crueltie toward the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbaal, and their blood, might come and bee laid vpon Abimelech their brother, which had slaine them, and vpon the men of Shechem, which had aided him to kill his brethren.

25 So the men of Shechem seemen in waite for him in the tops of the mountains: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes and trode them, and made merrie, and went into the house of their gods, and did eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that wee should serue him? Is hee not the sonne of Ierubbaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serue him?

29 Now would God this people were vnder mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the Citie heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore hee sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuily, saying, Behold, Gaal the sonne of Ebed, and his brethren bee come to Shechem, and behold, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in waite in the field.

33 And arise early in the morning as soon as the sunne is vp, and assault the city: and when he and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, do to him what thou canst.

34 So Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him by night: and they lay in wait against Shechem in foure bands.

35 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out and stood in the entring of the gate of the city: and even because we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim:

1 And the Lord said vnto the children of Israel, Did not I deliuer you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

2 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppresse you, and ye cried to me, and I saued you out of their hands.

3 Yet ye haue forsaken me, and serued other gods: wherefore I will deliuer you no more.

4 God, and cry vnto the gods which ye haue chosen: let them saue you in the time of your tribulation.

5 And the children of Israel said vnto the Lord, We haue sinned: do thou vnto vs whatsoever please thee: only we pray thee to deliuer vs this day.

6 Then they put away the strange gods from among them, and serued the Lord: and his soule was grieved for the misery of Israel.

7 Then the children of Ammon gathered themselves together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves and pitched in Mizpeh.

8 And the people and princes of Gilead sayde one to another, Whosoever will begin the battell against the children of Ammon, the same shall bee head ouer all the inheritance of Gilead.

CHAP. XI.

Iphtah being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Israel. 30 He maketh a rash vow. 32 Hee vanquisheth the Ammonites. 39 And sacrificeth his daughter according to his vow.

Then Gilead begate Iphtah, and Iphtah the Gileadite was a valiant man, but the son of an harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him sonnes, and when the womans children were come to age, they thrust out Iphtah, & said vnto him, Thou shalt not inherite in our fathers house: for thou art the sonne of a strange woman.

3 Then Iphtah fledde from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there gathered idle fellowes to Iphtah, and went out with him.

4 And in proceesse of time the children of Ammon made warre with Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to fet Iphtah out of the land of Tob,

6 And they sayd vnto Iphtah, Come and bee our captaine, that wee may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Iphtah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expell me out of my fathers house? how then come ye vnto me now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said vnto Iphtah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou maiest go with vs, & fight against the children of Ammon, and bee our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iphtah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord giue them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said to Iphtah, The Lord be witness betweene vs, if we doe not according to thy words.

11 Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, & the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtah rehearsed all his words before the Lord in Mizpeh.

12 Then Iphtah sent messengers vnto the King of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to doe with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the King of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iphtah, Because Israel tooke my land, when they came vp from Egypt, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and vnto Iorden: now therefore restore those lands quietly.

14 Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe vnto the king of the children of Ammon, 15 And sayd vnto him, Thus saith Iphtah, Israel tooke not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked thorow the wilderness vnto the red sea, then they came to Kadesh.

17 And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, goe thorow thy land: but the king of Edom would not consent: and also they sent vnto the king of Moab, but he would not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went thorow the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the East side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said vnto him, Let vs passe, wee pray thee, by thy land vnto our place.

20 But Sihon consented not to Israel, that he should goe thorow his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gaue Sihon, and all his folke into the hands of Israel, & they smote them: so Israel possessed all the lande of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey:

22 And they possessed all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and from the wilderness euen vnto Iorden.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possesse it?

27 Wherefore, I haue not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to warre against me. The Lord the Iudge beee Iudge this day betwene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the words of Iphtah, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the spirit of the Lord came vpon Iphtah, and he passed ouer to Gilead, and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpeh in Gilead, and from Mizpeh in Gilead he went vnto the children of Ammon.

30 And Iphtah vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then that thing that cometh out of the doores of mine house to meete me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lords, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Iphtah went vnto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

33 And hee smote them from Aroereuen till thou come to Minnith, twentie cities, and so forth to Abel of the vineyards, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ Now when Iphtah came to Mizpeh vnto his house, beholde, his daughter came out to meete him with timbrels and dances, which was his onely childe: he had none other sonne nor daughter.

35 And when he saw her, he rent his clothes and said, Alas, my daughter, thou hast brought me low, and art of them that trouble me: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lord, and can not go backe.

36 And she said vnto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, do with me as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37 Also shee said vnto her father, Doe thus much for me: suffer mee two moneths, that I may goe to the mountaines, and bewaile my virginity, I and my fellowes.

38 And he said, Go: & he sent her away two moneths: so she went with her copanions, and lamented her virginity vpon the mountaines.

39 And after the end of two moneths, shee turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vow, which he had vowed, and shee had knowne no man, and it was a custome in Israel.

40 The daughters of Israel went yeere by yeere to lament the daughter of Iphtah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeere.

CHAP. XII.

Iphtah killed two and forty thousand Ephraimites. 8 After Iphtah succeeded Abdon, 11 Elon, 13 and Abdon.

¶ And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went Northward, and said vnto Iphtah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight against the children of Ammon, & didst not call vs to go with thee? we will therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.

¶ And Iphtah said vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon, and when I called you, yee deliuered me not out of their hands.

¶ So when I saw that ye deliuered me not, I put my life in mine hands, and went vpon the children of Ammon: so the Lord deliuered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are ye come vpon me now to fight against me?

¶ Then Iphtah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim, and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they saide, Yee Gileadites are runnagates of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

¶ Also the Gileadites tooke the passages of Iorden before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, said, Let mee passe, then the men of Gilead said vnto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay, ¶ Then said they vnto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said, Sibboleth: for he could not so pronounce: then they tooke him, and slewe him at the passages of Iorden: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites two and fourtie thousand.

¶ And Iphtah iudged Israel fixe yeres: then died Iphtah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ The children of Israel continued to come down into Egypt in the days of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hands of the Philistims for tie years.

¶ Then there was a man in Zorah of the family of the Danites, named Manoah, whose wife was barren and bare none.

¶ And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, & said vnto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest none; but thou shalt conceive, and beare a sonne.

¶ And now therefore beware, that thou drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite vnto God from his birth.

¶ And he shall begin to shew Israel out of the hands of the Philistims.

¶ Then the wife came, and told her husband, saying, A man of God came vnto mee, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of the Angel of God exceeding fearefully; but I asked him not whence he was, neither tolde he me his name.

¶ But he said vnto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive and beare a sonne, and now thou shalt drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

¶ Then Manoah praied to the Lord, and said, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whom thou sentest, come againe now vnto vs, and teach vs what we shall doe vnto the childe when he is borne.

¶ And God heard the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as she sate in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

¶ And the wife made haste and ranne and shewed her husband and said vnto him, Behold, the man hath appeared vnto mee, that came vnto me to day.

¶ And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman? and he said, Yea.

¶ Then Manoah said, Now let thy saying come to passe: but how shal we order the child, and doe vnto him?

¶ And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I said vnto her.

¶ Shee may eat of nothing that cometh of the vine tree: shee shall not drinke wine nor strong drinke, nor eate any vncleane thing: let her obserue all that I haue commanded her.

¶ Manoah then said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs retaine thee, vntill wee haue made ready a kid for thee.

¶ And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eate of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it vnto the Lord: for Manoah knewe not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

¶ Againe Manoah said vnto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may honour thee?

¶ And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secret?

¶ Then Manoah tooke a kid with a unclean offering, and offered it vpon a stone vnto the Lord: and the Angel did wondrously, whiles Manoah and his wife looked on.

¶ For when the flame came vp toward heauen from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended vp in the flame of the altar; and Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fell on their faces vnto the ground.

¶ (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knewe that it was an Angel of the Lord.

¶ And Manoah said vnto his wife, Wee shall surely die, because we haue seene God.

¶ But his wife said vnto him, If the Lord would kill vs, hee would not haue received a burnt offering, and a meat offering of our hands, neither would hee haue shewed vs all these things, nor would now haue told vs any such.

¶ And the wife bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the childe grew, and the Lord blessed him.

¶ And the Spirit of the Lord beganne to strengthen him in the host of Dan, betwene Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Now Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims.

¶ And hee came vp and told his father and his mother and said, I haue seene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: now therefore I giue me her to wife.

¶ Then his father and his mother said vnto him, Is there neuer a wife among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must goe to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistims? And Samson said vnto his father, Giue me her, for shee pleaseth me well.

h Or, to impasse vs.

i Or, to the seventh day, beginning at the fourth.

But his father and his mother knew not that he came of the hold: that he should seek to an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines reigned over Israel. And then went Samson and his father and his mother down to Timnath and camp to the vineyard at Timnath: and behold a young lion roared upon him: and he smote it, and he was as a lion.

And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he tore him, as one should have rene a kid: and he had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done.

And he went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samson. And within a few dayes, when he returned to receive her, he went aside to see the karkes of the Lion: and behold, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the bodie of the Lion.

And heeooke thereof in his hands, and went eating: and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue unto them, and they did eat: but he told nor them, that he had taken the hony out of the bodie of the Lion.

So his father went downe unto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so he fed the yong mer. to doe.

And when they saw him, they brought thither his companions to be with him.

Then Samson said vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle vnto you: and if you can declare it me within seven dayes of he feast, and finde it out, I will giue you thirtie sheetes and thirtie change of garments.

But if you cannot declare it me, then shall ye giue me thirtie sheetes and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may heare it.

And he said vnto them, Out of the eater came meat, and out of the strong came sweetness: and they could not in three daies expound the riddle.

And when the seuenth day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wife, Entise thine husband, that he may declare vs the riddle, lest we burne thee & thy fathers house with fire. Hau ye called vs, to possesse vs? is it not so?

And Samons wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me and louest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not told it mee. And hee said vnto her, Behold, I haue not told it my father, nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

Then Samsons wife wept before him seven dayes, while their feast lasted, and when the seuenth day came, he told her, because she was importunate vpon him: so shee told the riddle to the children of her people.

And the men of the citie said vnto him the seuenth day before the sunne went downe, What is sweeter then hony? and what is stronger then hon? Then said he vnto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, and slew thirtie men of them & spoiled them, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.

Then Samsons wife was giuen to his companions, whom he had used as his friends.

CHAPTER XX. Samson lieth firebrands in the faces of the Philistines, burneth his father in law and his wife, and his brothers in law, and killeth his thousand men, who were a great tooth in the jaw of the Gathites.

Vpon a while after, in the time of the harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I will goe in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to goe in.

And her father said, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companions: not her yonger sister fairer then she? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other.

Then Samson said vnto them, Now am I more blameless then the Philistines: therefore will I doo them displeasure.

And Samson went out, & tooke three hundred foxes, and tooke firebrands, and turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in the mids betwene two tailes.

And when he had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistines, and burnt vp both the ricks and the standing corne with the vineyards and oliues.

Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Tinnite, because hee had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistines came vp, and burnt her and her father with fire.

And Samson said vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet will I bee auenged of you, and then I will cease.

So he smote them with his hip and thigh with a mightie plague: then he went and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam.

Then the Philistines came vp, and pitched in Iudah, and were spread abroad in Lehi.

And the men of Iudah said, Why are ye come vp vnto vs? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come vp, and to doe to him, as he hath done to vs.

Then three thousand men of Iudah went to the toppe of the rocke Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And hee answered them, As they did vnto mee, so haue I done vnto them.

13 And they answered him, saying, No, but wee will bind thee and ^h deliuer thee vnto their hand, but we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him from the rocke.

14 When hee came to Lehi, the Philistims shouted against him, and the spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire: for the bands loosed from his hands.

15 And hee found a ⁱ new iawbone of an asse, and put forth his hand, and caught it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 Then Samson said, With the iaw of an asse ^{are} heapes vpon heapes: with the iaw of an asse haue I shine a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, hee cast away the iawbone out of his hand, and called that place [¶] Ramath-lehi.

3 Samson carieth away the gates of Azkub. 18 Hee was deceived by Delilah. 30 He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistims, and dieth with them.

Then went Samson to ^a Azzah, and sawe there [¶] an harlot, and ^b went in vnto her.

2 And it was told to the Azzahites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laide wait for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the night, saying, ^{Abide} [¶] till the morning early, and we shall kill him.

3 And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gates of the citie, and the two postes, and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his shoulders, and caried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebron.

4 [¶] And after this hee loued a woman by the [¶] riuer of Sorek, whose name was Delilah:

5 Vnto whome came the princes of the Philistims, and said vnto her, Entise him, and see wherein his great strength ^{lieth}, and by what meane we may overcome him, that wee may bind him, and punish him, and euery one of vs shall giue thee eleuen hundred ^c shekels of siluer.

6 [¶] And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength ^{lieth}, and wherewith thou mightest be bound, to do thee hurt.

7 Samson then answered vnto her, If they binde me with seuen [¶] greene cords, that were [¶] neuer dried, then shall I be weake, and be as an other man.

8 And the princes of the Philistims brought her seuen greene cordes that were not drie, and she bound him therewith.

9 (And she had ^d men lying in waite with her in the chamber) Then shee said vnto him, The Philistims ^{be} vpon thee, Samson. And hee brake the cords as a threed of tow is broken, when ^e it feeleth fire: so his strength was not known.

10 [¶] After Delilah said vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me and told mee lies, I pray thee now, ^f tell mee wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 Then he answered her, If they bind me with new ropes that neuer were occupied, then shall I be weake, and be as an other man.

12 Delilah therefore tooke new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said vnto him, The Philistims ^{be} vpon thee, Samson: (and men lay in wait in the chamber) and he brake them from his armes, as a threed.

13 [¶] Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguiled me, & told me lies: tell me how thou mightest be bound. ^g And he said vnto her, If thou plattedst seuen lockes of mine head with the threedes of the woofe.

14 And she fastened it with a pin, and said vnto him, the Philistims ^{be} vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and went away with the [¶] pinne of the webbe, and the woofe.

15 Againe she said vnto him, How canst thou say, ^h I loue thee, when thine heart is not with mee? thou hast mocked mee these three times, and hast not tolde me wherein thy great strength ^{lieth}.

16 And because she was importunate vpon him with her words continually, & vexed him, his soule was pained vnto the death.

17 Therefore he told her all his ⁱ heart, and saide vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore if I be shauen, my strength will goe from mee, and I shall bee weake, and be like all ^{other} men.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her al his heart, she sent, and called for the princes of the Philistims, saying, Come vp once ^{again}: for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philistims came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And shee made him sleepe vpon her knees, and shee called a man, and made him to shau off the seuen lockes of his head, and she began to vexe him, and his strength was ^k gone from him.

20 Then she said, The Philistims ^{be} vpon thee, thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and thought, I wil go out now as at other times, and shake my selfe, but hee knew not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philistims tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters: and he did grinde in the prison house.

22 And the haire of his head began to grow againe after that it was shauen.

23 Then the Princes of the Philistims gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they said, Our god hath deliuered Samson our enemy into our hands.

24 Also when the people sawe him, they praised their god: for they said, our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our country, which hath slaine many of vs.

25 And when their hearts were merie, they said, Cal Samson, that he may make vs pastime. So they called Samson out of the prison house, and he was a laughing stocke vnto them, and they set him betwene the pillars.

26 Then Samson said vnto the seruant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 (Now the house was ful of men and women, and there were all the princes of the Philistims: also vpon the rooffe were about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson played)

28 Then Samson called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me: O God, I beseech thee, strengthen mee at this time onely, that I may be at once auenged of the Philistims for my two eyes.

29 And Samson laid hold on the two middle pillars whereupon the house stood, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

30 Then said Samson, Let me lose my life with the Philistins: and he bowed him with all his might, and the house fell vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death were more then they which he had slaine in his life.

31 Then his brethren, & all the house of his father came down and tooke him, and brought him vp and buried him betwene Zorah and Eshtaol, in the sepulchre of Manoah his father: now he had iudged Israel twentie yeeres.

2 And hee said vnto his mother, The eleuen hundred shekels of siluer that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, and spa-kest it; euen in mine hearing, behold, the siluer is with me, I tooke it. Then his mother saide, Blessed be my sonne of the Lord.

3 And when hee had restored the eleuen hundred shekels of siluer to his mother, his mother said, I had dedicated the siluer to the Lord of mine hand for my sonne, to make a grauen and molten image. Now therefore I will giue it thee againe.

4 And when he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother tooke two hundred shekels of siluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauen & molten image, and it was in the house of Michah.

5 And this man Michah had an house of gods, and made an Ephod, and a Teraphim, and he consecrated one of his sonnes, who was his Priest.

6 In those daies there was no King in Israel, but euery man did that which was good in his owne eyes.

7 There was also a young man out of Beth-lehem Iudah, of the family of Iudah: who was a Leuite, and sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie, euen out of Beth-lehem Iudah, to dwell where he could find a place: & as he iournied, he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah.

9 And Michah saide vnto him, Whence comest thou? And the Leuite answered him, I come from Beth-lehem Iudah, and goe to dwell where I may find a place.

10 Then Michah said vnto him, Dwell with me and bee vnto me a father and a Priest, and I will giue thee ten shekels of siluer by yeere, and a fute of apparell, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was content to dwell with the man, and the yong man was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

12 And Michah consecrated the Leuite, and the young man was his Priest, and was in the house of Michah.

13 Then said Michah, Now I know that the Lord will bee good vnto mee, seeing I haue a Leuite to my Priest.

1 The children of Dan send men to search the land. 11 Then come the sixe hundred and take the gods, and the Priest of Michah away 27 They destroy Laish. 28 They build it againe, 30 And set vp idolatrie.

In those daies there was no King in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that time all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their family, sixe men out of their coastes, men expert in warre, out of Zorah and Eshtaol, to view the land and search it out, and said vnto them, Goe and search out the land. Then they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah, and lodged there.

3 When they were in the house of Michah, they knew the voice of the yong man the Leuite: and being turned in thither, they sayd vnto him, Who brought thee hither? or what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou to doe here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Michah with mee, and hath hired mee, and I am his Priest.

5 Again they said vnto him, Aske counsell now of God, that wee may know whether the way which we goe, shalbe prosperous.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, ^d Goe in peace: for the Lord guideth your way, which yee goe.

^d Thus God granteth the idolaters sometimes their requests to their delusion that delight in errors.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, which dwelt carelesse, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man made any trouble in the land, or vsurped any dominion: also they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no businesse with other men.

8 ¶ So they came againe vnto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said vnto them, What haue yee done?

^e Lofe ye this good occasion through your foolishness?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may goe vp against them: for wee haue seene the land, and surely it is very good, and doe ye fit still? bee not slouthfull to goe and enter to possess the land:

10 (If yee will goe, yee shall come vnto a carelesse people, and the country is large) for God hath giuen it into your hand. It is a place which doth lacke nothing that is in the world.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-icarim in Iudah: wherefore they called that place, ¶ Mahaneh-Dan vnto this day: and it is behinde Kiriath-icarim.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Michah.

14 Then answered the five men, that went to spie out the countrey of Laish, and said vnto their brethren, ^f Know yee not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a grauen and a molten image? Now therefore consider what yee haue to doe.

^f Because they before had had good success, they would that their brethren should be encouraged by hearing the same tidings.

15 And they turned thitherward and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, ^g euen vnto the house of Michah, and saluted him peaceably.

^g So superficially blinded them, that they thought Gods power was in these idoles, and that they should haue good success by them, though by violence and robbery they did take them away.

16 And the sixe hundred men appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entring of the gate.

17 Then the five men that went to spie out the land went in thither, and tooke the ^h grauen image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stood in the entring of the gate with the sixe hundred men, that were appointed with weapons of warre.

18 And the other went into Michahs house, and set the grauen image, the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the Priest vnto them, What doe yee?

19 And they answered him, Hold thy peace: lay thine hand vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldest bee a Priest vnto the house of one inan, or that thou shouldest bee a Priest vnto a tribe and to a family in Israel?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and hee tooke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the ^h people.

^h With the first hundred men.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattell, and the substance ⁱ before them.

ⁱ Suspecting them that did pursue them;

22 ¶ When they were farre off from the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses neere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cried vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said vnto Michah, What aileth thee, that thou makest an outcry?

24 And he said, Yee haue taken away my ^k gods which I made, and the Priest, and goe your wayes: and what haue I more? how then say yee vnto me, What aileth thee?

^k This declareth what opinion the idolaters haue of their idoles.

25 And the children of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, lest angry fellowes runne vpon thee, and thou lose thy life with the liues of thine household.

26 So the children of Dan went their waies: and when Michah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned, and went backe vnto his house.

27 And they tooke the ^l things which Michah had made, and the Priest which hee had, and came vnto Laish, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, & smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the citie with fire:

^l Meaning the idoles, as ver. 18

28 And there was none to ^m helpe, because Laish was farre from Zidon, and they had no businesse with other men: also it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob. After, they built the citie, and dwelt therein, 30 Then the children of Dan set them vp the ⁿ grauen image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gershom, the sonne of Manasseh and his sonnes were the Priests in the tribe of the Danites, vnto the day of the ^o captiuitie of the land.

ⁿ Thus in stead of giuing glorie to God they attributed the victorie to their idoles, and honoured them therefore.

31 So they set them vp the grauen image, which Michah had made, all the while the house of God was in Shiloh.

29 And when he was come to his house, he tooke a knife, and laid hand on his concubine, and diuided her in pieces with her bones into twelue parts, and sent her thorowall quarters of Israel.

30 And all that saw it, sayd, There was no such thing done or seene since the time that the children of Israel came vp from the land of Egypt vnto this day: consider the matter, consult and giue sentence.

CHAP. XX.

1 The Israelites assemblē in Mizpeh, to whom the Leuite declared his wrong. 2 They sent for them that did the villeny. 3 The Israelites are wisely overcome. 4 And at length get the victory.

Then ^a all the children of Israel went out, and the Congregation was gathered together as ^b one man from Dan to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the ^c Lord in Mizpeh.

2 And the ^d chiefes of all the people, and all the tribes of Israel assembled in the Congregation of the people of God foure hundred thousand footmen that ^e drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone vp to Mizpeh) Then the children of Israel ^f said, How is this wickednes committed?

4 And the same Leuite, the womans husband that was slaine, answered, and said, I came vnto Gibeah that is in Benjamin with my concubine to lodge.

5 And the ^g men of Gibeah arose against me, and beset the house round about vpon mee by night, thinking to haue slaine mee, and haue forced my concubine that she is dead.

6 Then I tooke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent ^h her thorowout all the countrey of the inheritance of Israel: for they haue committed abomination and villany in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel: giue your aduice and counsell herein.

8 Then all the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of vs goe to his tent, neither any turne into his ⁱ house.

9 But now this is that thing which we will do to Gibeah: ^j we will go vp by lot against it,

10 And wee will take ten men of the hundred thorowout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of the thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand to bring ^k vitale for the people, that they may doe (when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin) according to all the villanie, that it hath done in Israel.

11 ¶ So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men thorowe all the ^l tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickednesse is this that is committed among you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that wee may put them to death, and put away euill from Israel: but the children of Benjamin would not obey the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities vnto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

15 ¶ And the children of Benjamin were numbred at that time out of the cities fixe and twentie thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbred seuen hundred chosen men.

16 Of all this people were seuen hundred chosen men, being ^m left handed: all these could sling stones at an haire breadth, and not faile.

17 ¶ Also the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbred foure hundred thousand men that drew sword, euen all men of warre.

18 And the children of Israel arose, & went vp ⁿ to the house of God, and asked of God, saying, Which of vs shall goe vp first to fight against the children of Benjamin? And the Lord said, ^o Judah shall be first.

19 Then the children of Israel arose vp early and camped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battell against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in aray to fight against them beside Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and slewe downe to the ground of the Israelites that day ^p two and twentie thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israel plucked vp their hearts, and set their battell againe in aray in the place where they put them in aray the first day.

23 (For the children of Israel had gone vp and wept before the Lorde vnto the euening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe againe to battell against the children of Benjamin my brethren? and the Lord said, Goe vp against them)

24 ¶ Then the children of Israel came neere against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 Also the second day Benjamin came forth to meete them out of Gibeah, and slewe downe to the ground of the children of Israel againe eightene thousand men: ^q all they could handle the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel went vp, and all the people came also vnto the house of God, and wept and sate there before the Lord, and fasted that day vnto the euening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for ^r there was the Arke of the couenant of God in those dayes, 29 And Israel set men to lie in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Benjamin the third day, and put themselves in aray against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Benjamin coming out against the people, were drawn from the citie: and they began to smite of the people and kill as at other times, even by the wayes in the field (whereof one goeth vp to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

32 (For the children of Benjamin said, They are fallen before vs, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let vs flee and plucke them away from the citie vnto the hie wayes.)

33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselves in aray at Baaltamar: and the men that lay in wait of the Israelites came forth of their place, euē out of the medowes of Gibeah, 34 And they came ouer against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battell was fore: for they knew not that the euill was neere them.

35 ¶ And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day fise and twenty thousand and an hundred men: all they could handle the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin sawe that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in waite, which they had laid beside Gibeah.

37 And they that lay in wayte hasted, and brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment drew themselves along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sword.

38 Also the men of Israel had appoynted a certaine time with the ambushments, that they should make a great flame and smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retyled in the battell, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirtie persons: for they said, Surely they are stricken downe before vs, as in the first battell.

40 But when the flame began to arise out of the citie, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and behold, the flame of the citie began to ascēd vp to heauen.

41 Then the men of Israel turned againe, and the men of Benjamin were astonied: for they saw that euill was neere vnto them.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Israel vnto the way of the wilderness, but the battell ouertooke them: also they which came out of the citie, slew them among them.

43 Thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them at ease, & ouerran them, euen ouer against Gibeah on the East side.

44 And there were slaine of Benjamin eighteen thousand men, which were all men of war.

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness vnto the rocke of Rimmon: & the Israelites gleaned of them by the way fise thousand men, and pursued after them vnto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all that were slaine that day of Benjamin, were fise & twenty thousand men that drew sword, which were all men of warre.

47 But sixe hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness vnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure moneths.

48 Then the men of Israel returned vnto the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword from the men of the citie vnto the beasts, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they could come by.

1 The Israelites sweare that they wil not marry their daughters to the Beniamites. 10 They slay them of Labish Gilead, and giue their virgins to the Beniamites. 21 The Beniamites take the daughters of Shiloh.

Moreouer, the men of Israel sware in Mizpeh, saying, None of vs shal giue his daughter vnto the Beniamites to wife.

2 And the people came vnto the house of God and abode there till euen before God, and lift vp their voices, and wept with great lamentation,

3 And said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want?

4 ¶ And on the morrowe the people rose vp and made there an altar, and offered burnt offrings and peace offrings.

5 Then the children of Israel said, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the Congregation vnto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him, that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, Let him die the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sory for Benjamin their brother, and saide, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wiues to them that remaine, seeing wee haue sworne by the Lord, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues?

16 Therefore the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women and children.

17 And this is it that ye shall doe: ye shall utterly destroy all the males, and all the women that haue lien by men.

18 And they found among the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead foure hundred maids, virgins that had knowen no man by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the host to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

19 ¶ Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rock of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

20 And Benjamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wiues which they had saved alive of the women of Iabesh Gilead: but they had not so enough for them.

21 And the people were sory for Benjamin because the Lorde had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

22 Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shall we do for wiues to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed.

23 And they said, There must bee an inheritance for them that bee escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

24 Howbeit wee may not giue them wiues of our daughters: for the children of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he that giueth a wife to Benjamin.

25 Therefore they sayd, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord euery yeere in Shiloh, in a place which is on the North side of Beth-el, and on the East side of the way that goeth vp from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

26 Therefore they commaunded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards.

27 And when yee see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, & catch you euery man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and goe into the land of Benjamin.

28 And when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, wee will say vnto them, Haue pity on them for our sakes, because wee referred not each man his wife in the war, and because yee haue not giuen vnto them hitherto, ye haue sinned.

29 And the children of Benjamin did so, and tooke wiues of them that danced according to their number: which they tooke and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

30 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, euery man to his tribe, and to his family, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.

THE BOOKE OF RUTH.

THE ARGUMENT.

This booke is intituled after the name of Ruth: which is the principall person spoken of in this treatise. Wherin also figuratiuely is set forth the state of the Church which is subiect to manifold afflictions, and yet at length God giueth good and ioyfull issue: teaching vs to abide with patience till God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein also is described how Iesus Christ, who according to the flesh ought to come of Dauid, proceeded of Ruth, of whom the Lord Iesus did vouchsafe to come, notwithstanding she was a Moabite of base condition, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles should be sanctified by him, and ioyned with his people, and that there should be but one sheepfold, and one Shepherd. And it seemeth that this history appertaineth to the time of the Iudges.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 3 He and his sonnes die. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-lehem.

IN the time that the Iudges ruled, there was a dearth in the land, and a man of Beth-lehem Judah went for to sojourne in the country of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: and the names of his two sonnes, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephraimites of Beth-lehem Judah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

3 Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi died, and she remained with her two sonnes, 4 Which tooke them wiues of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both twaine: so the woman was left destitute of her two sonnes, and of her husband,

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, and returned from the country of Moab: for she had heard say in the country of Moab, that c By this wonderfull providence of God Ruth became one of Gods household, of whom Christ came.

that the Lord had visited his people, and given them bread.

7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her, and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudah.

8 Then Naomi said vnto her two daughters in law, Goe, retorne each of you vnto her owne mothers house: the Lord shewe fauour vnto you, as yee haue done with the dead, and with me.

e Hereby it appeareth that Naomi by dwelling among idolaters was waxen colde in the true zeale of God, which rather hath respect to the safe of the body then to the comfort of the soule.

9 The Lord grant you, that you may find rest, either of you in the house of her husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept.

10 And they said vnto her, Surely wee will returne with thee vnto thy people.

11 But Naomi said, Turne again, my daughters: for what cause will you goe with me? are there any more sonnes in my wombe, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turne againe, my daughters, goe your way: for I am too old to haue an husband. If I should say, I haue hope, and if I had an husband this night: yea, if I had borne sonnes,

|| Or, more then you.

f When she took leaue & departed

14 Then they lift vp their voyce and wept againe, and Orpah^e kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode still with her.

15 And Naomi said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back vnto her people & vnto her gods: returne thou after thy sister in law.

g No perswasions can preuaile to turne them backe from God whom he hath chosen to be his.

16 And Ruth answered, Intreat me not to leaue thee, nor to depart from thee: for whither thou goest, I will go: and where thou dwellest, I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17 Where thou diest, will I die, & there will I be buried, the Lord do so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 ¶ When she saw that shee was stedfastly minded to goe with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 So they went both vntill they came to Beth-lehem: & when they were come to Beth-lehem, it was^h noised of them thorow all the citie, and they said, Is not this Naomi?

h Whereby appeareth that she was of a great family and of good reputation. || Or, beautifull. || Or, bitter.

20 And shee answered them, Call mee not Naomi, but call me Mara: for the Almighty hath giuen me much bitternesse.

21 I went out full, and the Lord hath caused me to returne empty: why call you me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath brought me vnto aduersitie?

i Which was in the moneth Nissan, y^e containeth part of March & part of April.

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabite^{sse} her daughter in law with her, when she came out of the country of Moab: & they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning ofⁱ barley harvest.

C H A P. II.

1 Ruth gathereth corne in the fields of Boaz. 8 The gentleness of Boaz toward her.

Then Naomies husband had a kinsman, one of great power, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.

a Both for vertue, authority and riches.

2 And Ruth the Moabite^{sse} said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to the field, & gather eares of corne after him in whose sight I find fauour. And she said vnto her, Go my daughter.

b This her humility declareth her great affection toward her mother in law, forasmuch as she spareth no painefull diligence to get both their liuings.

3 ¶ And she went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers, and it came to passe, that shee met with the portion of the field of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord bee with you: and they answered him, The Lord blesse thee.

5 Then said Boaz vnto his seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, Whose maide is this?

6 And the seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish maide, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab:

7 And she said vnto vs, I pray you, let mee glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued from that time in the morning vnto now, saue that she taried a little in the house.

|| Or, certaine handfull.

8 ¶ Then saide Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? goe to none other field to gather, neither go from hence: but abide here by my maids.

9 ¶ Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and go thou after the maids. Haue I not charged the seruants, that they touch thee not? Moreouer, when thou art athirst, go vnto the vessels, and drinke of that which the seruants haue drawn.

c That is, take heed in what field they doe reape.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, & said vnto him, How haue I found fauor in thine eyes, that thou shouldst know me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered, and saide vnto her, All is tolde and shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, & the land where thou wast borne and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time past.

d Euen of the Moabites, which are enemies to Gods people.

12 The Lord recompense thy work, & a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Israel, vnder whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find fauour in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted me, and spoken comfortably vnto thy maide, though I be not like to one of thy maids.

e signifying that she shall neuer want anything, if shee put her trust in God, and liue vnder his protection.

14 And Boaz sayd vnto her, At the meale time come thou hither, and eate of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vineger. And she sate beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and shee did eate, and was sufficed, and left thereof.

f Which she brought home to her mother in law.

15 ¶ And

15 And when shee arose to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaves, and rebuke her not: for shee is a stranger. Also he fully opened the sheaves for her, and let it lie, that shee may gather up, and re- buke her not. Boaz took Ruth, and shee went into the field, and shee gleaned, and shee showed that shee had gathered, and it was about an Ephah of barley.

16 And shee came in, and went into the city, and her mother in law saw what shee had gathered: also shee strook forth, because shee had which shee had rejoyced, when shee was sufficed. Went. The mother in lawe said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that hath thee. And shee showed her mother in law, with whom shee had wrought, and saide, The mans name, with whom I wrought to day, is Boaz.

17 And Naomi saide vnto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the Lord: for hee beareth not to doe good to the living, and to the dead. Again Naomi saide vnto her, The man is neere vnto vs, and of our affinity.

18 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He saide also certainly vnto me, Thou shalt be with my servants, vntill they have ended all mine harvest.

19 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in law, It is best, my daughter, that thou goe out with his mayds, that they meet thee not in another field.

20 Then shee kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather vnto the end of Barley harvest, and of wheate harvest, and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counsell. 8 Shee sleepeth at Boaz feet: 13 Hee acknowledgeth himselfe to be her kinsman.

Afterward Naomi her mother in law sayd vnto her, My daughter, shall not I seeke reit for thee, that thou mayest prosper?

2 Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maides thou wast? behold, hee winnoweth barley to night in the floor.

3 Walk thy selfe therefore, & anoint thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the floore: let not the man know of thee, vntill hee haue left eating and drinking.

4 And when hee shal sleepe, marke the place where hee layeth him downe, and go and vncouer the place of his feet, and lay thee down, and hee shall tell thee what thou shalt doe.

5 And shee answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will doe.

6 So shee went downe vnto the floore, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunken, & cheered his heart, hee went to lie down at the end of the heap of corne, & shee came softly, and vncouered the place of his feet, and lay downe.

8 And at midnight the man was afraid, and caught hold: and lo, a woman lay at his feet.

9 Then hee sayd, Who art thou? And shee answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine handmaid: for thou art the kinsman.

10 Then saide hee, Blessed be thou of the Lord my daughter: thou hast shewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as much as thou foldest it not young men, were they poore or rich.

11 And now my daughter, feare not: I will doe thee all that thou requirest: for all the citty of my people doth know, that thou art a vertuous woman.

12 And now, it is true, that I am thy kinsman, howbeit there is a kinsman neerer then I.

13 Tarry to night, and when morning is come, if hee will doe the duty of a kinsman vnto thee, well; let him doe the kinsmans duty: but if hee will not doe the kinsmans part, then will I doe the duty of a kinsman, as the Lord lieth: sleepe vntill the morning.

14 And shee lay at his feet vntill the morning, and hee arose before one could know: then hee saide, Let no man know, that a woman came into the floore.

15 Also hee saide, Bring the sheete that thou hast vpon thee, and hold it: and when shee held it, hee measured fixe measures of barley, and laid them on her, and shee went into the citty.

16 And when shee came to her mother in law, shee saide, Who art thou my daughter? And shee told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And saide, These fixe measures of barley gaue me: for hee saide to me, Thou shalt not come empty vnto thy mother in law.

18 Then saide shee, My daughter, sit stil, vntill thou know how the thing will fall: for the man will not bee in rest, vntill hee hath finished the matter this same day.

CHAP. III.

1 Boaz speaketh to Ruths next kinsman touching her marriage. 7 The ancient custome in Israel. 10 Boaz marrieth Ruth, of whom hee begetteth Obed. 18 The generation of Pharez.

Then went Boaz vp to the gate, and fate there, and behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: and hee saide, Ho, such one, come, sit downe here. And hee turned, and fate downe.

2 Then hee tooke ten men of the Elders of the citty, and saide, Sit yee downe heere. And they fate downe.

3 And hee saide vnto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the country of Moab, will sell a parcell of land which was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thought to aduertise thee, saying, Buy it before the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, tell me: for I know that there is none besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. Then hee answered, I will redeeme it.

5 Then

Thou shewest thy selfe from time to time more vertuous.

had said, I will hang on.

If he will take her to be his wife by the title of affinity, according to Gods law, Deu. 25.5.

Organis. 10 of the same.

Perceiving by her cunning home, that he had not taken her to his wife, she was astonished.

Which was the place of judgement. The Ebrewes here use two words which haue no proper signification, but serve to note a certaine person: as we say, ho sirrah, or ho, such one.

Or, inhabitants.

For thou art the next of the kins.

5 Then sayeth Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the dead of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess the wife of the dead, to stir up the name of the dead, upon his inheritance.

d That his inheritance might beare his name, that is dead.

6 And the kinsman answered, I cannot redeem it, lest I destroy mine own inheritance: we deem my right of thee, for I cannot redeem it.

e That he had resigned his right, Deut. 25, 9.

7 Now this was the manner before time in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing for to stablish all the law: a man did plucke off his shoe, and gave it his neighbour, and this was a sure witness in Israel.

f Or, of the citie where he remained.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shoe.

g Ephrathah and Beth-lehem are both one.

9 And Boaz said vnto the Elders, and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilion and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabitess the wife of Mahlon have I bought to be my wife, to stir up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, & from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

h He shall leave a continuall posteritie, as it is said in Deut. 25, 10.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the Elders said, We are witnesses. The Lord make the wife that cometh into thine house, like Rahel and like Leah, which twaine did build the house of Israel: and that thou mayest doe worthy in Ephrathah, and bee famous in Beth-lehem. 12 And that thing house bee like the house of Pharez (whom Thamar bare vnto Iudah) of the seed which the Lord shall give thee of this young woman.

Gen. 38, 19.

13 So Boaz tooke Ruth, and she was his wife: and when her womb was in ward, she bare him a sonne.

14 And the woman said vnto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shall be continued in Israel.

h He shall leave a continuall posteritie, as it is said in Deut. 25, 10.

15 And his shall bring thy life againe, and cherish thine old age: for thy daughter in law which loveth thee, hath borne me to him, & she is better to thee then seven sonnes.

i Meaning, many sonnes.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it to her lap, and became nurse vnto it.

17 And she said to her neighbours, gaue it a name, saying, there is a child borne to Naomi, and called the name thereof Obed: the same was the father of Isha the father of David.

18 These now are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begate Hezron,

And thus it is said in the genealogie of David, that Pharez begate Hezron, and Hezron begate Ram, and Ram begate Amminadab, and Amminadab begate Nahshon, and Nahshon begate Salmon, and Salmon begate Boaz, and Boaz begate Obed, and Obed begate Isha, and Isha begate David.

19 And Hezron begate Ram, and Ram begate Amminadab, 20 And Amminadab begate Nahshon, and Nahshon begate Salmon, 21 And Salmon begate Boaz, and Boaz begate Obed, 22 And Obed begate Isha, and Isha begate David.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF SAMUEL.

THE ARGUMENT.

According to God had ordained, Deu. 17, 14. that when the Israelites should be in the land of Canaan, he would appoint them a king: so here in this first booke of Samuel is declared the state of this people under their first king Saul, who not content with that order which God had for a time appointed for the government of his church, demanded a king to the intent they might be as other nations & in a greater assurance as they thought: not because they might the better thereby serve God, as being under the safeguard of him, which did present Iesus Christ the true deliuerer: therefore he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the person of a king is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power preserve and keep them. And therefore he punished the ingratitude of his people, and sendeth them continuall wars both at home & abroad. And because Saul whom of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a king, did not acknowledge Gods mercy toward him, but rather disobeyed the word of God and was not zealous of his glory, he was by the voice of God put down from his estate, & David the true figure of Messiah placed in his stead, whose patience, modesty, constancy, persecution by open enemies, fained friends, and dissembling flatterers, are left to the Church and to euery member of the same, as a pattern and example to behold their estate and vocation.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Elkanah father of Samuel. 2 His two wives. 3 Hannah was barren and prayed to the Lord: 15 Her answer to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

a There were two Ramaths, so that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim: that is, the learned men and Prophets.

Here was a man of one of the two Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Ieroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

2 And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah; and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas Priests of the Lord.

Deut. 16, 16.

b For the Ake was there at that time.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, hee gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions, c Some read, a portion with an heame cheere.

5 But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy portion: for he loued Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren.

6 ¶ And her aduersarie vexed her sore, forasmuch as she vpbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren.

7 (And so did hee yeere by yeere) and as oft as shee went vp to the house of the Lord, thus shee vexed her: that she wept, & did not eat.

8 Then saide Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes?

d Let this suffice thee that I loue thee no less, then if thou hadst many children.

9 So Hannah rose vp after that they had eaten and drunke in Shiloh: (and Eli the Priest saue vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the Temple of the Lord) e That is, of the house where the Ark was.

10 And shee was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmaid, and remember mee, and not forget thine handmaid, but giue vnto thine handmaid a man childe, then I will giue him vnto the Lord: all the dayes of his life, and there shall no razor come vpon his head.

16 Count not thine hindmaid for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my griefe I haue I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered, and said, Goe in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

k This is, pray vnto the Lord forme.

18 She saide againe, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more sad.

l According to her petition.

19 ¶ Then they arose vp early, & worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, & the Lord remembered her.

m This Elkanah was a Leuite, 1 Chron. 6. 27. and as some write, once a yeere they accustomed to appeare before the Lord with their families.

20 For in proceffe of time Hannah conceived, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man Elkanah and all his house went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice and his vow:

22 But Hannah went not vp: for she said

vnto her husband, I will not vntill the child be weined, then I wil bring him that hee may appeare before the Lord, & there abide for euer.

23 And Elkanah her husband said vnto her, Doe what seemeth thee best: tarie vntill thou hast weined him: onely the Lord accomplish his word. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntill she weined him.

24 ¶ And when she had weined him, shee tooke him with her with three bullocks and an Ephah of floure & a bottle of wine, & brought him vnto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullocke, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my Lord, as thy soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that stood with thee here praying vnto the Lord.

27 I prayed for this child, & the Lord hath giuen me my desire which I asked of him.

28 Therefore also I haue giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth he shall be giuen vnto the Lord: and he worshipped the Lord there.

And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluation.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, and there is no god like our God.

them: the Lord shall iudge the endes of the world, and shal giue power vnto his King, and exalt the borne of his anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 ¶ Now the sonnes of Eli were wicked men, and knew not the Lord.

13 For the Priestes custome toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priestes boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a flesh-hooke with three teeth, in his hand,

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the pot: all that the flesh-hooke brought vp, the Priest tooke for himselfe: thus they did vnto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the fatte, the priestes boy came and said to the man that offered, Giue me flesh to roste for the priest: for he will not haue sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if a y man said vnto him, Let them burne the fat according to the custome, then take as much as thine heart desireth, then hee would answer, No, but thou shalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord.

18 ¶ Now Samuel being a yong child, ministred before the Lord, girded with a linnen Ephod.

19 And his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from yeere to yere, when shee came vp with her husband, to offer the yeerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord giue thee seede of this woman, for the petition that shee asked of the Lord: and they departed vnto their place.

21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that shee conceived, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuel grew before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very old, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said vnto them, Why doe ye such things? for of all this people I heare euil reports of you.

24 Doe no more, my sonnes: for it is no good report that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the Iudge shall iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will plead for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

26 ¶ (Now the child Samuel profited and grew, and was in fauour both with the Lord and also with men)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me, and I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore haue you kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honourest thy children about me, to make your selues fat of the first frutes of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said, that thine house, and the house of thy father should walke before me for euer: but now the Lord saith, It shall not bee so: for them that honour mee, I will honour, and they that despise me, shall be despised.

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see thine enemy in the habitation of the Lord in all things wherewith God shall blesse Israel, and there shall not be an old man in thine house for euer.

33 Neuerthelesse, I will not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorrowful: and all the multitude of thine house shall die when they be men.

34 And this shall be a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both.

35 And I will stirre me vp a faithful Priest, that shall doe according to mine heart and according to my minde: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walke before mine Anointed for euer.

36 And all that are left in thine house, shall come and bow downe to him for a peece of siluer and a morcell of bread, and shall say, Ap- point me, I pray the, to one of the priestes offices, that I may eat a morcell of bread.

CHAP. III.

1 There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord called Samuel threes times, 11 And sheweth what shall come vpon Eli and his house. 18 The same declareth Samuel to Eli.

Now the child Samuel ministred vnto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision.

2 And at that time, as Eli lay in his place, his eyes began to wax dim that he could not see.

3 And yer the light of God went out, Samuel slept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was.

e Josephus writeth that Samuel was twelue years old, when the Lord appeared to him.

4 Then the Lord called Samuel: and he said, Here I am.

5 And he ranne vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But hee saide, I called thee not: goe againe and sleepe. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne: goe againe and sleepe.

7 Thus did Samuel, before he knew the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel againe the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called mee. Then Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuel, Go and sleepe: & if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10 And the Lord came and stood, and called as abother times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 Then the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will doe a thing in Israel, whereof who soeuer shall heare, his two eares shall tingle.

12 In that day I will raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I beginne, I will also make an ende.

13 And I haue tolde him that I will iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie which hee knoweth, because his sonnes ranne into a slander, and he stayed them not.

14 Now therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elies house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for euer.

15 Afterward Samuel slept vntill the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here I am.

17 Then he said, what is it, that the Lord said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all that he saide vnto thee.

18 So Samuel tolde him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is the Lord: let him doe what seemeth him good.

19 And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that faithfull Samuel was the Lords Prophet.

21 And the Lord appeared againe in Shiloh: for the Lord reuealed himselfe to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Israel is overcome by the Philistims. 4 They doe set the Arke, wherefore the Philistims doe feare. 10 The Arke of the Lord is taken. 11 Eli and his children die. 16 The death of the wife of Phinehas the sonne of Eli.

1 And Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel went out against the Philistims to battell and pitched belide Eben-ezer: and the Philistims pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistims put themselves in array against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistims: who slew of the armie in the field about foure thousand men.

3 So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten vs this day before the Philistims? let vs bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it cometh among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hosts, who dwelleth betwene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, with the Arke of the couenant of God.

5 And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israel shouted a mightie shout, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistims heard the noise of the shout, they saide, What meaneth the found of this mightie shout in the hoste of the Ebrewes? and they vnderstood that the Arke of the Lord was come into the host.

7 And the Philistims were afraid, and said, God is come into the host: therefore said they, Woe vnto vs: for it hath not bene so heretofore.

8 Woe vnto vs, who shall deliuer vs out of the hande of these mightie Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Bee strong and play the men O Philistims, that ye be not seruants to the Ebrewes, as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistims fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footmen.

11 And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the arnic, & came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head.

13 And when hee came, loe, Eli sate vpon a seate by the way side, waiting: for his heart feared for the Arke of God: and when the man came into the citie to tell it, all the citie cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noyse of the crying, hee said, What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? and the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 (Now Eli was fourescore and eightene yeere old, and his eyes were dim that he could not see)

16 And the man said vnto Eli, I came from the armie, & I fle this day out of the host: and he said, What thing is done, my sonne?

17 Then the messenger answered and sayd, Israel is fled before the Philistims, and there hath bin also a great slaughter among the people: and moreover thy two sonnes, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Arke of God is taken.

18 ¶ And when hee had made mention of the Arke of God, Eli fell from his seate backward by the side of the gate, and his necke was broken, and he died: for hee was an olde man and heauie: and hee had iudged Israel fourtie yeeres.

19 And his laughter in law Phinehas wife was with child: neere her trauell: and when she heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herselfe, and trauailed: for her paines came vpon her.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood about her, said vnto her, Feare not: for thou hast borne a sonne: but she answered not, nor regarded it.

21 And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.

22 She said againe, The glory is departed from Israel: for the Arke of God is taken.

CHAP. V.

2 The Philistims bring the Arke into the house of Dagon, which idole fell downe before it. 6 The men of Ashdod are plagued. 8 The Arke is caried into Gath and after to Ekron.

Then the Philistims tooke the Arke of God and caried it from Eben-ezer vnto Ashdod.

2 Euen the Philistims tooke the Arke of God, & brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day, in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and they tooke vp Dagon and set him in his place againe.

4 Also they rose vp early in the morning the next day, and beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagon, and the two palmes of his hands were cut off vpon the thresholde: onely the rumpe of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore the Priestes of Dagon, and all that came into Dagon's house, tread not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them; and smote them with emerods, both Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw this, they said, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is sore vpon vs, and vpon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and said, What shall we doe with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel be caried about vnto Gath: and they caried the Arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and as soon as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue brought the Arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slay vs and our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims, and saide, Send away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for there was a destruction and death thorowout all the citie, and the hand of God was very sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

CHAP. VI.

1 The time that the Arke was with the Philistims which they sent againe with a gift. 12 It cometh to Beth-shemesh. 17 The Philistims offer golden emerods. 19 The men of Beth-shemesh are stricken for looking into the Arke.

So the Arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistims seven moneths.

2 And the Philistims called the priests and the soothsayers, saying, What shal we doe with the Arke of the Lord? tell vs wherewith wee shall send it home againe.

3 And they saide, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, sende it not away emptie, but giue vnto it a sinne offering: then shal ye be healed, and it shalbe knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the sinne offering, which wee shall giue vnto it? And they answered, Five golden emerods and five golden mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistims: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

Wherefore ye shal make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your mice that destroy the land: so ye shal give glory vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your land.

Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let them goe, and they departed?

Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whom there hath come no yoke: and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them.

Then take the Arke of the Lord, and see it vpon the cart, and put the jewels of golde which ye give it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof: and send it away, that it may goe.

And take heed, if it goe vp by the way of his owne coast to Bethshemesh, it is hee that did vs this great euill: but if not, we shall know then, that it is not his hand that hath done vs, but it was a chance that happened vs.

And the men did so: for they tooke two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calves at home.

So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

And the kine went the straight way to Bethshemesh, and kept one path and lowed as they went, & turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistims went after them, vnto the borders of Bethshemesh.

Now they of Bethshemesh were reaping their wheate harvest in the valley, & they lift vp their eyes, and spied the Arke, and reioiced when they saw it.

And the cart came into the field of Ioshua a Bethshemite, and stood stil there. There was also a great stone, & they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

And the Leuites tooke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Bethshemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.

And when the five princes of the Philistims had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askalon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one.

And golden mice according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to the five princes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in the field of Ioshua the Bethshemite.

And hee smote of the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: he slew euen among the people fiftie thousand men and threescore and ten men, and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter.

Wherefore the men of Bethshemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he goe from vs?

And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriathyearim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe and take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

The Arke is brought to Kiriathyearim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sinnes and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistims fight against Israel and are overcome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Israel.

Then the men of Kiriathyearim came, and tooke vp the Arke of the Lord, & brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the Arke of the Lord.

(For while the Arke abode in Kiriathyearim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres) and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

Then Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him onely, & he shall deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistims.

Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely.

And Samuel said, Gather al Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you vnto the Lord.

And they gathered together to Mizpeh and drew water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and said there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudgeth the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistims.

And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry vnto the Lord our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims.

Then Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it altogether for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuel cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder that day vpon the Philistims, & scattered them: so they were slaine before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh & pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntill they came vnder Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel tooke a stone and pitched it betweene Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ezer, and he said, Hitherto hath the Lord holpen vs.

13 ¶ So the Philistims were brought vnder, and they came no more againe into the coasts of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuel.

14 Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen to Gath: and Israel deliuered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: and there was peace betweene Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life,

16 And went about yeere by yeere to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and iudged Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward hee returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes Iudges ouer Israel, who followe not his steps. 5 The Israelites aske a King. 11 Samuel declareth in what State they should be vnder the King. 19 Notwithstanding they aske one still, and the Lord willesh Samuel to grant vnto them.

¶ When Samuel was now become old, he made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel.

2 (And the name of his eldest sonne was Ioel, and the name of the second Abiah) euen Iudges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, & tooke rewards and peruertered the iudgement.

4 ¶ Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Ramah,

5 And said vnto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: * make vs now a King to iudge vs like all nations.

6 But the thing ^d displeased Samuel, when they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they shall say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I should not reigne ouer them.

8 As they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt, euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so doe they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet ^e obsequie vnto them, & shew them the maner of the King that shall reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuel told all the words of the Lord vnto the people that asked a king of him.

11 And he said, This shall be the maner of the King that shall raigne ouer you: hee will take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charretts, and to be his horsemen, and some shall run before his charret.

12 Also hee will make them his captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer fifties, & to eare his ground, and to reape his harvest, and to make instruments of warre, and the things that serue for his charrets,

13 Hee will also take your daughters, and make them Apothecaries & cookes, & bakers,

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your best allue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and giue it to his Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And he will take your men seruants, and your maid seruants, & the chiefe of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 Hee will take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shall be his seruants.

18 And ye shall cry out at that day, because of your King, whom ye haue chosen you, and the Lord will not heare you at that day.

19 But the people would not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall be a King ouer vs.

20 And we also will be like all other nations, and our King shall iudge vs, and goe out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, he rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, ¶ Harken vnto their voyce, and make them a King. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Goe euery man vnto his citie.

10 When they came to the land of ^d Zuph, Saul saide vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne: lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs.

6 And he said vnto him, Behold now in this city is a man of God, and he is an honourable man: all that he saith commeth to passe: let vs now goe thither, if so bee that he can shew vs what way we may goe.

7 Then said Saul to his seruant, Well then, let vs goe: but what shall wee bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we?

8 And the seruant answered Saul againe, and said, Behold, I haue found about mee the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I giue the man of God to tell vs our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seeke an answer of God, thus hee spake, Come, and let vs goe to the Seer: for he that is called now a Prophet, was in the old time called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his seruant, Well said, come, let vs goe: so they went into the citie where the man of God was.

11 And as they were going vp the high way to the citie, they found maides that came out to draw water, and said vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and said, Yea, he is before you: make haste now, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an offering of the people this day in the hie place.

13 When ye shall come into the citie, yee shall finde him straight way ere hee come vp to the hie place to eat: for the people will not eat vntill he come, because hee will blesse the sacrifice: and then eat they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore go vp: for euen now shall ye find him.

14 Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the mids of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to goe vp to the hie place.

15 But the Lord had reuiled to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying, 16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin: him shalt thou anoint to be gouernor ouer my people Israel, that hee may saue my people out of the handes of the Philistines: for I haue looked vpon my people, & their crie is come vnto me.

17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, he shall rule my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the mids of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: go vp before me vnto the hie place:

for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morow I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three dayes agoe, care not for them, for they are found, and on whom is for all the desire of Israel? is it not vpon thee, and on all thy fathers house?

21 But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my family is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his seruant, and brought them into the chamber, & made them sit in the chiefe place among them that were bidden, which were about thirtie persons.

23 And Samuel sayd vnto the cooke, Bring forth the portion which I gaue thee, and whereof I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee.

24 And the cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was vpon it, and set it before Saul: And Samuel sayd, Behold, that which is left, set it before thee and eat: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I haue called the people. So Saul did eate with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come downe from the hie place into the citie, he communed with Saul vpon the top of the house.

26 And when they arose early about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel.

27 And when they were come downe to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant goe before vs, (and hee went, but stand thou still now, that I may shew thee the word of God.

1 Saul is anointed king by Samuel. 9 God changes Sauls heart, and he prophesieth. 17 Samuel assemblith the people, and sheweth them their finnes. 21 Saul is chosen king by lot. 25 Samuel writeth the kings office.

Then Samuel tooke a vial of oyle, and powred it vpon his head, and kissed him, and said, Hath not the Lord annointed thee to be gouernor ouer his inheritance?

2 When thou shalt depart from me this day thou shalt finde two men by Rahels sepulchre in the border of Benjamin, euen at Zelzah, and they will say vnto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seeke, are found: and loe, thy father hath lett the care of the asses and foroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my sonne?

3 Then shalt thou go forth from thence, and shalt come to the plaine of Eabor, and there shall meete thee three men going vp to God to Beth-el: one carying three kids, and another carying three loaves of bread, and another carying a bottle of wine:

18 ¶ And when they came thither to the hill, behold, the company of Prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came vpon him, and hee prophesied among them.

19 Therefore all the people that knew him before, when they saw that hee prophesied among the Prophets, said each to other, What is come vnto the sonne of Kish? * Is Saul also among the Prophets?

20 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

21 And when he had made an end of prophe-sying, he came to the hie place.

22 And Sauls vnkle said vnto him, and to his seruant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

23 And Sauls vnkle saide, Tell mee, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you.

24 Then Saul said to his vnkle, He told vs plainly that the asses were found: but concerning the kingdome wherof Samuel spake, told he him not.

25 ¶ And Samuel assembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpeh.

26 And hee said vnto the children of Israel, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hands of all kingdomes that troubled you.

27 But ye haue this day cast away your God, who only deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: and yee said vnto him, No, but appoint a king ouer vs. Now therefore stand yee before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your thousands.

28 And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was taken.

29 Afterward hee assembled the tribe of Benjamin according to their families, and the family of Matti was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, he could not be found.

30 Therefore they asked the Lord againe, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Behold, he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe.

31 And they ran, and brought him thence:
and when he stood among the people, hee was higher then any of the people from the shoulders vpward.

32 And Samuel said to all the people, See yee not him whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?
and all the people shouted and said, God saue
the king.

33 Then Samuel told the people the dutie of the kingdom, & wrote it in a booke, and laid it vp before the Lord, and Samuel sent all the people away euery man to his house.

34 Saul also went home to Gibeah, & there followed him a band of men, whose heart God had touched.

35 But the wicked men said, How shall he saue vs? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his tongue.

Then Nahash the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabesh Gilead: and all the men of Iabesh said vnto Nahash, Make a couenant

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition wil I make a couenant

10 Therefore the men of Iabesh sayd, To morrow we will come out vnto you, and yee shall do with vs all that pleaseth you.

11 And when the morow was come, Saul put the people in three bands, and they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites vntill the heat of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slay them.

13 But Saul sayd, There shall no man die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel.

14 Then sayd Samuel vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgal, and renewe the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul king there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

CHAP. XII.

1 Samuel declaring to the people his integritie, reproveth their ingratitude. 19 God by miracle causeth the people to confesse their sinne. 20 Samuel exhorteth the people to follow the Lord.

Samuel then sayd vnto all Israel, Beholde, I haue hearkened vnto your voice in all that ye said vnto mee, and haue appointed a king ouer you.

2 Now therefore behold, your King walketh before you, and I am olde and gray headed, and behold, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childhood vnto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: beare record of mee before the Lord, & before his anointed. Whose ox haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whom haue I done wrong to? or whom haue I hurt? or of whose hand haue I receiued any bribe, to blinde mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you?

4 Then they sayde, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

5 And he said vnto them, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his anointed is witnesse this day, that yee haue found nought in mine hands. And they answered, He is witnesse.

6 Then Samuel sayd vnto the people, It is the Lord that made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand stil, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the righteousnesses of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to your fathers.

8 After that Iakob was come into Egypt, & your fathers cried vnto the Lord, then the Lord sent Moses & Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgate the Lord their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistims, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried vnto the Lord, and sayd, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Ashtaroth. Now therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enemies, and we will serue thee.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Jerubbaal and Bedan, and Iphrah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euery side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 Notwithstanding when you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, yee said vnto me, No, but a king shall reigne ouer vs: when yet the Lord your God was your king.

13 Now therefore behold the king whome ye haue chosen, and whom ye haue desired: loe therefore, the Lord hath set a king ouer you.

14 If ye will feare the Lord and serue him, and heare his voice, and not disobey the word of the Lord, both ye, and the king that reigneth ouer you, shall follow the Lord your God.

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but disobey the Lords mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be vpon you, and on your fathers.

16 Now also stand and see this great thing which the Lord will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not now wheate haruest? I will call vnto the Lord, and hee shall send thunder and raine, that yee may perceiue and see, how that your wickednesse is great, which yee haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a king.

18 Then Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people sayde vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruants vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a king, beside all our other finnes.

20 And Samuel said vnto the people, Feare not, (ye haue in deed done all this wickednes, yet depart not from following the Lord, but serue the Lord with all your heart, 21 Neither turne ye back: for that should be after vaine things which cannot profit you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanity)

CHAP. XIII.

¹ The Philistines are enemies of Saul & Jonathan. ² Saul being disobedient to Gods commandment, is shew'd of Samuel that he shall not reigne. ³ The great slavery, wherein the Philistines kept the Israelites.

Saul now had bene king one yeere, and hee reigned twentie yeeres ouer Israel.

2 Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and a mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent euery one to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistims that was in the hill: and it came to the Philistims eies: and Saul blew the trumpet thorowout all the land, saying, Heare, O ye Ebrewes.

4 And all Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garison of the Philistims: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistims: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ The Philistims also gathered themselves together to fight with Israel thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seas side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmash Eastward from Beth-aen.

6 And when the men of Israel sawe that they were in a traite (for the people were in distresse) the people hid themselves in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in towres, and in pits.

7 And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iordan vnto the land of Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people for feare followed him.

8 And he taried seuen daies according vnto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

10 And as soone as he had made an ende of offering the burnt offering, beholde, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meet him, to salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Then Saul said, Because I sawe that the people was scattered from mee, and that thou camest not within the dayes appoynted, and that the Philistims gathered themselves together to Michmash.

12 Therefore said I, The Philistims will come downe now vpon me, to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lord, I was bolde therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had now established thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

14 But now thy kingdome shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to bee gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal in Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbred the people that were found with him, about fixe hundred men.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his sonne, & the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistims pitched in Michmash.

17 And there came out of the hoste of the Philistims three bandes to destroy, one band turned vnto the way of Ophrah vnto the land of Shual.

18 And another band turned toward the way to Beth-horon, & the third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

19 Then there was no smith found thorowout all the land of Israel: for the Philistims sayd, Lest the Ebrewes make them swords or speares.

20 Wherefore, all the Israelites went downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euery man his share, his mattock, and his axe, and his weeding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattocks, and for the pickforks, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goads.

22 So when the day of battell was come, there was neither sword nor speare found in the handes of any of the people that were with Saul and with Jonathan: but only with Saul and Jonathan his sonne was there found.

23 And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAP. XIII.

14 Jonathan & his armor bearer put the Philistims to flight.

24 Saul bindeth the people by an oath, not to eat til evening.

32 The people eat with the blood. 38 Saul would put Jonathan to death. 45 The people deliuer him.

Then on a day Jonathan the sonne of Saul said vnto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs goe ouer toward the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the other side, but he told not his father.

2 And Saul taried in the border of Gibeah vnder

^g The Lord was where they were, & when the Lord was there, the Lord was there.

^a By this example God would declare to Israel that the victory did not consist in multitude or armour, but only came of his great under a pomegranate tree, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about six hundred men.

3 And Ahiah the sonne of Ahitub, * Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, was the Lords Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Jonathan sought to goe ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The one rock stretched from the North toward Michmash, and the other was from the South toward Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these ^b yncircumcised: it may bee that the Lord will worke with vs: for it is not hard to the Lord * to saue with many, or with few.

7 And he that bare his armour, sayd vnto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: goe where it pleaseth thee: behold, I am with thee as thine heart desireth.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we go ouer vnto those men, and will shew our selues vnto them.

9 ¶ If they say on this wise to vs, Tary vntill we come to you, then wee will stand still in our place, and not go vp to them.

10 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then wee will goe vp: for * the Lord hath deliuered them into our hand: and this shall bee a signe vnto vs.

11 So they both shewed themselves vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, See, the Ebrewes come out of the holes wherein they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garison answered Jonathan & his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for wee will shew you a thing. Then Jonathan sayd vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

13 So Jonathan went vp vpon ^f his handes and vpon his feet, & his armor bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer slew others after him.

14 So the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour bearer made, was about twentie men, as it were within halfe an acre of land, which two oxen plow.

15 And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the field, and among all the people: the garison also, & they that went out to spoile, were afraid themselves: and the earth trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God.

16 ¶ Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin saw: and beholde, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.

17 Therefore said Saul vnto the people that were with him, Search now and see, who is gone from vs. And when they had numbred, behold, Jonathan and his armour bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel)

19 ¶ And while Saul talked vnto the Priest, the noise that was in the hoste of the Philistims spread further abroad, and increased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell: and beholde, * euery mans sword was against his fellowe, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreouer, the Ebrewes that were with the Philistims before time, & were come with them into all parts of the hoste, euen they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battell.

23 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Beth-auen.

24 ¶ And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an oath, saying, I Cursed bee the man that eateth food till night, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, and beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the ^m oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rodde that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes receiued fight.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed bee the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.

29 Then sayde Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a little of this hony:

30 How much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoile of their enemies which they found? for had there not bene now a greater slaughter among the Philistims?

31 ¶ And they smote the Philistims that day, from Michmash to Aiialon: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 So the people turned to the spoyle, and tooke

33 Then men told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eate with the blood. And he said, Ye haue trespassed: for oule a great stone vnto me this day.

34 Againe Saul said, Go abroad among the people, and bid them bring mee euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe; and slay them here, and eate and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hand that night, and slew them there.

35 Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, and that was the first altar that hee made vnto
the Lord.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let vs goe downe after the Philistims by night, and spoyle thein vntill the morning shine; and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they said, Doe whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let vs draw neere hither vnto God.

37 So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I goe downe after the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 ¶ And Saul said, * All ye chiefes of the people, come yee hither, and know, and see by whom this sinne is done this day.

39 For as the Lord liueth, which saueth Israel, though it be done by Jonathan my sonne, he shall die the death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will bee on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, Doe what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue a perfit lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lot betweene me and Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell mee, what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and loe, I must die.

44 Againe Saul answered, God doe so and more also, vnlesse thou die the death, Jonathan.

45 And the people said vnto Saul, f Shal Ionathan die, who hath so mightily deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liueth, there shal not one haire of his head fall to the ground: for hee hath wrought with God this day. So the people deliuered Jonathan that he died not.

46 Then Saul came vp from the Philistims, and the Philistims went to their owne place.

47 ¶ So Saul held the kingdom ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, & against the Philistims: and whiche-soeuer he went, hee handled them as wicked men.

48 He gathered also an host, and smote A-malek, and deliuered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sonnes of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named Michal.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine was Abner the son of Ner, Sauls vncle.

51 And Kish was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner, was the sonne of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistims all the dayes of Saul: and * whomsoeuer Saul saw to bee a strong man, and meete for the warre, he tooke him vnto him.

CHAP. XV.

3 Saul is commanded to slay Amalek. 9 Hee spareth Agag and the best things. 19 Samuel reproveth him. 28 Saul is reiect of the Lord, and his kingdom given to another.
33 Samuel heweth Agag in pieces.

A Forward Samuel sayde vnto Saul, * The Lord sent me to anoint thee king ouer his people, ouer Israel: now therefore obey the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, * how they laid wait for them in the way, as they came vp from Egypt.

3 Now therefore go and smite Amalek, and destroy yee all that pertaineth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant & suckling, both oxe, and sheepe, both camell, and asse:

4 And Saul assembled the people, and ¶ numbred them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footemen, and ten thousand men of Iudah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, ¶ and set watch at the riuier.

6 And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Go, depart, and get you downe fro among the Amale-kites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed d mercy to all the children of Israel, when they came vp from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 So Saul smote the Amalekites from Ha-uilah, as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt,

8 And tooke Agag the king of the Amale-kites aliue, and destroyed al the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheepe, and the oxen, and the fat beasts, & the lambes, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them: but euery thing that was vile, and nought worth, that they destroyed.

18. 19.

11 Is^e repenteth he that I haue made Saul King: for he is turned from mee, and hath not performed my commandements. And Samuel was moued, and cryed vnto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel arose early to meet Saul in the morning, one told Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel: and behold, hee hath made him there a place, from whence hee returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal.

13 ¶ Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord: I haue fulfilled the commandment of the Lord.

14 But Samuel said, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheepe to mine eares, and the lowing of the oxen, which I heare?

15 And Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed.

16 Againe Samuel said to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuel said, When thou wast a little in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee king ouer Israel.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Goe, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroy them.

19 Now wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voice of the Lord, but hast turned to the pray, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul said vnto Samuel, Yea, I haue obeyed the voice of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent mee, and haue brought Agag the king of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people tooke of the spoyle, sheepe, and oxen, and the chiefeſt of the things which should haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voice of the Lord is obeyed? behold, * to obey is better then sacrifice, and to hearken is better then the fat of Rammes.

23 For¹ rebellion is as the sinne of witchcraft, and transgression is wickednesse and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, therefore he hath cast away thee from being king.

24 Then Saul said vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore I pray thee, take away my sinne, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuel said vnto Saul, I wil not re- turne with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be king ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himselfe to goe away, he caught the lap of his coate, and it rent.

28 Then Samuel said vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, and hath giuen it to thy¹ neighbour, that is better then thou.

29 For indeede the strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man that hee should repent.

30 Then he said, I haue sinned: but honour me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel; and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 ¶ So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul: and Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came vnto him pleasantly, and Agag said, Truly the^a bitterness of death is passed.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childlesse, so shall thy mother be childlesse among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 ¶ So Samuel departed to^a Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul vntill the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord^a repented that hee made Saul king ouer Israel.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samuel is reproved of God, and is sent to anoint David. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The Spirit of the Lord commeth vpon David. 14 The wicked Spirit is sent vpon Saul. 19 Saul sendeth for David.

THe Lord then said vnto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourne for Saul, seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fill thine horn with oyle & come, I will send thee to Ishai the Bethlehemit, for I haue prouided me a king among his sonnes.

2 And Samuel said, How can I goe? for if Saul shall heare it, hee will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer^t with thee, and say, I am come^b to doe sacrifice to the Lord.

3 And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt doe, and thou shalt anoint vnto mee him whome I name vnto thee.

4 So Samuel did that the Lord bad him, and came to Bethlehem, and the Elders of the towne were aslonied at his comming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Yea, I am come to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

16 And the Philistim drewe neere in the morning, and euenings, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Ishai said vnto Dauid his sonne, Take now for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched borne, and thiese ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren.

18 Also carie these ten fresh cheeses vnto the captaine, and looke how thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge.

19 (Then Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistims.)

20 ¶ So Dauid rose vp early in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Ishai had commanded him, and came within the compasse of the hoste: and the host went out in aray, and shouted in the battel.

21 For Israel and the Philistims had put themselves in aray, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the things, which hee bare, vnder the hands of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the host, & came, and asked his brethren how they did.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, the man that was betwene the two armies, came vp, (whose name was Goliath the Philistim of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistims, and spake such wordes, and Dauid heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel when they saw the man, ratine away from him, and were fore afraid.

25 For euery man of Israel said, Saw yee not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come vp: & to him that killeth him, will the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house free in Israel.

26 ¶ Then Dauid spake to the men that stood with him, and said, What shal be done to the man that killeth this Philistim, and taketh away the shame from Israel? for who is this vncircumcised Philistim, that he should reuile the host of the liuing God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, Thus shal it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was very angry with Dauid, and said, Why comest thou downe hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheepe in the wildernes? I know thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29 Then Dauid said, What haue I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same matter, and the people answered him according to the former words.

31 ¶ And they that heard the words which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought.

32 So Dauid said to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruant will goe, and fight with this Philistim.

33 And Saul said to Dauid, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of war from his youth.

34 And Dauid answered vnto Saul, Thy seruant kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a lion, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke, 35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 So thy seruant slewe both the lion, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shall be as one of them, seeing he hath railed on the host of the liuing God.

37 ¶ Moreover Dauid said, The Lord that deliuered mee out of the paw of the Lion, and out of the paw of the beare, he will deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saul said vnto Dauid, Goe, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saul put his raiment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Then girded Dauid his sword vpon his raiment, and began to goe: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid said vnto Saul, I can not goe with these: for I am not accustomed, wherefore Dauid put them off him.

40 Then tooke hee his staffe in his hand, and chose him five smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherds bagge or skrip, and his sling was in his hand, and hee drew neere to the Philistim.

41 ¶ And the Philistim came and drew neere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now when the Philistim looked about and saw Dauid, hee disdained him: for hee was but yong, ruddie, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistim said vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou comest to mee with stauces? And the Philistim cursed Dauid by his gods.

44 And the Philistim said to Dauid Come to me, & I will giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beasts of the field.

45 ¶ Then said Dauid to the Philistim, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a speare, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the host of Israel, whom thou hast railed vpon.

46 This day shall the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I will giue the carkeises of the host of the Philistims, this day vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beasts of her that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistims may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David: Thou shalt this day be my sonne in lawe in the one of the twaine.

22 And Saul commaunded his seruants, Speake with David secretly, and say, Behold, the King hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: bee now therefore the Kings sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these words in the eares of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to bee a King's sonne in lawe, seeing that I am a poore man and of small reputation?

24 And then Sauls seruants brought him word againe, saying, such words spake David.

25 And Saul said, This wife shall wee say to David, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistims, to bee a token of the Kings enemies: for Saul thought to make David fall into the hands of the Philistims.

26 And when his seruants tolde David these words, it pleased David well, to bee the Kings sonne in lawe: and the dayes were not expired.

27 Afterward David arose with his men, and went and slew of the Philistims two hundred men: and David brought their foreskins, and they gaue them wholly to the King, that he might bee the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saul gaue him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saul saw, and understood that the Lord was with David, and that Michal the daughter of Saul loued him.

29 Then Saul was more and more afraid of David, and Saul became alway Davids enemy.

30 And when the Princes of the Philistims went forth at their going forth, David behaued himselfe more wisely then all the seruants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Jonathan declareth to David the wicked purpose of Saul. 2 Michal his wife saueth him. 3 David commeth to Samuel. 4 The spirit of prophesie commeth on Saul.

Then Saul spake to Jonathan his sonne, and to all his seruants, that they should kill David: but Jonathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to David.

2 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, & abide in a secret place, and hide thy selfe.

3 And I will goe out and stand by my father in the field where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what he saith, and will tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake good of David vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruant, against Da-uid: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his workes haue bene to thee very good.

5 For he did put his life in danger, and slew the Philistim, and the Lord wrought a great saluation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycdest: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slay David without cause?

6 Then Saul hearkened vnto the voice of Jonathan, and Saul sware, As the Lord lieth, he shall not be killed. So Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those words, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and hee was in his presence as in times past.

7 Against the warre began, and David went out and fought with the Philistims, and slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

8 And the quill spirit of the Lord was vpon Saul, as hee sat in his house hauing his speare in his hand; and David played with his harp.

9 And Saul intended to smite David to the wall with the speare: but hee turned aside out of Sauls presence, and hee smote the speare against the wal: but David fled, and escaped the same night.

10 Saul also sent messengers vnto Davids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Davids wife told it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morrow thou shalt be slaine.

11 So Michal let David downe thorow a window, and hee went, and fled, and escaped.

12 Then Michal tooke an image, and laide it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goats haire vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

13 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, hee said, He is sicke.

14 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see David, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

15 And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed, with a pillow of goats haire vnder the head of it.

16 And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked mee so, and sent away mine enemy, that hee is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, Hee said vnto me, Let me goe, or else I will kill thee.

17 So David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

18 But one told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

19 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw a company of Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed ouer them, the Spirit of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

CHAP. XX.

Jonathan com. for Dauid. 3. They renue their league. 33. Saul would have killed Jonathan. 38. Jonathan aduerseth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathersurie.

And Dauid fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came & said before Jonathan, What haue I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that hee seeketh my life?

2 And he said vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will doe nothing great for small, but hee will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? hee will not doe it.

3 And Dauid sware againe and said, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes: therefore hee thinketh, Jonathan shall not know it, lest hee be forie: but in deede, as the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, there is but a step betweene me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer thy soule requireth, that I will doe vnto thee.

5 And Dauid said vnto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the first day of the moneth, and I should sit with the King at meate: but let me goe, that I may hide my selfe in the fields vnto the third day at euen.

6 If thy father make mention of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem to his owne citie: for there is a yeerely sacrifice for all that family.

7 And if he say thus, It is well, thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickednesse is concluded of him.

8 So that thou shew mercie vnto thy seruant: for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquitie, slay thou me: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knew that wickednesse were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said Dauid to Jonathan, Who shall tell mee? how shall I know, if thy father answer thee truly?

11 And Jonathan said to Dauid, Come and let vs goe out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Jonathan said to Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde to morrow at this time, or within this three daies, and if it bee well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shew it thee, 13 The Lord doe so and much more vnto Jonathan: but if my father haue minde to doe thee euill, I will shew thee also, and send thee away, that thou maiest goe in peace: and the Lord be with thee, as hee hath bene with my father.

14 Likewise I require not while I liue: for I doubt not but thou wilt shew me the mercie of the Lord, as thou hast done.

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euery one from the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a bond with the house of Dauid, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Jonathan sware vnto Dauid, because hee loued him (for hee loued him as his owne soule).

18 Then said Jonathan to him, To morrow is the first day of the moneth: and thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shall be emptye.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe three daies, then thou shalt goe downe quickly and come to the place where thou diddest hide thy selfe, when this matter was in hand; and shalt remaine by the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot at a marke.

21 And after I will send a boy, saying, Goe seeke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is well with thee & no hurt: as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I say thus vnto the boy, Behold the arrowes are beyond thee, goe thy way: for the Lord hath sent thee away.

23 As touching the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, behold, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 So Dauid hid himselfe in the field: and when the first day of the moneth came, the king sate to eate meate.

25 And the King sate, as at other times, vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wal, and Jonathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was emptye.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for hee thought, Some thing hath befallen him, though hee were cleane, or els because hee was not purified.

27 But on the morrow which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptye.

18 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid required of me, that he might goe to Bethlechem.

19 For he said, Let me goe, I pray thee: for our family offereth a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now, if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren: this is the cause that hee commeth not vnto the Kings table.

20 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and said vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishai to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

21 For as long as the sonne of Ishai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not bee established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he shall surely die.

22 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shal he die? what hath he done?

23 And Saul cast a speare at him to hit him, whereby Jonathan knewe, that it was determined of his father to slay Dauid.

24 So Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for hee was sorie for Dauid, and because his father had reuiled him.

25 On the next morning therefore Jonathan went out into the field, at the time appointed with Dauid, and a little boy with him.

26 And he said vnto his boy, Run now, seeke the arrowes which I shoot: and as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

27 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

28 And Jonathan cried after the boy, Make speed, haste and stand not still: and Jonathans boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master.

29 But the boy knew nothing: only Jonathan and Dauid knew the matter.

30 Then Jonathan gaue his bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, and said vnto him, Goe, cary them into the citie.

31 As soone as the boy was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was toward the South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both twaine, till Dauid exceeded.

32 Therefore Jonathan said to Dauid, Goe in peace: that which wee haue sworne both of vs in the Name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be betweene me and thee, and betweene my seede and betweene thy seede, let it stand for euer.

43 And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the citie.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He getteth of him the shewbread to satisfie his hunger. 7 Doeg Sauls seruant was present. 10 Dauid fleeth to king Achish. 13 and there faineth himselfe mad.

Then came Dauid to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meeting of Dauid, and said vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And Dauid said to Ahimelech the Priest, The King hath commaunded mee a certaine thing, and hath said vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I send thee, and what I haue commaunded thee: and I haue appointed my seruants to such and such places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hand, giue me fiue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, and said, There is no common bread vnder mine hand, but here is hallowed bread, if the young men haue kept themselves, at least from women.

5 Dauid then answered the Priest, and said vnto him, Certainly women haue bin separate from vs these two or three dayes since I came out: and the vessels of the yong men were holy, though the way were prophane, and how much more then shall euery one bee sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gaue him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, save the Shewbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saul abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the chiefeft of Sauls heardmen)

8 And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sword? for I haue neither brought my sword nor mine harnesse with me, because the Kings businesse required haste.

9 And the Priest saide, The sword of Goliath the Philistin, whome thou slewest in the valley of Elah, beholde, it is wrapt in a cloth behinde the Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that heere: And Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

10 And Dauid arose and fled the same day from the presence of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the seruants of Achish saide vnto him, Is not this Dauid the King of the land? did they not sing vnto him in daunces, saying, Saul hath slaine his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand?

12 And Dauid considered these wordes, and was fore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

CHAP. XXII.

1 David hideth him selfe in a cave. 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him. 3 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 4 Saul causeth the Priests to be slaine. 5 Abiathar escapeth.

David then fore departed thence, and faued himselfe in the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren & all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble, and all men that were in debt, and all those that were vexed in mind, and hee was their prince, and there were with him about foure hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpeh in Moab, and said vnto the king of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I know what God will do for mee.

4 And hee brought them before the King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the holde.

5 And the Prophet Gad said vnto David, Abide not in the holde, but depart and goe into the land of Iudah. Then David departed and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ And Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remained in Gibeah vnder a tree in Ramah, hauing his speare in his hand, and all his seruants stood about him.

7 And Saul sayde vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare now, ye sonnes of Iemini, will the sonne of Ishai giue euery one of you fields and vineyards: will he make you all captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds:

8 That all yee haue conspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a covenant with the sonne of Ishai? and there is none of you that is sorie for mee, or sheweth me that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruant to lie in wait against me, as appeareth this day.

9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite (who was appointed ouer the seruants of Saul) and said, I saw the sonne of Ishai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub.

10 Who asked counsell of the Lord for him, and gaue him vitales, and he gaue him also the sword of Goliath the Philistim.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, and the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the king.

12 And Saul sayd, Heare now, thou sonne of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 Then Saul said vnto him, Why haue ye conspired against me, thou and the sonne of Ishai, in that thou hast giuen him vitale, and a sword, and hast asked counsell of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lie in wait, as appeareth this day?

14 ¶ And Ahimelech answered the king, and said, Who is so faithfull among all thy seruants as David, being also the kings sonne in law, and goeth at thy commandment, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Haue I this day first begun to aske counsell of God for him? be it faile from me, let not the king impute any thing vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruant knew nothing of all this, lesse nor more.

16 Then the King sayd, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house.

17 And the King said vnto the Sergeants that stood about him, Turne, & slay the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when hee fled, and shewed it not to mee. But the seruants of the king would not moue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord.

18 Then the king said to Doeg, Turne thou and fall vpon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priests, and slewe that same day foure score and fite persons that did weare a linnen Ephod.

19 Also Nob the cite of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both childe and suckling, both ox and asse, and sheepe, with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sonnes of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David, that Saul had slaine the Lords Priests.

22 And David sayd vnto Abiathar, I knew it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with mee, and feare not: for he that seeketh my life, shall seeke thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safegard.

CHAP. XXIII.

5 David chaseth the Philistims from Keilah, and remaineth in the wilderness of Ziph. 16 Jonathan comforteth David. 28 Sauls enterprise is broken in pursuing David.

Then they tolde David, saying, Behold, the Philistims fight against Keilah, and spoile the barnes.

^b That is, in the mids of Iudah, much more when we come to the borders against our enemies.

4 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, and said, Arise, go downe to Keilah: for I will deliuer the Philistims into thine hand.

5 ¶ So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistims, & brought away their cattell, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keilah, he brought an Ephod^d with him.)

^c By Gods providence the Ephod was preserved and kept with Dauid the true king.

7 ¶ And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saul saide, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing hee is come into a citie that hath gates and barres.

8 Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to besiege Dauid and his men.

9 ¶ And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod.

^d To consult with the Lord by Urim and Thummim.

10 Then saide Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, thy seruant hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the citie for my sake.

11 Will the lords of Keilah deliuer mee vp into his hand? and will Saul come downe, as thy seruant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tel thy seruant. And the Lord said, He will come downe.

^e Or, gaurdnours.

12 Then said Dauid, Will the lords of Keilah deliuer mee vp, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliuer thee vp.

13 ¶ Then Dauid and his men, which were about fixe hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whither they could. And it was told Saul, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, and he left off his iourney.

^f Or, to and fro, at having no certain place to go to.

but Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came vp the Ziphims to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doe not Dauid hide himselfe by vs in holds, in the wood in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side of Ieshimon?

ⁱ Or, of the wilderness.

20 Now therefore, O king, come downe according to all that thine heart can desire, and our part shall bee to deliuer him into the kings hands.

21 Then Saul said, Be yee blessed of the Lord: for ye haue had compassion on me.

^g The Lord recompense this friendship.

^b In your country of Ziph, which is in Iudah.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but Dauid and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plaine on the right hand of Ieshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they told Dauid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he followed after Dauid in the wilderness of Maon.

ⁱ Which was also in the tribe of Iudah, Iosh. 15 55.

26 And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: and Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed Dauid and his men round about, to take them.

^k Thus the Lord can pull back the bridle of the tyrants, and deliuer his out of the Lyons mouth.

27 But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistims haue inuaded the land.

29 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing Dauid, and went against the Philistims. Therefore they called that place, Sela-hammahlekoth.

into thine hand, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good to thee. Then Dauid arose and cut off the lap of Sauls garment priuily.

d For seeing it was his owne priuie cause, he repented that he had touched his enemy.

6 And afterward Dauid was touched in his heart, because hee had cut off the lap which was on Sauls garment.

7 And he said vnto his men, The Lord keep me from doing that thing vnto my master the Lords Anointed, to lay mine hand vpon him: for he is the anointed of the Lord.

8 So Dauid ouercame his seruants with these wordes, and suffered them not to arise against Saul: so Saul rose vp out of the caue, and went away.

9 Dauid also arose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, Dauid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed him selfe.

e Contrary to the false report of them that said Dauid was Sauls enemy, he prooueth himselfe to be his friend.

10 And Dauid said to Saul, Wherefore givest thou an ear to mens wordes, that say, Behold, Dauid seeketh euill against thee?

11 Beholde, this day thine eyes haue seene, that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand in the caue, and some bade mee kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and saide, I will not lay mine hand on my master: for he is the Lords Anointed.

12 Moreover, my father, behold: behold, I say, the lap of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut off the lap of thy garment, I killed thee not. Vnde stand and see, that there is neither euill nor wickednesse in me, neither haue I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my soule, to take it.

13 The Lord bee iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

[Or, the prouerbs of an ancient man]

14 According as the olde prouerbe saith, Wickednesse proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee.

15 After whom is the King of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea?

16 The Lord therefore be Iudge, and iudge betweene thee and mee, and see, and pleade my cause, and deliuer me out of thine hand.

17 When Dauid had made an ende of speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? and Saul lift vp his voice, and wept.

f Though hee was a most cruel enemy to Dauid, yet by his great gentlenesse his conscience compelled him to yeild.

18 And said to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rendred mee good, and I haue rendred thee euill.

19 And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt well with mee: forasmuch as when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

21 For now behold, I know that thou shalt be king, and that the kingdome of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

22 Swear now therefore vnto mee by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my seede after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house.

23 So Dauid swore vnto Saul, and Saul went home: but Dauid and his men went vp vnto the holde.

Then Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and buried him in his owne house at Ramah. And Dauid arose, and went downe to the wilderness of Paran.

2 Now in Maon was a man, who had his possession in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie, and had three thousand sheepe, and a thousand goates: and he was shearing his sheepe in Carmel.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdom, and beautiful, but the man was churlish, & euill conditioned, and was of the family of Caleb.

6 And thus shall yee say for a salutation, Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperity.

7 Behold, I haue heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepheards were with vs, and we did them no hurt, neither did they misse any thing all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Aske thy seruants and they will shewe thee. Wherefore let these young men find fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) giue, I pray thee, whatsoever commeth to thine hand vnto thy seruants, and to thy sonne Dauid.

9 And when Dauids young men came, they told Nabal all these words in the name of Dauid, and held their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered Dauids seruants, and said, Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Ishai? there be many seruants now a dayes, that breake away euery man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I haue killed for my shearers, and giue it vnto men, whome I know not whence they be?

12 So Dauids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

13 And Dauid said vnto his men, Gird euery man his sword about him. And they girded euery man his sword: Dauid also girded his sword.

sword. And about foure hundred men went vp after Dauid, and two hundred abode by the carriage.

14 Now one of the seruants tolde Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Beholde, Dauid sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he refused on them.

15 Notwithstanding the men were very good vnto vs, and we had no displeasure, neither missed wee any thing as long as wee were conuersant with them, when wee were in the fields.

16 They were as a wall vnto vs both by night and by day, all the while wee were with them keeping sheepe.

17 Now therefore take heede, and see what thou shalt do: for euill will surely come vpon our master, and vpon all his family: for he is so wicked that a man cannot speake to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundred cakes, and two bottels of wine, and five sheepe ready dressed, and five measures of parched corne, and an hundred frailes of raisins, and two hundred of figges, and laded them on asses.

19 Then she said vnto her seruants, Go ye before me: behold, I will come after you: yet she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And as she rode on her asse, shee came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and behold, Dauid and his men came down against her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid said, In deed I haue kept all in vaine that this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of al that pertained vnto him: for he hath requited me euill for good.

22 So and more also doe God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for surely I will not leaue of all that he hath, by the dawning of the day, any that he pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw Dauid, shee hastened and lighted off her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, & said, Oh my Lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmaide speake to thee, and heare thou the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my Lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name: and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the yong men of my lord whom thou sentest.

26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, I say, that hath withholden thee from comming to shed blood, & that thine hand should not saue thee) so now thine enemies shalbe as Nabal, and they that intend to doe my lord euill.

27 And now, this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yong men that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee forgiue the trespass of thine handmaid: for the Lord will make my lord a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battles of the Lord, and none euill hath beene found in thee in all thy life.

29 Yet a man hath risen vp to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule, but the soule of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God, and the soule of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And when the Lord shall haue done to my lord, all the good that hee hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel.

31 Then shall it be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hath not shed blood cautelesse, nor that my lord hath not preferred himselfe: and when the Lord shall haue dealt well with my lord, remember thine handmaid.

32 Then Dauid sayd to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.

33 And blessed be thy counsell, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, and that mine hand hath not saued me.

34 For in deede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, who hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hastened and met mee, surely there had not beene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, Go vp in peace to thine house: behold, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue granted thy petition.

36 ¶ So Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a King, and Nabals heart was mery within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she tolde him nothing, neither lesse nor more, vntill the morning arose.

37 Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife told him those wordes, and his heart died within him, and hee was like a stone.

38 And about tenne dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

39 ¶ Now when Dauid heard, that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, & hath kept his seruant from euill: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednes of Nabal vpon his owne head. Also Dauid sent to commune with Abigail to take her to his wife.

40 And when the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed her selfe on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a seruant to wash the feete of the seruants of my lord.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Dauid was distressed vnto Saul by the Ziphims. 12 Dauid took away Sauls speare, & a pot of water that stood at his head. 21 Saul confesseth his sinne.

Againe the Ziphims came vnto Saul to Gibeah, saying, *Doeth not Dauid hide himselfe in the hill of Hachilah before Ieshimon?

2 Then Saul rose, and went downe to the wilderness of Ziph, hauing three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, for to seeke Dauid in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon by the way side. Now Dauid abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 (For Dauid had sent out spies, and vnderstood that Saul was come in very deed)

5 Then Dauid arose, & came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when Dauid beheld the place where Saul lay, and *Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chiefe captaine, (for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him)

6 Then spake Dauid, and said to Ahimelech the ^b Hittite, and to Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah, brother to ^c Ioab, saying, Who will go downe with me to Saul to the host? Then Abishai said, I will go downe with thee.

7 So Dauid and Abishai came down to the people by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his ^d head: and Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 ¶ Then said Abishai to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I will not smite him ^d againe.

9 And Dauid said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can liy his hand on the Lords anoynted, and be guiltlesse?

10 Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, either the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, for hee shall descend into battell, and perish.

11 The Lord keepe mee from laying mine hand vpon the Lords anoynted: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs go hence.

12 So Dauid tooke the speare and the pot of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any awake, but they were all asleepe: for the Lord had sent a dead sleepe vpon them.

13 Then Dauid went into the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off, a great space being betwene them.

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the sonne of Ner, saying, Hearst thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, and sayd, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 ¶ And Dauid said to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the folke in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This is not wel done of thee; as the Lord liueth, ye are ^e worthy to die, because yee haue not kept your master the Lords anoynted: and now see where the kings speare is, and the pot of water that was at his head.

17 And Saul knew Dauids voice, and saide, Is this thy voice, my sonne Dauid? And Dauid said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he sayd, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done? or what euill is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my lord the king heare the words of his seruant. If the Lord haue stirred thee vp against mee, ^f let him smel the saour of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, cursed bee they before the Lord: for they haue cast mee out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go serue other gods.

20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel is come out to seeke a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the mountaines.

21 Then sayd Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I will doe thee no more harme, because my soule was ^g precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly.

22 Then Dauid answered, and said, Behold the kings speare, let one of the yong men come ouer and fet it.

23 And let the Lord reward euery man according to his ^h righteousness and faithfulness: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine hands this day, but I would not lay mine hand vpon the Lords anoynted.

24 And behold, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to Dauid, Blessed art thou my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt do great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his ⁱ place.

not better for mee, that I saue my selfe in the land of the Philistims, and that Saul may haue no hope of me to seeke me any more in all the coasts of Israel, and I escape out of his hand?

2 David therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him went vnto Achish the sonne of Maach king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, every man with his household: David with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: so he sought no more for him.

5 And David said vnto Achish, If I haue now found grace in thine eyes, let them giue me a place in some other citie of the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why should thy seruant dwell in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

6 Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the kings of Iudah vnto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certaine dayes.

8 Then David and his men went vp, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Giritites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the lande from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparell, and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Where haue ye bene a roauing this day? And David answered, Against the South of Iudah, & against the South of the Ierahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.

11 And David saued neither man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Least they should tell on vs, and say, So did David, and so will be his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistims.

12 And Achish beleued David, saying, He hath made his people of Israel vtterly to abhorre him: therefore he shall bee my seruant for euer.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 David hath the chiefe charge promised about Achish. 8 Saul consulteth with a witch, and she causeth him to speake with Samuel. 18 Who declareth his ruine.

Now at that time the Philistims assembled their bands and armie to fight with Israel: therefore Achish said to David, Be sure, thou shalt goe out with me to the battell, thou, and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy seruant can doe. And Achish said to David, Surely I wil make thee keeper of mine head for euer.

3 (*Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him; & buried him in Ramah his owne citie: and Saul had put away the forcerers, and the Soothsayers out of the land)

4 Then the Philistims assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistims, he was afraid, and his heart was fore astonished.

6 Therefore Saul asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Vrim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul to his seruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Behold, there is a woman at Endor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saul changed himselfe, and put on other raiment, and hee went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him vp whom I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman said vnto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how hee hath destroyed the forcerers, and the Soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whome shall I bring vp vnto thee? And hee answered, Bring me vp Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, shee cryed with aloud voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued mee? for thou art Saul.

13 And the King said vnto her, be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saul, I saw gods ascending vp out of the earth.

14 Then he said vnto her, What fashion is he of? And she answered, An olde man cometh vp lapped in a mantle: & Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he enclined his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth mee no more neither by Prophets, neither by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tel me, what I shall doe.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then doest thou aske of me, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

17 Euen the Lord hath done to him, as he spake by mine hand: for the Lord will rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and giue it thy neighbour David.

19 Moreover the Lord will deliuer Israel with thee, into the hands of the Philistims: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sonnes bee with me, and the Lord shall giue the host of Israel into the hands of the Philistims.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid because of the words of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

21 Then the woman came vnto Saul, and saw that hee was sore troubled, and said vnto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voyce, and I haue pur my soule in mine hand, and haue obeyed thy words which thou saidest vnto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also vnto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate and get thee strength, and go on thy iourney.

23 But he refused and said, I will not eate: but his seruants & the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voyce: so he arose from the earth, and sate on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she halsted, and killed it, and tooke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it, vnleavened bread.

25 Then she brought them before Saul, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stood vp, and went away the same night.

e Would not Saul reueile him so fauour, (he could betray vs?)

Is not this David, of whom they sang in dances, saying, * Saul slew his thousand, and David his ten thousand? Chap. 18.7. and 21.11.

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, & said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vp-right & good in my sight when thou wentest out and in with me in the hoste, neither haue I found euill with thee, since thou camest to me vnto this day, but the princes doe not fauour thee.

d That is, with constant with me.

e Else thou art not good in the eyes of the princes.

7 Wherefore now returne, and go in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistims.

8 ¶ And David saide vnto Achish, But what haue I done? and what hast thou found in thy seruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not goe and fight against the enemies of my lord the King?

f This dissimulation cannot be excused: for it grieved him to goe against the people of God.

9 Achish then answered, and said to David, I know thou pleasest me, as an Angel of God: but the princes of the Philistims haue said, Let him not goe vp with vs to battell.

10 Wherefore now rise vp early in the morning with thy masters seruants that are come with thee: and when yee be vp early, as soone as ye haue light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose vp early to depart in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philistims: and the Philistims went vp to Izreel.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 2 Davids two wiues are taken prisoners. 3 The people would stone him. 4 He asketh counsell of the Lord, and pursuing his enemies, recovereth the pray. 5 He divideth it equally. 6 And sendeth part to his friends.

BT when David and his men were come to Ziklag, the third day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire.

a After that he departed from Achish.

b That is, destroyed the city.

2 And had taken the women that were therein prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a man, but caried them away, & went their wayes.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the citie, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

c For this only remained in the city, when the men were gone to waite.

4 Then David and the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more.

5 Davids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was in great sorrow: for the people intended to stone him, because the hearts of all the people were vexed euery man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but David comforted himselfe in the Lord his God.

d Thus we see that in trouble and aduersitie we do not consider Gods providence, but like raging beaues forget both our owne dutie, and contemne Gods appointment.

7 ¶ And David sayde to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs son, I pray thee, bring mee the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to David.

8 Then

k Which malice taken of David them before the eyes of the people.

8 Then Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? I shall I ouertake them? And he answered him, Follow: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and recover all.

9 ¶ So Dauid and the sixe hundred men that were with him, went, and came to the riuer Besor, where a part of them abode.

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behind, being two wearie to goe ouer the riuer Besor).

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to Dauid, & gaue him bread and he did eate, and they gaue him water to drinke.

12 Also they gaue him a few figs and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes, and three nights.

13 ¶ And Dauid said vnto him, To whom belondest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a yong man of Egypt, and seruant to an Amalekite: and my master left mee three dayes agoe, because I fell sicke.

14 We roued vpon the South of Chereth, and vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and wee burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And Dauid saide vnto him, Canst thou bring mee to this company? And hee saide, I sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer mee into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this company.

16 ¶ And when hee had brought him thither, beholde, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth, heating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great pray that they had taken out of the land of the Philistims, and out of the land of Iudah.

17 And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening of the next morrow, so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

18 And Dauid recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also Dauid rescued his two wiues.

19 And they lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recovered them all.

20 Dauid also tooke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattell, and said, This is Dauids pray.

21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundred men that were too wearie for to follow Dauid: whom they had made also to abide at the riuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid, and to meet the people that were with him: so when Dauid came neere to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the euill and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and said, Because they went not with vs, therefore will wee giue them none of the pray that we haue recovered, saue to euery man his wife and his children: therefore let them carie them away and depart.

23 Then said Dauid, Yee shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the company that came against vs into our hands.

24 For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth downe to the battell, so shall his part be, that tarieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike.

25 So from that day forward hee made it a statute and a law in Israel, vntill this day.

26 ¶ When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudah and to his friends, saying, See, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Beth-el, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Iattir, 28 And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa.

29 And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormah, and to them of Chor-ashan, and to them of Athach, 31 And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had haunted.

4 Then said Saul vnto his armour bearer, Draw out thy sword, and thrust mee thorow therewith, least the vncircumcised come and thrust mee thorowe and mocke mee: but his armour bearer would not, for hee was fore afraid. Therefore Saul tooke a sword, and fell vpon it.

5 And when his armour bearer sawe that Saul was dead, he fell likewise vpon his sword, and died with him.

THE SECOND BOOKE OF SAMUEL.

THE ARGUMENT.

This booke and the former, beare the title of Samuel, because they containe the conception, natiuitie and the whole course of his life, and also the lines and acts of two Kings, to wit, of Saul and Dauid, whom he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first booke containeth those things, which God brought to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel and Saul: so this second booke declareth the noble acts of Dauid, after the death of Saul, when hee began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles and dangers, which he sustained both within his house and without: what horrible and dangerous insurrections, uprores, and treasons were wrought against him, partly by false counsellors, fained friends and flatterers, and partly by some of his owne children and people: and how by Gods assistance he overcame all difficulties, and enioyed his kingdome in rest and peace. In the person of Dauid the Scripture setteth forth Christ Iesus the chiefe King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on euery side with outward and inward enemies, as well in his owne person, as in his members, but at length hee overcommeth all his enemies, and giveth his Church victorie against all power both spiritual and temporall: and so reigneth with them, King for euermore.

CHAP. I.

It was told Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He causeth him to be slaine that brought the tidings. 19 Hee lamenteth the death of Saul and Ionathan.

After the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and had bene two dayes in Ziklag, Beholde, a man came the third day out of the hoste from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: and when he came to Dauid, he fel to the earth, and did obeysance.

Then Dauid saide vnto him, Whence comest thou? And hee saide vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.

And Dauid saide vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tell me. Then hee saide, that the people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and dead, and also Saul, and Ionathan his sonne are dead.

And Dauid saide vnto the yong man that told it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his sonne be dead?

Then the yong man that told him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned vpon his speare, and loe, the charrets and horsemen followed hard after him.

And when he looked backe, he saw me, and called me, And I answered, Here am I.

And hee saide vnto mee, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

Then saide he vnto me, I pray thee come vpon me, and slay me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

So I came vpon him, and slew him, and because I was sure that hee could not liue, after that hee had fallen, I tooke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and brought them hither vnto my lord.

Then Dauid tooke hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

And they mourned and wept, and fasted vntill euen, for Saul and for Ionathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, & for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sword.

e After the lamentation, he examined him againe.

13 ¶ Afterward Dauid said vnto the yong man that told it him, whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

17/21, 105, 15

14 And Dauid said vnto him, *How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anointed of the Lord?

15 Then Dauid called one of his yong men, and said, Goe neere, and fall vpon him, And he smote him that he died.

f Thou art iustly punished for thy fault.

16 Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood be vpon thine own head: for thine own mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lords Anointed.

17 ¶ Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Jonathan his sonne.

18 (Also he bad them teach the children of Iudah to shoo, as it is written in the booke of *Ishai.)

g Thus they might be able to match their enemies to Philistines to that art; *Ishai, 10, 13. (Or, righteous, h Meaning, Saul. *Mich, 1, 10.

22 The bowe of Jonathan neuer turned backe, neither did the sworde of Saul returne emptie from the blood of the slaine, and from the fat of the mightie.

CHAP. II.

4 Dauid is anoynted king in Hebron. 9 Abner maketh Ish-bosheth king ouer Israel. 15 The battell of the seruants of Dauid and Ish-bosheth. 32 The buriall of Asahel.

a By the means of the priest, as 1 Sam. 23, 3. and 2 Sam. 5, 29.

¶ After this Dauid a asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shal I goe vp into any of the cities of Iudah? And the Lord said vnto him, Goe vp. And Dauid said, Whither shall I goe? He then answered, Vnto bHebron.

b Which cite also was called Kirjath arb, 10, 14, 15.

2 So Dauid went vp thither, and his two wiues also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And Dauid brought vp the men that were with him, every man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

c In the time of his persecution.

4 ¶ Then the men of Iudah came, and there they anoynted Dauid King ouer the house of Iudah. And they told Dauid, saying, *that the men of Iabesh Gilead buried Saul.

* 1 Sam. 31, 13.

5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord, that ye haue shewed such kindnesse vnto your lord Saul, that you haue buried him.

6 Therefore now the Lord shew mercie and d truth vnto you: and I will recompense you this benefit, because ye haue done this thing.

d According to his promise, which is to recompence them that are mercifull.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strong and be you valiant: albeit you master Saul bee dead, yet neuertheless the house of Iudah hath anointed me e King ouer them.

e So that you shall not want a captain and a defender.

8 ¶ But Abner the sonne of Ner that was captaine of Sauls hoste, tooke Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim, 9 And made him King ouer Gilead, and ouer the Ashurites, and ouer Izreel, & ouer Ephraim, and ouer Benjamin, and ouer f all Israel.

f Over the eleven tribes.

10 Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeere old when he began to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned two yeeres: but the house of Iudah followed Dauid.

11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebron ouer the house of Iudah, was seuen yeere and fixe g moneths) g After this time was expired, hee reigned ouer all the countrey 33 yeeres, Chap. 5, 5.

12 ¶ And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and the seruants of Dauid went out and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they fate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side of the poole.

14 Then Abner said to Ioab, Let the yong men now arise, and h play before vs. And Ioab said, Let them arise.

h Let vs see how they can handle their weapons.

15 Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Benjamin by number, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruants of Dauid.

16 And euery one caught i his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellows side, so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called j Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

i Meaning, his aduersarie.

j Or, the field of strong men.

17 And the battell was exceeding sore that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel k fell before the seruants of Dauid.

k After that these foure and twentie were slaine, 18 And there were three sonnes of Zeruiah there, Ioab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light on foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going hee turned neither to the right hande nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, & said,

Art thou Afahel? And he answered, Yea.

Or, spoile.

Why doest thou prouoke me to kill thee?

Some read in those parts, whereas the liuely parts lie, as the heart, the lungs, the liuer, the spleen and the gall.

Shall we not make an end of murdering?

If thou hadst not prouoked them to battell, as verse 14.

Or, wilderness.

Or, to the tents.

Thus God would confirme Dauid in his kingdom by the destruction of his aduersaries.

That is without intermission induring two yeeres, which was the whole reigne of Ishbosheth.

Who is called also Daniel, 1. Chron. 3. 1.

21 Then Abner said, Turne thee either to the right hand or to the left, & take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons: but Afahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner said to Afahel, Depart from mee: wherefor should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I be able to hold vp my face to Ioab my brother?

23 And when he would not depart, Abner with the hinder ende of the speare smote him vnder the fifth ribb, that the speare came out behind him: and he fell downe there, and died in his place. And as many as came to the place where Afahel fell downe and died, stood still.

24 Ioab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went downe, when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Gihon, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and were on an heape, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and saide, Shall the sword deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long then shal it be, ere thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27 And Ioab said, As God liueth, If thou hadst not spok'n, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euery one backe from his brother.

28 So Ioab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night thorow the plaine, and went ouer Iordan, and past thorow all Bithron till they came to Mahanaim.

30 Ioab also returned backe from Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, their lacke of Dauids seruants nineteene men and Afahel.

31 But the seruants of Dauid had smitten of Benjamin & of Abners men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they tooke vp Afahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and when they came to Hebron, the day arose.

CHAP. III.

1 Long warre betwene the houses of Saul and Dauid. 2 The children of Dauid in Hebron. 12 Abner turneth to Dauid. 27 Ioab killeth him.

There was then a long warre betwene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid: but Dauid waxed stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker.

2 And vnto Dauid were children borne in Hebron: and his eldest sonne was Amnon of Ahinoam the Iezreelite,

3 And his second was Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third Abalom the sonne of Maacah the daughter of Talmai the king of Ieshur,

4 And the fourth Adoniah the son of Haggith, and the fift Shephatiah the son of Abital,

5 And the sixt, Ithream by Eglah Dauids wife: these were borne to Dauid in Hebron.

c Within seven yeeres and fixe monethes.

6 Now while there was war betwene the house of Saul, and the house of Dauid, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aijah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my fathers concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I a dogs head, which against Iudah do shew mercie this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his neighbours, and haue not deliuered thee into the hande of Dauid, that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

d Doest thou esteeme me no more then a dog, for all my seruice done to thy fathers house?

9 So doe God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworne to Dauid, euen so I doe to him, e We follow the wicked, can not abide to be admonished of their faults, but seeke their displeasure which goe about to bring them from their wickednes.

10 To remooue the kingdome from the house of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may be stablished ouer Israel, and ouer Iudah, euen from Dan to Beer-sheba.

11 And he durst no more answer to Abner: for he feared him.

Or, firmly.

12 Then Abner sent messengers to Dauid on his behalfe, saying, Whose is the land? who should also say, Make couenant with me, and beholde, mine hand shall be with thee to bring all Israel vnto thee.

13 Who said, Well, I will make a couenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face, except thou bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou comest to see mee.

14 Then Dauid sent messengers to Ishbosheth Sauls sonne, saying, Deliuer mee my wife Michal, which I married for an hundred foreskins of the Philistims.

* 1 Sam. 18. 25.

15 And Ishbosheth sent, & tooke her from her husband Phaltiel the sonne of Laish.

* 1 Sam. 25. 44.

16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping behind her, vnto Bahurim: then said Abner vnto him, Goe, and returne: So hee returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Yee sought for Dauid in times past, that hee might be your King.

f Rather for malice that he bare toward Ishbosheth, then for love he bare to Dauid.

18 Now then doe it: for the Lord hath spoken of Dauid, saying, By the hande of my seruant Dauid I will saue my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistims, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 Also Abner spake to Benjamin, and afterward Abner went to speake with Dauid in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Benjamin.

g Ebr. in the name of Benjamin. h Who challenged the kingdome, because of their fathers Saul,

20 So Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, having twenty men with him, and Dauid made a feast vnto Abner, and to the men that were with him.

21 Then Abner said vnto Dauid, I will rise vp, and goe gather all Israel vnto my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reigne ouer all that thine heart desireth. Then Dauid let Abner depart, who went in peace.

22 ¶ And beholde, the seruants of Dauid and Ioab came from the campe, and brought a great pray with them (but Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron: for hee had sent him away, and he departed in peace.)

23 When Ioab, & all the hoste that was with him were come, men told Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Ioab came to the King, and sayde, What hast thou done? beholde, Abner came vnto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner:
for hee came to deceiue thee, and to know thy outgoing and ingoing, and to knowe all that thou doest.

26 ¶ And when Ioab was gone out from Dauid, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Siriah ynknowing to Dauid,

27 And when Abner was come againe to Hebron, * Ioab tooke him aside in the gate to speake with him peaceably, and smote him vnder the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of *Asahel his brother.

28 ¶ And when afterward it came to Da-uids eare, he said, I and my kingdom are ^k guilt-lesse before the Lord for euer, concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Ioab, and on all his fathers house, that the house of Ioab bee neuer without some that haue running issues, or leper, or that leaneth on a staffe, or that doeth fall on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Ioab and ^l Abishai his brother slewe Abner, because he had slaine their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battell)

31 And Dauid said to Ioab, & to al the people that were with him, Rent your clothes and put on sackcloth, and mourne before Abner:
And king Dauid himselfe followed the beere.

32 And when they had buried Abner in Hebron, the King lift vp his voyce, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented ouer Abner, and said, Died Abner as a foole dieth?

34 Thine hands were not bound, nor thy feet tied in fetters of brass: but as a man falleth before wicked men, so didst thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

35 Afterward all the people came to cause Dauid eat ^o meat while it was yet day, but Da-uid sware, saying, So doe God to mee and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else till the sunne be downe.

36 And all the people knew it, and it ^p pleased them: as whatsoeuer the king did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel vnder-stood that day, how that it was not the Kings deed that Abner the sonne of Ner was slaine.

38 And the King sayde vnto his seruants, Know yee not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weake and newly an-oynted king: and these men the sonnes of Zer-uah be too hard for me: the Lord reward the doer of euill according to his wickednes.

2 And Sauls sonne had two men that were the other called Rechab the sonnes of Rimmon

Beeroth was reckoned to Benjamin, king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne thine enemy, who fought after thy life:

and the Lord hath auenged my lord the King this day of Saul, and of his seed.

was dead, (thinking to haue brought good tidings) I tooke him and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would haue giuen him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more when wicked men haue slaine a righteous person in his owne house, and vpon his bed? shall I not now therefore require his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth?

12 Then Dauid commanded his yong men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them vpon the poole in Hebron: but they tooke the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAP. V.

3 Dauid is made king ouer all Israel. 7 He taketh the fort of Zion. 10 He asketh a wife of the Lord. 20 And ouercommeth the Philistims twice.

Then came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, and said thus, Beholde, wee are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a capitaine ouer Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the King to Hebron: and King Dauid made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed Dauid king ouer Israel.

4 Dauid was thirty yere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned fortie yeere.

5 In Hebron hee reigned ouer Iudah seven yeere and fixe moneths: and in Ierusalem he reigned thirty and three yeres ouer all Israel and Iudah.

6 The king also and his men went to Ierusalem vnto the Iebusites the inhabitants of the land: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that Dauid could not come thither.

7 But Dauid tooke the fort of Zion: this is the citie of Dauid.

8 Now Dauid had said the same day, Whosoever smiteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters and smiteth the lame and blinde, which Dauids soule hateth, I will preferre him: therefore they said, The blinde and the lame shall not come into that house.

9 So Dauid dwelt in that fort, and called it the city of Dauid, and Dauid built round about it, from Millo, and inward.

10 And Dauid prospered and grew: for the Lord God of hosts was with him.

11 Hiram also king of Tyrus sent messengers to Dauid, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons for walles: and they built Dauid an house.

12 Then Dauid knew that the Lord had stablished him king ouer Israel, & that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake, 13 And Dauid tooke him more concubines and wiues out of Ierusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and more sonnes and daughters were borne to Dauid.

14 And these be the names of the sonnes that were borne vnto him in Ierusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon,

15 And Ithar, and Eliphaz, and Nepheg, and Iaphia, 16 And Elifhama, and Eliada, and Eliphale.

17 But when the Philistims heard that they had anoynted Dauid King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke Dauid: and when Dauid heard, he went downe to a fort.

18 But the Philistims came, & spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

19 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe vp to the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into mine handes? And the Lord answered Dauid, Goe vp: for I will double the deliuer the Philistims into thine hands.

20 Then Dauid came to Baal-perazim, and smote them there, and said, The Lord hath diuided mine enemies asunder before mee, as waters be diuided asunder: therefore he called the name of that place, Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and Dauid and his men burnt them.

22 Again the Philistims came vp, & spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, hee answered, Thou shalt not goe vp, but turne about behind them, and come vpon them ouer against the mulberry trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberry trees, then remooue: for then shall the Lorde goe out before thee, to smite the hosts of the Philistims.

25 Then Dauid did so as the Lord had commanded him, and smote the Philistims from Geba, vntill thou come to Gazer.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Arke is brought forth of the house of Abinadab. 7 Zarah is stricken, and dieth. 14 Dauid danceth before it, 16 and is therefore despised of his wife Michal.

Dauid gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, enen thirtie thousande,

2 And Dauid arose and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name of the Lord of hostes, that dwelleth vpon it betwene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Arke of God vpon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in Gibeah. And Vzzah and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab did driue the new cart.

4 And when they brought the Arke of God

2 And David and all the house of Israel played before the Lorde on all instruments made of fure, and on harpes, and on Pfallteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

3 And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Vzzah put his hand to the Arke of God, and heide it: for the oxen did shake it.

4 And the Lord was very wroth with Vzzah, and God smote him in the same place for his fault, & there he died by the Arke of God.

5 And David was displeased, because the Lord had smitten Vzzah: and hee called the name of the place Perez Vzzah vntill this day.

6 Therefore David that day feared the Lord, and said, How shall the Arke of the Lord come to me.

7 So David would not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the cite of David, but David carried it into the house of Obed-edom, a Gittite.

8 And the Arke of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, three moneths, and the Lord blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

9 And one told king David, saying, *The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that hee hath, because of the Arke of God: therefore David went and brought the Arke of God from the house of Obed-edom into the cite of David with gladnesse.

10 And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord had gone fixe paces, he offered an ox, and a fat beaft.

11 And David daunced before the Lorde with all his might, and was girded with a linen Ephod.

12 So David & al the house of Israel brought the Arke of the Lord with shouting, and sound of trumpet.

13 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the cite of David, Michal Sauls daughter looked thorow a window, and sawe King David leape and dance before the Lord, and shee despiised him in her heart.

14 And when they had brought in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the mids of the Tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: then Dauid offered burnt offrings, and peace offrings before the Lord.

15 And assoone as David had made an end of offering burnt offrings and peace offrings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hostes,

16 And gaue among all the people, euen among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the womē as men, to euery one a cake of bread, and a peece of fleth, and a bottell of wine: so all the people departed euery one to his house.

17 Then David returned to blesse his house, & Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, O how glorious was the king of Israel this day, which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruants, as a ffoole vncouereth himselfe!

18 Then David saide vnto Michal, *It was before the Lord, which chole me rather then thy father, and all his house, and commanded me to bee ruler ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel: and therefore will I play before the Lord, 19 And will yet bee more vile then thus, and will be low in mine owne sight, and of the very same maid seruants, which thou hast spoken of, shall I be had in honour.

20 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child vnto the day of her death.

CHAP. VII.

1 David would build God an house, but is forbidden by the Prophet Nathan: 2 God putteth David in minde of his benefites: 3 Hee promisseth continuance of his kingdome and posterity.

Afterward when the king sate in his house, and the Lord had giuen him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 The king said vnto Nathan the Prophet, Behold, now I dwell in an house of cedar trees, and the Arke of God remaineth within the curtaines.

3 Then Nathan said vnto the King, Goe, and doe all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 And the same night the word of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying,

5 Goe and tell my seruant David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build me an house for my dwelling?

6 For I haue dwelt in no house since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt vnto this day, but haue walked in a tent and Tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I haue walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one worde with any of the tribes of Israel when I commanded the Iudges to feed my people Israel? or said I, Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees?

8 Now therefore so say vnto my seruant David, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, *I tooke thee from the sheepecoat following the sheepe, that thou mightest be ruler ouer my people, ouer Israel.

9 And I was with thee wherefoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Also I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their owne, and mooue no more, neither shall wicked people trouble them any more as beforetime.

Edom became Dauids seruants: and the Lord kept Dauid, whither soeuer he went.

15 Thus Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and iustice vnto all his peoples.

16 And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer uids sonnes were chiefe rulers.

CHAP. IX.

9 Dauid restoreth all the lands of Saul to Mephibosheth the sonne of Iessiah. 10 He appointeth Ziba to see to the proprie of his lands.

And Dauid said, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him mercy for Ionathans sake?

2 And there was of the household of Saul a seruant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him vnto Dauid, the king sayd vnto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, I thy seruant am hee.

3 Then the king said, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whome I may shew the mercy of God? Ziba then answered the king, Ionathan hath yet a sonne lame of his feete.

4 Then the King sayd vnto him, Where is he? And Ziba said vnto the king, Behold, hee is in the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar.

5 Then king Dauid sent, and tooke him out of the house of Machir the sonne of Am-miel of Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Saul was come vnto Da-uid, he fell on his face, and did reuerence. And Dauid said, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Behold thy seruant.

7 Then Dauid said vnto him, Feare not: for I will surely shewe thee kindnesse for Jonathan thy fathers sake, and will restore thee all the fieldes of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eate bread at my table continually.

8 And hee bowed himselfe, and said, What is thy seruant, that thou shouldest looke vpon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called Ziba Sauls seruant, and said vnto him, I haue giuen vnto thy masters sonne all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore and thy sonnes and thy seruants shall till the land for him, and bring in that thy masters sonne may haue food to eate.
And Mephibosheth thy masters sonne shall eat bread alway at my table (now Ziba had fiftene sonnes, and twenty seruants)

11 Then said Ziba vnto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commaunded his seruant, so shall thy seruant doe, that Mephibosheth may eate at my table, as one of the kings sonnes.

12 Mephibosheth also had a yong sonne named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were seruants vnto Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Ierusalem: for he did eat continually at the kings table, and was lame on both his feet.

CHAP. X.

4 The messengers of Dauid are villanously intreated of the king of Ammon. 7 Ioab is sent against the Ammonites.

After this the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his sonne reigned in his stead.

2 Then said Dauid, I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahash, as his father shewed kindnesse vnto mee. And Dauid sent his seruants to comfort him for his father. So Dauids seruants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that Dauid doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? hath not Dauid rather sent his seruants vnto thee, to search the city, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun tooke Dauids seruants, and shaued off the halfe of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, euen to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When it was told vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King sayd, Tarry at Jericho, vntill your beards be growen, then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Ara-mites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelue thousand men.

7 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the strong men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their army in aray at the entring in of the gate: and the Aramites of Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish-tob, and of Maacah were by themselues in the field.

9 When Ioab saw that the front of the bat-tel was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choise of Israel, and put them in aray against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people hee deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that hee might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me: and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

1. Be strong and let vs be valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

2. Then Ioab and the people that was with him, joynted in battell with the Aramites, who fled before him.

3. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abisai, and entered into the city. So Ioab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

4. And when the Aramites saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

Or, Esphrates.

6. When it was shewed Dauid, then hee gathered all Israel together, and passed ouer Jordan and came to Helem: and the Aramites set themselves in aray against Dauid, & fought with him.

g Which were the chiefest and most principall: for in all he destroyed 7000, as 1. Chro. 19. 18. or the souldiers which were in 700, charrets.

7. And the Aramites fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed a few hundred charrets of the Aramites, and fourtie thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of his hoste, who died there.

8. And when all the kings that were seruants to Hadazer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them. And the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

C H A P. XI.

1. The city Rabbah is besieged. 2. Dauid committeth adultery. 3. Vriah is slaine. 4. Dauid marieth Bath-sheba.

a The yeere following about the spring time. 1. Chro. 20. 1.

1. And when the yeere was expired in the time when kings go forth to battell, Dauid sent Ioab and his seruants with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but Dauid remained in Jerusalem.

b Whereupon he vied to rest at afternoone, as was read of Ish-bobeth, Chas. 4. 7.

2. And when it was euening tide, Dauid arose out of his bed, & walked vpon the rooffe of the kings palace: and from the rooffe he saw a woman washing herself: and the woman was very beautifull to looke vpon.

c Who was not an Israelite borne, but conuerted to the true religion. * Lewis, 15. 19. and 18. 19.

3. And Dauid sent and enquired what woman it was: and one sayd, Is not this Bath-sheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Vriah the Hittite?

4. Then Dauid sent messengers, and tooke her away: and shee came vnto him, and he lay with her: (now she was purified from her uncleannes, and she returned vnto her house.)

d Fearing lest she should be stoned according to the law.

5. And the woman conceived: therefore she sent and told Dauid, & said, I am with child.

6. Then Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send mee Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Vriah to Dauid.

7. And when Vriah came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

8. Afterward Dauid sayd to Vriah, Goe downe to thine house, and wash thy feet. So Vriah departed out of the kings palace, and the king sent a present after him.

e Dauid thought that if Vriah lay with his wife, his fault might be cloked.

9. But Vriah slept at the doore of the kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, & went not downe to his house.

10. Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Vriah went not downe to his house: and Dauid said vnto Vriah, Commest thou not from thy iourney? why didst thou not goe downe to thine house?

11. Then Vriah answered Dauid, The Arke and Israel, and Iudah dwell in tents: and my lord Ioab and the seruants of my lord abide in the open fieldes: shall I then goe into mine house to eate and drinke, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not doe this thing.

f Hereby God would touch Dauids conscience, that seeing the fidelity & religion of his seruants, he would declare himselfe so forgetfull of God & iniurious to his seruants.

12. Then Dauid saide vnto Vriah, Tarry yet this day, and to morrow I will send thee away. So Vriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13. Then Dauid called him, & he did eate and drinke before him, and he made him drunk: and at euening hee went out to lie on his couch with the seruants of his lorde, but went not downe to his house.

g He made him drinke more liberally then he was wont to do, thinking hereby he would have lien by his wife.

14. And on the morrow Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Vriah.

15. And hee wrote thus in the letter, Put ye Vriah in the forefront of the strength of the battell, and reule ye backe from him, that hee may be smitten, and die.

h Escape God continually vphold vs with his mighty spirit, the most perfect fall headlong into all vice and abomination.

16. So when Ioab besieged the city, he assigned Vriah vnto a place, where hee knew that strong men were.

17. And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Ioab: and there fell of the people of the seruants of Dauid, and Vriah the Hittite also died.

18. Then Ioab sent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre.

19. And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an ende of telling all the matters of the warre vnto the king,

20. And if the kings anger arise, so that he say vnto thee, Wherefore approached yee vnto the city to fight? knew ye not that they would hurle from the wall?

i Thou shalt doe this.

21. Who smote Abimelech sonne of Ierubesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone vpon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? why went you nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead.

i Meaning, Gideon, Iudg. 9. 53. 54.

22. So the messenger went, and came, and shewed Dauid all that Ioab had sent him for.

23. And the messenger saide vnto Dauid, Certainly the men preuailed against vs, and came out vnto vs into the field, but we pursued them vnto the entring of the gate.

i Ebr. went againe thum.

24. But

14 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy servants, and some of the kings servants be dead: and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

15 Then David said vnto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say vnto Ioshabab. Let not this thing trouble thee: for the sword deuoureth one as well as another: make thy battell more strong against the citie, and destroy it, and on courage thou shalt.

16 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

17 So when the mourning was past, David sent and tooke her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but sheathing that David had done displeased the Lord.

CHAP. XII.

David reproveth by Nathan confesseth his sinne. 18 The child conceived in adulterie died.

19 Rehabeah takes. 20 The citizens are grievedly punished.

21 ¶ Then the Lord sent Nathan vnto David, who came to him, & said vnto him, There were two men in one citie, the one rich, and the other poore.

22 The rich man had exceeding many sheepe and oxen.

23 But the poore had none at all, save one little sheepe which hee had bought, and nourished vp: and it grew vp with him, and with his children also, and did eate of his owne morsels, and dranke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosome, and was vnto him as his daughter.

24 ¶ Now there came a stranger vnto the rich man, who refused to take of his owne sheepe, and of his owne oxen to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him, but tooke the poore mans sheepe, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

25 ¶ Then David was exceeding wroth with the man, and said to Nathan, As the Lord liueth, the man that hath done this thing, I shall surely die.

26 And hee shall restore the lambe * foure fold, because he did this thing, and had no pitie thereof.

27 ¶ Then Nathan said to David, Thou art the man, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, * I anointed thee king ouer Israel, and deliuered thee out of the hand of Saul, 28 And gaue thee thy lords house, and thy lords wiues into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israel, and of Iudah, and would moreover (if that had bene too little) haue giuen thee * such and such things.

29 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandement of the Lord, to doe euill in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to bee thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

30 Now therefore the sword shall neuer depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

31 ¶ Thus sayeth the Lord, Behold, I will raise vp * euill against thee out of thine owne house, and will * take thy wiues before thine eyes, and giue them vnto thy neighbour, and hee shall lie with thy wiues in the sight of this sinne.

32 For thou didst it secretly: but I will doe this thing before all Israel, and before the sunne.

33 ¶ Then David said vnto Nathan, * I haue sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said vnto David, The Lord also hath put away thy sinne: thou shalt not die.

34 ¶ Howbeit because by this deepe thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child that is borne vnto thee shall surely die.

35 ¶ So Nathan departed vnto his house: and the Lord stroke the child that Uriahs wife bare vnto David, and it was sicke.

36 David therefore besought God for the child, and fasted, and went in, and lay all night vpon the earth.

37 ¶ Then the Elders of his house arose to come vnto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground, but he would not, neither did hee eate with them.

38 So on the seventh day the child died: and the seruants of David feared to tel him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was alieue, we spake vnto him, and hee would not hearken vnto our voice: how then shall we say vnto him, The child is dead, to vex him more?

39 But when David saw that his seruants whispered, David perceiued that the child was dead: therefore David said vnto his seruants, Is the child dead? And they sayd, He is dead.

40 ¶ Then David arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himselfe, and changed his apparell, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped, and afterward came to his owne house, & bade that they should fet bread before him, and he did eate.

41 ¶ Then said his seruants vnto him, what thing is this that thou hast done? thou diddest fast and weepe for the child while it was alieue, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise vp, and eate meate.

42 And he said, While the child was yet alieue, I fasted, and wept: for I sayd, Who can tell whether God will haue mercie on me, that the child may liue?

43 But now being dead, wherefore should I now fast? Can I bring him again any more? I shall goe to him, but hee shall not returne to mee.

29 So David gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and took it.

30 And he took their kings crowne from his head, (which weighed a talent of golde, with precious stones) and it was set on Davids head: and hee brought away the spoile of the city in exceeding great abundance.

31 And hee carried away the people that was therein, and put them vnder sawes, and vnder yron harrowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the tile kilne: euen thus did hee with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

CHAP. XIII.

14 Amnon Dauid's sonne defileth his sister Tamar. 20 Tamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Amnon.

Now after this, so it was, that Absalom the son of David having a faire sister, whose name was Tamar, Amnon the sonne of David loued her.

2 And Amnon was so fore vexed, that hee fell sicke for his sister Tamar: for shee was a virgine, and it seemed hard to Amnon to doe any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah Davids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtil man.

4 Who said vnto him, Why art thou the kings sonne so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tell mee? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab said vnto him, Lie downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shall come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come and giue me meate, and let her dresse meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay downe, and made himselfe sicke: and when the King came to see him, Amnon said vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make mee a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Goe now to thy brother Ammons house, and dresse him meate.

8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Ammons house, and hee lay downe: and shee tooke flour, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And shee tooke a pan, and powdered them out before him; but hee would not eate. Then Amnon said, Cause yee every man to goe out from me: so every man went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said vnto Tamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which shee had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when shee had set them before him to eate, hee took her, and said vnto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, doe not force me: for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: commit not this folly.

13 And I, whicher shall I cause my shame to go, and thou shalt be as one of the fooles in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, speake to the king, for he will not denie me vnto thee.

14 Howbeit hee would not hearken vnto her voice but being stronger then shee, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith hee hated her, was greater then the loue, where with he had loued her: and Amnon said vnto her, Vp; get thee hence.

16 And shee answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me: but he would not heare her.

17 But called his seruant that serued him, and said, Put this woman now out from mee, and locke the doore after her.

18 (And shee had a garment of diuers colours vpon her: for with such garments were the kings daughters that were virgins apparelled.) Then his seruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the garment of diuers colours which was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went her way crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother beene with thee? Now yet be still, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom said vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And after the time of two yeeres, Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim, and Absalom called all the kings sonnes.

Abfalom reconciled, and I. L. Samuell brought to the king.

I pray thee, that the King with his seruants would goe with thy ferbant.

25 But the king answered Abfalom, Nay my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not goe all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee. Yet Abfalom lay fore vpon him: howbeit he would not goe but thanked him.

26 Then said Abfalom, But I pray thee, that not my brother Amnon goe with vs? and the king answered him, Why should hee goe with thee?

27 But Abfalom was insatiate vpon him, and hee sent Amnon with him, and all the kings children.

28 ¶ Now had Abfalom commaunded his seruantes, saying, Marke now when Ammons heart is merie with wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnon, kill him, feare not, for haue not I commaunded you? be bold therefore, and play the men.

29 And the seruants of Abfalom did vnto Amnon as Abfalom had commaunded: and all the kings sonnes arose, and euery man gat him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And while they were in the way, tidings came to Dawd, saying, Abfalom hath slaine all the kings sonnes, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the ground, and all his seruants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Ionadab the sonne of Shimeab, Dauids brother answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slaine all the yong men the Kings sonnes: for Amnon onely is dead, because Abfalom had reported so, since he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing so grievously, to thinke that all the kings sonnes are dead: for Amnon onely is dead.

34 ¶ Then Abfalom fled: and the yong man that kept the watch, lift vp his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behinde him.

35 And Ionadab said vnto the King, Behold, the kings sonnes come: as thy seruant said, so it is.

36 And as soone as he had left speaking, behold, the kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voices, and wept: and the king also and all his seruants wept exceedingly sore.

37 But Abfalom fled away, and went to P Talmi the son of Ammihur king of Geshur: and David mourned for his sonne euery day.

38 So Abfalom fled, and went to Gesgur, and was there three yeeres.

39 And king David desired to goe foorth vnto Abfalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

of Abfalom. 30 He conseth Ioab to be burnt, and is brought to his fathers presence.

¶ Then Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah perceived that the kings heart was toward Abfalom.

2 And Ioab sent to Tekoah, and brought thence a subtile woman, and said vnto her, I pray thee, faigne thy selfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparell, and anointe nothy selfe with oyle: but bee as a woman that had new long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the King, and speake on this manner vnto him: (for Ioab taught her what she should say.)

4 ¶ Then the woman of Tekoah spake vnto the king, and fell downe on her face to the ground, and did obeysaunce, and said, Helpe, O king.

5 Then the king said vnto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeede a widow, and mine husband is dead:

6 And thine handmaid had two sonnes, and they two stroue together in the field: (and there was none to part them) so the one smote the other and slew him.

7 And behold, the whole familie is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the soule of his brother whom he slew, that wee may destroy the heire also: so they shall quench my sparkle which is left, and shall not leaue to mine husband neither name nor posteritie vpon the earth.

8 And the king said vnto the woman, Goe to thine house, and I will giue a charge for thee:

9 Then the woman of Tekoah saide vnto the king, My lord, O king, this trespassed be on me, and on my fathers house, and the king and his throne be guiltlesse.

10 And the King said, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shal touch thee no more.

11 Then said shee, I pray thee, let the king remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, lest they slay my sonne. And he answered, As the Lord liueth, there shal not one haire of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, I pray thee, let thine handmaid speake a word to my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 Then the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? or why doeth the King, as one which is faultie, speake this thing, that hee will not bring againe his banished?

14 For we must needs die, and wee are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered vp againe: neither doeth God spare any person, yet doeth he appoint meanes, not to cast out from him, him that is expelled.

17 Therefore thine handmaid ſaid, The word of my lord the king ſhall now be comfortable: for my lord the king is ſen as an Angel of God in hearing all good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and ſaide vnto the woman, Hide not from me: I pray thee, the thing that I ſhall aſke thee. And the woman ſaid, Let my lord the king now ſpeake.

19 And the king ſide, Is not the hand of loab with thee all this? Then the woman answered, and ſaid, As thy ſoule liueth, my lord the king, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the king hath ſpoken: for euen thy ſeruant loab bad me, and he put all theſe words in the mouth of thine handmaide.

20 For to the intent that I ſhould change the forme of ſpeech, thy ſeruant loab hath done this thing: but my lord is wiſe according to the wiſedome of an Angel of God to vnderſtand all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king ſaid vnto loab, Behold now, I haue done this thing: goe then; and bring the yong man Abſalom againe.

22 And loab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himſelfe, and I thanked the king. Then loab ſaid, This day thy ſeruant knoweth, that I haue found grace in thy ſight, my lord the king, in that the king hath fulfilled the requelt of his ſeruant.

23 ¶ And loab aroſe, and went to Geſhur, and brought Abſalom to Ieruſalem.

24 And the king ſaid, Let him turne to his owne houſe, and not ſee my face. So Abſalom turned to his owne houſe, and ſaw not the kings face.

25 Now in all Iſrael there was none to bee ſo much praiſed for beautie as Abſalom: from the ſole of his foote cuen to the top of his head there was no blemiſh in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at euery yeres end he polled it: becauſe it was too heauie for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the haire of his head at two hundred ſhekels by the kings weight.

27 And Abſalom had three ſonnes, and one daughter named Tamar, which was a faire woman to looke vpon.

28 ¶ So Abſalom dwelt the ſpace of two yeres in Ieruſalem, and ſaw not the kings face.

29 Therefore Abſalom ſent for loab to ſend him to the king, but he would not come to him: and when he ſent againe he would not come.

30 Therefore he ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Behold, loab hath a field by my place, and hath barley therein: goe, and ſet it on fire, and Abſaloms ſeruants ſet the field on fire.

31 Then loab aroſe, and came to Abſalom vnto his houſe, and ſaid vnto him, Wherefore haueſty ſeruants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Abſalom answered loab, Behold, I ſent for thee, ſaying, Come thou hither, and I will ſend thee to the King for to ſay, Wherefore art thou come from Geſhur? I had bene better for me to haue bene there ſtill: now therefore let me ſee the Kings face: and if there bee any treſpaſſe in me, let him kill me.

33 Then loab came to the King, and told him: and hee called for Abſalom, who came to the King, and bowed himſelfe to the ground on his face before the King, and the king kiſſed Abſalom.

3 Then Abſalom ſaid vnto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee.

18 And all his ſeruants went about him, and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, euen ſixe hundred men which were come after him from Gath, went before the king.

31 Then one told David, ſaying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conſpired with Abſalom: and David ſaid, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the counſell of Ahithophel into fooliſhneſſe.

32 ¶ Then David came to the toppe of the mount where he worſhipped God: and behold, Huſhai the Archite came againſt him with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of King Dauid: and all the people, and all the men of warre were on his d right hand, and on his left.

d That is, round about him.

7 And thus saide Shimei when hee curseth, Come forth, come forth thou † murderer, and † wicked man.

† Ebr. many blood.
† Ebr. man of Belial.

8 The Lord hath brought vpon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath deliuered thy kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy sonne: and behold, thou art taken in thy wickednesse, because thou art a murderer.

e Reproching him as though by his meanes Ish-bosheth and Abner were slaine.

9 Then said Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah vnto the king, Why doeth this * dead dogge curse my lord the king? let me goe, I pray thee, and take away his head.

* 2 Sam. 24. 15. and chap. 3. 8.

10 ¶ But the king said, What haue I to doe with you, yee sonnes of Zeruiah? for he curseth euen because the Lord hath bidden him curse Dauid: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

f Dauid felt that this was the judgement of God for his sinne, and therefore humbleth himselfe to his rod.

11 And Dauid said to Abishai, and to all his seruants, Behold, my sonne which came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then how much more now may this sonne of Iemini? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

12 It may bee that the Lord will looke on mine affliction, and doe me good for his cursing this day.

g Or, my teares. Meaning, that the Lord will send comfort to his when they are oppressed.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountaine ouer against him, and curseth as hee went, and threw stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the king and all the people that were with him weary, and refreshed themselves there.

h To wit, at Babilon.

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Ierusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Absalom, Hushai saide vnto Absalom, † God saue the King, God saue the King.

† Ebr. Let the King liue.

17 Then Absalom said to Hushai, is this thy kindnesse to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

i Meaning, Dauid.

18 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, Nay, but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel chuse, his will I bee, and with him will I dwell.

† Ebr. the second time.

19 And † moreouer vnto whom shall I doe seruice? not to his sonne? as I serued before thy father, so will I before thee.

20 ¶ Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsell what we shall doe.

21 And Ahithophel saide vnto Absalom, Goe into thy fathers concubines, which hee hath left to keepe the house: and when all Israel shall heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.

k Suspecting the change of the kingdom, and so his owne ouerthrow, he giueth such counsell as might most hinder his fathers reconciliation: and also declare to the people that Absalom was in highest authority.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsell of Ahithophel which hee counsell'd in those dayes, was like as one had asked † counsell at the oracle of God: so was all the counsell of Ahithophel both with Dauid and with Absalom.

l It was so esteemed for the success thereof.

CHAP. XVII.

7 Ahithophels counsell is overthrown by Hushai. 14 The Lord had so ordained: 19 The Priests sonnes are hid in the well. 22 Dauid goeth over Iordan. 23 Ahithophel hangeth himselfe. 27 They bring it ailes to Dauid.

Moreouer Ahithophel saide to Absalom, Let me chuse out now twelue thousand men, and I will vp and follow after Dauid this night, a The wicked are so greedy to execute their malice, that they leaue none occasion, that may further the same.

2 And I will come vpon him: for hee is wearie, and weake handed: so I will feare him, and all the people that are with him, shall flee and I will smite the king onely.

3 And I will bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, (the man whom thou seekest being slaine) all the people shall be in peace.

b Meaning Dauid.

4 And the saying † pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel.

† Ebr. was right in the eyes of Absalom.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let vs heare likewise what he saith.

† Ebr. what is in his mouth.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shall wee doe after his saying, or no? tell thou.

Or giues such counsell.

7 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsell that Ahithophel hath giuen, is not good at this time.

8 For, saide Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong men, and are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriour, and will not lodge with the people.

c Hushai sheweth himselfe faithfull to Dauid, in that hee reprooueth this wicked counsell and purpose.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and though some of them be overthrown at the first, yet the people shall heare, and say, The people that follow Absalom, † be ouerthrowen.

† O, terris all night.

† Ebr. haue a breach, or mine.

10 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a Lion, shall shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men.

† Ebr. melt.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beersheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou goe to battell in thine owne person.

12 So

12 So shall wee come vpon him in some place, where we shal find him, and || we will vpon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we will not leaue him one.

13 Moreover if he be gotten into a city, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that city, and we wil draw it into the riuer, vntill there be not one small stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsell of Hushai the Archite is better then the counsell of Ahithophel: for the Lord had || determind to destroy the good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring euill vpon Absalom.

15 Then sayde Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priestes, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsell Absalom: and thus and thus haue I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tarry not this night in the fields of the wilderness, but rather get thee ouer, lest the king bee deuoured and all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by || En-rogel: (for they might not be seen to come into the city) and a maid went, and told them, and they went and shewed king Dauid.

18 Neuertheles a yong man saw them, and told it to Absalom, therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And the wife tooke and spread a couering ouer the wels mouth, and spread ground corne thereon, that the thing should not bee knowne.

20 And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brook of water. And when they had sought them, and could not find them, they returned to Ierusalem.

21 And as soone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde king Dauid, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for such counsell hath Ahithophel giuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iorden vntill the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iorden.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsell was not followed, hee sadled his asse, and arose, and he went home vnto his citie, and put his housholde in order, and hanged himselfe, and died, and was buried in his fathers graue.

24 ¶ Then Dauid came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed ouer Iorden, he, and al the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa capitaine of the host in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mans son named Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Iobabs mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the sonne of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lo-debar, and Barze-lai the Gileadite out of Rogel

28 Brought beds, and basens and earthen vessels, and wheate, and barley, and floure, and parched corne, and beanes, and lentiles, and parched corne.

29 And they brought hony, and butter, and sheep, and cheefe of kine for Dauid and for the people that were with him to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirstie in the wilderness.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Dauid diuideth his armie into three parts. 9 Absalom is hanged, slaine, and cast in a pit. 33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Absalom.

Then Dauid numbred the people that were with him, and set ouer them captaines of thousands, and captaines of hundreds.

2 And Dauid sent forth the third part of the people vnder the hand of Ioab, & the third part vnder the hand of Abishai Iobabs brother the son of Zeruiah: and the other third part vnder the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king sayde vnto the people, I will goe with you my selfe also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not goe forth: for if we flee away, they wil not regard vs, neither will they passe for vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worth ten thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 Then the king said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that I will do. So the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Ioab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard when the king gaue all the captaines charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meet Israel, and the battell was in the wood of Ephraim:

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, even of twenty thousand.

8 ¶ For the battell was scattered ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured much more people that day then did the sword.

9 ¶ Nowe Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head head caught hold of the oke, and he was taken vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him went away.

10 And one that saw it, tolde Ioab, saying, Behold, I saw Abfalom hanged in an oke.

11 Then Ioab said vnto the men that tolde him, And hast thou in deede seene? why then didst not thou there strike him to the ground, and I would haue giuen thee ten shekels of siluer, and a girdle?

12 Then the man said vnto Ioab, Though I should receiue a thousand shekels of siluer in mine hand, yet would I not lay mine hand vpon the kings sonne: for in our hearing the king charged thee, and Abihai, and Itai, saying, Beware, lest any touch the yong man Abfalom.

13 If I had done it, it had bene the danger of my life: for nothing can bee hid from the king: yea, thou thy selfe wouldest haue bene against me.

14 Then said Ioab, I will not thus tary with thee. And he tooke three darts in his hand, and thrust them thorow Abfalom, while he was yet alieue in the mids of the oke.

15 And ten seruants that bare Iobas armor, compassed about and smote Abfalom, and slew him.

16 Then Ioab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Ioab held backe the people.

17 And they tooke Abfalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a mighty great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euery one to his tent.

18 Now Abfalom in his life time had taken and reared him vp a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he said, I haue no sonne to keepe my name in remembrance, and hee called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Abfaloms place.

19 ¶ Then saide Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok, I pray thee let me run, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hath deliuered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Ioab said vnto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the kings sonne is dead.

21 Then sayd Ioab to Cush, Go, tell the King what thou hast seene. And Cush bowed himselfe vnto Ioab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Ioab, What, I pray thee, if I also run after Cush? And Ioab said, Wherefore now wilt thou run, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I run? Then he said vnto him, Run, So Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cush.

24 Now Dauid sat between the two gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate vpon the wall, and lift vp his eyes, and saw, and behold, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cryed, and tolde the King. And the King sayd, If he be alone, hee bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew neere.

26 And the watchman sawe another man running, & the watchman called vnto the porter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the King said, Hee also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the formost is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok. Then the king sayde, Hee is a good man, and commeth with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said vnto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fell downe to the earth vpon his face before the king, & sayd, Blessed bee the Lord thy God, who hath shut vp the men that lift vp their handes against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the yong man Abfalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Ioab sent the kings seruant, and me thy seruant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what.

30 And the king sayd vnto him, Turne aside, and stand here, so he turned aside and stood still.

31 And behold, Cush came, and Cush said, Tidings my lord the king: for the Lord hath deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

32 Then the king sayd vnto Cush, Is the yong man Abfalom safe? And Cush answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to doe thee hurt, bee as that yong man is.

33 And the King was moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my sonne Abfalom, my sonne, my sonne Abfalom: would God I had dyed for thee, O Abfalom my sonne, my sonne.

CHAP. XIX.

7 Ioab encourageth the king. 8 Dauid is restored. 23 Shimai is pardoned. 24 Mephiboseth meeteth the king. 39 Barzillai departeth. 41 Israel striueth with Iudah.

And it was told Ioab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Abfalom.

2 Therefore the victory of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The king sorroweth for his sonne.

3 And the people went that day into the city secretly, as people confounded hide themselves when they flee in battell.

4 So the king hid his face, and the king cried with a loude voyce, My sonne Abfalom, Abfalom my sonne, my sonne.

5 ¶ Then Ioab came into the house to the king, and sayd, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruants, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, wives, and the liues of thy concubines.

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy Princes nor seruants: therefore this day I perceiue, that if Absalom had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that then it would haue pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore vp, come out, and speake comfortably vnto thy seruants: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there will not tary one man with thee this night, and that will be worse vnto thee then all the euill that fel on thee from thy youth hitherto.

8 Then the king arose, and sate in the gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled euery man to his tent.

9 ¶ Then all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saued vs out of the hand of our enemies, and he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philistims, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed ouer vs, is dead in battell: therefore why are yee so slow to bring the king againe?

11 But King Dauid sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priestes, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudah, and say, Why are ye behind to bring the king againe to his house, (for the saying of all Israel is come vnto the king, even to his house)

12 Yee are my brethren: my bones, and my flesh are ye: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the king againe?

13 Also say yee to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captaine of the hoste to me for euer in the roome of Ioab.

14 So hee bowed the hearts of all the men of Iudah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the king, saying, Returne thou with all thy seruants.

15 ¶ So the King returned, and came to Iorden. And Iudah came to Gilgal, for to goe to meete the King, and to conduct him ouer Iorden.

16 ¶ And Shimei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini, which was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Iudah to meet king Dauid, 17 And a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fiftene sonnes and twentie seruants with him: and they went ouer Iorden before the king.

18 And there went ouer a boate to carie ouer the Kings household, & to doe him pleasure. Then Shimei the sonne of Gera fell before the king, when he was come ouer Iorden,

19 And said vnto the king, Let not my lord

impute wickednes vnto me, nor remember the thing that thy seruant did wickedly when my lord the king departed out of Ierusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For thy seruant doeth know, that I haue done amisse: therefore behold, I am the first this day of all the house of Ioseph, that am come to go downe to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah answered, and saide, Shall not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the Lords anointed?

22 And Dauid said, What haue I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that this day ye should be aduersaries vnto me? shal there any man die this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king ouer Israel?

23 Therefore the King sayd vnto Shimei, Thou shalt not die, and the king sware vnto him.

24 ¶ And Mephiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the king, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the king departed, vntill he returned in peace.

25 And when hee was come to Ierusalem, and met the King, the King sayde vnto him, Wherefore wentest thou not with me, Mephiboseth?

26 And hee answered, My lord the king, my seruant deceiued me: for thy seruant sayd, I would haue mine asse saddled to ride thereon, for to goe with the king, because thy seruant is lame.

27 And hee hath accused thy seruant vnto my lord the king: but my lord the king is as an Angel of God: doe therefore thy pleasure.

28 For all my fathers house were but dead men before my lord the king, yet didst thou set thy seruant among them that did eate at thine owne table: what right therefore haue I yet to crie any more vnto the king?

29 And the king sayd vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue said, Thou and Ziba diuide the lands.

30 And Mephiboseth said vnto the king, Yea, let him take all, seeing my lord the king is come home in peace.

31 ¶ Then Barzillai the Gileadite came downe from Rogelim, and went ouer Iorden with the king to conduct him ouer Iorden.

32 Nowe Barzillai was a very aged man, enue fourescore yeere olde, and he had prouided the king of sustenance, while he lay at Mahanaim: for hee was a man of very great substance.

33 And the king said vnto Barzillai, Come ouer with me, and I will feed thee with mee in Ierusalem.

34 And Barzillai said vnto the king, † How long haue I to liue, that I should go vp with the king to Ierusalem?

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go with me, and I will do to him that thou shalt bee content with: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 So all the people went ouer Iordan: and the king passed ouer: and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, and he returned vnto his owne place.

40 ¶ Then the king went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the king, and also halfe the people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said vnto the king, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudah stolen thee away, and haue brought the king and his household, and all Dauids men with him ouer Iordan?

42 And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is neere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eaten of the kings cost, or haue we taken any bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and sayd, Wee haue ten parts in the king, & haue also more right to Dauid then ye: Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not bee first had in restoring our king? And the words of the men of Iudah were fiercer then the words of the men of Israel.

CHAP. XX.

1 Sheba rayseth Israel against Dauid. 10 Joab killeth Amasa traitorously. 22 The head of Sheba is deliuered to Joab. 23 Dauids chiefe officers.

Then there was come thither a wicked man (named Sheba the sonne of Bichri, a man of Iemini) and he blew the trumpet, and said, We haue no part in Dauid, neither haue wee inheritance in the sonne of Ishai: euery man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from Dauid and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from Iordan euen to Ierusalem.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the king tooke the ten women his concubines, that hee had left behinde him to keepe the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were inclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhoode.

4 ¶ Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Iudah within three dayes, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but he taried longer then the time which hee had appointed him.

6 Then Dauid said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the sonne of Bichri doe vs more harme then did Abalom: take thou speedie way for thy sword, servants and follow after him: lest hee get him walled cities, and escape vs.

7 And these went out after him, Iobabs men, and the Cherathites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: & they departed out of Ierusalem, to follow after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibbon, Amasa went before them, and Iobabs garment that hee had put on, was girded vnto him, & vpon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loynes in the sheath, and as he went, it vsed to fall out.

9 And Iobab saide to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? and Iobab tooke Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kisse him.

10 But Amasa tooke no heede to the sword that was in Iobabs hand: for therewith he smote him in the fifth rib, & shed out his bowels to the ground, and smote him not the second time: so he died. Then Iobab and Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

11 And one of Iobabs men stood by him, and said, He that fauoureth Iobab, and he that is of Dauids part, let him goe after Iobab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the mids of the way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he remooued Amasa out the way into the field, & cast a cloth vpon him, because hee sawe that euery one that came by him stood still.

13 ¶ When hee was remooued out of the way, euery man went after Iobab, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

14 And he went thorow all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, and Bethmaachah and all places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went also after him.

15 So they came, and besieged him in Abel, neere to Bethmaachah: and they cast vp a mount against the citie, and the people thereof stood on the ramper, and all the people that was with Iobab, destroyed and cast downe the wall.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Heare, heare, I pray you, say vnto Iobab, Come thou hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 And when hee came neere vnto her, the woman said, Art thou Iobab? And he answered, Yea. And she said to him, Heare the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I doe heare.

18 Then she spake thus, I they spake in the old time, saying, They should aske of Abel, and so haue they continued.

20 And Iobab answered, and sayd, God forbid, God forbid me, that I should deuoure, or destroy it.

21 The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the sonne of Bichri by name) hath lift vp his hand against the king, ^{even} against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, and I will depart from the cite. And the woman said vnto Iobab, Behold, his head shall be throwen to thee ouer the wall.

22 Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wildom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the sonne of Bichri, & cast it to Iobab: then he blew the trumpet, and they retired from the cite, euery man to his tent: and Iobab returned to Ierusalem vnto the king.

1 Three deare yeres. 2 The vengeance of the sinnes of Saul: lightest on his seven sonnes, which are hanged. 3 Four great battels, which Dauid had against the Philistims.

Then there was a famine in the dayes of Dauid, three yeres together: and Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2 Then the king called the Gibeonites, and sayd vnto them, (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, vnto whom the children of Israel had sworne: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeale toward the children of Israel and Iudah.)

3 And Dauid saide vnto the Gibeonites, What shall I doe for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that yee may blesse the inheritance of the Lord?

4 The Gibeonites then answered him, We will haue no siluer nor golde of Saul nor of his house, neither for vs shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shal say, that will I doe for you.

5 Then they answered the king, The man that consumed vs & that imagined euill against vs, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel,

6 Let seuen men of his sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and wee will hang them vp vnto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lords chosen. And the king said, I will giue them.

7 But the king had compassion on Mephiboseth the sonne of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, because of the Lords othe, that was betwene them, ^{even} betwene Dauid and Iona than the sonne of Saul.

8 But the King tooke the two sonnes of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom shee bare vnto Saul, ^{even} Armoni & Mephiboseth and the five sonnes of Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom shee bare to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Melchathite.

9 And hee deliuered them vnto the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they died all seuen together, & they were slaine in the time of harvest: in the first dayes, and in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah tooke sackcloth and hanged it vp for her vpon the rocke, from the beginning of harvest, vntill water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered neither the birdes of the ayre to light on them by day, nor beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12 And Dauid went and tooke the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the citzens of Iabesh Gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Bethshan, where the Philistims had hanged them, when the Philistims had slaine Saul in Gilboa.

13 So hee brought thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his sonne buried they in the countrey of Benjamin in Zelai, in the graue of Kish his father: and when they had performed all that the king had commaunded, God was then appeased with the land.

15 ¶ Againe the Philistims had warre with Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistims, and Dauid fainted.

16 Then Ishi-benob which was of the sons of Haraphah (the head of whose speare weighed three hundred shekels of brasle) ^{even} hee being girded with a new sword, thought to haue slaine Dauid.

17 But Abithai the sonne of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistim, and killed him. Then Dauids men sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with vs to battell, lest thou quench the light of Israel.

18 ¶ And after this also there was a battell with the Philistims at Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of the sonnes of Haraphah.

19 And there was yet another battell in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanan the sonne of Iaaire-oregim, a Bethlehemite, slewe P Goliath

CHAP. XXII.

1 Dauid after his victories prophesied God. 2 The anger of God toward the wicked. 3 His prophesies of the resettling of the Lewites, and reuocation of the Gibeonites.

AND Dauid spake the words of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, * The Lord is my rocke and my forresse, and he that deliuereth me.

3 God is my strength, in him will I trust: my shilde, and the horne of my saluation, my high tower, and my refuge: my Saviour, thou hast saued me fro violence.

4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be prayd: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

5 For the pangs of death haue compassed me: the floods of vngodlinesse haue made me afraide.

6 The sorowes of the graue compassed me about: the snares of death ouertooke me.

7 But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and cried to my God, and he did heare my voyce out of his temple, and my crie did enter into his eares.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of the heauens moued and shooke, because he was angry.

9 Smoke went out of his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat.

10 He bowed the heauens also, and came downe, and darkenesse was vnder his feete.

11 And he rode vpon Cherub & did flie, and he was seene vpon the wings of the wind.

12 And hee made darkenesse a Tabernacle round about him, euen the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the ayre.

13 At the brightnesse of his presence the coles of fire was kindled.

14 The Lord thundred from heauen, and the most high giue his voyce.

15 Hee shotte arrowes also, and scattered them: lightning, and destroyed them.

16 The channells also of the sea appeared, euen the foundations of the world were discouered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 Hee sent from aboue, and tooke mee, he drew me out of many waters.

18 Hee deliuered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They presented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay.

20 And brought me forth into a large place: he deliuered me because he fauoured me.

21 The Lord rewarded mee according to my righteousness: according to the purenesse of mine hands he recompensed me.

22 For I kept the waies of the Lord, and did not wickedly against my God.

23 For all his lawes were before me, and his statutes: I did not depart therefrom.

24 I was vpriight also toward him, and haue kept me from my wickednesse.

25 Therefore the Lord did reward me according to my righteousness, according to my purenesse before his eyes.

26 With the godly thou wilt shew thy selfe godly: with the vpriight man thou wilt shewe thy selfe vpriight.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thy selfe pure, and with the froward thou wilt shewe thy selfe froward.

28 Thus thou wilt saue the poore people: but thine eyes are vpon the haughty to humble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkenesse.

30 For by thee haue I broken through an hoste, and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall.

31 The way of God is vncorrupt, the worde of the Lord is tried in the fire: hee is a shield to all that trust in him.

32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mighty, saue our God?

33 God is my strength in battell, and maketh my way vpriight.

34 He maketh my feete like Phindes feete, and hath set me vpon mine high places.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, so that a bowe of brass is broken with mine armes.

36 Thou hast also giuen mee the shield of thy saluation, and thy louing kindnesse hath caused me to increase.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps vnder me, and mine heeles haue not slid.

38 I haue pursued mine enemies and destroyed them, and haue not turned againe vntill I had consumed them.

39 Yea, I haue consumed them and thrust them through, and they shall not arise, but shall fall vnder my feete.

40 For thou hast girded me with power to battell, and them that arose against mee, hast thou subdued vnder me.

41 And thou hast giuen me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 David causeth the people to be numbered: 10 He repenteth, and clauseth so fall into Gods hands: 15 Seventie thousand perish with the pestilence.

And the wrath of the Lord was againe kindled against Israel, and he moued Dauid against them, in that he said, Goe, number Israel and Iudah.

2 For the king said to Ioab the captaine of the host, which was with him, Goe speedily now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba, & number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Ioab said vnto the king, The Lord thy God increase the people an hundred fold moe then they be, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king desire this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the kings worde preuailed against Ioab, and against the captaines of the hoste: therefore Ioab and the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed ouer Iorden, and pitched in Aroer at the right side of the citie that is in the middes of the valley of Gad and toward lazer.

6 Then they came to Gilcad, and to Tahtim-hodshi, so they came to Dan Iaan, and so about to Zidon,

7 And came to the forresse of Tyrus, and to all the cities of the Philices, and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudah, euen to Beer-sheba.

8 ¶ So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Ierusalem at the ende of nine moneths and twenty dayes.

9 ¶ And Ioab deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords: and the men of Iudah were sixe hundred thousand men.

10 Then Dauid heare smote him; after that he had numbered the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the trespass of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.

11 ¶ And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the word of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids Secr, saying,

12 Goe, and say vnto Dauid, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things, chuse thee which of them I shall doe vnto thee, 13 So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, and said vnto him, Wilt thou that seuen yeeeres famine come vpon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three dayes pestilence in thy land? now aduise thee, and see; what answer I shall giue to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strait: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning, euen to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan euen to Beer-sheba, seuentie thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand vpon Ierusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the euill, and sayd to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, hold now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Iebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lord (when he saw the Angel that smote the people) and said, Behold, I haue sinned, yea, I haue done wickedly: but these sheepe, what haue they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, bee against me and against my fathers house.

18 ¶ So Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him, Goe vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Araunah the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid (according to the saying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his seruants comming toward him, and Araunah k David saw not the iust cause why God plagued the people, and therefore he offereth himselfe to Gods correction, as the onely cause of this euill.

Araunah went out, and bowed himselfe before the king on his face to the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? Then Dauid answered, To buy the threshing floore of thee for to build an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 Then Araunah said vnto Dauid, Let my lord the king take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: behold the oxen for the burnt offering, and charrets, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 (All these things did Araunah as a king giue vnto the king: and Araunah said vnto the king, The Lord thy God be fauourable vnto thee.)

24 Then the king said vnto Araunah, Not so, but I will buy it of thee at a price, and will not offer burnt offering vnto the Lord my God of that which doeth cost me nothing. So Dauid bought the threshing floore, and the oxen for fiftie shekels of siluer.

25 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and the Lord was appeased toward the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

Because the children of God should looke for no continuall rest and quietnesse in this world, the holy Ghost fasteneth before our eyes in this booke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israel from the death of Dauid, Salomon and the rest of the Kings, vnto the death of Ahab, declaring how that flourishing kingdomes, except they be preserved by Gods protection, (who then fauoured them when his word is truly set forth, vertue esteemed, vice punished, and concord maintained) fall to decay & come to nought: as appeareth by the diuiding of the kingdome vnder Roboam, & Ieroboam, which before were but all one people, and now by the iust punishment of God were made two, whereof Iudah and Benjamin claime to Roboam, and this was called the kingdome of Iudah: and the other ten tribes held with Ieroboam, and this was called the kingdome of Israel. The king of Iudah had his throne in Ierusalem, and the king of Israel in Samaria, after it was built by Amri Ahab's father. And because our Saviour Christ according to the flesh should come of the stocke of Dauid, the genealogie of the Kings of Iudah is here described, from Salomon to Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat, who reigned ouer Iudah in Ierusalem, and Ahab did ouer Israel in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

3 Shishag begetteth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adonijah vsurpeth the kingdome. 30 Salomon is anointed King. 50 Adonijah fleeth to the Altar.

Now when King Dauid was old, & stricken in yeres, they couered him with clothes, but no heat came vnto him.

2 Wherefore his seruants said vnto him, Let there bee sought for my lord the king a young virgin, and lecher her stand before the king, and cherish him: and let her lie in thy bosome, that my lord the king may get heate.

3 So they sought for a faire young maide throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found one Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the King.

4 And the maide was exceeding faire, and cherished the King, and ministred to him, but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the sonne of Haggith exalted himselfe, saying, I will be king. And he gat him charrets and horsemen, and fiftie men to runne before him.

6 And his father would not displease him from his childhood, to say, Why hast thou done so? And he was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he tooke counsell of Ioab the son of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: and they helped forward Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, & Rei, & the men of might, which were with Dauid, were not with Adonijah.

9 Then Adonijah sacrificed sheepe, and oxen, and fat cattell by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the kings sonnes, and all the men of Iudah the kings seruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Salomon his brother he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon, saying, Hast thou not heard, that Adonijah the sonne of Haggith doth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, and I will now giue thee counsel, how to saue thine own life, and the life of thy sonne Salomon.

13 Goe, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, and say vnto him, Diddest not thou my lord, O

15 ¶ So Bath-sheba went in vnto the king into the chamber, and the king was very olde, and Abiathar the Iehonathite ministered vnto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed and made obeisance vnto the king. And the king said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after mee, and hee shall sit vpon my throne.

18 And behold, now is Adonijah king, and now, my lord, O king, thou knowest it not.

i The king being worne with age could not attend to the affaires of the realme, and also Adonijah had many flatterers which kept it from the king.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, and fat cattell & sheepe, and hath called all the sonnes of the king, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the captaine of the hostes: but Salomon thy seruant hath he not bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne?

25 For he is gone downe this day, and hath slaine many oxen and fat cattell & sheepe, and hath called all the kings sonnes, and the captaines of the host, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eate and drinke before him, and say, † God saue king Adonijah.

m Meaning, that he ought in such affaires enterprise nothing except he had consulted with the Lord.

28 ¶ Then king Dauid answered, and said, Call mee Bath-sheba. And she came into the kings presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, saying, As the Lord liueth, who hath redeemed my soule out of all aduersitie,

30 That as I sware vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy 31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, & did reuerence vnto the king, and said, God saue my lord king Dauid for ever.

32 ¶ And king Dauid said, Call me Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 Then the king said vnto them, Take with you the seruants of your lord, and cause Salomon my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, and cary him downe to Gihon.

45 And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet haue anointed him king in Gihon: and they are gone vp from thence with ioy, and the citie is mooued: this is the noyse that ye haue heard.

46 And Salomon also sitteth on the throne of the kingdome.

47 And moreover the kings servants came to blesse our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Salomon more famous then thy name, & exalt his throne aboue thy throne: therefore the king worshipped vpon the bed.

48 And thus said the king also, Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, who hath made one to sit on my throne this day even in my sight.

49 Then all the gheists that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose vp, and went euery man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah fearing the presence of Salomon, arose, and went, and tooke holde on the hornes of the altars.

51 And one told Salomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah doth feare king Salomon: for loe, he hath caught holde on the hornes of the altar, saying, Let king Salomon sweare vnto me this day, that hee will not slay his seruant with the sword.

52 Then Salomon said, If he wil shew himselfe a worthy man, there shall not an haire of him fall to the earth, but if wickednes be found in him, he shall die.

53 Then king Salomon sent, & they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obedience vnto king Salomon. And Salomon sayd vnto him, Goe to thine house.

CHAP. II.

1 David exhorted Salomon, & giue charge as concerning Ioab, Berezai, and Shimei. 10 The death of David. 17 Adonijah asketh Abishag for wife. 25 Hee is slaine. 35 Zadok was placed in Abiathars room.

Then the dayes of David drew neere that he should die, and hee charged Salomon his sonne, saying,

2 I goe the way of all the earth: be strong therefore, and shew thy selfe a man,

3 And take heed to the charge of the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and keepe his statutes and his commandements, & his iudgements, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, & in euery thing whereunto thou turnest thee,

4 That the Lord may confirme his word which he spake vnto me, saying, If thy sonnes take heed to their way, that they walke before mee in trueth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, *† thou shalt not (sayd hee) want one of thy posteritie vpon the throne of Israel.

5 Thou knowest also what Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah did to me, and what hee did to the two captaines of the hosts of Israel, vnto * Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto * Amasa the son of Iether: whom he slew, and shed blood of battell in peace, and put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shooes that were on his feete.

7 But shew kindnes vnto the sons of * Barzillai the Gileadite, & let them be among them that eate at thy table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother.

8 ¶ And behold, with thee * Shimai the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Lemini, of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but hee came down to meete me at Iordan, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, * I wil not slay thee with the sword.

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to doe vnto him: therefore thou shalt cause his hoare head to go downe to the graue with blood.

10 So * David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of David.

11 And the dayes which David reigned vpon Israel, were fortie yeeres: seuen yeeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirte and three yeeres reigned he in Ierusalem.

12 ¶ Then sate Salomon vpon the throne of David his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightily.

13 And Adonijah the sonne of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon: and she said, * Commest thou peaceably? And he said, Yea.

14 Hee said moreover, I haue a sute vnto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then hee said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine; and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord.

16 Now therefore I aske thee one request, † refuse me not. And she said vnto him, Say on.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went vnto king Salomon, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the king rose to meete her, and bowed himselfe vnto her, & sate downe on his throne: and he caused a seat to be set for the kings mother, and the sate at his right hand.

20 Then shee said, I desire a small request of thee, say mee not nay. Then the king said vnto her, Aske on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 She sayd then, Let Abishag the Shunammite be giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

brother, and hath for him both Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zeruias.

33 Then king Salomon swore by the Lord, saying, God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this word against his own life.

34 Now therefore as the Lord lieth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of Dauid my father, who also hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

35 And king Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and he smote him that he died.

36 ¶ Then the king said vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth vnto thine owne fields: for thou art not worthy of death: but I will not this day kill thee, because thou barest the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath bene afflicted.

37 So Salomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that he might fulfill the words of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

38 ¶ Then tidings came to Ioab (for Ioab had turned after Adonijah, but he turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and caught holde on the hornes of the altar.

39 And it was told king Salomon, that Ioab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and behold, he is by the altar. Then Salomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, saying, Go fall vpon him.

40 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, & said vnto him, Thus saith the king, Come out. And he said, Nay, but I wil die here. Then Benaiah brought the King word againe, saying, Thus said Ioab, and thus he answered mee.

41 And the King said vnto him, Doe as hee hath said, and smite him, and burie him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Ioab shed causelesse, from mee, and from the house of my father.

42 And the Lord shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for hee smote two men more righteous, and better then hee, and slew them with the sword, and my father Dauid knew not: to wit, Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Iether captaine of the hoste of Iudah.

43 Their blood shall therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his seede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seede, and vpon his house, and vpon his throne shall there be peace for euer from the Lord.

44 So Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada went vp, and smote him, and slew him, and hee was buried in his owne house in the wilderness.

45 And the king put Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada in his roome ouer the hoste: and the king set Zadok the Priest in the roome of Abiathar.

¶ Afterward the king sent, and called Shimei, and said vnto him, Build thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwell there, and depart not thence any whither.

47 For that day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the river of Kidron, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death: thy blood shall be vpon thine owne head.

48 And Shimei said vnto the king, The thing is good, as my lord the king hath said, so will thy seruant doe. So Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes.

49 And after three yeeres two of the seruants of Shimei fled away vnto Achish sonne of Maathakiah of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy seruants be in Gath.

50 And Shimei arose, and saddled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seeke his seruants: and Shimei went, and brought his seruants from Gath.

51 And it was told Salomon, that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, and was come againe.

52 And the king sent & called Shimei, and said vnto him, Did not I make thee to swear by the Lord, and protested vnto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest any whither, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death? And thou saydest vnto mee, The thing is good, that I haue heard.

53 Why then hast thou not kept the oth of the Lord, and the commandement wherewith I charged thee?

54 The King said also to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickednesse whereunto thine heart is priuy, that thou didst to Dauid my father: the Lord therefore shall bring thy wickednesse vpon thine owne head.

55 And let King Salomon be blessed, & the throne of Dauid established before the Lord for euer.

56 So the King commaunded Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada: who went out and smote him that hee died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Salomon.

For his father had commanded him to obey the Lord and walk in his wayes, Chap. 2. 3.

And the King went to ^aGibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the chief high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Salomon offer upon that Altar.

In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Salomon in a dreame by night: and God said, Aske what I shall giue thee.

And Salomon said, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercy, when he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in vprightnesse of heart with thee: and thou hast kept for him this great mercie, and hast giuen him a sonne to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy seruant King in stead of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, and know not how to goe out and in.

And thy seruant in the mids of thy people, which thou hast chosen, such a great people which cannot bee tolde nor numbered for multitude.

Giue therefore vnto thy seruant an vnderstanding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may discern betweene good and bad: for who is able to iudge this thy mighty people?

And this pleased the Lord well that Salomon had desired this thing.

And God said vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thy selfe long life, neither hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding to heare iudgement,

Behold, I haue done according to thy words: so, I haue giuen thee a wife and an vnderstanding heart, so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall arise the like vnto thee.

And I haue also giuen thee that, which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour, so that among the Kings there shall be none like vnto thee all thy dayes.

And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances and my commandments, as thy father Dauid did walke, I will prolong thy dayes.

And when Salomon awoke, behold, it was a dreame, and he came to Ierusalem, and stood before the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings & made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

Then came two harlots vnto the King, and stood before him.

And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the house.

And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered also: and we were in the house together: no stranger was with vs in the house, saue we twaine.

And this womans sonne died in the night: for she ouerlay him.

And she arose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from my side, while thine handmaid slept, and laid him in her besome, and laid her dead sonne in my besome.

And when I arose in the morning to giue my sonne sucke, behold, he was dead: & when I had well considered him in the morning, behold, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne.

Then the other woman said, Nay, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead. Againe she said, No, but thy sonne is dead, and mine aliue: thus they spake before the King.

Then said the King, She sayth, This liueth is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne: and the other saith, Nay, but the dead is thy sonne, and the liuing is my sonne.

Then the King said, Bring mee a sword: and they brought out a sword before the King.

And the King said, Diuide ye the liuing childe in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

Then spake the woman, whose the liuing childe was, vnto the King, for her compassion was kindled toward her sonne, and she said, Oh my lord, giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but diuide it.

Then the King answered, and said, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: this is his mother.

And all Israel heard the iudgement which the King had iudged, and they feared the King: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to doe iustice.

19 Geber the sonne of Uri in the countrey of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan, and was officer alone in the land.

20 Iudah and Israel were many, as the sand of the Sea in number, eating, drinking, and making merrie.

21 And Salomon reigned ouer all kingdoms, from the Riuer vnto the land of the Philistims, and vnto the border of Egypt, and they brought presents, and serued Salomon all the dayes of his life.

22 And Salomons vitales for one day were thirtie measures of fine floure, and threescore measures of meale:

23 Ten fat oxen, and twentie oxen of the pastures, and an hundred sheepe, besides harts, and bucks, and bvgles, and fat fowle.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the Riuer, from Tiphshah euen vnto Az-zah, ouer all the kings on the other side the Riuer: and hee had peace round about him on euery side.

25 And Iudah and Israel dwelt without feare, euery man vnder his vine, and vnder his figge tree, from Dan, euen to Beer-sheba, all the dayes of Salomon.

26 And Salomon had fortie thousand stalles of horses for his charers, and twelue thousand horsemen.

27 And these officers prouided vitale for King Salomon, and for all that came to King Salomons table, euery man his moneth, and they suffered to lacke nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and mules brought they vnto the place where the officers were, euery man according to his charge.

29 And God gaue Salomon wisedome, and vnderstanding exceeding much, & a large heart, euen as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Salomons wisedome excelled the wisedome of all the children of the East and all the wisedome of Egypt:

31 For he was wiser then any man: for then were Ethan the Ezrahite, then Heman, then Chaleol, then Darda the sonnes of Mahol: and hee was famous thorowout all nations round about.

32 And Salomon spake three thousand proverbes: and his songs were a thousand and siue.

33 And he spake of trees, from the Cedar tree that is in Lebanon, euen vnto the hyssope that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowles, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to heare the wisedome of Salomon, from all Kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisedome.

Hiram sendeth to Salomon, and Salomon to him, purpose to build the house of God. 6 He prepareth buffe for the building. 13 The number of the workmen.

And Hiram King of Tyrus sent his seruants vnto Salomon, (for hee had heard, that they had appointed him King in the roome of his father) because Hiram had euer loued Dauid.

Also Salomon sent to Hiram, saying,

Thou knowest that Dauid my father could not build an house vnto the Name of the Lord his God, for the warres which were about him on euery side, vntill the Lord had put him vnder the soles of his feete.

But now the Lord my God hath giuen me rest on euery side, so that there is neither aduersary, nor euill to resist.

And behold, I purpose to build an house vnto the Name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne, whom I will set vpon thy throne for thee, he shall build an house vnto my Name.

Now therefore command, that they hew me Cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my seruants shall be with thy seruants, and vnto thee will I giue the hire for thy seruants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there are none among vs, that can hew timber like vnto the Sidonians.

And when Hiram heard the words of Salomon, he reioyced greatly, and said, Blessed bee the Lord this day, which hath giuen vnto Dauid a wife sonne over this mightie people.

And Hiram sent to Salomon, saying, I haue considered the things, for the which thou sendest vnto me, and wil accomplish all thy desire, concerning the Cedar trees and firre trees.

My seruants shall bring them downe from Lebanon to the Sea: and I will conuey them

CHAP. VI.

1 The building of the Temple, and the forme thereof. 12 The promise of the Lord to Salomon.

And in the foure hundred & fourescore yeere (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) & in the fourth yeere of the reigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth Ziph, (which is the second moneth) he built the house of the Lord.

2 And the house which King Salomon built for the Lord, was threescore cubits long, and twentie broad, and thirtie cubits high.

3 And the porch before the Temple of the house was twenty cubits long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubits broad before the house.

4 And in the house hee made windows, broad without, and narrow within.

5 And by the wall of the house hee made galleries round about, euē by the walles of the house round about the Temple and the oracle, and made chambers round about.

6 The nethermost gallerie was five cubits broad, and the middlemost fixe cubites broad, and the third seuen cubites broad: for he made rests round about without the house, that the beames should not be fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And when the house was built, it was built of stone, perfite before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of yron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went vp with winding staires into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So hee built the house and finished it, and sieled the house being vaued, with sieeling of Cedar trees.

10 And hee built the galleries vpon all the wall of the house of five cubites height, and they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Salomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou buildest, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my iudgments, and keepe all my commandements, to walke in them, then will I performe vnto thee my promise, which I promised to Dauid thy father.

16 And he built twenty cubites in the sides of the house with boards of Cedar, from the floore to the walls, & he prepared a place within it for the oracle, even the most holy place.

17 But the house, that is, the Temple before it, was fortie cubits long.

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carued with || knops, and grauen with floures: all was Cedar, so that no stone was seene.

19 ¶ Also hee prepared the place of the oracle in the middes of the house within, to set the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites hie; and he couered it with pure golde, and couered the Altar with Cedar.

21 So Salomon couered the house within with pure golde: and hee shut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde, and couered it with golde.

22 And he ouerlaid all the house with gold, vntill all the house was made perfect, also hee couered the whole Altar, that was before the oracle, with golde.

23 And within the oracle hee made two Cherubims of Oliue tree, ten cubites hie.

24 The wing also of the one Cherub was five cubites, and the wing of the other Cherub was five cubites: from the vttermost part of one of his wings vnto the vttermost part of the other of his wings, were ten cubites.

25 Also the other Cherub was of ten cubites: both the Cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was the other Cherub.

27 And hee put the Cherubims within the inner house, and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the middes of the house.

28 And he ouerlaid the Cherubims with golde.

29 And he carued all the walles of the house round about with grauen figures of Cherubims and of Palme trees, and grauen flowres within and without.

30 And the floore of the house he couered with golde within and without.

31 And in the entring of the oracle he made two doores of Oliue tree: and the ypper postes and side postes were five square.

32 The two doores also were of Oliue tree, and hee graued them with grauing of Cherubims and Palme trees, and grauen flowres, and couered them with golde, and laid a thinne gold vpon the Cherubims, and vpon the palme trees.

33 And so made hee for the doore of the Temple, postes of Oliue tree foure square.

34 But the two doores were of Firre tree, the two sides of the one doore were round and the two sides of the other doore were round.

35 And hee graued Cherubims, and Palme trees, and carued flowres, and couered the carued worke with golde, finely wrought.

36 ¶ And hee built the Court within with three rowes of hewed stone, and one row of beames of Cedar.

8 And in his house where he dwelt, was another hall more inward then the porch which was of the same worke. Also Salomon made an house for Pharaohs daughter (*whom he had taken to wife) like vnto this porch.

9 All these were ^f of costly stones, hewed by measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto ^g the stones of an hand breadth, and on the outside to the great court.

13 ¶ Then King Salomon sent, and fet one Hiram out of ⁱ Tyrus.

16 And hee made two | chapters of molten brasse to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapters was five cubites, and the height of the other chapter was three cubites.

17 Hee made grates like networke, and | wrethen worke, for the chapters that were on the top of the pillars, for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 So hee made the pillars and two rows of pomegranates round about in the one grate to couer the chapters that were vpon the top. And thus hee did for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were on the top of the pillars were after ^k lillie worke in the porch, foure cubites.

20 And the chapters vpon the two pillars had also aboute, | ouer against the belly | within the networke pomegranates: for two hundredth pomegranates were in the two ranks about vpon † either of the chapters.

21 And hee set vp the pillars in the porch of the Temple. And when hee had set vp the right pillar, hee called the name thereof ^m Iachin: and when hee had set vp the left pillar, hee called the name thereof ⁿ Boaz.

22 And vpon the top of the pillars was worke of lillies: so was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

27 ¶ And hee made ten bases of brasse, one base was four cubites long, and foure cubites broad, and three cubites high.

28 ¶ And the worke of the bases was on this manner. They had borders, and the borders were betweene the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were betweene the ledges, were lions, bulles and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a base about: and beneath the lions and bulles, were additions made of thine worke.

30 And euery base had foure brassen wheels, and plates of brasse: and the foure corners had † vnderfettlers: vnder the caldron were vnderfettlers molten at the side of euery addition.

32 And vnder the borders were foure wheels, and the axeltrees of the wheels ioyned to the base: and the height of a wheele was a cubite and halfe a cubite.

35 And in the top of the base was a round compass of halfe a cubite high round about: and vpon the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And vpon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof hee did graue Cherubims, lions, and palme trees, on the side of euery one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made hee the ten bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one fize.

38 ¶ Then made hee ten caldrons of brasse, one caldron contained fortie Baths: and euery caldron was foure cubits, one caldron was vpon one base throughout the ten bases.

25 Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou hast promised him, saying, * Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walke before mee, as thou hast walked in my sight.

26 And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy word bee verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father.

27 Is it true in deede that God will dwell on the earth? behold, the heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: how much more ^unable is this house that I haue built?

28 But haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruants, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare the cry and prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day:

65 And Salomon made at that time a feast, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God, 7 seuen dayes and seuen dayes, euen foure teene dayes.

2 And she came to Ierusalem with a very great traine, and camels that bare sweet odours, and gold exceeding much, and precious stones: and she came to Salomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

Queene of Sheba gaue to king Salomon.

11 The nauie also of Hiram (that carried gold from Ophir) brought like wise great plenty of ¹²Almuggim trees from Ophir, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the Almuggim trees, pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the kings palace, and made harpes and psalteries for fingers. There came no more such Almuggim trees, nor were any more seen vnto this day.

13 And king Salomon gaue vnto the Queene of Sheba whatsoeuer shee would aske, besides that, which Salomon gaue her of his kingly liberalitie: so shee returned and went to her owne countrey, both shee, and her seruantes.

14 Also the weight of gold, that came to Salomon in one yeere, was six hundred three-score and sixe ¹⁵talents of gold, besides that hee had of merchant men, and of the merchandises of them that sold spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the princes of the countrey.

16 And king Salomon made two hundredth targets of beaten gold, fixe hundredth shekels of gold went to a target:

17 And three hundredth shields of beaten gold, three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

18 Then the king made a great throne of yuorie, and couered it with the best gold.

THE ROYAL THRONE OF SALOMON.

19 And the throne had fixe steps, and the top of the throne was round behind, and there were 8 staies on either side on the place of the throne, and two Lions standing by the staies.

20 And there stood twelue Lions on the fixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

21 And all king Salomons drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of siluer: for it was nothing esteemed in the dayes of Salomon.

22 For the king had on the sea the nauie of Tharshish with the nauie of Hiram: once in three yeere came the nauie of Tharshish, and brought gold and siluer, yuorie, and Apes, and Peacocks.

23 So king Salomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the world sought to see Salomon, to heare his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armour, and sweet odours, horses and mules, from yeere to yeere.

26 Then Salomon gathered together charrets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundredth charrets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the charret cities, and with the king at Ierusalem.

27 And the king gaue siluer in Ierusalem as stones, and gaue cedars as the wilde fig trees that grow abundantly in the plaine.

28 Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kings merchants receiued the linnen for a price.

29 There came vp and went out of Egypt some charret, worth six hundredth shekels of siluer: that is, one horse, an hundredth and fiftie. And thus they brought horses to all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Aram by their means.

CHAP. XI.

Salomon hath a thousand wiues and concubines, which bring him to idolatry. His God raiseth up aduersaries against him.

1 Vnto king Salomon loued many outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Zidon and Heth,

2 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had said vnto the children of Israel, Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turne your hearts after their gods. to them, I say, did Salomon ioyne in loue.

3 And he had seven hundredth wiues, that were princeesses, and three hundredth concubines, and his wiues turned away his heart.

4 For when Salomon was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

5 For Salomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 So Salomon wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

7 Then did Salomon build an high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, in the mountaine that is ouer against Ierusalem, and vnto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And so did hee for all his outlandish wiues, which burnt incense and offered vnto their gods.

^q It is a chiefe signe of Gods fauour, when godly and wise rulers sit in the throne of iustice.
^r This is the cause, why kings are appointed.

Queen of Sheba came to king Salomon.

11 The nauie also of Hiram (which carried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plenty of Almuggim treacation Ophir, and pitch our stones.

12 And the king made of the Almuggim trees, pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the kings palace, and made harpes and psalteries for lingers. There came no more such Almuggim trees, nor were any more sent vnto this day.

13 And king Salomon gaue vnto the Queene of Sheba whatsoeuer shee would aske: besides that, which Salomon gaue her of his kingly liberalitie: so shee returned and went to her owne countrey, with her, and her seruants.

14 All the weight of gold, that came to Salomon in one yere, was six hundred three score and sixe talents of gold.

15 Besides that, hee had of merchant men, and of the merchandises of them that sold spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the princes of the countrey.

16 And king Salomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold, five hundred shekels of gold went to a target.

17 And three hundred shields of beaten gold, three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

18 Then the king made a great throne of yuorie, and coiled it with the best gold.

THE ROYAL THRONE OF SALOMON.

19 And the throne had six steps; and the top of the throne was round behind, and there were staires on either side on the place of the throne, and two Lions standing by the staires.

20 And there stood twelue Lions on the six steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

21 And all king Salomons drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of siluer: for it was nothing esteemed in the dayes of Salomon.

22 For the king had on the sea the nauie of Tharshish with the nauie of Hiram: once in three yere came the nauie of Tharshish, and brought gold and siluer, yuorie, and Apes, and Beacocks.

23 So king Salomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the world sought to see Salomon, to heare his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armoury, and sweet odours, horses and mules, from yere to yere.

26 Then Salomon gathered together charrets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred charrets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the charret cities, and with the king at Ierusalem.

27 And the king gaue siluer in Ierusalem as stones, and gaue cedars as the wilde fig trees, that grow abundantly in the plaine.

28 Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kings merchants received the linnen for a price.

29 There came vp and went out of Egypt some charret, with six hundred shekels of siluer: that is, one horse, an hundred and fiftie. And thus they brought horses to all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Aram by their meanes.

CHAP. XI.

1 Salomon hath a thousand wines and concubines, which bring him to idolatry. His God raised up aduersaries against him.

2 King Salomon loued many outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Zidon and Heth.

3 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had said vnto the children of Israel, Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turne your hearts after their gods to them, I say, did Salomon ioyne in loue.

4 And he had seven hundred wives, that were princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned away his heart.

5 For when Salomon was olde, his wives turned his heart after other gods: so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

6 For Salomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

7 So Salomon wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

8 Then did Salomon build an high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, in the mountaine that is ouer against Ierusalem, and vnto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

9 And so did hee for all his outlandish wives, which burnt incense and offered vnto their gods.

h By Tharshish is meant Cilicia, which was abundant in variety of precious things.

Or he made siluer as plants as flowers.

Or for the company of the king, the merchants did receive a price.

e Thus the Scripture termeth whatsoeuer man doth reuerence and serue as God.

Therefore the Lord was angry with Salomon, because he had turned his heart from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice.

And had given him a charge concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods: but he kept not that, which the Lord had commanded him.

Wherefore the Lord said unto Salomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee): I will surely rent the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

Notwithstanding in thy dayes I will not do it, because of David thy father, but I will rent it out of the hand of thy sonne.

Howbeit I will give thee all the kingdom, for wildest thou one tribe to thy sonne, because of David my servant, and because of Jerusalem which I have chosen.

Then the Lord stirred up an aduersary unto Salomon, Hadad the Edomite, of the kings seed, which was in Edom.

For when David was in Edom, and Ioab the captain of the hoste had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone up to burie the slain.

(For six moneths did Ioab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom.)

Then this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers servants with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little childe.

And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vitallies, and gaue him land.

So Hadad found great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, and hee gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, even the sister of Tahpenes the Queene.

And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whom Tahpenes wained in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaoh.

And when Hadad heard in Egypt, that David slept with his fathers, and that Ioab the captain of the hoste was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine owne country.

But Pharaoh said unto him, What hast thou lacked with mee, that thou wouldest thus goe to thine owne country? And hee answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me goe.

¶ And God stirred him up another aduersarie, Rezon the sonne of Eliada, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

And hee gathered men unto him, and had bene captain ouer the companie, when David slew them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him king in Damascus.

Therefore was hee an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Salomon: besides the euill that Hadad did, hee also abhorred Israel, and reigned ouer Aram.

¶ And Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat an Ephraimite of Zereda Salomons seruaut (whose mother was called Zeruah a widow) lift vp his hand against the king.

And this was the cause that he lift vp his hand against the king, When Salomon built Millo, he repaired the broken places of the citie of David his father.

And this man Jeroboam was a man of strength and courage, and Salomon seeing that the young man was meete for the worke, hee made him gouernour of all the labour of the house of Ioseph.

And at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the Prophet Ahiah the Shilonite found him in the way, hauing a new garment on him, and they two were alone in the field.

Then Ahiah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces.

And said to Jeroboam, Take unto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdom out of the hands of Salomon, and will give ten tribes to thee.

But hee shall haue one tribe for my seruant Dauids sake, and for Jerusalem the citie, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.

Because they haue forsaken me, and haue worshipped Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and haue not walked in my wayes (I to doe right in mine eyes, and my statutes, and my lawes) as did David his father.

But I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: for I will make him prince all his life long for Dauid my seruants sake, whom I haue chosen, and who kept my commandments and my statutes.

¶ But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will give it unto thee, even the ten tribes.

And unto his sonne wil I give one tribe, that Dauid my seruant may haue a sight alway before me in Jerusalem the citie, which I haue chosen me, to put my Name there.

And I wil take thee, & thou shalt reigne, & I will take thee, & thou shalt be king ouer Israel.

And if thou hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, & doe right in my sight, to keepe my statutes and my commandments, as Dauid my seruant did, then will I be with thee, & build thee a sure house, as I built unto David, & wil give Israel unto thee.

19 And I will for this afflict the seed of David: but not for ever.

20 ¶ Salomon fought therefore to kill Ieroboam, and Ieroboam arose, and fled into Egypte unto Shishak King of Egypt, and was in Egypte vntill the death of Salomon.

21 And the rest of the wordes of Salomon, and all that hee did, and his wisdomes, are they not written in the booke of the actes of Salomon?

22 The time that Salomon reigned in Ierusalem ouer all Israel, was forty yere.

23 And Salomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of David his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam succedeth Salomon. 2 He refuseth the counsell of the Ancients. 3 Ieroboam reigneth ouer Israel.

4 God commandeth Rehoboam not to fight. 5 Ieroboam maketh golden calves.

¶ And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem, to make him king.

2 And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, whither Ieroboam had fled from king Salomon, and dwelt in Egypt.)

3 Then they sent & called him: and Ieroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous seruitude of thy father, and his fore yoke which hee put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come againe to mee. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam tooke counsell with the olde men that had stood before Salomon his father, while hee yet liued, and sayd, What counsell giue ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, & serue them, and answer them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruants for ever.

8 But he forsooke the counsell that the olde men had giuen him, and asked counsell of the yong men that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said vnto them, What counsell giue ye, that we may answer this people, which haue spoken to mee, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

10 Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and sayd, Thy father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: even thus shalt thou say vnto them, My least part shall bee bigger then my fathers loynes.

11 Now whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heauie: for my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 ¶ Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

13 And the King answered the people sharply, and left the old mens counsell that they gaue him.

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, and I will make your yoke more grievous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

15 And the king harkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might performe his saying, which the Lord had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the King regarded them not, the people answered the king thus, saying, What portion haue we in David? we haue none inheritance in the sonne of Ithai. To your tents, O Israel, now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents.

17 Howbeit ouer the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, did Rehoboam reigne still.

18 ¶ Now the king Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then king Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Ierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David vnto this day.

20 ¶ And when all Israel had heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent and called him vnto the assembly, & made him king ouer all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Iudah onely.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, hee gathered all the house of Iudah with the tribe of Benjamin an hundredth and fourescore thousand of chosen men (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon.

22 ¶ But the word of God came vnto She-maiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon king of Iudah, and vnto all the house of Iudah and Benjamin, & the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euery man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, and returned, and departed, according to the word of the Lord.

33 And he offered vpon the Altar, which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth moneth, (even the moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) and made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel: and hee went vp to the Altar, to burne incense.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Ieroboam is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand drieth vp. 15 The Prophet is seduced. 24 And is killed of a Lyon. 33 The obstinacie of Ieroboam.

And behold, there came a man of God, out of Iudah (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto Beth-el, and Ieroboam stood by the Altar to offer incense.

2 And he cried against the Altar by the commandement of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Behold, a child shall be born vnto the house of Dauid, * Iosiah by name, and vpon thee shall he sacrifice the Priests of the hie places that burne incense vpon thee, and they shall burne mens bones vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a signe the same time, saying, This is the signe, that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the Altar shall rent, and the ashes that are vpon it, shall fall out.

4 And when the king had heard the saying of the man of God, which hee had cried against the altar in Beth-el, Ieroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him: but his hand which hee put forth against him, dried vp, & he could not pull it in againe to him.

5 The Altar also claued asunder, and the ashes fell out from the Altar, according to the signe which the man of God had giuen by the commandement of the Lord.

6 Then the King answered and said vnto the man of God, I beseech thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, & make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored vnto mee. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King said vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayest dine, and I will giue thee a reward.

8 But the man of God said vnto the King, If thou wouldst giue mee half thine house, I would not goe in with thee, neither would I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Eat no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest.

10 So hee went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 And an old Prophet dwelt in Beth-el, and his sonnes came & told him all the works, that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el, and the words which hee had spoken vnto the King, told they their father.

12 And their father said vnto them, What way went hee? and his sonnes shewed him, what way the man of God went, which came from Iudah.

13 And he said vnto his sonnes, Saddle mee the asse. Who saddled him the asse, and he rode thereon.

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting vnder an oke: and he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Iudah? And he said, Yea.

15 Then hee said vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread.

16 But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor go in with thee, neither wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged mee by the word of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to goe by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake vnto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that hee may eate bread, and drinke water: but hee lied vnto him.

19 So he went againe with him, and did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the word of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe.

21 And he cried vnto the man of God that came from Iudah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandement which the Lord thy God commanded thee,

25 And behold, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the Lyon standing by the corps: and they came and tolde it in the towne where the olde Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hath bin disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the Lyon, which hath rent him, and slaine him, according to the word of the Lord, which hee spake vnto him.

28 And he went and found his body cast in the way, and the asse and the Lyon stood by the corps: and the Lyon had not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

29 And the Prophet tooke vp the body of the man of God, and laide it vpon the asse, and brought it againe, and the olde Prophet came to the citie, to lament and burie him.

30 And hee laide his body in his owne graue, and they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which hee cried by the word of the Lord against the Altar that is in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to passe.

6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the doore, he saide, Come in, thou ^d wife of Ieroboam: why feignest thou this thy selfe to be another? I am sent to thee with heauie tidings.

^d For God oft times discloseth vnto his the craft & subtiltie of the wicked.

7 Go tell Ieroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I haue exalted ^e thee from among the people, and haue made thee Prince ouer my people Israel, ^e Which wast but a seruant.

8 And haue rent the kingdome away from the house of Dauid, and haue giuen it thee, and thou hast not bene as my seruant Dauid, which kept my commandements, and followed mee with all his heart, and did only that which was right in mine eyes,

9 But hast done euill about all that were before thee (for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and ^f molten images, to prouoke me, and hast cast me behinde thy backe.)

^f To wit, two calves.

10 Therefore behold, I will bring euil vpon the house of Ieroboam, and wil cut off from Ieroboam him that ^{*} is pisseth against the wall, as well him that ^h is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel, and wil sweepe away the remnant of the house of Ieroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung, till it be all gone.

17 ¶ And Ieroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah, and when she came to the threshold of the house, the yong man died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israel lamented him, according to the worde of the Lord, which hee spake by the hand of his servant Ahiah the Prophet.

19 And the rest of Ieroboams actes, how hee warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, were two and twenty yeere: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his sonne reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Also Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon reigned in Iudah. Rehoboam was one and fortie yeere old, when he began to reigne, and reigned seuateene yeere in Ierusalem, the city which the Lord did chuse out of al the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite.

22 And Iudah wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord: and they prouoked him more with their finnes, which they had committed, then all that which their fathers had done.

23 For they also made them high places, and images, and groues on euery high hill, and vnder euery greene tree.

24 There were also Sodomites in the land, they did according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

25 ¶ And in the fift yeere of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, 26 And tooke the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house, and tooke away all: also he caried away all the shields of gold which Salomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made for them brazen shields, and committed them vnto the hands, of the chiefe of the guard, which waited at the doore of the Kings house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the guard bare them, and brought them againe into the guard chamber, 29 And the rest of the actes of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

30 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite. And Abijam his sonne reigned in his stead.

AND in the eighteenth yeere of King Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, reigned Abijam ouer Iudah.

2 Three yeere reigned he in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Maachah the daughter of Abisshalom.

3 And he walked in all the finnes of his father, which hee had done before him: and his heart was not perfite with the Lord his God, as the heart of Dauid his father.

4 But for Dauids sake did the Lord his God giue him a light in Ierusalem, and set vp his sonne after him, and established Ierusalem.

5 Because Dauid did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commanded him, all the dayes of his life, saue onely in the matter of Vriah the Hittite.

6 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam, as long as he liued.

7 The rest also of the actes of Abijam, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? there was also warre betweene Abijam, and Ieroboam.

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid: and Asa his sonne reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ And in the twentieth yere of Ieroboam King of Israel, reigned Asa ouer Iudah.

10 He reigned in Ierusalem one and fortie yeere, and his mothers name was Maachah the daughter of Abisshalom.

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

12 And hee tooke away the Sodomites out of the land, and put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And he put downe Maachah his mother also from her estate, because she had made an idole in a groue: & Asa destroyed her idoles, and burnt them by the brooke Kidron.

14 But they put not downe the high places. Neuerthelesse Asas heart was vpriht with the Lord all his dayes.

15 Also hee brought in the holy vessels of his father, and the things that he had dedicated vnto the house of the Lord, siluer and gold, and vessels.

16 ¶ And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha King of Israel all their dayes.

17 Then Baasha King of Israel went vp against Iudah, & built Ramah, so that he would let none goe out or in to Asa King of Iudah.

18 Then Asa tooke all the siluer & the gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and deliuered them into the handes of his seruants, and King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

21. And when Baasha heard thereof, he left building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22. Then King Afa assembled all Iudah, none excepted, and they took the stones of Ramoth, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded, and king Afa built with them Geba, and of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23. And the rest of all the actes of Afa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which hee built, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah; but in his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24. And Afa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the cite of David his father. And Ichothaphat his sonne reigned in his stead.

25. And Nadab the son of Ieroboam began to reigne ouer Israel the second yere of Afa king of Iudah, and reigned ouer Israel two yere.

26. And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, & in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

27. And Baasha the sonne of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slew him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims: for Nadab and all Israel laide siegeto Gibbethon.

28. Euen in the third yere of Afa king of Iudah did Baasha slay him, & reigned in his stead.

29. And when hee was King, hee smote all the house of Ieroboam, he left none aliue to Ieroboam, vntil he had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his seruant Ahijah the Shilonite,

30. Because of the sinnes of Ieroboam which he committed, and wherewith hee made Israel to sinne, by his prouocation; wherewith hee prouoked the Lord God of Israel.

31. And the residue of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32. And there was warre betwene Afa and Baasha king of Israel, all their dayes.

33. In the third yere of Afa king of Iudah, began Baasha the sonne of Ahijah to reigne ouer all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned foure and twenty yeeres.

Then the word of the Lord came to Iehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying;

2. Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captaine ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to prouoke me with their sinnes,

3. Behold, I will take away the posteritie of Baasha, and the posteritie of his house, and will make thine house like the house of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nebat.

4. He that dieth of Baasha shalke in the cite, him shall the dogges eate; and that man of him which dieth in the fields, shall the fowles of the aire eate.

5. And the rest of the actes of Baasha, and what he did, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6. So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his sonne reigned in his stead.

7. And also by the hand of Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Prophet, came the word of the Lord to Baasha, & to his house, that he should be like the house of Ieroboam, euen for all the wickednes that he did in the sight of the Lord, in prouoking him with the worke of his hands, and because he killed him.

8. In the sixe and twentie yere of Afa king of Iudah, began Elah the sonne of Baasha to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two yere.

9. And his seruant Zimri, captaine of halfe his charets, conspired against him, as hee was in Tirzah drinking, till he was drunken in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.

10. And Zimri came and smote him, and killed him in the seuen and twentie yere of Afa king of Iudah, and reigned in his stead.

11. And when hee was King, and sate on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wall, neither of his kinsfolkes, nor of his friends.

12. So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the worde of the Lorde which hee spake against Baasha by the hand of Iehu the Prophet,

14. And the rest of the Acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15. In the seuen and twentie yere of Afa King of Iudah did Zimri reigne seuen dayes in Tirzah, and the people was then in campe against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims.

17 Then Omri went vp from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged T^rirzah.

18 And when Zimri saw, that the city was taken, hee went into the palace of the Kings house, and burnt himselfe, and the kings house with fire, and so died.

19 For his finnes which he sinned, in doing that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his finnes which he did, causing Israel to sinne.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel diuided into two parts: for halfe the people followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath to make him King, and the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, preuailed against the people that followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirtie yeere of Asa king of Iudah began Omri to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned twelue yeere. Sixe yeere reigned hee in T^rirzah.

24 And he bought the mountaine of Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of siluer, and built in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he built, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountaine, Samaria.

25 But Omri did euill in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, that he did, and the strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his sonne reigned in his stead.

29 Now Ahab the sonne of Omri began to reigne ouer Israel, in the eight and thirtie yeere of Asa King of Iudah: and Ahab the sonne of Omri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria two and twentie yeere.

30 And Ahab the sonne of Omri did worse in the sight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, except heeooke Iezebel also the daughter of Eth-baal king of the Zidonians to his wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him?

32 Also he reared vp an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a groue, and Ahab proceeded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Israel more then all the Kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his daies did Hiel the Bethelite build Iericho: he layd the foundation thereof in A^braham his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his youngest sonne Segub, according to the worde of the Lord which he spake by Ioshua the sonne of Nun.

1 Elijah forwardeth of the famine to come. 2 He is fed of rauens. 3 He is fed in Zarephath, where hee fasteth his chastitie.

And Elijah the Tishbite one of the inhabitants of Gilead said vnto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liueth, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor raine these yeeres, but according to my word.

¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

3 Go hence, and turne thee Eastward, and hide thy selfe in the riuer Cherith, that is ouer against Iorden,

4 And thou shalt drinke of the riuer: and I haue commanded the rauens to feede thee there.

5 So he went and did according vnto the word of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the riuer Cherith that is ouer against Iorden.

6 And the rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the euening, and he dranke of the riuer.

7 And after a while the riuer dried vp, because there fell no raine vpon the earth.

8 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

9 Vp, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Zidon, and remaine there: behold, I haue commanded a widow there to sustaine thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, behold, the widow was there gathering sticks: and he called her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a litle water in a vessell, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fet it, he called to her and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread in thine hand.

12 And shee said, As the Lord thy God liueth, I haue not a cake, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrel, and a litle oile in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few stickes for to go in, and dresse it for me and my sonne, that wee may eate it, and die.

13 And Elijah sayde vnto her, Feare not, come, do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, and bring it vnto mee, and afterward make for thee, and thy sonne.

CHAP. XVIII.

Elijah is sent to Ahab. 13 Obadiah hideth an hundredth Prophets. 40 Elijah killeth all Baals prophets. 45 Hee obtaineth raine.

After many dayes, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third yere, saying, Goe, shew thy selfe vnto Ahab, and I will send raine vpon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himselfe vnto Ahab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah the gouernour of his house: (and Obadiah feared God greatly:

4 For when Iezabel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah tooke an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fiftie in a caue, and he fed them with bread and water)

5 And Ahab said vnto Obadiah, Goe into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, and vnto all the riuers, if so be that wee may finde grasse to saue the horses and the mules aliue, lest we depriue the land of the beasts.

6 And so they diuided the land betweene them to walke thorow it. Ahab went one way by himselfe, and Obadiah went another way by himselfe.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art not thou my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, Yea, goe tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome, whither my lord hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they said, Hee is not heere, he tooke an othe of the kingdome and nation, if they had not found thee.

11 And now thou sayest, Goe, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And when I am gone from thee, the spirit of the Lord shall carie thee into some place that I doe not know: so when I come and tell Ahab, if he cannot finde thee, then will he kill me: But I thy seruant feare the Lord from my youth.

13 Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezabel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundred men of the Lords Prophets by fiftie in a caue, & fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Goe, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here, that he may slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew my selfe vnto him this day.

16 ¶ So Obadiah went to meete Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meete Elijah.

17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I haue not troubled Israel, but thou, and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandements of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to mee all Israel vnto mount Carmel, & the prophets of Baal foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the groues foure hundred, which eate at Iezabels table.

20 ¶ So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came vnto all the people, and said, How long halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal be he, then goe after him, And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah vnto the people, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie men.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two bullocks, and let them chuse the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, but put no fire vnder, and I will prepare the other bullocke, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire vnder.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, C c and c God pisseth oft times the wicked for the godlies sake, and cauleth Elijah to meete with Obadiah, that the bettet might be known to be granted for Gods childrens sake.

d I am none of the wicked persecuters, that thou shouldest procure vnto this such displeasure, but serue God, and fauour his children.

e By my presence I will declare that thou hast colde him the truth.

f The true ministers of God ought not onely not to suffer the truth to be thus iustly slandered, but to reprocue boldly the wicked slanderers without respect of person.

g Be constant in religion, and make it not as a thing indifferent whether ye follow God or Baal, or whether ye serue God wholly or in part, Zeph. i. 5.

and I will call on the Name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth ^h by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said vnto the prophets of Baal, Chuse you a bullocke, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder.

26 So they tooke the one bullocke, that was giuen them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal, from morning to noone, saying, O Baal, heare vs: but there was no voice, nor any to answer: and they leapt vpon the altar that was made.

27 And at noone Elijah mocked them, and said, Crie loude: for he is a ^k god: either hee talketh or putteth ^{his enemies} or is in his iourney, or it may be that he sleepeeth, and must bee awaked.

28 And they cried loud, and cut themselues as their maner was, with kniues and lancers, till the blood gushed out vpon them.

29 And when midday was passed, and they had prophesied vntill the offering of the ^{evening} sacrifice, there was neither voyce, nor one to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah sayd vnto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Elijah tooke twelue stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Iakob, (vnto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, * Israel shal be thy name)

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the Name of the Lord: and hee made a ditch round about the altar, as great as would containe two measures of seede.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the bullocke in peces, and layd him on the wood.

34 And said, Fill foure barrells with water, and powre it on the burnt offering and on the wood. Again he said, Doe so againe. And they did so the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar: and he filled the ditch with water also.

36 And when they should offer the ^{evening} sacrifice, Elijah the Prophet came, and sayd, Lord God of Abraham, Izhak and of Israel, let it bee knowne this day, that thou art the God of Israel, and that I am thy seruant, and that I haue done all these things at thy commandement.

37 Heare me, O Lord, heare mee, and let this people know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart againe ⁿ at the last.

38 Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the ditch.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces, and said, The Lord is God, the Lord is God.

40 And Elijah said vnto them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not ^o a man of them escape. And they tooke them, & Elijah brought them to the brooke Kishon, and slew them there.

41 ¶ And Elijah said vnto Ahab, Get thee vp, eate and drinke, for ^{there is a found of much} raine.

42 So Ahab went vp to eate and to drinke, and Elijah went vp to the top of Carmel: and hee crouched vnto the earth, and put his face betweene his knees.

43 And said to his seruant, Goe vp now and looke toward the way of the sea. And he went vp, and looked, and said, There is nothing. Againe he said, Goe againe ^p seuen times.

44 And at the seuenth time he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea like a mans hand. Then he said, Vp, and say vnto Ahab, Make ready ^{thy charret}, and get thee down that the raine stay thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes and winde, and there was a great raine. Then Ahab went vp & came to Izeel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah, and he girded vp his loines, and ran before Ahab till he came to Izeel.

CHAP. XIX.

⁵ Elijah fleeing from Izebel, is nourished by the Angel of God. ¹⁵ Hee is commanded to anoynt Hazael, Jehu, and Elisba.

NOW Ahab told Izebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slaine all the ^a prophets with the sword.

2 Then Izebel sent a messenger vnto Elijah, saying, ^b The gods doe so to me and more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morow this time.

3 ¶ When he saw that, he arose, and went ^{||} for his life, and came to Beer-sheba which is in Iudah, and left his seruant there.

4 But hee went a dayes iourney into the wilderness, and came and sate downe vnder a Iuniper tree, and desired that he might die, and said, It is now enough: O Lord, take my soule, for I am no better then my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept vnder the Iuniper tree, behold now, an Angel touched him, and said vnto him, Vp, and eate.

6 And when he looked about, behold, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a pot of water at his head: so he did eat and drinke, and returned and slept.

7 And the Angel of the Lord came againe the second time, and touched him, and said, Vp, and eate: for ^d thou hast a great iourney.

8 ¶ Then he arose, and did eate & drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate fortie dayes and fortie nights, vnto Horeb the mount of God.

CHAP. XX.

9 And there he entred into a caue, and lodged there: and behold, the Lord spake to him, and said vnto him, What doest thou here, Elifha?

10 And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy covenant, broken downe thine altars, and slaine thy prophets with the sword, * and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away.

11 And he said, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And behold, the Lord went by, and a mighty strong wind rent the mountaines, and brake the rocks before the Lord: but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the winde came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake came fire: but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire came a still and soft voyce.

13 And when Elifha heard it, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, & stood in the entring in of the caue, and behold, there came a voyce vnto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elifha?

14 And he answered, I haue bin very ielous for the Lord God of hosts, * because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy covenant, cast downe thine altars, and slaine thy Prophets with the sword, and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away.

15 And the Lord said vnto him, Goe, returne by the wildernesse vnto Damascus, and when thou comest there, anoint Hazael king ouer || Aram.

16 And Iehu the sonne of Nimshi shalt thou anoynt King ouer Israel: and Elifha the sonne of Shaphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou anoint to be Prophet in thy roome.

17 And * him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael, shall Iehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Iehu, shall Elifha slay.

18 Yet will * I leaue seuen thousand in Israel, euery ^ball the knees that haue not bowed vnto Baal, and euery mouth that hath not kisseed him.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and found Elifha the sonne of Shaphat who was plowing with twelue yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelfe: and Elifha went towards him, and cast his mantle vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elifha, and said, ⁱ Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. Who answered him, Goe, returne: for what haue I done to thee?

21 And when he went backe againe from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, and slew them, and sod their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: then he arose and went after Elifha, and ministred vnto him.

1 Samaritan besieged. 13 The Lord promiseth the victorie to Ahab by a Prophet. 31 The king of Israel made peace with Ben-hadad, and is reprov'd therefore by the Prophet.

Then Ben-hadad the king of Aram assembled all his armie, and two and thirty kings with him, with horses, and charrets, and went vp and besieged || Samaria, and fought against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city,

3 And said vnto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, Thy siluer and thy gold is mine: also thy women, and thy faire children are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered, & said, My lord king, according to thy saying, ^b I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came againe, they said, Thus commandeth Ben-hadad, and saith, When I shall send vnto thee, & command, thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy gold, and thy women, and thy children,

6 Or els I will send my seruants vnto thee by to morow this time: and they shall search thine house and the houses of thy seruants: and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their hands, and bring it away.

7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the Elders of the land, and said, Take heed, I pray you, and see how he seeketh mischief: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, & for my children, and for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denied him not.

8 And all the Elders, & all the people said to him, Hearken ^d not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said vnto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou diddest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will doe, but this thing I may not doe. And the messengers departed & brought him answere.

10 And Ben-hadad sent vnto him, and said, The gods doe so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria be enough to all the people that follow me, for euery man an handfull.

11 And the King of Israel answered, and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth his harness, boast himselfe, as he that putteth it off.

12 And when he heard that tidings, as he was with the kings drinking in the pavilions, he said vnto his seruants, ¶ Bring forth your engines, and they set them against the citie.

13 ¶ And behold, there came a Prophet vnto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? behold, I will deliuer it into thine hand this day, that thou mayest know, ^g that I am the Lord.

14 And Ahab sayd, By whom? And hee said, Thus saith the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He said againe, Who shall order the battell? And he answered, Thou.

Or, Syria.

a That is, gouernours, and rulers of prouinces.

Or, Shameran.

b I am content to obey and pay tribute.

c He would not accept his answere, except he did out of hand deliuer whatsoever he should aske: for hee sought an occasion, how to make warre against him.

d They thought it their duties rather to venter their liues, then to grant to that thing which was not lawfull, onely to satisfie the lust of a tyrant.

e Much lesse shall there be found any pray, that is worth any thing, when they shall be so many.

f Boast not before the victory be gotten.

Or put your soldiers in order.

g Before, God went about with signes and miracles to put Ahab from his impietie, and now came with wonderful victories.

15 ¶ Then he numbred the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundred, two and thirtie: and after them hee numbred the whole people of all the children of Israel, even seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad did drinke, till he was drunken, in the tents, both he and the kings: for two and thirty kings helped him.

h That is, young men trained in the seruice of Princes.

17 So the h seruants of the princes of the prouinces went out first: and Ben-hadad sent out, and they slewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alie: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet alie.

19 So they came out of the city, to wit, the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoste which followed them.

† Ebr. man, Or, Syrian.

i With them that were appointed for the preservation of his person.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, and with a great slaughter slew he the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the king of Israel, and had said vnto him, Goe, be of good courage, and consider, and take heede what thou doest: for when the yere is gone about, the king of Aram will come vp against thee)

k Thus the wicked blaspheme God in their furie, whom notwithstanding he suffereth not vn-punished.

23 ¶ Then the seruants of the king of Aram said vnto him, Their h gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall ouercome them.

24 And this doe, Take the kings away, euery one out of his place, and place captaines for them.

25 And number thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with such horses and such charets, and we will fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall ouercome them: and he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Ben-hadad numbred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphek to fight against Israel.

l All they which were in the battell of the former yere, ver. 15.

27 And the children of Israel were numbred, and were all assembled & went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two litle flocks of kids: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, & spake vnto the king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Aramites haue said, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valeis, therefore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that ™ I am the Lord.

m Who are of like power in the valley, as I am on the hills: and can as well destroy a multitude with few, as with many.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seven dayes, and in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned: and the children of Israel slew of the Aramites an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek into the citie: and there fell a wall vpon seuen and twentie thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fledde into the citie, and came † into a secret chamber.

† Ebr. from chamber to chamber.

31 ¶ And his seruants said vnto him, Behold now, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are mercifull Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will saue thy life.

n In signe of submission, and that we haue deserued death, if he will punish vs with rigor.

32 Then they girded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and sayd, Thy seruant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue: and he said, Is he yet alie? he is my brother.

33 Now the men tooke diligent heede, if they could catch any thing of him, and made haste, and said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. And he said, Goe, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto the chariot.

o Or, and caught it of him.

34 And Ben-hadad said vnto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore, and thou shalt make streets for thee in † Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will let thee goe with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him goe.

p Thou shalt appoint in my chief citie what thou wilt, and I will obey thee.

35 ¶ Then a certaine man of the † children of the Prophets said vnto his neighbour by the commandement of the Lord, † Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

Or, of the disciples.

36 Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as soone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slew him.

q By this example shall figure bee would more liuely touch the kings heart.

37 Then he found another man, and sayd, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

r Because thou hast transgressed the commandement of the Lord.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the king came by, he cryed vnto the king, and said, Thy seruant went into the mids of the battell: and behold, there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto mee, and said, Keepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shall goe for his life, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.

s By this parable he maketh Ahab condemne himselfe, who made a couenant with Gods enemy, and let him escape, whom God had appointed to be slaine.

40 And as thy seruant had here and there to doe, he was gone: And the king of Israel said vnto him, So shalt thy iudgement be: thou hast giuen sentence.

41 And he hasted, and tooke the ashes away from his face: and the King of Israel knew him that he was of the Prophets.

42 And he sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord,

^a Chap. 22. 38. Lord, * Because thou hast let goe out of shine hands a man whom I appoynted to die, thy life shall goe for his life, and thy people for his people.

¹⁰⁷ Shewen. 43 And the king of Israel went to his house heauie and in displeasure, and came to || Samaria.

CHAP. XXI.

⁸ Isabel commandeth to kill Naboth, for the vineyard that he refused to sell to Ahab. ¹⁹ Elijah reprooueth Ahab, and he repenteth.

¹⁰⁷ At this time, After these things Naboth the Izreelite had a vineyard in Izreel, hard by the palace of Ahab King of Samaria.

^a Though Ahab tyrannic be condemned by the holy spirit, yet he was not so rigorous that he would take from another man his right without full recompense. 2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Giue me thy vineyard, that I may make me a garden of herbes thereof, because it is neere by mine house, and I will giue thee for it a better vineyard then it is: or if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.

^b Thus the wicked consider not what is iust and lawfull, but trer inwardly, when they canoe haue their inordinate appetites satisfied. 3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord keepe me from giuing the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

^c As though he said, thou knowest not what it is to reigne, Command and in-treat not. [†] Ebr. let thine heart be merry. 4 Then Ahab came into his house heauie and in displeasure, because of the word which Naboth the Izreelite had spoken vnto him: for he had said, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay ^b vpon his bed, and turned his face and would eate no bread.

^d For then they vied to enquire of mens faults: for none could fast truly that were notorious sinners. 5 Then Izebel his wife came to him, and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

^e Thus the worldlings contrary to Gods commandment, who willect not to consent to the shedding of innocent blood, obey rather the wicked commandments of princes, then the iust lawes of God. 6 And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Naboth the Izreelite, and said vnto him, Giue me thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will giue thee another vineyard for it: but he answered, I will not giue thee my vineyard.

^f By the wicked counsell of his wife, he became a vile idolater and cruell murderer, as one that gaue himself wholly to serue sinne. 7 Then Izebel his wife sayd vnto him, Doeft thou now gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, eate bread, and [†] be of good cheere, I will giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite.

^g Doest thou thinke to haue any advantage by murdering of an innocent? ^h This was fulfilled in Ioram his sonne, as ² King. 9. 25, 26. 8 ¶ So shee wrote letters in Ahabs name, and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the Nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.

^k In token of mourning, or as some read, bare footed. 10 And set two wicked men before him, and let them witnes against him, saying, Thou diddest blasphemie God and the king: then carie him out, and stone him that he may die.

^l Or, forresse, possession. 11 And the ^e men of his city, ^{euen} the Elders and gouernours, which dwelt in his citie, did as Izebel had sent vnto them: as it was written in the letters, which shee had sent vnto them.

^o † Ebr. 11. 12. 14 Then they sent to Izebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

^p † Ebr. 11. 12. 15 ¶ And when Izebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Izebel said to Ahab, ^f Vp, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite, which he refused to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but is dead.

^q † Ebr. 11. 12. 16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose to goe downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite, to take possession of it.

^r † Ebr. 11. 12. 17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

2 Iehoshaphat and Ahab fight against the king of Syria. 15 Michaiah sheweth the king what shalbe the success of their enterprise. 24 Zidkiah the false prophet smiteth him. 34 Ahab is slaine. 40 Ahaziah his sonne succeedeth. 41 Thereigne of Iehoshaphat, 50 and Ioram his sonne.

And they continued three yeere without warre betwene Aram and Israel.

2 And in the third yeere did Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah come downe to the king of Israel.

3 (Then the king of Israel said vnto his seruants, Know ye not that Ramoth Gilead was ours? and we stay, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Aram?)

4 And he said vnto Iehoshaphat, Wilt thou goe with me to battell against Ramoth Gilead? And Iehoshaphat said vnto the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

5 Then Iehoshaphat said vnto the king of Israel, Aske counsell, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets vpon a foure hundredth men, and said vnto them, Shall I goe against Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I let it alone? And they said, Goe vp: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the hands of the king.

7 And Iehoshaphat said, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the King of Israel said vnto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Michaiah the sonne of Imlah) by whom wee may aske counsell of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not propheticie good vnto me, but euill. And Iehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an Eunuch, and said, Call quickly Michaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah sate either of them on his throne in their apparel in the voide place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him hornes of yron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, vntill thou hast consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the kings hand.

13 ¶ And the messenger that was gone to call Michaiah, spake vnto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good vnto the king with one accord: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speake thou good.

14 And Michaiah said, As the Lord lieth, whatsoeuer the Lord saith vnto me, that will I speake.

15 ¶ So he came to the King, and the king said vnto him, Michaiah, shall we goe against Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shal we leaue off? And he answered him, Goe vp, and prosper: and the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the King.

16 And the King said vnto him, How shalt I charge thee, that thou tel me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord?

17 Then he said, I saw all Israel scattered vpon the mountaines, as sheepe that had no shepherd. And the Lord said, These haue no matter, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.

18 (And the king of Israel said vnto Iehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would propheticie no good vnto me, but euill?)

19 Againe he said, Heare thou therefore the word of the Lord. I saw the Lord sit on his throne, and all the host of heauen stood about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

20 And the Lord said, Who shall entise Ahab that he may goe and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one said on this maner, and another said that maner.

21 Then there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will entise him. And the Lord said vnto him, Wherewith?

22 And he said, I wil goe out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. Then he said, Thou shalt entise him, and shalt also preuaile: goe forth, and doe so.

23 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath appoynted euill against thee.

24 Then Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah came neere, & smote Michaiah on the cheeke, and said, When went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Michaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israel sayd, Take Michaiah, and carie him vnto Amon the gouernor of the citie, and vnto Ioash the kings sonne.

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michaiah said, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Harken all ye people.

29 So the king of Israel and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Iehoshaphat, I will change mine apparel, and will enter into † Ebr. moueth. m This is the common argument of the wicked, who thinke that none should speake against a thing if the greater part approve it, be they neuer so vngodly.

n He speaketh this in derision, because the king attributed so much to the false prophets, meaning that by experience hee should trie that they were but flatterers.

o It is better they returne home, then to be punished and scattered, because they take warre in hand without Gods counsell and approbation.

Chron. 18. 1, 2. a Ben-hadad the King of Syria and Ahab made a peace, which endured three yeeres. b To see and visit him. c The Kings of Syria kept Ramoth before this league was made by Ben-hadad: therefore hee thought not himselfe bound thereby to restore it. d I am ready to ioyne and goe with thee, and all mine is at thy commandment. e He seemed that he would not goe to the warre, except God approued it, yet when Michaiah counselled the contrary, he would not obey. f Meaning, the false prophets, which were flatterers and serued for lucre, whom Iezabel had assembled and kept after the death of those whom Elias slew. g Iehoshaphat did not acknowledge the false prophets to be Gods ministers, but did contemne them. h Whereby we see that the wicked cannot abide to heare truth, but hate the Prophets of God & molest them. i Reade Gen. 37. 36. k In their kingly apparel.

into the battell, but put thou on thine apparell. And the king of Israel changed himselfe, and went into the battell.

21 And the king of Aram commanded his two and thirtie captaines ouer his charets, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, saue onely against the king of Israel.

22 And when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel, and they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphat cried, 33 And when the captaines of the charets saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 Then a certaine man drew a bow mightily, and smote the king of Israel betwene the ioynts of his brigandine. Wherefore hee said vnto his charetman, Turne thine hand and carry me out of the hoste: for I am hurt.

35 And the battell increased that day, and the king stood still in his charet against the Amrites, and died at euen: and the blood ranne out of the wound into the mids of the charer.

36 And there went a proclamation thorough the hoste about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

28 And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria, and the dogs licked vp his blood (and they washed his armour) according vnto the word of the Lord which he spake.

50 And Iehoshaphat did sleepe with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father. And Iehoram his sonne reigned in his stead.

THE SECOND BOOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

THIS second booke containeth the acts of the Kings of Iudah and Israel: to wit, of Israel from the death of Ahab vnto the last king Hoshea, who was imprisoned by the king of Assyria, and his city Samaria taken, and the tentribes by the iust plague of God for their idolatrie & disobedience to God led into captivity. And also of Iudah, from the reigne of Iehoram sonne of Iehoshaphat vnto Zedechiah, who for contemning the Lords commandement by his Prophets, and neglecting his sundrie admonitions by famine and other meanes, was taken by his enemies, saw his sons most cruelly slaine before his face, and his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: and also by the iust vengeance of God for contempt of his word, Ierusalem was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and he & all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this booke are notable examples of Gods fauour towards those rulers and people which obey his Prophets & embrace his word: and contrariwise, of his plagues towards those commonweales which neglect his Ministers, and doe not obey his commandements.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

a Ahaziah by a fall falleth sick, and consulteth with Baal-zebub. 3 He is reproved by Elijah. 10 The captaines ouer fiftie were sent to Elijah, whereof two were burnt with fire from heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahaziah dieth, and Iehoram his brother succedeth him.

Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab:

a And a Ahaziah fell thorow the lattesse window in his vpper chamber which was in Samaria: so he was sicke: then he sent messengers, to whom he said, Goe, and enquire of b Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, if I shall recouer of this my disease.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, and goe vp to meete the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say vnto them, c Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that ye goe to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus sayth the Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death. So Elijah departed.

5 And the messengers returned vnto him, to whom he said, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and said vnto vs, Goe, and returne vnto the King which sent you, and say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, d Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death.

7 And he said vnto them, What manner of man was he which came and met you, and told you these words?

8 And they said vnto him, He was an hairy man, and girded with a girdle of leather about his loines. Then said he, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent vnto him a captain euer fiftie with his fiftie men, who went vp vnto him: for behold, he sate on the top of a mountaine, and he said vnto him, O man of God, the King hath commaunded that thou come downe.

10 But Elijah answered, and said to the captain euer the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen & deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Again he sent vnto him another captain euer fiftie, with his fiftie. Who spake and said vnto him, O man of God, thus the King commaundeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Elijah answered, & said vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 Yet againe he sent the third captain euer fiftie with his fiftie. And the third captain euer fiftie went vp, and came, and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fiftie seruants be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire downe from the heauen, and deuoured the two former captains euer fiftie with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Elijah, Goe downe with him, be not afraid of his presence. So he arose, and went downe with him vnto the King.

16 And he said vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Because thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, (was it not because there was no God in Israel to enquire of his word?) therefore thou shalt not come downe off the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death.

17 So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. And Iehoram began to reigne in his stead in the second yeere of Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, because he had no sonne.

18 Concerning the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

8 Elijah diuidenth the waters with his cloake. 11 Hee is taken vp into heauen. 13 Elifha taketh his cloake and diuidenth Iordan. 20 The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Elifha, are rent in pieces with beares.

And when the Lord would take vp Elijah into heauen by a whirlewinde, Elijah went with Elifha from Gilgal.

2 Then Elijah said to Elifha, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el. But Elifha said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

3 And the children of the Prophets that were at Beth-el, came out to Elifha, and sayd vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I know it: hold ye your peace.

4 Again Elijah said vnto him, Elifha, tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Iericho. But he said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came to Iericho.

5 And the children of the Prophets that were at Iericho, came to Elifha, and said vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I know it: hold ye your peace.

6 Moreouer Elijah said vnto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Iordan. But he said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they went both together.

a So that hee was punished for his idolatry after two sorts: for the Moabites, which were wont to pay him tribute, rebelled, and he fell downe at a grate which was vpon his house to giue light beneath.

b The Philistines which dwelt at Ekron, worshipped this idole, which signifieth the god of flies, thinking that he could preserue them from the biting of flies: or els he was so called, because flies were ingendred in great abundance of the blood of the sacrifices that were offered to that idole.

c He sheweth that idolaters haue not the true God, for els they would seeke to none but to him alone.

d Ignorance is the mother of error and idolatry.

e Some thinke that this is meant of his garments, which were rough and made of haire.

f To wit, Carmel.

g He declareth what power Gods word hath in the mouth of his seruants, when they threaten Gods iudgements against the wicked.

h He spake this in mockerie, and therefore prouoked Gods wrath to much more.

i Meaning, that God would shew by this, whether he was a true Prophet or not.

k Which humble my self before God and his seruants.

l That is, spare my life, and let me not die as the other two.

m Thus the Lord giueth boldnesse to him that they feare not the threatenings of sinners, which otherwise of themselves are afraid to doe.

n Go is missallage. Iehoshaphat going to battell against the Syrians, made his sonne Iehoram king in the 17. yeere of his reigne, & in the 18. yeere, which was the 2. yeere of his sonne, Iehoram the sonne of Ahab reigned in Israel; and in the 5. yeere of this Iehoram, Iehoshaphat died, and the Kingdome of Iudah was committed to his sonne.

o Which was the place, where the children of Israel were circumcised after they came out of Iordan, and had bin 40. yeeres in the wilderness, as Iosh. 5. 2. b So called because they are begotten as it were anew by the heavenly doctrine.

c That is, from being any more thine head: for to be as a head, is to be the master, as to be as the feete, is to be a scholler.

d For the Lord had reuelled it vnto him.

e Not onely at Beth-el, but at Iericho and other places where the Prophets, which had schollers, whom they instructed, and brought vp in the true knowledge of God.

f The children of the Prophets that were at Beth-el, came out to Elifha, and sayd vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I know it: hold ye your peace.

g Moreouer Elijah said vnto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Iordan. But he said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they went both together.

h And

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Prophets went and stood on the other side as afore off, and they stood by Iorden.

8 ¶ Then Elijah tooke his cloake, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, and they were diuided hither and thither, and they twaine went ouer on the dry land.

9 Now when they were passed ouer, Elijah said vnto Elisha, Aske what I shall doe for thee before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let thy Spirit be double vpon me.

10 And hee said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: yet if thou see me when I am taken from thee, thou shalt haue it so: and if not, it shall not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and did separate them twaine. * So Elijah went vp by a whirlwind into ^b heauen.

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: and he saw him no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 ¶ He tooke vp also the cloake of Elijah that fell from him, and returned, and stood by the banke of Iorden.

14 After, he tooke the cloake of Elijah, that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? and so hee also, after hee had stricken the waters, so that they were diuided this way and that way, went ouer, even Elisha.

15 And when the children of the Prophets, which were at Iericho, saw him on the other side, they said, The Spirit of Elijah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to meet him, and fell to the ground before him,

16 And said vnto him, Behold now, there be with thy seruants fiftie strong men: let them goe, wee pray thee, and seeke thy ^a master, if so be the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him vp, and cast him vpon some mountaine, or into some valley. But he said, Ye shall not send.

17 Yet they were instant vpon him, till he was ashamed: wherefore he said, Send. So they sent fiftie men, which sought three dayes, but found him not.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for he taried at Iericho) and he sayd vnto them, Did not I say vnto you, Goe not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said vnto Elisha, Behold, wee pray thee: the situation of this city is pleasant, as thou, my lord, seest, but the water is naught, and the ground barren.

20 Then he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast there ^m the salt, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death shall no more come thereof, neither barrennesse to the ground.

22 So the waters were healed vntill this day, according to the word of Elisha which he had spoken.

23 ¶ And hee went vp from thence vnto Beth-el. And as he was going vp the way, little children came out of the city, & mocked him, and said vnto him, Come vp, thou bald head, come vp, thou bald head.

24 And he turned backe, and looked on them, & ⁿ cursed them in the name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the forest, and tare in pieces two and fortie children of them.

25 So he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAP. III.

ⁱ The reignes of Iehoram, 6 He and Iehoshaphat goe to warre against Moab, which rebelled. 13 Elisha reprooueth him, 17 and giueth their hoste water. 24 The Moabites are overcome. 27 Their King sacrificeth his sonne.

Now Iehoram the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the ^a eighteenth yeere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, and reigned twelue yeeres.

2 And he wrought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he tooke away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuthelesse, he cleaued vnto ^b the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ Then ^c Mesha king of Moab had store of sheepe, and rendred vnto the King of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rammes with the wooll.

5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 Therefore king Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel,

7 And went, and sent to Iehoshaphat king of Iudah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou goe with me to battell against Moab? And he answered, I will goe vp: ^d for I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine horses, as thine horses.

8 Then said he, What way shall we goe vp? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.

9 ¶ So went the King of Israel and the King of Iudah, and the ^e King of Edom, and when they had compassed the way seven daies, they had no water for the hoste, nor for the cattell that ^f followed them.

10 Therefore the king of Israel said, Alas, that the Lord hath called these three Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Iehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israels seruants answered, and said, Here is Elisha the sonne of Shaphat, which ^f powred water on the hands of Elijah.

12 Then Iehoshaphat said, ^g The word of the Lord is with him. Therefore the King of Israel, ⁿ Perceiuing their malicious heart against the Lord, and his word, he desireth God to take vengeance of that injury done vnto him.

(To wit of Iordan)

Let thy Spirit be double vpon me, because of the dangerousnesse: or let me haue witte so much as the rest of the Prophets: or thy spirit being diuided into three parts, let me haue two.

The Spirit of Prophecie is giuen to him, as it was to Elijah.

Meaning, Eliah: for they thought his body had been cast in some mountaine.

Or, Eliah the habashan.

Thus God giveth power contrary to nature, to make that water profitable for mans life, which before was hurtfull.

Israel, and Iehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Elifha said vnto the king of Israel, What haue I to doe with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said vnto him, Nay: for the Lord hath called these three kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

14 Then Elifha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stand, if it were not, that I regard the presence of Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah, I would not haue looked toward thee, nor seene thee.

15 But now bring mee a minstrell. And when the minstrell played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.

16 And hee said, Thus sayeth the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the Lord, Yee shall neither see wind nor see raine, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that yee may drinke, both ye and your cattell, and your beasts.

18 But this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he will giue Moab into your hand.

19 And yee shall smite euery strong towne and euery chiefe citie, and shall sell euery faire tree, and shall stop all the fountaines of water, and marre euery good field with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meat offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom: and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harness, and vpward, and stood in their border.

22 And they rose early in the morning, when the sunne arose vpon the water, and the Moabites saw the water ouer against them, as red as blood.

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slaine, and one hath smitten another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoile.

24 And when they came to the hoste of Israel, the Israelites arose vp, and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they pursued them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good fields euery man cast his stone, and filled them, and they stopt all the fountaines of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in Kir-haraseh left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slings, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battell was too sore for him, he tooke with him seuen hundred men that drew the sword, to breake through vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then hee tooke his eldest sonne, that should haue reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering vpon the wall: so that Israel was sore grieved, & they departed from him, and returned to their countrey.

CHAP. IIII.

4 God increaseth the oyle to the poore widow by Elifha. 12 Hee obtaineth for the Shunammite a sonne at Gods hand: 18 She dying, 32 he raiseth him vp againe. 40 He maketh sweete the postage, 42 and multiplyeth the loaves.

And one of the wiues of the sonnes of the Prophets, cryed vnto Elifha, saying, Thy seruant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant did feare the Lord, and the creditor is come to take away my two sonnes to be his bondmen.

2 Then Elifha said vnto her, What shall I doe for thee? tell me, what hast thou at home? And she said, Thine handmaid hath nothing at home, save a pitcher of oyle.

3 And he said, Goe, and borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, emptie vessels, and spare not.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore vpon thee and vpon thy sonnes, and powre out into all those vessels, and set aside those that are full.

5 So she departed from him, and shut the doore vpon her, & vpon her sonnes. And they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she said vnto her sonne, Bring me yet a vessell. And he said vnto her, There is no more vessels, And the oyle ceased.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And hee said, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And on a time Elifha came to Shunem, and there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eate bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thither to eate bread.

9 And she said vnto her husband, Behold, I know now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a little chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bedde, and a table, and a stoole, and a candlestick, that he may turne in thither when hee commeth to vs.

11 ¶ And on a day, he came thither and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, 12 And said to Gehazi his seruant, Call this Shunammite: and when he called her, she stood before him.

13 Then hee said vnto him, Say vnto her now, Behold, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shall wee doe for thee? Is there anything to be spoken for thee to the King, or to the captaine of the hoste? And she answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

14 Againe he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, Indeepe she hath no sonne, and her husband is olde.

15 Then said he, Call her. And hee called her, and she stood in the doore.

h He knew that this wicked king would haue but vied his counsell to serue his turn, and therefore hee disdained to answer him.

i The wicked esteeme not the seruants of God, but when they are driven by very necessitie and feare of the present danger.

k God suffereth his word to be declared to the wicked, because of the godly that are among them. l He sang songs to Gods glory, and so stirred vp the Prophets heart to prophesie.

m He will not onely miraculously giue you waters, but your enemies also into your hand.

n Though God bestow his benefites for a time vpon his enemies, yet he hath his seasons, when he will take them away, to the intent they might see his vengeance, which is prepared against them. t Ebr. to gird himselfe with a girdle.

o The sudden ioy of the wicked is but a preparation to their destruction, which is at hand.

p Meaning, they followed them into the townes. q Which was one of the principal cities of the Moabites, wherein they left nothing but the walles.

r Some referre it to the king of Edoms sonne, whom they say he had taken in that skirmish: but rather it seemed to be his owne sonne, whom he offered to his gods to pacifie them, which barbarous crueltie moued the Israelites hearts of pietie to depart.

b And therefore fell not into debt by vnchastitie, or prodigallie, but by the hand of the Lord.

c Because I am poore and not able to pay.

d Thus God suffereth his many times to be brought to extreme necessitie, before he succour them, that afterward they may the more praise his mercy.

e The Prophet declared hereby vnto her, that God neuer failed to provide for his seruants, their wives and children, if they trust in him.

f To augment and increase in the vessels.

g God here did not onely provide for his seruants, that his debts should be payed, and so keepe his doctrine & profession without slander, but also for his wife and children.

h Which should be separate from the rest of the house, that he might more commodiously giue himselfe to study & prayer.

i Thus the seruants of God are not vnthankfull for the benefites they receive.

k I am content with that that God hath sent me, & can want nothing that one can doe for another.

l Which then was a reproch, and therefore he would that his matter should pray to God for her, that she might be fruitful.

*Gm 18.10.

16 And hee said, *At this time appointed according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Oh my lord, thou man of God, doe not lie vnto thy handmaid.

17 So the woman conceived, and bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elisha had said vnto her.

18 ¶ And when the childe was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers.

19 And hee said vnto his father, *Mine head, mine head. Who said to his seruant, Beare him to his mother.

20 And hee tooke him, and brought him to his mother, and he sat on her knees till noone, and died.

21 Then shee went vp, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore vpon him, and went out.

22 ¶ Then she called to her husband, and said, Send with me, I pray thee one of the yong men and one of the asses: for I will haste to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? For at such times the people were wont to resort to the Prophets for doctrine and consolation. It is neither a new moone nor Sabbath day. And she answered, † All shall be well.

24 Then shee saddled an asse, and said to her seruant, Drive, and goe forward: stay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.

25 ¶ So she went, & came vnto the man of God to moult Carmel. And when the man of God saw her, ouer against him, he said to Gehazi his seruant, Behold the Shunammite.

26 Runne now, I say, to meete her, and say vnto her, Art thou in health? is thine husband in health? and is the childe in health? And she answered, We are in health.

27 And when she came to the man of God vnto the mountaine, shee caught him by his feet: & Gehazi went to her to thrust her away: but the man of God said, Lether alone: for her soule is † vexed within her, and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told it me.

28 Then shee said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? did I not say, Deceiue me not?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird thy loines, and take my staffe in thine hand, and goe thy way: if thou meet any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staffe vpon the face of the childe.

30 And the mother of the childe said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. Therefore he arose, & followed her:

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, and had laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and tolde him, saying, The childe is not waken.

32 ¶ Then came Elisha into the house, and behold, the childe was dead, and laid vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the doore vpon them twaine, and prayed vnto the Lord.

34 After hee went vp, and lay vpon the childe, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his handes, and stretched himselfe vpon him, and the flesh of the childe waxed warme.

35 And hee went from him, and walked vp and downe in the house, and went vp, & spread himselfe vpon him: then the childe neede^d seuen times, and opened his eyes.

36 Then he called Gehazi, & said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in vnto him. And he said vnto her, Take thy son.

37 And she came, and fell at his feet, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and tooke vp her sonne, and went out.

38 Afterward Elisha returned to Gilgal, and a famine was in the land, and the children of the Prophets dwelt with him. And he said vnto his seruant, Set on the great pot, & see the pottage for the children of the Prophets.

39 And one went out into the field, to gather herbes, and found as it were a wilde vine, and gathered thereof wilde gourds his garment full, and came, and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and when they did eat of the pottage, they cryed out, and said, O thou man of God, death is in the pot: and they could not eate thereof.

41 Then he said, Bring meale. And he cast it into the pot, and said, Powre out for the people, that they may eate: and there was none euill in the pot.

42 ¶ Then came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first frutes, even twentie loaves of barley, and full eares of corne in the huske. And he said, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his seruant answered, How should I set this before an hundred men? He said againe, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eate, and there shall remaine.

44 So hee set it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the word of the Lord.

CHAP. V.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Elisha refuseteth his gifts. 27 Gehazi is stricken with leprosie, because hee tooke money and raiment of Naaman.

NOW was there one Naaman captaine of the hoste of the king of Aram, a great man, and honourable in the sight of his lord, because that by him the Lord had deliuered the Aramites. Hee also was a mightie man and valiant, but a leper.

2 And the Aramites had gone out by bands, and had taken a little maid of the land of Israel, and she serued Naamans wife.

3 And she said vnto her mistresse, Would God my lord were with the Prophet that is in Samaria, hee would soone deliuer him of his leprosie.

9 The like did Eliah to the widowes sonne at Sarepta, 1. King. 17. 21 and S. Paul, Act. 20. 10 signifying the care that ought to be in them that beare the word of God and are distributors of the spiritual life. r Meaning, oftentimes.

f That is in the land of Israel.

t Which the Apothecaries call Coloquintida, and is most vehement and dangerous in purging. u They feared that they were poisoned, because of the bitterness.

x It is not the quantity of bread that satisfieth, but the blessing that God giueth.

a Here appeareth that among the infidels God hath his, and also that the infidels haue them in estimation, which doe good to their country. † Elisha was before. b Meaning, Elisha.

Naamans leprosie healed. II. Kings. Gehazis couetousnesse.

^c That is, Naaman told it to the king of Syria.

4 And ^c he went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus saith the mayde that is of the land of Israel.

^d To giue this as a present to the Prophet. ^e Eer, in his hand.

5 And the king of Aram said, Go thy way thither, and I will send a letter vnto the king of Israel. And he departed, and ^d tooke ^e with him tenne talents of siluer, and sixe thousand pieces of gold, and ten change of raiments,

6 And brought the letter to the king of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosie.

7 And when the king of Israel had read the letter, hee rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to giue life, that he doeth send to mee, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarell against me.

^g The Prophet rebuketh the king, because he did not consider that God was true in his promise, and therefore would not leave his Church destitute of a Prophet, whose prayers he would heare, and to whom other should haue recourse for comfort.

8 But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to mee, and hee shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.

9 ¶ Then Naaman came with his horses, and with his charrets, and stood at the doore of the house of Elisha.

^f Many reason murmureth, when it considereth onely the signes and outward things, and hath not regard to the word of God, which is there contained.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Goe and wash thee in Iorden seuen times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was ^f wroth and went away, and said, Behold, I thought with my selfe, He will surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God, and put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abanah and Pharpar, riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash me in them, and be cleansed? so he turned, and departed in displeasure.

^g This declareth that seruants ought to reuerence and loue their masters as children their fathers, and likewise masters toward their seruants, must be affectioned as toward their children.

13 But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, and said, ^g Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, wouldest thou not haue done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash and be cleane?

14 Then went hee downe, and ^h washed himselfe seuen times in Iorden, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a little child, and he was cleane.

^h Luke 4. 27.

15 ¶ And hee turned againe to the man of God, hee, and all his company, and came and stood before him, and said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the world but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a ⁱ reward of thy seruant.

ⁱ Eer, blessing.

16 But he said, As the Lord liueth (before whom I stand) I will not receiue it. And hee would haue constrained him to receiue it, ^h but he refused.

^h So the Lord commandeth that they that receiue freely should giue also freely.

17 Moreouer Naaman said, Shall there not be giuen to thy seruant two mules load of this earth? for thy seruant will hencefoorth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering vnto any other god, saue vnto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord be ⁱ mercifull vnto thy seruant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hand, and I bow my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bow downe, I ^j say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be mercifull vnto thy seruant in this point.

19 Vnto whom he said, ^k Goe in peace. So he departed from him about halfe a dayes journey of ground.

20 And Gehazi the seruant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared this Aramite Naaman, receiuing not those things at his hand that he brought: as the Lord liueth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed speedily after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, ^l hee light downe from the charet to meete him, and said, Is all well?

22 And he answered, All is well: my master hath sent me, saying, Behold, there be come to me, euen now from mount Ephraim, two yong men of the children of the Prophets: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of siluer, and two change of garments.

23 And Naaman sayd, Yea, take two talents: and hee compelled him, and bound two talents of siluer in two bags, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his seruants, that they might beare them before him.

24 And when hee came to the ^m towre, hee tooke them out of their hands, and laid them in the house, and sent away the men: and ⁿ they departed.

25 ¶ Then he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha sayd vnto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And hee said, Thy seruant went no whither.

26 But he said vnto him, ^o Went not mine heart with thee when the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, ^p and oliues, and vineyards, and sheepe, and oxen, and men seruants, and maid seruants?

27 The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleaue vnto thee, and ^q p to thy seede for euer. And hee went out from his presence a leper white as snow.

CHAP. VI.

6 Elisha maketh yron to swimme aboue the water. 8 Hee discloseth the King of Syrias counsell to the King of Israel, 13 Who sending certaine to take him, were kept fast in Samaria. 24 Samaria is besieged, and endureth extreme famine.

And the children of the Prophets sayde vnto Elisha, Behold, wee pray thee, the place where wee dwell with thee, is too little for vs.

ⁱ Hee feelth his conscience wounded in being present at idoles seruice, and therefore desireth God to forgive him, least others by his example might fall to idollatry: for as for his owne parte hee will neuer serue any but the true God.

^j Declaring thereby what honour and affec- tion he bare to the Prophet his master.

^k Or, secretly in secret place.

^l In Naamans seruants.

^m Was not I present with thee in Spirit? ⁿ That is, money to buy possi- ons with: mean- ing, that it is detestable in the seruants of God to haue covetous mindes. ^p To be an ex- ample to all such, as by whose couetousnesse Gods word might be slandered.

^a Or a piece of wood fit to build with.

2 Let vs now goe to Iorden, that we may take thence every man, a^a beame, and make vs a place to dwell in: And he answered, Goe.

3 And one said, Vouchsafe, I pray thee, to goe with thy seruants. And he answered, I will goe.

4 So hee went with them, and when they came to Iorden, they cut downe wood.

^b Or, the axe head.

5 And as one was felling of a tree, the iron fell into the water: then he cried, and said, Alas master, it was but borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And hee shewed him the place. Then hee cut downe a piece of wood, and cast in thither, and he caused the yron to^b swimme.

7 Then he said, Take it vp to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and tooke it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Aram warred against Israel, and tooke counsell with his seruants, and said, In^c such and such a place, shall bee my campe.

9 Therefore the man of God sent vnto the king of Israel, saying, Beware thou go not ouer to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

10 So the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him, and warned him of, and^d saued himselfe from thence, not once nor twise.

11 And the heart of the king of Aram was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his seruants and said vnto them, Will ye not shew mee, which of vs bewrayeth our counsell to the king of Israel?

12 Then one of his seruants said, None, my lord, O king, but Elisha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, euens the words that thou speakest in thy^e priuie chamber.

13 And he said, Goe, and espie where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And one told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 ¶ So he sent thither horses, and charets, and a^f mighty hoste: and they came by night, and compassed the city.

15 And when the seruant of the man of God arose early to goe out, behold, an hoste compassed the citie with horses and charets. Then his seruant said vnto him, Alas master, how shall we doe?

16 And hee answered, g Feare not: * for they that be with vs, are moe then they that be with them.

17 Then Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I beseech thee, open his eyes, ^h that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the seruant, and he looked, and behold, the mountaine was full of horses and charets of fire round about Elisha.

18 So they came downe to him, but Elisha prayed vnto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And hee smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will leade you to the man whome yee seeke. But heⁱ led them to Samaria.

20 And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw, and behold, they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said vnto Elisha when hee saw them, My father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: dost thou not smite them that thou hast taken with thy sword, and with thy bowe? but set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drinke and goe to their master.

23 And hee made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away: and they went to their master. So the bands of Aram came^m no more into the land of Israel.

24 But afterward Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his host, and went vp and besieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they besieged it vntill an asses head was at fourescore pieces of siluer, and the fourth part of a kab of douesⁿ doun at five pieces of siluer.

26 And as the king of Israel was going vp on the wall, there cried a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, Seeing the Lord doeth not succour thee, how should I helpe thee with the^o barne, or with the wine presse?

28 Also the king said vnto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said vnto mee, Giue thy sonne, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my sonne to morrow.

29 * So we sod my sonne, and did eat him: and I said to her the day after, Giue thy sonne, that wee may eate him, but she hath hid her sonne.

30 And when the king had heard the words of the woman, he rent his clothes, (and as hee went vpon the wall, the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth^p within vpon his flesh.)

31 And he said, God doe so to me, and inore also, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 (Now Elisha fate in his house, and the Elders fate with him.) And the King sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him, hee said to the Elders, See yee not how this^q murderers sonne hath sent to take away mine head? take heede when the messenger commeth, and shut the doore and handle him roughly at the doore: is not the sound of his masters feet behind him?

33 While he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came downe vnto him, and said, Behold, this euil commeth of the Lord: should I attend on the Lord any longer?

k Thus hee did being led by the Spirit of God, and not because he sought his owne reuengance, but onely to set forth the glory of God.

l The wicked vie reuerent and graue words towards the seruants of God, when they think to haue any commodity by them, though in their heart they cannot abide them. m For this gentle intreatie and the miracle wrought by the Prophet, did more preuaile for common quietnesse, then if they had bene overcome in battell: for they returned no more at that time to fight against Israel, or in that kings dayes. n The Ebrewes write, that they burned it in the siege for lacke of wood.

o Meaning any kind of vitaille, as corne and wine, &c.

p Or, under his clothes.

q Thus hypocrites, when they see Gods iudgements, thinke to please him with outward ceremonies, whom in prosperitie they will not know.

r Meaning, Jeroram Ahab's sonne, who killed the Prophets, and caused Naboth to bee stoned.

s So the wicked fall into a rage, and desperation; if they find not suddaine remedie against their afflictions.

CHAP. VII.

1 Elisha prophesieth plenty of vitaille and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians run away, and haue no man following them. 17 The prince that would not beleue the word of Elisha, is troden to death.

Then Elisha said, Heare yee the word of the Lord: thus saith the Lord, ^aTo morrow this time a measure of fine floure shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

^b Then a prince, on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord would make windows in the heauen, could this thing come to passe? And hee said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not ^ceat thereof.

^d Now there were foure leprous men at the ^eentring in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here vntill we die?

^f If we say, We will enter into the citie, the famine is in the citie, and we shall die there: and if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if they saue our liues, we shall liue: and if they kill vs, we are but dead.

^g So they rose vp in the twilight to goe to the campe of the Aramites: and when they were come to the vtmost part of the campe of the Aramites, loe, there was no man there.

^h For the Lord had caused the campe of the Aramites to heare a noise of charets and a noise of horses, and a noise of a great armie, so that they said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel hath hired against vs the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

ⁱ Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents and their horses, and their asses, ^jeuē the campe as it was, and fled for their liues.

^k And when these lepers came to the vtmost part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eat and drinke, and caried thence siluer and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: after, they returned, and entred into another tent, and caried thence also, and went and hid it.

^l Then said one to another, We doe not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and wee hold our peace: if we tary till day light, some mischief will come vpon vs. Now therefore, come, let vs goe, and tell the Kings household.

^m So they came and called vnto the porters of the citie, and told them, saying, Wee came to the campe of the Aramites, and loe, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied and asses tied: and the tents are as they were.

ⁿ And the porters cried and declared to the kings house within.

^o Then the king arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, I will shew you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They know that we are affamished, therefore they are gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, wee shall catch them aliue, and get into the city.

^p And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let men take now five of the horses that remaine, and are left in the citie, (behold, they are euē as all the multitude of Israel that are left therein: behold, I say, they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we will send to see.

^q So they tooke two charets of horses, and the king sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Goe and see.

^r And they went after them vnto Iorden, and loe, all the way was full of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

^s Then the people went out and spoyled the campe of the Aramites: so a measure of fine floure was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel ^taccording to the word of the Lord.

^u And the king gaue the prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, and the people ^vtrode vpon him in the gate, and hee died, as the man of God had said, which spake it, when the king came downe to him.

^w And it came to passe as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barlie at a shekel, and a measure of fine floure shall be at a shekel, to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria.

^x But the prince had answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord would make windows in the heauen, could it come so to passe? And hee said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

^y And so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Elisha prophesieth vnto the Shunammite the dearth of seven yeeres. 12 He prophesieth to Hazael that he shall be king of Syria. 15 Hee reigneth after Ben-badad. 16 Jehoram reigneth ouer Iudah. 20 Edom falleth from Iudah. 25 Ahaziah succedeth Jehoram.

Then spake Elisha vnto the woman, ^zwhose sonne he had restored to life, saying, Vp, and goe, thou and thine house, and sojourn where thou ^{aa}canst sojourn: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it commeth also vpon the land seven yeeres.

^{ab} And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went both she and her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistims seven yeeres.

^{ac} And at the seven yeeres end, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistims, and went out ^{ad}to call vpon the king for her house and for her land.

^{ae} And the king talked with Gehazi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell mee I pray thee, all the great actes that Elisha hath done, ⁱ There are no more left but they, or the rest are consumed with the famine as the rest of the people.

ⁱⁱ Or, two horfes of the charet, which were accustomed to draw in the charet.

^k Which he spake by the mouth of Elisha, Verse 1.

^l As the people pressed out of the gate to run to the Syrians tents where they had heard was meat, and great spoyle laid.

^a Where thou canst find a commodious place to dwell, where as is plentie.

^b That is, to complaine on them which had taken her possessions, whilst she was absent.

^a The godly are assured of Gods helpe in their necessities, but the times and houres are onely reuealed by Gods Spirit.
^b To whom the king gaue the charge & oversight of things, as verse 17.
^c He mocketh at the Prophets words, saying, that if God rained downe come from heauen, yet this could not come to passe.
^d Thy infidelitie shall be punished herein, when thou shalt see this miracle and yet not be partaker thereof.
^e For it was commanded in the Law that they should dwell apart, and not among their brethren, Leuit. 13. 46.

^f Thus God needeth no great preparation to destroy the wicked, though they be neuer so many: for he can scatter them with a small noyse or shaking of a leaf.

^g The wicked need no greater enemy then their owne conscience to pursue them.

^h Or, we shall be punished for our fault.

^h Hemistrusted the Prophets words, and therefore could beleue nothing, as they which are more polite then godly, euer cast more perills then needeth.

5 And as hee told the king, how hee had reſtored one dead to life, behold, the woman, whoſe ſonne hee had raiſed to life, called vpon the king for her houſe, and for her land. Then Gehazi ſaid, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her ſonne, whom Eliſha reſtored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, ſhee told him ſo the king appointed her an Eunuch, ſaying, Reſtore thou all that are hers, and all the fruits of her lands ſince the day ſhe left the land, even vntill this time.

7 Then Eliſha came to Damſcus, and Ben-hadad the king of Aram was ſicke, and one told him, ſaying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king ſaid vnto Hazeal, Take a preſent in thine hand, and go meete the man of God, that thou mayeſt inquire of the Lord by him, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe?

9 So Hazeal went to meete him, and tooke the preſent in his hand, and offered a good thing of Damſcus, euen the burden of fortie Camels, and came and ſtood before him, and ſaid, Thy ſonne Ben-hadad king of Aram hath ſent me to thee, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe?

10 And Eliſha ſaid to him, Goe, and ſay vnto him, Thou ſhalt recover: howbeit the Lord hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely die.

11 And hee looked vpon him ſtedfaſtly, till Hazeal was aſhamed; ſo the man of God wept.

12 And Hazeal ſaid, Why weepeth my lord? And hee answered, Becauſe I know the euill that thou ſhalt doe vnto the children of Iſrael: for their ſtrong Cities ſhalt thou ſet on fire, and their yong men ſhalt thou ſlay with the ſword, and ſhalt daſh their infants againſt the ſtones, and rent in pieces their women with child.

13 Then Hazeal ſaid, What? is thy ſeruant ſo a dog, that I ſhould doe this great thing? And Eliſha answered, The Lord hath ſhewed mee, that thou ſhalt be king of Aram.

14 So he departed from Eliſha, and came to his maſter, who ſaid to him, What ſaid Eliſha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou ſhouldeſt recover.

15 And on the morow hee tooke a thicke cloth and dip it in water, and ſpread it on his face, and he died: and Hazeal reigned in his ſtead.

16 ¶ Now in the ſift yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ahab king of Iſrael, and of Iehoſaphat king of Iudah, Iehoram the ſonne of Iehoſaphat king of Iudah began to reigne.

17 He was two and thirtie yeere old when he began to reigne: and he reigned eight yeere in Ieruſalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kings of Iſrael, as did the houſe of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did euill in the fight of the Lord.

20 ¶ In thoſe dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a King ouer themſelues.

21 Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his charerth with him, and hee aroſe by night, and ſmote the Edomites which were about him, with the captains of the charerth, and the people fled into their tents.

22 So Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day, then Libnah rebelled at that ſame time.

23 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Ioram and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah.

24 And Ioram ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And Ahaziah his ſonne reigned in his ſtead.

25 ¶ In the twelfth yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ahab king of Iſrael did Ahaziah the ſonne of Iehoram king of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 ¶ Two and twentie yeere old was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, and hee reigned one yeere in Ieruſalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Iſrael.

27 And he walked in the way of the houſe of Ahab, and did euill in the fight of the Lord, like the houſe of Ahab: for he was the ſonne in law of the houſe of Ahab.

28 And hee went with Ioram the ſonne of Ahab to waite againſt Hazeal king of Aram in Ramoth Gilcad, and the Aramites ſmote Ioram.

29 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Izreel of the wounds which the Aramites had giuen him at Ramah, when hee fought againſt Hazeal king of Aram. And Ahaziah the ſonne of Ioram king of Iudah went downe to ſee Ioram the ſonne of Ahab in Izreel, becauſe he was ſicke.

Iehu king Ioram. II. Kings. and Iezabel flaine.

4 So the seruants of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the armie were sitting. And he said, I haue a message to thee, O captaines. And Iehu said, Vnto which of all vs? And he answered, To thee, O captaine.

6 And he arose, and went into the house, and hee powred the oyle on his head; and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue anointed thee king ouer Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophets, and the blood of all the seruants of the Lord, of the hand of Iezabel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall be destroyed: and I wil cut off from Ahab, him that maketh water againe at the wall, as well him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel.

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, & like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahijah.

10 And the dogges shall eate Iezabel in the field of Izreel, and there shall be none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lord. And one said vnto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said vnto them, Ye know the man, and what his talke was.

12 And they said, It is false, tell vs it now. Then he said, Thus and thus spake he to mee, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for king ouer Israel.

13 Then they made haste, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the toppes of the staires, and blew the trumpet, saying, Iehu is King.

14 So Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat the sonne of Nimshi conspired against Ioram: (Now Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, hee and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram.

15 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Izreel of the wounds, which the Aramites had giuen him, when hee fought with Hazael king of Aram) and Iehu said, If it bee your mindes, let no man depart and escape out of the Citie, to goe and tell in Izreel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charer, and went to Izreel: for Ioram lay there, and Ahaziah king of Iudah was come downe to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stood in the towre in Izreel spied the company of Iehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Iehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meete them, that he may say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horsebacke to meete him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Iehu said, What hast thou to doe with peace? Turne behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then he sent out another on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came to them, but commeth not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Iehu the son of Nimshi for he marcheth furiously.

21 ¶ Then Iehoram said, Make ready: and his charer was made ready. And Iehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Iudah went out either of them in his charer against Iehu, and met him in the field of Naboth the Izreelite.

22 And when Iehoram sawe Iehu, hee said, Is it peace, Iehu? And hee answered, What peace, whiles the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, and her witchcrafts are yet in great number?

23 Then Iehoram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treason.

24 But Iehu tooke a bowe in his hand, and smote Iehoram betwene the shoulders, that the arrow went through his heart: and hee fell downe in his charer.

25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take, and cast him in some place of the field of Naboth the Izreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord layde this burden vpon him, 26 Surely I haue scene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, said the Lord, and I will render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take and cast him in the field according to the word of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Iudah saw this, he fled by the way of the garde houle. And Iehu pursued after him, and said, Smite him also in the charer: and they smote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And hee fled to Megiddo, and there died.

28 And his seruants caried him in a charer to Ierusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of David.

29 ¶ And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne ouer Iudah.

30 And when Iehu was come to Izreel, Iezabel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, she said, Had I Zimri peace, which slew his master?

32 And hee lift vp his eyes to the window, and said, Who is on my side, who? Then two or three of her Eunuches looked vnto him.

33 And he said, Cast her downe: and they cast her downe, and he sprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses, and hee trode her vnder foote.

34 And when hee was come in, hee did eat and drinke, and said, Visite now yonder cursed

CHAP. X.

6 Iehu causth the fiftieth sonner of Ahab to be flaine, 14 And after that, fourtie and two of Ahab his brethren, 25 He killeth also all the Priests of Baal. 33 After his death his sonne reigneth in his stead.

A Hah had now seuentie sonnes in Samaria. And Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Izreel, and to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs children, to this effect,

2 Now when this letter commeth to you, (for ye haue with you your masters sonnes, ye haue with you both charrets and horses, and a defenced citie, and armour)

3 Consider therefore which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your matters house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings could not stand before him, how shall we then stand?

5 And hee that was gouernour of Ahabs house, and he that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the children sent to Iehu, saying, Wee are thy seruants, and will doe all that thou shalt bid vs: we will make no King: doe what seemeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to mee to Izreel by to morow this time. (Now the kings sonnes, euen seuentie persons were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the Kings sonnes, and slew the seuentie persons, and laide their heads in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreel.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger and told him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he said, Let them lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntill the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and stood and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

10 Know now that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab:

for the Lord hath brought to passe the things that he spake by his seruant * Elijah.

11 So Iehu slewe all that remained of the house of Ahab in Izreel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars, and his priests, so that he let none of his remaine.

12 ¶ And he arose, and departed and came to Samaria. And as Iehu was in the way by an house where the shepheards did there, 13 Hee met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Iudah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and goe downe to salute the children of the King and the children of the Queene.

14 And he said, Take them aliuie. And they tooke them aliuie and slew them at the well beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, and hee left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he met with Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab comming to meete him, and he blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart vp right, as mine heart is toward thine? And Iehonadab answered, Yea, doubtlesse. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had giuen him his hand, he tooke him vp to him into the charret.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see the zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his charret.

17 And when he came to Samaria, hee slew all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake to Elijah.

18 Then Iehu assembled all the people, and said vnto them, Ahab serued Baal a little, but Iehu shall serue him much more.

19 Now therefore call vnto me all the prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal: whosoever is lacking, he shall not liue. But Iehu did it by a subtiltie to destroy the seruants of Baal.

20 And Iehu said, ¶ Proclaime a solemne assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 So Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from end to end.

22 And hee said vnto him that had the charge of the vestrie, Bring forth vestments for all the seruants of Baal. And he brought them out vestments.

23 And when Iehu went, and Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, hee said vnto the seruants of Baal, Search diligently, and looke, lest there be here with you any of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to make sacrifice and burnt offering, Iehu appointed fourescore men without, and said, If any of the men

6 ¶ Yet in the three and twentieth yeere of King Iehoaſh the prieſts had not mended that which was decayed in the Temple.

8 So the Priestes consented to receiue no more money of the people, neither to reaire the decayed places of the Temple.

15 Then Elisha said vnto him, Take a bowe and arrowes. And he tooke vnto him bow and arrowes.

16 And he said to the King of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bow. And he put his hand vpon it. And Elisha put his hands vpon the kings hands, 17 And sayd, Open the window Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, Behold the arrow of the Lords deliuerance and the arrow of deliuerance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, til thou hast consumed them.

24 So Hazael the King of Aram died: and Ben-hadad his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 Therefore Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz returned, and tooke out of the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael the cities which hee had taken away by warre out of the hand of Iehoahaz his father, for three times did Ioash beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel.

THe seuenteenth yere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, Ahaz the sonne of Iotham king of Iudab began to reigne.

3 But walked in the way of the Kings of Israel, yea, and made his sonne to goe thorow the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 Also he offered and burnt incense in the high places and on the hilles, and vnder euery greene tree.

5 * Then Rezin king of Aram, and Pekah sonne of Remaliah king of Israel came vp to Ierusalem, to fight: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not ouercome him.

6 At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored Elath to Aram, and droue the Iewes from Elath: so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there vnto this day.

7 Then Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur, saying, I am thy seruant and thy sonne: come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the King of Aram, and out of the hand of the king of Israel which rise vp against mee.

8 And Ahaz tooke the siluer and the gold that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house, and sent a present vnto the King of Asshur.

9 And the King of Asshur consented vnto him: and the King of Asshur went vp against Damascus, and when hee had taken it, hee carried the people away to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went vnto Damascus to meete Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur: & when king Ahaz saw the altar that was at Damascus, hee sent to Vriah the Priest the paterne of the Altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Vriah the Priest made an altar in al points like to that which king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Vriah the Priest against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering, and his meat offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings besides the Altar,

14 And set it by the brassen altar which was before the Lord, and brought it in farther before the house between the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it on the North side of the Altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Vriah the Priest, and said, Vpon the great altar set on fire in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euen the meat offering, and the kings burnt offering and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offering, and their drinke offerings: and powre therby al the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the brassen Altar shall be for me to enquire of God.

16 And Vriah the Priest did according to all that king Ahaz had commanded.

17 And king Ahaz brake the borders of the bases, and tooke the caldrons from off them, and tooke downe the sea from the brassen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pavement of stones.

18 And the vaile for the Sabbath (that they had made in the house) and the Kings entry without turned hee to the house of the Lord, because of the king of Asshur.

10 And there burnt incense in all the hie places, as did the heathen whom the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord, 11 And serued doles: whereof the Lord had said vnto them, * Ye shal do no such thing.

12 Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israel, and to Iudah, by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, * Turne from your euil wayes, and keepe in y commandements and my statutes, according to all the Law, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophets.

13 Neuerthelesse they would not obey, * but hardened their neckes, like to the necks of their fathers, that did not beleue in the Lord their God,

14 And they refused his statutes and his couenant, that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies (wherewith he witnessed vnto them) and they followed vanitie and became vaine, & followed the heathen that were round about them: concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not doe like them.

15 Finally they left all the commandements of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, * ^{even two calves,} and made a groue, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen, and serued Baal.

16 And they made their sonnes and their daughters ^{to passe} through the fire, & vsed witchcraft & inchantments, yea, ^{fold} themselves to doe euil in the sight of the Lord, to anger him.

17 Therefore the Lorde was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Iudah onely.

18 Yet Iudah kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked according to the facion of Israel, which they vsed.

19 Therefore the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and afflicted them, and deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight.

20 For he cut off Israel from the house of Daud, and they made Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat king: and Ieroboam drewe Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

21 For the children of Israel walked in all the finnes of Ieroboam, which he did, and departed not there from.

22 Vntill the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had said by all his seruants the Prophets, and caried Israel away out of their land to Asshur vnto this day.

23 And the king of Asshur brought folke from Babel, and from Cuthah, and from Auam, and from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in stead of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the Cities thereof.

24 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew them.

25 Wherefore they spake to the king of Asshur, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, & placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, & behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

26 Then the king of Asshur commanded, saying, Cary thither one of the Priests whom yee brought thence, and let him goe and dwell there, and teach them the maner of the God of the countrey.

27 So one of the Priestes, which they had carried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should feare the Lord.

28 Howbeit euery nation made their gods, and put them in the houses of the hie places which the Samaritans had made, euery nation in their cities, wherein they dwelt.

29 For the men of Babel made Succoth-Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Alhima.

30 And the Auims made Nibhaz, and Tartak: and the Sepharuims burnt their children in the fire to Adramelech, and Anammelech the gods of Sepharuaim.

31 Thus they feared the Lord, and appointed out Priestes out of themselves for the hie places, who prepared for them sacrifices in the houses of the hie places.

32 * They feared the Lord, but serued their gods after the maner of the nations whom they carried thence.

33 Vnto this day they do after the old manner: they neither feare God, nor doe after their ordinances, nor after the Law, nor after the commandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iacob, * whom he named Israel,

34 And with whom the Lord had made a couenant, and charged them, saying, * Feare none other gods, nor bow yourselfes to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

35 But feare the Lord which brought you out

CHAP. XVIII.

Hezekiah King of Iudah putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idoles, 7 and prospereth. 11 Israel is caried away captiue: 30 The blasphemie of Saneherib.

Now in the third yeere of Hoshea, sonne of Elah king of Israel, * Hezekiah the sonne of Ahaz king of Iudah began to reigne.

2 He was fise and twenty yeres old when he began to reigne, and reigned nine & twentie yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Abi the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Dauid his father had done.

4 He tooke away the hie places, and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, & brake in pieces the * brasen serpent that Moses had made: for vnto those dayes the children of Israel did burne incense to it, and hee called it Nehustan.

5 Hee trusted in the Lord God of Israel: so that after him was none like him among all the Kings of Iudah, neither were there any such before him.

6 For he claue to the Lord, and departed not from him, but kept his commandements, which the Lord had commanded Moses.

7 So the Lord was with him, and he prospered in all things, which he tooke in hand: also he rebelled against the king of Asshur, and serued him not.

8 He smote the Philistims vnto Azzah, and the coasts thereof, from the watch towre vnto the defended citie.

9 * And in the fourth yere of King Hezekiah, (which was the seuenth yeere of Hoshea sonne of Elah king of Israel) Shalmaneser king of Asshur came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And after three yeeres they tooke it, enen in the sixt yeere of Hezekiah: that is, the ninth yeere of Hoshea king of Israel was Samaria taken.

11 Then the king of Asshur did cary away Israel vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah and in Habor, by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 Because they would not obey the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant, that is, all that Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded, and would neither obey nor doe them.

13 * Moreouer, in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezekiah, Saneherib king of Asshur came vp against all the strong cities of Iudah, and tooke them.

14 Then Hezekiah King of Iudah sent vnto the king of Asshur to Lachish, saying, I haue offended: depart from me, and what thou layest vpon me, I will beare it. And the king of Asshur appointed vnto Hezekiah King of Iudah three hundred talents of siluer, and thirty talents of gold.

15 Therefore Hezekiah gaue all the siluer that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house.

16 At the same season did Hezekiah pul off the plates of the doores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pillars (which the said Hezekiah King of Iudah had couered ouer) and gaue them to the King of Asshur.

17 And the king of Asshur sent Tartan, and Rab-faris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a great host against Ierusalem. And they went vp, and came to Ierusalem, and when they were come vp, they stood by the conduit of the vpper poole, which is by the path of the fullers field,

18 And called to the King. Then came out to them Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, which was steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the Recorder, 19 And Rabshakeh said vnto them, Tell ye Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus sayth the great king, enen the great king of Asshur, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, but counsell and strength are for the warre. On whom then dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Loe, thou trustest now in this broken staffe of reede, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh King of Egypt vnto all that trust on him.

22 But if yee say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God, is not that he whose hie places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Iudah and Ierusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Ierusalem?

23 Now therefore giue hostages to my lord the king of Asshur, and I will giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able to set riders vpon them.

24 For how canst thou despise any captaine of the least of my masters seruants, and put thy trust on Egypt for charets and horsemen?

26 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, and Shebna, & Ioah said vnto Rabshakeh, Speake,
I pray thee, to thy seruants, in the[¶] Aramites language, for wee vnderstand it, and talke not with vs in the Jewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh said vnto them, Hath my master sent mee to thy master and to thee to speake these words, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they might eate their owne dung, and drinke[†] their owne pisse with you?

28 So Rabshakeh stood and cried with a lowd voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the words of the great King, of the king of Asshur.

29 Thus saith the King, Let not Hezekiah deceiue you: for he shall not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand.

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deli-uer vs, and this citie shall not be giuen ouer into the hand of the king of Asshur.

31 Harken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Asshur, Make[†] appointment with me, and come o[†] to me, that euery man may eate of his owne vine, and euery man of his owne figtree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne well.

32 Til I come and bring you to a land like your owne land, ^{euery} a land of wheat and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oliues, oyle, and honie, that ye may liue and not die:
and obey not Hezekiah, for he deceiueth you, saying, The Lord will deliuer vs.

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations deli-uered his land out of the hand of the king of Asshur?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, and of Ar-pad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah? how haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the nations, that haue deliuered their land out of mine hand, that the^m Lord should deliuer Ie-rusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the kings commandement was, saying, Answer ye him not.

37 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah which was the steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asa the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

6 God promiseth by Isaiah victory to Hezekiah. 35 The Angel of the Lord killeth an hundredth and fourescore and foure thousand men of the Assyrians. 37 Saneherib is killed of his owne sonnes.

And * when King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes and put on sackcloth, and came into the house of the Lord,

2 And sent Eliakim which was the steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and the Elders of the Priests clothed in sackcloth^a to Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said vnto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation and of rebuke, and blasphemie: for the children are come to^b the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.

4 If so be the Lord thy God hath heard all the words of Rabshakeh, whome the King of Asshur his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, and to reproch him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard, then lift thou vp thy praier for the^c remnant that are left.

5 ¶ So the seruants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said vnto them, So shall yee wherewith the seruants of the King of Asshur haue blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast^d vpon him, and hee shall heare a noise, and returne to his sword in his owne land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Asshur fighting against Libnah:
for hee had heard that hee was departed from Lachish.

9 * He heard also men say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold he is come out to fight against thee: hee therefore departed and sent other messengers vnto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speake vnto Hezekiah King of Iudah, and say, Let not thy^e God deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the king of Asshur.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Asshur haue done to all lands, how they haue destroyed them: and shalt thou be deliuered?

them which my fathers haue destroyed? ^{as} Go-

14 ¶ So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went vp into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spread it before the^h Lord.

15 And Hezekiahⁱ praied before the Lord,

17 Trueth it is, Lord, that the kings of Asshur haue destroyed the nations & their lands, 18 And haue set fire on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans handes, even wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the *m*kingdomes of the earth may know, that thou, O Lord, art onely God.

20 ¶ Then Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue heard that which thou hast praised me, concerning Saneherib king of Asshur.

21 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken against him, O *v*irgin, daughter of Zion, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee, to scorn: O daughter of Ierusalem, he hath shaken his head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou railled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted vp thine eies on him? even against the holy one of Israel.

23 By thy messengers thou hast railled on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my charrets I am come vp to the top of the mountaines, by the sides of Lebanon, and will cut downe the high Cedars thereof, and the faire firre trees thereof, and will goe into the *p*loding of his borders, and into the forest of his p Carmel.

24 I haue digged, and drunke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feete haue I dried all p the floods closed in.

25 Hast thou not heard how I haue of old time made it, and haue formed it long agoe? and should I now bring it, that it should bee destroyed, and layed on ruinous heapes, as cities defended?

26 Whose inhabitants haue small power, and are afraid, and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field, and greene hebe, or grasse on the house tops, or as come blasted before it be grown.

27 I know thy dwelling, yea, thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy fury against me.

28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put mine *h*ooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lips, and will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

29 And this shall bee a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eat this yere such things as grow of themselves, and the next yeere such as grow without sowing, and the third yeere sowe ye and reape, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take u roote downward, and beare fruit vpward.

31 For out of Ierusalem shall go a remnant, and some that shall escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the king of Asshur, He shal not enter into this citie, nor shoote an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a moult against it.

33 But he shall returne the way he came, & shall not come into this city, saith the Lord.

34 For I will defend this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

35 ¶ And the same night the Angel of the Lord went out and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundredth fourscore and fife thousand: so when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Saneherib king of Asshur departed, and went his way, and returned, and dwelt in Nineuch.

37 And as hee was in the temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sonnes: y slew him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat, and Esarhaddon his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XX.

1 Hezekiah is sicke and receiveth the signe of his health. 12 He receiveth rewards of Berodach, 13 Sheweth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isaiah. 22 He dieth, and Manasseh his sonne reigneth in his stead.

ABout that time* was Hezekiah sicke vnto death: & the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz came to him, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Put thine house in an order: for thou shalt die, and not liue.

2 I then hee turned his face to the *w*all, and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I haue walked before thee in truth & with a *p*erfect heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah *w*eped sore.

4 ¶ And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekiah the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy *p*ayer, and seen the teares, behold I haue healed thee, and the third day thou shalt go vp to the *h*ouse of the Lord.

6 And I will adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yeeres, and will deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the king of Asshur, and will defend this citie for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 Then Isaiah said, Take a *p*lumpe of drie figs. And they tooke it, and laid it on the boile, and he recovered.

8 ¶ For Hezekiah had said vnto Isaiah, What shall be the signe that the Lord will heale me, and that I shall go vp into the house of the Lord the third day?

9 And Isaiah answered, This signe shall thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will doe that he hath spoken, *W*ilt thou that the shadow goe forward ten degrees, or* goe backe tenne degrees?

* Deut. 18. 9.

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to passe forward ten degrees: not so then, but let the shadow goe backe ten degrees.

11 And Haiah the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought againe the shadow ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the diall of Ahaz.

12 ¶ The same season Berodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan king of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for hee had heard how that Hezekiah was sicke.

13 And Hezekiah heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the siluer, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realme, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then Isaiah the Prophet came vnto king Hezekiah, and said vnto him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They be come from a farre countrey, even from Babel.

15 Then said he, What haue they seene in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said vnto Hezekiah, Heare the word of the Lord.

17 Behold, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue layed vp in store vnto this day, shall be caried into Babel: Nothing shall be left, sayth the Lord.

18 And of thy sonnes, that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beger, shall they take away, and they shall be eunuches in the palace of the king of Babel.

19 Then Hezekiah said vnto Isaiah, The word of the Lord which thou hast spoken, is good: for, said he, Shall it not be good, if my peace and trueth be in my dayes?

20 Concerning the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his valiant deedes, and how hee made a poole, and a conduit, and brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXI.

3 King Manasseh restreth idolatry, 16 and vseth great cruelty. 18 Hee dieth, and Amon his sonne succeedeth, 23 Who is killed of his owne seruants. 26 After him reigneth Iosiah.

Manasseh* was twelue yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and reigned fifty and fiue yeres in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephzi-bah.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord after the abomination of the heathen, who the Lord had cast out before the childre of Israel.

3 For he went backe and built the hie places,* which Hezekiah his father had destroyed: and hee erected vp altars for Baal, and made a groue, as did Ahab King of Israel, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen and serued them.

4 Also he* built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord said,* In Ierusalem will I put my Name.

5 And hee built altars for all the hoste of the heauen in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And he caused his sonnes* to passe thow the fire, and gaue himselfe to witchcraft and forcerie, and he vsed them that had familiar spirits and were soothsayers, and did much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him.

7 And he set the image of the groue, that he had made, in the house, whereof the Lord had said to David and to Salomon his sonne,* In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for euer,

8 Neither will I make the feete of Israel mooue any more out of the land, which I gaue their fathers: so that they will observe and doe all that I haue commanded them, and according to all the Law that my seruant Moses commanded them.

9 Yet they obeyed not, but Manasseh led them out of the way to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 Therefore the Lord spake by his seruants the Prophets, saying,

11 *Because that Manasseh King of Iudah hath done such abominations, & hath wrought more wickedly then all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Iudah sinne also with his idoles, 12 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will bring an euill vpon Ierusalem and Iudah, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch ouer Ierusalem the line of Samaria, & the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Ierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish which he wipeth, and turneth it vpside downe.

14 And I wil forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall be robbed and spoyled of all their aduersaries, 15 Because they haue done euill in my sight, and haue prouoked me to anger, since the time their fathers came out of Egypt vntill this day.

16 Moreouer, Manasseh shed innocent blood exceeding much, till he replenished Ierusalem from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith he made Iudah to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord.

19 ¶ Amon was two and twentie yeere olde, when he began to reigne; and he reigned two yeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Meschulmeth the daughter of Haruz of Iorbah.

20 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasseh did.

21 For he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idoles that his father serued, and worshipped them.

22 And he forsooke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And all the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against King Amon, and the people made Iosiah his sonne King in his stead.

CHAP. XXII.

4 Iosiah repaireth the Temple. 8 Hilkiath findeth the booke of the Lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosiah, 11 Who sendeth it to Huldah the Prophetesse to enquire the Lords will.

Iosiah was * eight yeere olde when he began to reigne, & he reigned one and thirty yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Iedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozath.

2 And he did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the wayes of David his father, & bowed neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ And in the eighteenth yeere of King Iosiah, the king sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah the sonne of Meschullam the chancellor to the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Goe vp to Hilkiath the high Priest, that he may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the ^h doore haue gathered of the people.

5 And let them ^c deliuer it into the hand of them that do the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord: let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to repaire the decayed places of the house:

6 To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters and masons, and to buy timber, and hewed stone to repaire the house.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning be made with them of the money, that is deliuered into their hand: for they deale ^d faithfully.

8 And Hilkiath the hie Priest said vnto Shaphan the chancellor, I haue found the ^e booke of the Law in the house of the Lord: & Hilkiath gaue the booke to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 So Shaphan the chancellor came to the King, and brought him word againe, and said, Thy seruants haue ^f gathered the money, that was found in the house, and haue deliuered it vnto the hands of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

10 Also Shaphan the chancellor shewed the King, saying, Hilkiath the Priest hath deliuered me a booke. And Shaphan read it before the King.

11 And when the King had heard the words of the booke of the Law, he rent his clothes.

12 Therefore the king commanded Hilkiath the Priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaiiah, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asahiah the kings seruant, saying,

13 Go ye and inquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Iudah concerning the words of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Load, that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the words of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 ¶ So Hilkiath the Priest and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shalum the sonne of Tikuah, the sonne of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalem in the ^g colledge) and they communed with her.

15 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I wil bring euill vpon this place, and vpon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the booke which the king of Iudah hath read, 17 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger mee with all the ^h workes of their hands: my wrath also shall bee kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shal ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words that thou hast heard shall come to passe.

19 But because thine heart did ⁱ melt, and thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, so will, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I haue also heard it, saith the Lord.

20 Behold, therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in ^k peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the

CHAP. XXIII.

2 Josiah readeth the Law before the people. 3 He maketh a covenant with the Lord. 4 He putteth down the idols, after he had killed their priests. 21 He keepeth the Passover. 24 He destroyeth the conurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his son Jehoahaz reigned in his stead. 33 After he was taken, his son Jeioahim was made King.

Then* the King^a sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudah and of Ierusalem.

2 And the king went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudah, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people, both smal and great, and he read in their eares all the words of the booke of the covenant, which was found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the King stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, that they should walke after the Lord, & keepe his commandements, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all their heart, & with all their soule, that they might accomplish the words of this covenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the hie Priest and the^d Priests of the second order, and the keepers of the doore, to bring out of the Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the groue, and for all the host of heauen, and he burnt them without Ierusalem in the fields of Kedron, and cari-ed^e the powder of them into Beth-el.

5 And hee put downe the ^f Chemarims, whom the Kings of Iudah had founded to burne incense in the hie places, and in the cities of Iudah, and about Ierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne and to the moone, and to the planets, and to all the hoste of heauen.

6 And hee brought out the sgroue from the temple of the Lord without Ierusalem vnto the valley Kedron, and burnt it in the valley Kedron, and stamp it to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the^h graues of the children of the people.

7 And he brake downe the houses of the Sodomites that were in the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue.

8 Also hee brought all the Priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the hie places where the Priests had burnt incense, even from Geba to Beer-sheba and destroyed the hie places of the gates that were in the entring in of the gate of Ioshua the gouernour of the citie, which was at the left hand of the gate of the citie.

9 Neuertheſſe the prieſts of the hie places came not vp to the altar of the Lord in Ieruſalem, ſaue onely they did eate of the vnlea-

20 He defiled also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should make his sonne or his daughter passe thorow the fire to Molech.

11. He put downe also the horses that the kings of Iudah had giuen to the funne at the entering in of the house of the Lord by the chamber of Nathan-melech the eunuch, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the charrets of the funne with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord did the King break down, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the brooke Kedron.

13 Moreover the King defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem and on the right hand of the mount of corruption (which Salomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the idol of the Sidonians, & for Chemosh the idol of the Moabites, and for Milchom the abomination of the children of Ammon)

14 And I brake the images in pieces, and cut downe the groues, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Furthermore the altar that was at Beth-el, and the hie place made by Ieroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar and also the hie place, brake he down, and burnt the hie place, and stamp it to powder and burnt the groue.

16 And as Iosiah turned himselfe, he spied the graues, that were in the mount, and sent and tooke the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord that the man of God proclaimed, which cried the same words.

17. Then he said, What title is that which I see? And the men of the citie said vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and tolde these things that thou hast done to the altar of Beth-el.

18 Then said hee, Let him alone: let none remoue his bones. So his bones were saued with the bones of the prophet that came from Samaria.

19 Iosiah also tooke away all the houses of the high places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the facts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And hee sacrificed all the Priests of the hie places that were there vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Ierusalem.

21 ¶ Then the king commaunded all the people, saying, * Keepe the passeouer vnto the Lord your God,* as it written in the booke of this covenant.

25. Like unto him was there no king before him that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, neither after him arose there any like him.

26 Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath wherewith hee was angry against Iudah; because of all the prouocations wherewith Manasseh had prouoked him.

30 Then his seruants caried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Ierusalem, and buried him in his owne sepulchre. And the people of the land tooke Iehoahaz the sonne of Iosiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers stead.

35 And Iehoiakim gaue the filuer and the golde to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to giue the money, according to the commandment
